The Chronicle.

☞ To make our collection of "Dog poetry" as nearly complete as possible, we are induced to publish the following from the pen of an unknown author. Although the moral is undoubtedly good, the language and style of composition of it may be somewhat questionable:

THE PUGNACIOUS PURP.

A man he owned a terrier dog,
A bob-tailed, onery cass—
And that there purp got that there man
Into many an ugly mess;
For the man was on his muscle,
And the dorg was on his bite,
So to kick that dog-goned animile
Was sure to raise a fight.

A woman she owned a Thomas cat
That fit at fifteen pound,
And the other cats got up and slid
When that there cat was 'round.
The man and his dorg came along one day
Where the woman she did dwell,
And the purp growled ferociously.
Then went for the cat pell mell.

He tried to chaw the neck of the cat,
But the cat he wouldn't be chawed,
So he lit on the back of that there dorg,
And bit! and chawed! and clawed!
Oh! the hair it flew, and the purp he yowled,
As the claws went into his hide,
And chunks of flesh were peeled from his back,
Then he flummixed and kicked and died.

The man he ripped, and cussed, and swore—
As he gathered a big brick-bat—
That he would be durned essentially
If he did'n kill that there cat;
But the woman yelled she'd be blest if he did,
And snatched up an old shot gun,
Which she fired, and peppered his diaphragm,
With duck shot number one.

They toted him home on a window blind
And the doctors cared him up,
But he never was known to fight again,
Or to own another pup.
Folks may turn up their snoots at this rhyme,
I don't care a darn for that;
All I want to show is that fighting dorgs
May tackle the wrong Tom cat.

DIDN'T CATCH THE TRAIN.—The most difficult thing in the world for a woman to do, (says a cynical old bach,) is to get ready to go anywhere. And there is nothing a woman will resent quicker or more fiercely than an intimation that she may possibly miss the train. Our friend, Brayfogle, gives us an instance of this. Mr. Brayfogle was supposed to take the ten o'clock train on the Bee Line, to visit some relatives in an interior town. Having suffered on previous occasions for injudicious suggestions, Bray thought for once he would let things take their natural course. So he sipped his coffee and ate his eggs on toast, while madame curled and powdered, and danced attendance on the looking-glass, and tied hair on the back of her head.

Then Bray sat by the stove for an hour, reading the morning paper, while the madame still continued to get ready. At last, just as he had reached the final paragraph, madame tied her bonnet-strings under her chin, took one long, lingering, loving look at the image reflected in the glass, and said:

"Well, my dear, I'm ready."

"Ready for what?" asked Bray, in well affected astonishment.

"To go to the depot, to be sure," said Mrs. Brayfogle, tartly.

"Oh!" said Brayfogle, "I'd forgotten. Well, madame," continued he, looking at his watch, "that train has been gone thirteen minutes. Just keep on your things, and you'll be ready for the train to-morrow morning."

We draw a veil over what followed. We are assured, however, that the next morning Mrs. B. was ready an hour ahead of time.

THEATRICAL.—The war between the Boston managers continues. Cheney is determined to get Selwyn out, so as to give the theatre to Fechter, but Selwyn is equally determined to stay in. As the latter has a lease for nine years yet, there seems little possibility of his being put out, even though it be by Cheney, who is the owner of the theatre. Cheney has offered a compromise by trying to get Selwyn to take Fechter, but he won't have him. The next thing will probably be a lawsuit. All theatrical people blame Cheney and applaud Selwyn, who has made his theatre the first in the Hub.

PORTLANDERS are easily amused. They've got a few wee alligators on hand, and the Advertiser says "it is comical to see two get hold of one angle-worm, and each thinking he has got a sure thing, eat, until he meets an opposing nose; then comes the 'tug of war,' and bracing with their tails, they pull until the 'best man wins.'" The Portlanders look on and applaud the winner.

☞ The Dover Bee opposes Senator Cragin's election because "it knows little for or against him." Won't Senator Cragin please come on and be introduced to the Bee? It's nearly 75 days old!

WHAT ARE
DR. J. WALKER'S
CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS.
They are not a vile fancy drink.
Made of poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Restorers," appetizers, &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER AND LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter, and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions and remain long unwell. $100 will be given for an incurable case, providing the bones are not destroyed by mineral poisons or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair. THE OLD RELIABLE
NEW ENGLAND FAMILY MEDICINE.
TO BE FOUND IN EVERY VILLAGE AND TOWN IN NEW ENGLAND, IS
DODD'S NERVINE
AND INVIGORATOR.
A THOROUGH TONIC AND STOMACHIC.
DODD'S NERVINE is not a new medicine, but has been before the public for the last fifteen years. Is compounded from the best and purest drugs. Contains no OPIUM, STRYCHNINE or MERCURY in any form, and is expressly adapted to the relief and permanent cure of all forms of
NERVOUS DISEASES, &c., &c.,
Coughs, Colds, Fevers, Agues, Biliousness, Constipation, Liver Complaint, Diarrhœa, Consumption, Neuralgia, Headache, Convulsions, Palpitation, Sleeplessness, Dyspepsia, &c., Female Weaknesses, Fainting Fits, Restlessness, Dizziness, Children's Troubles &c., &c.,
DODD'S NERVINE
Is a COMPLETE SPECIFIC for sleeplessness. It soothes the throbbing muscle like magic, and tranquilizes the mind. And everybody knows that good sleep is better than all medicines. And all folks know that
CAN'T SLEEP NIGHTS,
Should use this truly wonderful medicine.
DODD'S NERVINE
Is one of the best remedies ever employed in the cure of the numerous and troublesome ailments known as FEMALE COMPLAINTS.
For Whooping Cough.
DODD'S NERVINE is administered with unexampled success. Mothers, remember this and save your little ones the agony of a most distressing complaint. It also works admirably in Measles, bringing out the rash well and leaving the bowels free and healthful. For the diseases which afflict CHILDREN WHEN TEETHING, nothing can furnish more instant or grateful relief. Remember, it contains no OPIUM in any form.
LOOK OUT FOR COLDS.
It is proverbial that people treat a cold (and the generally accompanying cough) as a trifle, and that will cure itself; but neglect is serious and sometimes fatal. The fame of DODD'S NERVINE is the relief of colds it established. Use this standard remedy, and so far abstain from liquids of all kinds as to keep somewhat thirsty for a few days, and the worst cold will soon be gone.
DODD'S NERVINE
Is a PURE TONIC—harmonizes perfectly with the NERVE FIBRE—gives increased tone to the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, and other viscera—and supplies FRESH LIFE for the waste that is constantly taking place. It (compound Dodd's Nervine—is as pleasant to take as any wine, and with SLEEP AND GOOD DIGESTION, which it promotes, insures the efficiency and sound health of body and quietness of mind. It contains no opium, mercury or strychnine, (so often used for nervous complaints,) and is wholly free from any deleterious drugs whatever. Tens of thousands are testifying to its curative power. my17tw

WEDNESDAY, MAY, 25, 1870.

Chat.

Fifty lives were lost by the burning of the War Eagle at La Crosse, Wis., on the 18th inst. The railroad and steamboat managers are concealing the fact that a large number of immigrants were burned in the lower deck, and many were drowned. A newly married couple, bound for St. Paul, were burned in a stateroom.

The proposition to impeach Judges Field and Hoffman, creates much excitement in California. The papers generally discredit the charges.

The officers of the Kansas Pacific Railroad have applied to government for arms for the laborers, who refuse to work unless armed.

The New York board of aldermen consists of twenty natives of Ireland, three Americans of Irish parentage, two Germans, four natives of New York—seven liquor dealers and five politicians.

The Central Pacific Railroad Company, having purchased the California Pacific road, will take possession in June, and will make arrangements for reducing the time of the overland journey several hours.

The citizens of Webster, Mass., propose to celebrate the Fourth of July near the placid waters of Lake Chargoggagaggmanchoggaggogg. This beautiful sheet of water received its title from an Indian chief who choked to death in trying to pronounce his own name.

A favorite Chinese medicine is baked clay dust.

Murderous assaults are now called "insane attacks."

Three Irishmen were killed in Boston on Monday by the falling of a wall.

Athletics 20, Harvards 8.

The members of the Illinois Press Association are to visit Boston next August, in the course of an extended eastern tour.

Strawberries are plenty in Boston.

A fearful conflagration is raging in the timber lands between Calais, Me., and the St. John River. There has been an immense destruction of property.

The new expedition to the Arctic regions is agreed to, so far as the Senate is concerned, by the casting vote of the Vice-President. Mr. Sumner's amendment to the appropriation bill gives $100,000.

The Greek brigands, before their execution, made revelations implicating high government officials in their crime.

The Boston Board of Aldermen has voted $40,000 to Mr. Burrill for bounty claims.

The small-pox has broken out in San Francisco.

The vomito has disappeared from Rio Janeiro.

The Chinese in San Francisco had a riot, Sunday, during which the joss house was destroyed.

A Berlin letter-writer estimates the total available force of the chief continental armies on an actual outbreak of hostilities, as follows:—Austria and Prussia 300,000 each, Italy 200,000, France 370,000, North Germany 546,000, South Germany 107,000, giving a total of 1,823,000.

THE FENIANS are making tracks for Canada, again. The Massachusetts companies left for Vermont on Monday and other thousands are moving forward day and night. Buffalo was full of them Monday night. They are officered by men who have seen service. About one-third of the raiders are boys, but are able-bodied. They are confident of success, and claim that this is but a part of a general movement on the Dominion of Canada within forty-eight hours. They carry no arms or provisions, but assert that they have plenty of both in Canada. Artillery is secreted at points between the line and Montreal. The plan is to strike Canada from four different points. They do not seem to fear any interference from Washington. Mosby is to lead the cavalry force.

A Burlington, Vt., dispatch of Tuesday evening says great excitement prevails throughout the State and Canada. It is reported that Montreal is to be attacked, and that 5000 Fenians are concealed there. It is said the Fenian army has 40,000 men, 20,000 stands of arms on the Vermont frontier and a battery.

Success to them, if they only stay in Canada after they arrive there. But unless they quit quareling among themselves, the Fenians cannot expect to meet with permanent success. They are divided in theory and action and it is suggested that the two wings will yet be useful in flying from the enemy.

A DIVER VISITS THE ONEIDA.—On the 24th day of February, the "borrowed" steamship Aroostook, with Charles and J. S. Lougee, practical and experienced divers from San Francisco, went to where the Oneida lies in 123 feet of water. After the usual preparations had been concluded, and by sounding, it had been ascertained that the deck of the Oneida was 103 feet beneath the surface of the bay; after every caution had been given to eight strong sailors to keep the air-pump constant in motion, and allow not an instant of time of stoppage to occur, as thereby depended the life of the bold diver; after Charlie Lougee had been helmeted and shut from air, except that supplied through the slender tube of coiled rubber, with a life-line round his body and leaden clogs to his feet with "good-bye" and "God bless you" from all aboard, he was dropped over the side, and slowly disappeared in the blue waves, while a nervous tremor shot through our frame as we realized the fearful risk undertaken by that man, who was seeking for truth in over one hundred feet of water.

Away to the leeward, borne by tide and wind, came floating bubbles to the surface—life signals from below. The men at the pump were laboring manfully, but becoming fatigued, attempted to change for fresh hands, and there was a stop. "Great God! you will murder my brother! Quick! for heaven's sake, quick!" And as the men recommenced the revolutions of the air-pump, the elder Lougee, with blanched face and trembling lip, gave a signal on the life-line below. For an instant there came no response, and the face of the brother seemed to turn to marble; but then we saw, too, quick motions from the submarine station, and knew it was the welcome signal of "all right," and then Lougee turned to the men at the wheel, who came so near sending both below, and simply said: "My only brother's life depends upon your keeping that pump in motion—stop again at your peril." The calm face and passionate eye told these men not to stop again, and with Lieutenant Tanner close by, they kept at work until stopped by orders from Lougee.

Meantime, while we were on the deck of that "sand-pan," counting the tedious moments, which lengthened to half an hour, Charley Lougee was searching the Oneida at the tremendous depth mentioned. At last came the signal for "surface," and instantly the life-line was put in motion; slowly came the coiling hemp and rubber on deck, and at last away in the deep blue waves, came in sight the diver, shrouded and panoplied in weird garments. As he came to the surface he reached Minister De Long a sword and a lacquered box, and then was his helmet loosed, and our party gathered around to hear of the gallant ship. Among our party were many of the survivors of the Oneida; among them were William Crowninshield, Captain Clark, Master Yates, and Dr. James Studdard, who were intensely excited to learn the tidings.

Said the diver; "The water for the first seventy feet was quite clear, as the sun gave excellent light, and although my supply of air was once choked for an instant, I reached the deck of the ship just astern of the mizzen-mast, and close by the mess-room hatch; the tide was ebbing quite strong, and I was compelled to hold to lines from the rigging to keep from being swept forward. I first examined the side of the ship; she was cut from the mizzen-rigging (at an angle of about forty-five degrees) across the whole stern of the ship, her timbers, far below the waterline, being crushed and broken, the Captain's cabin cut in two, the wheel and steering-gear all carried away, and in fact, the whole side and end of the ship stove in or cut away. The ship is heading southwest, and sits upright on the bottom, and is making sand slowly.

I lay down on the deck, and peered over the broken end into the cabin, but did not dare trust my air-line in contact with the jagged timbers. The guns and armament, except one, are all in places aft; but I did not go forward, as I was afraid of entanglement in the rigging." Turning to Crowninshield, he said: "Your evidence, which I read, described almost exactly the injury, except that she was cut deeper than you could have known." Lougee expressed the belief that it will be impracticable to raise the ship, but that the splendid battery, personal effects, etc., can be saved if the government sees proper.

By this survey the testimony of the living is verified, and the memory of the dead without a stain, for the position of the ship as found, and the positions of both the Oneida and Bombay, as testified to by the navigating officers, show that it was impossible for the captain of the Bombay to have ever seen the red light of the Oneida, and that the order of "Port your helm" by Captain Eyre, was wrong, and the "Starboard, hard-a-starboard," of Master Yates was right.

The Lougee brothers are natives of Manchester.

NAVAL.—The Navy Department is advised of the arrival at Rio Janeiro of steamer Benicia, forty-five days from Portsmouth. All on board are well. James Powers, seaman, died of typhus fever at sea, March 16th. The Benicia is on her way to the Asiatic squadron. During the voyage, while in latitude 128 south, longitude 21 west, two shocks of earthquake were experienced, the first lasting four and the next three seconds.

☞ The election of U. S. Senator by the New Hampshire legislature will take place on Tuesday, June 14th. The legislature meets June 1st.

CONGRESS.—On Monday, the House disagreed to the Senate amendments to the bill enforcing the 15th Amendment, and asked for a committee of conference.

A resolution instructing the judiciary committee to report back the bill referred to it in February, for an eight-hour law in the government workshops, was lost—24 to 90.

The election committee reported in the Eggleston-Strader case from Cincinnati, Ohio, in favor of the latter, a democrat and the sitting member, and in the Barnes-Adams case from Kentucky, in favor of the latter, the sitting member.

The army appropriation bill appropriating $29,977,367 was reported from the committee.

A bill was passed conferring the rights of naturalization on aliens who have enlisted in the navy, or marines, and have been honorably discharged.

The know-nothing question got up again and the proposition to re-establish the mission to Rome was unceremoniously knocked in the head so hard that it seems as if it might now stay dead forever. One feature in last Thursday's debate was that James Brooks charged Mr. Dawes with wilfully representing him as in favor of the knownothing movement. Dawes said nothing in reply then, but to-day he appeared on the scene with a handful of documents showing Mr. Brooks' position in know-nothing times. Only one of them was presented, however, for when that had been read at the clerk's desk to the accompaniment of laughter all around the House, Mr. Brooks cried "Peccavi" and withdrew his charge in a most chopfallen manner. The document was a rampant knownothing speech delivered by Brooks in Cincinnati, in May, 1856.

The House voted, 95 to 77, to lay on the table a motion to reconsider the vote of Saturday last, whereby Mr. Newsham was declared entitled to a seat in the Louisiana contested election case of Newsham against Ryan.

Mr. Newsham then came forward and took the oath in spite of the protest of Mr. Eldridge, that he was elected by the House and not by the people.

The Senate passed an amendment to the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill placing females in the matter of compensation on the same footing with males.

On Tuesday, Mr. Lynch's bill for relief of the shipping interests was defeated in the House by a vote of 95 to 87.

THE ANNUAL MEETING of the stockholders of the Concord Railroad was held in Phenix Hall, Concord, on Tuesday. Judge Minot, President of the Road, presided.

Anson S. Marshall opened the debate for the new stockholders, denouncing the late business contract made by the old Directors with the Northern R. R. Co.

He was followed by Gen. Butler, who attacked the old Board of Directors. Judge Cross followed in the same strain. John H. George and others followed in defence. The debate was suspended in order to ballot for Directors for the ensuing year.

By a dispatch received from Concord over the Western Union line, Tuesday evening, we learn the result:

The vote for Directors of the Concord R. R., Tuesday, stood 15,000 for New Board, and 10,000 for Old Board; New Board elected. The following are the names of the gentlemen comprising the New Board. Isaac Spalding, Nashua; Frederick Smyth, Manchester; John H. Pearson, Concord; James W. Johnson, Enfield; Edson Hill, Manchester; Wm. R. Spalding, Lawrence, Mass.; Wm. A. Tower, Boston, Mass.

EAST INDIA COURTESY.—One of the feasts given to the Duke of Edinburgh in India was greatly enlivened by the blunder of a native waiter, or khitmutgar, who poured a dish of peas into the ear trumpet which an old lady held out to him to get a reply to her question.

FORTUNATE NOAH!—Naomah, the daughter of Enoch, was five hundred and eighty years old when she was married to Noah.

"FIVE MINUTES FOR REFRESHMENTS."—Everybody who has travelled by railroad has heard the above announcement, and has probably suffered from eating too hastily, thereby sowing the seeds of Dyspepsia. It is a comfort to know that the Peruvian Syrup will cure the worst cases of Dyspepsia, as thousands are ready to testify.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Thrice Armed!

Thrice is he armed who keeps within reach of his hand a specific that at one and the same time will strengthen, regulate and purify his system when enfeebled, disordered and corrupted.

Such is the three-fold operation of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, and hence the great superiority of that standard vegetable restorative over all medicines that are merely tonics and nothing else. The effect of the ordinary astringent tinctures and extracts upon the bowels is disastrous, and upon the depraved blood or bile they produce no beneficial effects whatever. In dyspepsia and liver complaint all the fluids and humors of the body are more or less infected, and the bowels are often badly constipated. An unmodified astringent—quinine for instance—does infinitely more harm than good in such cases.

In Hostetter's Bitters, on the other hand, the stimulating and tonic elements are qualified with aperients and antiseptic ingredients. The finest laxatives and blood depurents in the vegetable kingdom are intermixed with those of a purely invigorating nature, and under the operation of this admirable combination, the three important processes of invigoration, regulation and purification go on together. The rapidity with which the disordered organization returns to its natural condition, under a course of the Bitters, is due to this cause.

Every disturbed function of the body is favorably affected by the wonderful properties of this comprehensive and well balanced preparation. As a general rule the bowels are more subject to irregularities, and the fluids more liable to become vitiated in spring and summer than in winter, and hence the Bitters are especially valuable as a spring and summer alterative, corrective and invigorant. At all seasons where the seeds of intermittent fevers infect the air, this healthful vegetable elixir should be taken as a protective medicine.

PAIN KILLER

Perry Davis & Son, Proprietors, 1840. PROVIDENCE, R. I. 1870.

Time tests the Merits of all Things.

☞ FOR SUMMER USE!

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER

This valuable Family Medicine has been widely and favorably known in our own and foreign countries, upwards of

THIRTY YEARS!

It has lost none of its good name by repeated trials, but continues to occupy a prominent position in every family medicine chest.

It is an External and Internal Remedy. For Summer Complaint, or any other form of bowel disease in children or adults, it is an almost certain cure, and has without doubt, been more successful in curing the various kinds of CHOLERA than any other known remedy, or the most skillful physician. In India, Africa and China, where this dreadful disease is more or less prevalent, the PAIN KILLER is considered by the natives, as well as European residents in those climates, a sure remedy; and while it is a most efficient remedy for pain, it is a perfectly safe medicine, even in unskillful hands.

Price 25 cts., 50 cts., and $1.00 per Bottle.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out the body those matters which feed the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12

"Children's Lives Saved for 50 Cts."

THOUSANDS OF CHILDREN DIE ANNUALLY OF CROUP. Now, Mothers, if you would spend 50 cents, and always have a bottle of DR. TOBIAS' VENETIAN LINIMENT in the house, you never need fear losing your little one when attacked with this complaint. It is now 22 years since I have put up my Liniment, and never heard of a child dying of Croup when my Liniment was used; but hundreds of cases have been reported to me, and many state if it was $10 per bottle they would not be without it. Besides which, it is a certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Bruises, Sprains, Toothache, Sore Throat, Swellings, Mumps, Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Spasms, Old Sores and Pains in the Limbs, Back, Chest. No one who once tries it is ever without it. It is warranted perfectly safe to take internally. Full directions with every bottle. Sold by the Druggists and Storekeepers in the United States. CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosciusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung disease in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says: "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says; I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

Physicians do not recommend a medicine which has no merits, what they say about

No clue to the guilty wretch who destroyed its life has yet been found.

☞ The prospects for fruit in this vicinity have not been so promising for many years as the present—all kinds of fruit trees blooming heavily,—and if nothing happens the yield will be abundant. One obstacle to that desired end has already made its appearance—the caterpillar—and that can be overcome by breaking off the limb or burning the nests containing the insects, in the evening or early in the morning while the vermin are at home.

CUTLER'S METALIC WEATHER HOUSE. is a neat mantel ornament and is useful as a Barometer and Thermometer. The house is to be placed in a level position where the figures (of a man and woman) may come in contact with the outer air. If a storm is approaching, the figure of the man passes out of the door and that of the woman retires within in a corresponding ratio. If fair weather, the lady comes forth into the open air and the man retreats. It is said to be reliable as an indicator and if it gets out of order can be easily righted. E. A. Batchelder has them at the Congress Block newspaper depot.

WOODEN WEDDING. — Rev. Wm. H. Alden, pastor of the Middle Street Baptist Church in this city, gave notice last Sunday that himself and wife would be at home the next Monday evening to receive the congregation, and hoped every member of the Church and Society would be present. The parishioners were reminded by some of the "knowing ones" that it was the pastor's wooden wedding, and prepared themselves accordingly, many carrying some wooden present, as is the custom. Mrs. Alden was the recipient of a handsome, well filled, East India Glove Box; also a Bamboo Rocking Chair; and a Reception Chair, of the same material was presented to Mr. Alden, — both from Ex-Mayor Jones. Some one contributed a long, hollow and odd piece of wood, filled with silvered clothes hooks. Very many other wooden gifts were bestowed on the pastor and his wife, to say nothing of the empty cradle and accompaniments, miniature bed-stead, clothes pins, wash boards, etc., etc. But the real laugh did n't come in till the large, wooden wedding cake, composed chiefly of saw-dust, was cut and passed around. Many of the ladies and gentlemen in tasting of this article of perfect deception, were again reminded that they were celebrating a wooden wedding. Some of the toilets were exquisite, and rare and beautiful flowers added their fragrance to the occasion, which seemed to be heartily enjoyed by every one present. The wedding was a surprise to the pastor's family, and the affair shows the union between minister and people to be complete.

☞ R. N. Waters and S. T. Stoddard, citizens of Massachusetts, and stockholders of the Northern Railroad, have filed a bill in chancery in the United States Court, District of New Hampshire, October term, for the purpose of breaking up the recent contract between the Concord and Northern Railroads. The bill also asks for a temporary injunction forbidding the officers of the Northern road from all proceedings under that contract until the case is decided. Upon this latter request, a hearing is to be had before the District Judge, Daniel Clark, at Manchester, on Monday next. He will decide who is to control the Concord road during the litigation, which may last for years.

HOME.

"Show piety at home," let love
Crown every motive of our lives;
Love that shall make earth's home a heaven,
Each heart within a paradise.

A happy home, earth's noblest gift,
Its value tongue can never tell,
There God delights to sit enshrined,
And holy angels with us dwell.

Love is the garden of the soul,
Whose fragrance sheds a rich perfume,
A world within itself is home,
If there true love doth ever bloom.

Without it life's a wilderness,
Where passion, strife and discord dwell,
Man's highest boon, a heaven on earth,
Becomes a dark and dismal hell.

Pure hearts, high aims and noble deeds,
These every mortal should possess;
They fill the soul and home with love,
And make life's journey a success.

J. G. H.

For the Chronicle and Gazette.

HOME.

My home is bright and fair,
Loves fragrance fills the air,
Perfume divine.
The world without is cold,
Its friendships bought with gold,
Its wealth, within our fold
Doth never shine.

One kiss from mother dear,
Once her loved voice to hear,
Tender and true.
Richer than rubies rare,
Sweeter and far more fair,
Lips always breathing there,
Love ever new.

Oh! time, with ruthless hand,
Why will you part this band
Loving so well.
Take all our fleeting joys,
Break all our earthly toys,
Leave us when all else dies
Home, there to dwell.

THE MUTUAL LIFE INS. CO. OF NEW YORK.

INTERESTING CORRESPONDENCE.

BOSTON, May 16, 1870.

J. W. McCulloh, Esq., New York:

Dear Sir:—Learning that you were appointed by the Legislature of your State to make an examination into the affairs of the "Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York," in regard more particularly to "certain charges preferred by you and others against the officers of the Company," and that you have now completed your investigation and are now ready to make your report, we, as policy-holders in the Company, of this city, respectfully request you to meet us and others interested in this matter, at the rooms of the Board of Trade, Thursday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, that such action may be taken by us as the occasion may seem to require.

Your obedient servants,

GEO. D. BALDWIN,	EDWARD W. KINSLEY,
GEO. D. WISE,	HENRY W. FRENCH,
P. G. PORTER,	JAS. H. FREELAND,
CHAS. R. SHAFLEIGH,	B. F. ROLLINS,

W. F. POOLE,	FRANK SNOW,
JNO. H. POOLE,	NATH'L G. CHAPIN,
AUGUSTUS TOWNE,	GEO. J. FISHER,
BARNEY S. SNOW,	L. A. WRIGHT.

NEW YORK, May 17, 1870.

Gentlemen: I will cheerfully comply with your request, and meet you on Thursday.

J. W. MCCULLOH.

BOSTON, MASS., May 18, 1870.

To George W. Miller, Insurance Superintendent of the State of New York:

J. W. McCulloh represents that he was appointed by the Legislature of New York to examine the affairs of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, and that he has made many charges against the officers of that company, all of which have been sustained by you. Is this true? Have the officers, or any of them, committed wrong or breach of trust? What is the result of your examination? A public meeting of policy-holders is called to meet here Thursday, which McCulloh proposes to address. In your opinion, after the investigation you have made, is there anything in the conduct of the officers of the Company which should forfeit the confidence of the policy-holders in them? Answer by telegram, and also by to-day's mail.

GEORGE C. RICHARDSON.

NEW YORK, May 18, 1870.

George C. Richardson, Esq., Boston, Mass:

Your dispatch received. J. W. McCulloh was not appointed by the Legislature of this State to examine the affairs of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York. He was allowed by the Investigating Committee of the Assembly to attend, and with my consent and the consent of the Company, he did attend and participate in an examination which I have been making. All charges made by McCulloh or others were fully investigated. The charges of breach of trust and mismanagement have not in my opinion been established. Nothing has been shown which should forfeit or impair the confidence of the policy-holders or public in the Company or its management. My examination has satisfied me that the Company has been managed with peculiar ability and integrity, and that its condition is eminently sound. I shall publish an official report soon.

GEO. W. MILLER,
Superintendent of the Insurance Department of the State of New York.

—OF THE—
CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILROAD CO.
The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad
is completed and running from RICHMOND, Va., to the celebrated WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, in West Va., 227 miles. It is being rapidly extended to the Ohio River, 200 miles further, making in all 427 miles.

In its progress Westward, it penetrates and opens up to market the Wonderful Coal Deposits of the Kanawha Region in West Virginia. And thus brings the superior and abundant Coals of that section into communication with the Iron Ores of Virginia and Ohio, and the Western, South Western and Eastern markets.

When completed it will connect the superior harbor facilities of the Chesapeake Bay with reliable navigation on the Ohio River, and thus with the entire system of Railroad and Waterransportations of the great West and South-West.

It will make a short, easy, cheap and favorable route from the West, to the sea, and will command a large share of the enormous freights seeking transportation to the coast

It will thus become one of the most important and profitable East and West Trunk Lines of Railroad in the country, and command a trade of immense value.

The completed portion of the Road is doing a profitable and increasing Business, and is fully equal in value to the whole amount of the mortgage upon the entire Line—($15,000,000.)

The loan of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company, being a First Mortgage upon the entire Line, property and equipments, worth when completed at least $30,000,000, is therefore one of the most substantial, conservative and reliable Railroad Loans ever offered in the market, and is peculiarly adapted to the wants of

INVESTORS and CAPITALISTS,

Who desire to make their investments with the most satisfactory assurance of positive and undoubted Security.

The Bonds are in denominations of

$1000, $500 and $100,

and may be had COUPON or REGISTERED.

Interest Six per cent. per annum, payable MAY 1st and NOVEMBER 1st.

PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

Price 90 and accrued Interest in Currency, at which price they pay nearly Seven per cent. in gold on their cost.

All Government Bonds and other Securities dealt in at the Stock Exchange, received in exchange, at their full market value, and Bonds sent to all parts of the country, free of Express charges.

They can be obtained by ordering direct from us or through any responsible Bank or Banker in any part of the country.

Morning Chronicle.

SOME OTHER BUSINESS OR PLACE.—The Prairie Farmer says, of all the men who till the soil, the man who don't expect to farm it long, is by far the poorest specimen. His fences are down, his freaky cattle run at large; while the seeds of his foul weeds are blowing over all his neighbor's fields. He is always ready to borrow farming tools, bnt never ready to return them. His place is an eyesore in the neighborhood, and his example is to be dreaded by every thrifty farmer who has sons. A sailor who engages in a mutiny at sea, is not more to be feared by his associates, than is such a man. Half a dozen such men in a neighborhood will do much to demoralize a whole community of farmers.

Next to the man who don't expect to farm it long, the man who expects soon to change his location is the poorest farmer that we know. He is likely to let everything go to rack and ruin. He has got his mind fixed on a location where crops grow with little or no labor being bestowed on them, and thinks to till fields on which an enemy has sowed no tares. He can't be expected to trim fruit trees, or to fuss with grape vines, when some one else is to eat the fruit that is to grow thereon.

He expects to be a farmer all his days, perhaps, but he is tired of his present location, and counts all the labor spent in making lasting improvements on his farm as so much labor spent in vain. He is not ashamed of farming, but his faith in it points to fairer skies, richer soils, and broader fields than those he has been accustomed to. But we much doubt that he will ever find a location that possesses all of the advantages and none of the disadvantages attending all locations and every kind of business engaged in by man. It is truly said that "time is money;" no less true is it that contentment is money; and more too, it is happiness, and without contentment we cannot hope to have this inestimable blessing.

CULTIVATING THE STRAWBERRY.—It has become fairly settled as the only sound method of cultivating the strawberry that the plant must be kept free from runners. The effect of this practice is wonderful. The whole growth of the plant is concentrated by this means in the original stock, and it enlarges until as many as a quart of berries have been plucked from a single plant. It will be understood that this method is followed only with such plants as are not raised with a view to propagation, but are permanent varieties, set out for family use. In order to sell, the runners must be encouraged.

After all the endless list of varieties, which have been extolled as the best, the sour Wilson retains its position as one of the best market berries. Much will be found to depend on the nature of the soil and the mode of cultivation. Before the plants are in bloom in the early spring the application of liquid manure will be found of great value.

A correspondent of the "Small Fruit Recorder" made an experiment with his strawberries last year, which may not be valueless to those who grow this berry. He procured a half a hogshead, filled it with rain water, and put into it one quarter of ammonia, and one quarter of a pound of common nitre. When the strawberry plants were blossoming out, he gave them a sprinkling of the solution at evening twice a week, until the fruit was nearly full size. The result was double the amount of fruit on those where the liquid was applied to what was obtained from those vines right alongside, where none was applied.

—The following paragraph from an exchange is worth more than a corner in a news column:

"It is said when mechanics have land they generally give it better cultivation than farmers, and consequently have more grapes, strawberries, watermelons and cucumbers. They devote more care and labor to a small space, and reap a larger profit from it."

If any one will look at the immense crops a very small garden will produce for a family, and compare it with the little crops from very large farms, they should need no better inducement to enrich their soil highly.

The great point to remember is this, that labor is the great item in farming; bnt that it takes no more labor to farm rich ground than poor ground. We have, as it were, double crops with the same single labor.

THE COMMON CRANBERRY of our swamps is a very attractive plant when cultivated in pots. The plants are ever green, and will grow in any ordinary living-room without extra care, and the fruit will remain on the plants until the flowers appear for the next crop. We would advise our lady readers who are at this time looking about for choice window-plants, to try a few pots of cranberries and unless we are greatly mistaken, they will thank us for this suggestion. There are scores of small but beautiful native plants that are well worthy of a place in our conservatories, but the idea that only rare things are valuable for such a purpose is far too prevalent among our people.

—While ten men wait for chances, one man makes chances; while ten men wait for something to turn up, one man turns something up; so while ten fail, one succeeds and is called a man of luck, the favorite of fortune. There is no luck like pluck, and fortune favors those who are most indifferent to fortune.

☞ Hartfordians desire an increase of policemen. Portsmouth can send them a few good ones.

—What sculpture is to the block of marble, education is to the human soul.

WHEN TO BUY A FARM.—Very few persons seem to know that the months of June and July are the best in the year in which to look for or purchase a farm. At this season one can judge whether the land can or does produce good crops, for if it is rich, the waving grass and grain will be ocular demonstration of the fact; and if there is, according to the stereotyped assertion, an abundance of choice fruit, it can be seen at this time to the best advantage. The lowlands will show whether they are really dry enough for pastures in summer, and the uplands capacity for withstanding a drought.

If there are any mosquitoes about, they will usually make their appearance known at this time if ever; and by observing the children in the neighborhood one can readily determine whether the locality is a healthy one or otherwise. Summer is also a very good time to view the never-failing spring and the trout pond near by, and a draught from one and a lunch from the other are attractions which those who possess them seldom fail to bestow upon those who are likely to become purchasers. Even the weeds upon a farm will assist a man in determining its value; for, if nothing but stunted rag-weeds and five-finger are to be seen, then the land may be set down as poor indeed; but if burdocks, and catnip abound, it shows strength to produce crops of a higher order.

The pasture and meadow, orchard and garden, all show what they are and what may be expected of them in these months; but earlier or later the aspect of things may change. In the spring the trees have not shown leaves, flowers, or fruit; the roads are muddy, if ever; and the distance from the railroad station to the farm appears to be much greater than it actually is, especially to a stranger. In the autumn the leaves are turning yellow, the grain has been gathered, and the dry stubble is all that remains, and the fruits are nearly gone—still the air is fresh and the landscape glowing with autumn tints; but the valuable properties of the farm, which are its products, are mainly out of sight, being stowed in the barn or in the proprietor's pocket.

DONN PIATT says it was a great day for America when Zach. Chandler assailed the British lion in the Senate. "The brave, the valorous old Senator smote the lion on the snout until he quailed. He shook him by the mane until his old bones rattled. He twisted his tail until the vile beast howled with anguish. All the while the American bald-headed eagle soared and screamed, and screamed and soared, holding aloft forked lightning and the star-spangled banner. It was a proud day for America, and venerable Senators, with bald heads and ill-fitted garments, snorted defiance while writing letters and reading newspapers. The conciliatory smile passed for once from the face of the Vice President. He sat like Mars, and his majestic brows, corrugated, resembled a vulcanized roof in a thunder storm. Electric streams of loyal patriotism—flashed and quivered along the galleries, while fear settled like an old hen in the Diplomatic gallery, where Mr. Thornton's first attache, and two old ladies of German origin, trembled and shook until their shawls fell off."

GIN AND MILK.—The New York World, in alluding to the medicine taken by Rev. Mr. Smythe, which has occasioned so much discussion, remarks:

It is useless to conceal the fact that there will be few who will think any punishment too severe for the aggravated and complicated nature of the offense. Had Mr. Smithe confirmed himself to gin, pure and simple, or even to gin in the compound form of the cheering cocktail or the satisfying sling, he would have met with some little sympathy. But when he deliberately chooses so unnatural a compound as gin and milk, and adds thereto a reporter of a sensation newspaper, he sinned against every law of intelligence and refined drinking.

☞ John Esten Cooke gives to the world for the first time a unique despatch from President Lincoln to Gen. Hooker:

If the head of Lee's army is at Martinsburg and the tail of it on the Plank Road between Fredericksburg and Chancellorsville, the animal must be slim somewhere. Couldn't you break him? A. LINCOLN.

ARE YOU GOING TO PAINT?
IF SO, SELECT THE BEST, which
AVERILL CHEMICAL PAINT.
It has proved itself, West, North and South, to be the best Paint known. It will not peel, crack, nor chalk off, and will last twice as long as the best Lead Paints.
It is cheaper, handsomer and more elastic, than the best of other Paints. It is the most convenient Paint made, being mixed, ready for application; it dries rapidly, and retains its shade perfectly, with a beautiful surface and glossy finish, and for years retains its gloss and beauty. It is excellent for walls inside, in the place of paper, making a smooth glossy finish, which can be cleaned with hot suds without injury.
One Gallon of Mixed Lead Paint weighs 20 lbs. and costs $2.72, and will only cover 16 square yds. 2 coats: while one gallon of the Chemical Paint only weighs 10 lbs., and costs but $2.50, and will cover 20 square yds., 2 coats.—thus making a saving of 72 cts., per gallon, besides covering 4 yards more than Lead Paint, and will last twice as long and look far better.
The Chemical Paint is sold by the gallon in quantities to suit purchasers, in 40 different shades and pure white, and will be supplied by experienced workmen and satisfaction given in every case; or in case of dissatisfaction in one year after put on, the whole cost of Paint will be refunded.
The sale of these unequalled Paints are daily increasing. Call and examine them ready mixed Paints, both in kegs, and applied to Buildings one year ago, before buying elsewhere, and save your money and money, and beautify your dwelling by using the

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of the United States Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1837,
NO. 78 STATE ST., OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all papers for the Patents, executed on reasonable terms with dispatch. Researches made into American and Foreign Patents, to determine the validity and utility of Patents or Inventions, and legal and other advice rendered on all matters touching the same. Copies of the declaration of any patent furnished, by transmitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.
No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.
During eight months the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, which APPEARED, EVERY ONE of which was decided IN HIS FAVOR by the Commissioner of Patents.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration of the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.
"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me THIRTEEN applications, in all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGHART."

AYER'S
HAIR VIGOR,
For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.
A Dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for Preserving the Hair. Faded or gray Hair is even restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use.
Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remains can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor, can only benefit but not harm it.
If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

WOMAN'S RIGHTS.

The rights of Woman who demand,
Those women are but few;
The greater part had rather stand
Exactly as they do.
Beauty has claims, for which she fights
At ease, with winning arms;
The woman who wants woman's rights
Wants mostly woman's charms.

The late Franklin Simonds of Warren left $20,000 for the purpose of founding a school in that town, and there has been a great difference of opinion as to accepting the bequest under the conditions of the will. At a recent meeting the bequest was accepted, and the school-house will be erected at once.

A new and accurate map of Manchester and vicinity is to be issued.

The General Association of the Congregational and Presbyterian churches in the State will meet at Milford in August.

Asa Wiggin, an octogenarian, fell dead in his field at Greenland, last week.

Rev. J. W. Chickering, of Exeter, is to remove to Washington, as instructor in the Asylum for the Deaf and Dumb, at a salary of $2,500. It is proposed to unite the two Congregational churches in Exeter.

The Concord Railroad has rebuilt their bridge over Great Bay in a good substantial manner; and will put up new depots at Suncook, Candia, Newmarket Junction and Stratham.

Rev. Mr. Valentine of Durham has a telescope on his cottage, and can see forty towns therewith.

The citizens of Candia have $45,000 deposited in the Merrimac River Savings Bank, at Manchester. They have also a considerable amount deposited in the other three Savings Banks in that city, and some in those at Concord.

A stage line has been opened between East Rochester and Alfred, Me., to connect with the Portland and Rochester Railroad.

The Northern Railroad will rebuild, this summer, the bridge over the Connecticut, between Lebanon and White River Junction, Vt.

Ex-Governor Harriman is announced as a Lyceum lecturer for next fall and winter.

A woman at Manchester recently went into the post-office, leaving her basket out on the sidewalk. A couple of little girls came along meantime, and one of them put a hand into the basket—whence it suddenly emerged covered with blood. The basket contained snapping turtles.

At the Nashua Iron Company's foundry was cast a propeller shaft for the U. S. steamer Iroquois; the dimensions are: Length of shaft 16 feet; diameter 15 1-2 inches, with two cranks set at right angles. The weight in the rough is eight tons—when finished five tons; weight of shaft with counterbalances, about twelve tons.

About 150 delegates attended the fifth semi-annual session of the Grand Lodge of Good Templars in this State, held at Temperance Hall, Milford, on Wednesday of last week. J. H. Rowell, of Franklin, G. W. G. T., presided. The report of Grand Secretary Joseph L. Odell, of Lake Village, showed the number of Lodges in the State to be 62, and the membership to be 3,718,—about 40 less than six months ago.—Quite a number of prominent temperance men were present, including some from Maine and Massachusetts.

Dr. Edward Aiken of Amherst and Rev. D. C. Babcock of Nashua have gone to St. Louis as delegates to attend the meeting of the R. W. Grand Lodge of Good Templars of North America, which met in that city, May 24th.

The new hotel at Manchester is to have a French roof. It will be 100 by 60 feet and three stories high.

A. D. Whitehouse of Gonic has been appointed deputy marshal to take the census for Rochester and Farmington.

The buffalo isn't a good thing to pasture. Put him into a pasture and he will pasture in every other pasture rather than the pasture you want him to pasture in.

THE OLD RELIABLE
NEW ENGLAND FAMILY MEDICINE.
TO BE FOUND IN EVERY VILLAGE AND TOWN IN NEW ENGLAND, IS
DODD'S NERVINE
AND INVIGORATOR.
A THOROUGH TONIC AND STOMACHIC.
DODD'S NERVINE is not a new medicine, but has been before the public for the last fifteen years. It compounded from the best and purest drugs. Contains no OPIUM, STRYCHNINE or MERCURY in any form, and is entirely adapted to the relief and permanent cure of all forms of
NERVOUS DISEASES, &c., &c.,
Coughs, Colds, Fevers, Ague, Biliousness, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Liver Complaint, Diarrhœa, Consumption, Neuralgia, Headache, Fits, Convulsions, Palpitation, Sleeplessness, Restlessness, Dizziness, Female Weaknesses, Painting Fits, Children's Troubles, &c., &c., &c.,
DODD'S NERVINE
Is a COMPLETE SPECIFIC for sleeplessness. It soothes the throbbing muscle like magic, and tranquilizes the mind. And everybody knows that good sleep is better than all medicines. And all folks that
CAN'T SLEEP NIGHTS,
Should use this truly wonderful medicine.
DODD'S NERVINE
Is one of the best remedies ever employed in the cure of the numerous and troublesome ailments known as FEMALE COMPLAINTS.
For Whooping Cough.
DODD'S NERVINE is administered with unexampled success. Mothers, remember this and save your little ones the agony of a most distressing complaint. It also works admirably in Measles, bringing out the rash well and leaving the bowels free and healthful. For the diseases which afflict CHILDREN WHEN TEETHING, nothing can furnish more instant or grateful relief. Remember, it contains no OPIUM in any form.
LOOK OUT FOR COLDS.
It is proverbial that people treat a cold (and the generally accompanying cough) as something that will cure itself; but neglect is serious and sometimes fatal. The fame of DODD'S NERVINE in the relief of colds is established. Use this standard remedy, and so far abstain from liquids of all kinds as to keep somewhat thirsty for a few days, and the worst cold will soon be gone.
DODD'S NERVINE
Is a PURE TONIC—harmonizes perfectly with the NERVE FIBRE—gives vigor and tone to the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, and other viscera—and supplies FRESH LIFE for the waste that is constantly taking place. It operates soothingly—is as pleasant to take as any wine, and with SLEEP AND GOOD DIGESTION, which it promotes, restores the afflicted to a certain health of body and quietness of mind. It contains no opium, mercury or strychnine, (so often used for nervous complaints,) and is wholly free from any deleterious drug whatever. Tens of thousands are testifying to its curative power. my17tw

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, MAY, 26, 1870.

THE FENIANS.—President Grant issued the following Proclamation on Tuesday.

Whereas, it has come to my knowledge that sundry illegal military enterprises and expeditions are being set on foot within the territory and jurisdiction of the United States, with a view to carry on the same from such territory and jurisdiction against the people and district of the Dominion of Canada, within the dominions of Her Majesty, the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, with whom the United States is at peace;

Now, therefore, Ulysses S. Grant, President of the United States, do hereby admonish all good citizens of the United States, and all persons within the military jurisdiction of the United States, against, aiding, countenancing, abetting or taking part in such unlawful proceedings;

And I do hereby warn all persons that by committing such illegal acts, they will forfeit all their right to the protection of this government, or to its interference in their behalf to rescue them from the consequences of their own acts;

And I do hereby enjoin all officers in the service of the United States to employ all their lawful authority and power to prevent and defeat the aforesaid unlawful proceedings, and to arrest and bring to justice all persons who may be engaged therein.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this 24th day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and of the independence of the United States of America the ninety-fourth. U. S. GRANT.

A St. Albans, Vt., dispatch says the Fenians have outwitted both the Canadian and United States governments, and are fairly on the war path. The movement has been conducted with surprising secrecy, and was not suspected until Monday noon. Now it is understood that the alarm several weeks ago and the pretended quarrel in the Fenian councils were invented by the Fenians themselves. The ruse had the proper effect. The United States government laughed at the fright of the Dominion officials, and the latter, heartily ashamed of their terror, passed to the other extreme, that of indifference and temerity, sending most of the regulars off to Manitoba and disbanding the militia. The Fenians thereupon began to move in earnest.

Fairfield, a few miles east of St. Albans, was the chief depot of supplies. The town is settled mainly by Irishmen, all of whom are Fenians, and it has afforded secure hiding places for quantities of arms, ammunition, uniforms and supplies, which have been slowly accumulating there. One estimate says 150 wagon loads have passed through St. Albans within a few weeks. Other authorities make the number still larger. A considerable supply of arms also reached Fairfield from other directions.

The Fenians themselves did not fairly begin to concentrate until this week, though small squads have been straggling into the interior for several days. Every train brings fresh accessions, and the steamer Curlew is transporting large numbers across the lake. It is known that there are yet two car loads from Troy, two from Whitehall, two from Manchester, N. H., and a large detachment from the Port Henry mines. The arrangements are so complete that each company receives its equipments and marches toward the line without delay. It is thought that 500 men have passed, that many have left the railroad at points north, and that 1000 assembled near the border.

Rumors fix on Pigeon Hill as the point of crossing. The advance guard is commanded by Captain John Monahan of Burlington. The Fenians say that the officer in charge of the invasion at this point is General J. J. Donnelly of Massachusetts.

It is not supposed that anything can be done to stop the Fenians, as there are no Federal troops that can reach St. Albans for three or four days. Before that time the Irishmen will be half way to Montreal. The invading army appears to be well supplied with artillery. The Canadian government has sent to Pigeon Hill to confront them, some fifteen car-loads of infantry and artillery. All the telegraph lines to Ogdensburg, N. Y., have been cut. In the Irish settlements in the town of Waddington, near the St. Lawrence, the utmost activity prevailed all night. Large quantities of arms, ammunition and provisions have been stored there since March, and they were put in motion for the rendezvous on the Canadian side of the border. The excitement is intense.

It is reported that the advance guard under Gen. O'Neill crossed into Canada on Wednesday.

FIGHTING COMMENCED IN CANADA. By a despatch over the Western Union Telegraph Line on Wednesday evening, we learn that a fight occurred that day at Franklin, P. O., between three companies of Fenians and a small force of British. The fight lasted some time, and resulted in the loss of two Fenians killed and several wounded. Several British were also killed and wounded. The train from New York and other places, to Canada, were loaded with Fenians. They are confident of success, and say that if they ever get on Canadian soil they will not stop until victorious. By appearances a large force will be in active operation in a few days.

CONCORD RAILROAD.—The 29th annual meeting at Concord, Tuesday, was more largely attended by stockholders and spectators than ever before. Deep interest was manifested, but President Minot insisted on good order, and preserved it, and everything was conducted with decorum. In the voting, the ring of speculators, as the old Board call the new combination, had a large majority of stock, over the conspirators, as the old contracting Board are termed by their opponents. The new Board had 15,000 and 16,000 shares, to 9,000 and 10,000 for the old incumbents.

After Mr. A S. Marshall, Gen. B. F. Butler, and Judge Cross of Manchester, had spoken in opposition to the old Board of Directors, and especially of their contract binding the Concord Road to the Northern,—Col. John H. George spoke as strongly in opposition to the ring, and stated, among other things, that the late Supt. Gilmore urged him to desist from the famous Conductor suits, and that the late President Upham urged him (George) last year to join the Conductors and others in forming just such a ring as has now been formed. Mr. George said it did not follow that because the ring would make money for themselves, that the stockholders would also thrive.

Mr. Marshall replied smartly to George, and said his bill in the Conductor suits amounted to $8,500, which George said was too small for four or five years' work. Hon. Mason W. Tappan spoke earnestly in opposition to any charges or insinuations of improper conduct on his part—merely appealing to his record for a lifetime. His remarks evidently were well received by the meeting. Gen. Butler and Mr. Marshall had stated that the Concord and Northern contract was singular and illegal, in not being submitted to the stockholders, and means consolidation, tends to that end, and is in itself consolidation; Col. George, while favoring all consolidation, denied this, as did Col. Tappan, who stated that he was retained by John H. Pearson and Geo. Clough to oppose consolidation. This brought up Mr. Pearson, who made the extraordinary statement that his ring had been offered $100,000 by Gov. Stearns to give up their stock at the prices they paid for it, but they had refused the offer.

On proceeding to vote, the usual committee of six to count the votes, was Asa Fowler, Ira A. Eastman, Edmund Burke, William H. Hackett, C. W. Stanley and Edward H. Spaulding. Austin F. Pike of Franklin, agreeably to law, challenged the votes of Messrs. Smythe, Pearson, Johnson, Marshall, and others of the new combination, until they made an oath that the stock they represented was theirs, bona fide, which they readily did.

Mr. Marshall desired the Directors to swear they did not attempt to procure any proxies or influence voters, but of course this could not be done.

After the vote was declared, and the new Board or ring, (which Gen. Butler says is on the square,) proved victorious, the meeting passed Judge Cross' resolution condemning the contract, and the old Directors for making it, pronouncing it null and void, and instructing the new Directors to take measures to annul the same. Also Gen. Butler's resolve of a vote of thanks to Judge Minot, for the impartial manner of presiding over the meeting.

The new Directors afterwards met, and organized by the choice of Isaac Spalding of Nashua for President, Anson S. Marshall of Concord Clerk, and Moody Currier of Manchester Treasurer.

An injuction from the Supreme Court was served on the new Board restraining it from taking possession of the Road. The next thing is to hear the result of this injunction, and also of that before Judge Clark of Manchester, asking that the Northern Road be enjoined from any charge over the affairs of the Concord until the legality of the contract shall be decided by the Courts. It is said the much mooted contract was drawn by Judge Perley, as good legal authority as New England can boast. It is strongly made, but will be earnestly opposed.

"FIVE MINUTES FOR REFRESHMENTS."—Everybody who has travelled by railroad has heard the above announcement, and probably suffered from eating too hastily, thereby sowing the seeds of Dyspepsia. It is a comfort to know that the Peruvian Syrup will cure the worst cases of Dyspepsia, as thousands are ready to testify.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Thrice Armed!

Thrice is he armed who keeps within reach of his hand a specific that at one and the same time will strengthen, regulate and purify his system when enfeebled, disordered and corrupted.

Such is the three-fold operation of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, and hence the great superiority of that unsurpassed vegetable restorative over all medicines that are merely tonics and nothing else. The effect of the ordinary astringent tinctures and extracts upon the system is disastrous, and upon the depraved blood or bile they produce no beneficial effects whatever. In dyspepsia and liver complaint all the fluids and humors of the body are more or less infected, and the bowels are often badly constipated. An unmodified astringent—quinine for instance—does infinitely more harm than good in such cases.

In Hostetter's Bitters, on the other hand, the stimulating and tonic elements are qualified with aperients and antiseptic ingredients. The finest laxatives and blood purgatives in the vegetable kingdom are intermixed with those of a purely invigorating nature, and under the operation of this admirable combination, the three important processes of invigoration, regulation and purification go on together. The rapidity with which the disordered organization returns to its natural condition, under a course of the Bitters, is due to this cause.

Every disturbed function of the body is favorably affected by the various properties of this comprehensive and well balanced preparation. As a general rule the bowels are more subject to irregularities, and the fluids more liable to become vitiated in spring and summer than in winter, and hence the Bitters are especially valuable as a spring and summer alterative, corrective and invigorant. At all seasons when the fluids of intermittent fevers infect the air, this healthful vegetable elixir should be taken as a protective medicine.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which lead to a variety of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12

THOUSANDS OF CHILDREN DIE ANNUALLY OF CROUP. Now, Mothers, if you would spend 50 cents, and always have a bottle of DR. TOBIAS' VENETIAN LINIMENT in the house, you never need fear losing your little one when attacked with this complaint. It is now 22 years since I have put up my Liniment, and never heard of a child died of Croup where my Liniment was used; but hundreds of cures have been reported to me, and many state if it was $10 per bottle they would not be without it. Besides which, it is a certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throat, Swellings, Mumps, Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Spasms, Old Sores and Pains in the Limbs, Back, Chest. No one who once tries it is ever without it. It is warranted perfectly safe to take internally. Full directions with every bottle. Sold by the Druggists and Storekeepers in the United States. CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosciusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung disease is use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says: "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says: I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

Physicians do not recommend a medicine which has no merits, what they say about

FOURTH OF JULY.—A firemen's muster is talked of, and we hope arrangements will be perfected by the fire-ladies for a creditable procession and trial of skill, on Independence Day.

There is to be a grand burlesque procession on that day, we are informed, which will include many representatives from neighboring towns.

The Antiques & Horribles are in for it, and there is a loud call for companies, from York, Eliot, Kittery, Newcastle, Rye, Stratham, Hampton, Newington and the Salisbury diggings, to join in. Won't our Newburyport neighbors make us a call? There's time enough for preparation and if the Spring Hill Band conclude to furnish the music, the visitors can but be delighted. For once, it looks as if the lovers of the grotesque, big and little, may turn out in all the pomp and glory of circumstance. Our citizens are to be called on for subscriptions for prizes and will respond liberally, no doubt. Fun is to rule the day, and there will be lively contests for the prizes.

Then, it is said, the base ball players are to be on a bat, and propose to make things interesting at the Plains at a convenient time during the day.

As it is desired to make the whole affair a complete success, a call for a public meeting will soon be issued that united action may be secured.

CITY COUNCIL, Monday Evening.—A special meeting of both Boards was called by the Mayor. In the Aldermen, (full Board,) the Common Council nonconcurring in the amendments to the Appropriation Bill, the Aldermen asked for a committee of conference, and appointed Ald. Nowell and Miller on their part; and on their reporting, the bill was passed, as before stated.

S. A. Goodall's proposition to remove steps from his house on Bridge St., if the City will pay extra expense of same in repairing premises, was referred to the Mayor and Com. on Sts. with power.

Complaint of Miss White, of nuisance of pigs in rear of house corner Court St. and Atkinson; repairs of pumps on Court and Dennett Sts.; petition of C. H. Mendum & Co. and others, to have Market St. rubbish hauled off weekly; repairs on Washington St. and on pavement; and encroachment on Lafayette Road near residence of S. Langdon—were referred to Com. on Sts., with Mayor added in latter case. Also to report on condition of the Dock there, and the cost of improving same.

The Com. on Burying Grounds were authorized to cause old fence to be removed next Cotton Ground, and stone division posts to be set, and to cause the premises to be kept tidy.

Com. on City Buildings were authorized to repair steps at public landing foot Daniel St. Also, with Mayor, to fit place under Court House for Hose Carriage.

John Hodgdon on Warren St., and Wm. Ward on Langdon and McDonough Sts. were granted sidewalks.

Voted to pay C. E. Dixon $50 to remove steps from sidewalk in School St. The Portsmouth Savings Bank claimed interest on City Bonds in gold, and it was voted to pay the same. The amount now of difference in last payment of coupons, from currency, is $128.47, and the Bank holds $33,000 of the Bonds.

Request for sidewalk on Jones' Hill, Christian Shore, referred to Com. on Sts. to report.

Common Council.—(Messrs. Marden and French absent.) The Council refused to concur in the amended Appropriation Bill as sent down from the Aldermen, and the latter requested a committee of Conference, appointing Ald. Nowell and Miller on behalf of the Board. Messrs. Miller and Sides were appointed from the Council; and the conference resulted in the Appropriation Bill being put in the shape in which it finally passed, as already announced.

A letter was received from the Com. on Invitations of the G. A. R., inviting the City Government to take part in the ceremonies on Memorial Day; and it was voted to accept the invitation.

The amended resolution sent down from the Aldermen, to pay Wm. Plaisted $50 towards removing his Street Sprinkling apparatus, was indefinitely postponed.

No other business coming up, the Council adjourned to meet again at the call of the Mayor.

BASE BALL.—The match at the Plains on Wednesday resulted in a victory to the Granite State nine, who scored 57 runs to 8 for the Amateurs.

☞ Commandant Winslow of the Navy Yard has issued an order allowing employees to be absent from the Yard on Memorial Day, if they choose.

☞ Mr. George H. Rogers, a prominent business man of Gloucester, died there suddenly on Saturday evening, of apoplexy, aged about 62 years. He was brother of Mr. F. W. Rogers of this city, and favorably known to many here.

☞ It is stated by good legal authority that the sentence of Wm. M. Hanscom, for robbing the mail, to the Reform School, was illegal, on account of his being too old, and that he will be released and consequently meet with a final discharge.

☞ Dawes, the patent economist, who was imported from Washington to New Hampshire last March, to contradict his own speeches, has bitterly opposed the appropriations for the Navy asked for by Secretary Robeson, and has been instrumental in reducing the amount from $24,000,000 to $16,000,000. His ideas are so small and his course so belittling to himself and the country, we would suggest that he be engaged at a salary of 75 cents a month to build mud scows with which to defend this country in case of attack by the Fenian Navy after Canada shall have been captured. Dawes can do it, no doubt, and cheap, too, because he may secure good workmen for almost nothing, by continuing in his efforts to have them discharged from the various navy yards.

Correspondence of the Chronicle and Gazette.

RYE, May 24.

The apple trees about here have never before blossomed so fully as they have this year, and the indications of an abundant crop are many; if the canker worms will only keep quiet, apples will be plenty and cheap next fall. The prospect of a heavy hay crop is encouraging. Our farmers have got about through planting, and have put in about the usual quantity of corn and potatoes.

The telegraph line to the Sea View House is completed. J. C. Philbrick & Son are putting an addition for a dance hall, to the Atlantic House; and are also making other additions and improvements. The demand for rooms is not brisk this season, so far, but probably few apartments will be to spare in July and August.

There is not so much building going on about town as there was last year. A couple of barns are all that I know of now being erected. But a carpenter's gang from Manchester are engaged in putting up a cottage for parties in that city, at Locke's Neck; Albion Philbrick is building a house at the beach, near the Sea View House, for boarding purposes; and S. B. Spear has a fine cottage completed since last season. R.

☞ The President has nominated Capt. Stephen Decatur to be Commodore on the retired list.

WILD HORSES IN MAINE.

The fact that a race of wild horses formerly existed in the forests near the sea coast in some parts of the State of Maine, seems not to have attracted the attention of writers, and unless soon put on record will be lost to history. Mr. Sewall, in his "Ancient Dominion of Maine," page 227, does indeed speak of a place on Hunnewell's Point, on the Kennebec, where the inhabitants were accustomed to catch horses that had "gone wild in the neighboring marshes in the ancient time;" but it is said that the people of the neighborhood suppose they were horses brought here by the ancestors of the present inhabitants. It may be, however, that they had an earlier origin as Mr. Sewall's language implies.

The old people still living in the town of Bristol, natives of the place, are familiar with the fact that a race of wild horses roamed in the forest there, even as late as the latter part of the last century. Probably they were found also in adjacent towns; but of this I have no evidence except the extract from Mr. Sewall given above.

Being in Bristol a few months ago, I made inquiry on this subject of some of the old people, and found that my own recollections of conversations there many years ago, when but a youth myself, were fully confirmed. A man now about seventy years of age, whom I have known from my childhood, informed me that his father had often told him of the wild horses, and described the methods resorted to, to catch them. This was a common practice; and there were certain places to which they were accustomed to drive them, in order to secure them readily.

One of these places, which my informant mentioned, is a point of land extending a little distance into the sea, on which the wild animals could be easily driven from a distance of several miles. In the spring season it was not safe for persons to ride mares in places where the wild horses resorted. Sometimes these horses did great damage to the farmers by breaking into their fields and destroying their crops, and they were shot down without mercy. They were occasionally seen, so my informant thought, until near the close of the last century.

An old lady of same neighborhood, who died in April, 1860, at the age of 86, was inquired of concerning the wild horses only a few months before her death, and said that in her childhood she often saw them. She particularly remembered one time, when she saw more than a dozen, feeding together in a place which she mentioned, near her father's residence. This was when she was about fifteen years of age, or in the year 1789. The place where she saw the horses was a spot of ground that had been cultivated, and afforded much better feed than could be found elsewhere in the vicinity.

I have referred above to my own recollections of remarks on this subject, made by the old people many years ago, when I was myself but a youth. I distinctly remembered several instances in which the wild horses of the neighborhood were alluded to in conversation, by the old men then living there. These animals were spoken of as well known to everybody. There was then in the vicinity a tract of many acres of land covered mostly by a growth of small, craggy oaks, the peculiar character of which they said was occasioned by the wild horses feeding upon their branches many years before, in the winter seasons, when they could not have access to the surface because of the deep snow.

My impression also is that the horses were considered as the descendants of horses left there by the early settlers, who were driven off by the French and Indians, near the close of the seventeenth century. The fort at Pemaquid was then destroyed and the settlement entirely broken up. The whole region was deserted, and for more than a quarter of a century not a single settler returned, and the place was scarcely known except to the fishermen who annually resorted there, at the proper season, for the purpose of taking and curing their fish.

The Indians were fond of horse-flesh, especially that of young colts, and occasionally killed them for food; but at this time no tribe resided permanently in that region, and the horses probably had ample time to increase.

Instances of cattle and horses existing in a wild state are not uncommon in other countries, but there might be a doubt whether they could endure, unprotected, the long and severe winters of the state of Maine. We find, however, that both cattle and horses do live in a wild state, farther to the north. An interesting case of the kind is described in the "Register," Oct., 1859. It seems that cattle were generously placed on the Isle of Sable, on the coast of Nova Scotia, at an early period, for the express purpose of supplying food for mariners who might be shipwrecked there.

They increased for many years, but after about a century were finally exterminated by unprincipled men, who came to hunt them merely for their hides and tallow! The cattle were succeeded by a race of horses, the numbers of which rapidly increased, and in 1829 it was estimated that the whole number on the Island in a wild state exceeded three hundred.

—Johnny is just beginning to learn geography. He says that the Poles live partly at one end of the globe and partly at the other. He knows it is so because it is marked on the map.

—Sighs are said to be a great relief to those who use them. The relief we presume is in proportion to the size.

THE CORN CROP.—The cultivation of corn was lately discussed by the St. Louis Farmers' Club. From a paper read on the occasion we clip the following: "Beyond a doubt, the most important crop raised in the United States is corn. It is also the most universally cultivated, the extent ranging from Maine to California and from Minnesota to the Gulf of Mexico. All other crops, which are specialities in certain geographical limits, are, so to speak, dependent upon corn. Stock growing, either for labor, flesh or wool, cannot succeed without corn, at least not near so well. Why is this? Corn is the one crop which is generally consumed at home, on or near the place where it was grown. The little which is sent abroad forms only a decent shadow of an exception.

Corn is classed as coarse grain, and although so very valuable in the aggregate, it will not bear transportation to any great distance, on account of its bulk and comparatively low value. It must be worked over near where it was raised into beef, pork, butter, cheese, poultry, mutton, or working stock, such as oxen, horses, and mules, and in these more concentrated forms it will bear transportation and pay." An old but intelligent farmer once remarked to a writer: "When I have a good and full crib of corn I have fat horses, fat hogs, fat cows, fat sheep, and fat poultry, plenty of butter, eggs, pork, beef, and wool; but if my corn fails, no matter how good my wheat and other crops may be, I have but little of all the good things just named, in fact not much of anything, because I carry the most of my wheat to market, and if I count the cost of production, there is hardly enough left to pay my taxes."

HOW TO GROW PIE PLANT.—A writer in the Country Gentleman tells how to grow rhubarb that will surprise your neighbors, and pay well. He says: "Dig a trench about two feet wide and eighteen inches deep; then scatter barnyard manure to the depth of three inches in the bottom of the trench, and thoroughly mix it with the soil by using a spade fork, spading in the ground to the depth of eight inches; then mix manure with the soil as you throw it back into the trench. After all of the dirt has been thrown back into the trench, it will be several inches higher than the general surface of the garden, and in setting the roots care must be taken that they are set deep enough to have their crown a little below the general surface of the ground when the dirt in the trench is well settled. If the above plan is strictly followed, mammoth pie plant will be the result. The writer, a few years since, set two or three dozen plants according to the above directions, and they drew visitors for miles around, all of whom wanted some roots of the "new sort of pie plant." The varieties were Myatt's victoria and linnaeus. It was hard work to make them believe that the secret of its enormous growth was manure."

WATERING PLANTS.—Let tillers of the soil imitate nature. The earth is never watered by showers, except in cloudy weather. When the surface of the earth is dry as dust, a gentle shower only descends to moisten the surface, thus preparing it to absorb a copious shower. The rain does not fall when the sun shines. It will do plants more injury than benefit to water them when the sun shines. Earth must first be rendered damp before it will absorb water rapidly. Many gardeners have such vague and indefinite notions of applying water to growing plants, that the plants are frequently watered when the roots do not need moisture; and at other times they suffer for want of water.—Working Farmer.

—Wellington was once in great danger of being drowned at sea. It was bed-time, when the captain of the vessel came to him, and said, "It will soon be all over with us." "Very well," answered the Duke, "then I shall not take off my boots."

—If you would find a great many faults, be on the look out. If you would find them in still greater abundance, be on the look in.

—He who does his best, however little, is always to be distinguished from him who does nothing.

LA MEDICINE CURATIVE.
Mild, Certain, Safe, Efficient.... It is far the best Cathartic remedy yet discovered, and at once relieves and invigorates the vital functions, without causing injury to any of them. The most complete success has long attended its use in many localities; and it is now offered to the general public with the conviction that it can never fail to accomplish all that is claimed for it. It produces little or no pain; does not gripe or sicken the system, and never over taxes or excites the nervous system. In all diseases of the skin, blood, stomach, bowels, liver, kidneys,—of children, and in many difficulties peculiar to women, it brings prompt relief and certain cure. The best physicians recommend and prescribe it; and no person who once uses this, will voluntarily return to the use of any other cathartic.

THE EQUITABLE LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY
OF THE UNITED STATES,
Office No. 92 Broadway, New York.
The Most Successful Life Insurance Company in the World.
A Surplus Premiums of Profits returned to the Policy-holders, instead of being partially or wholly appropriate to the use of the Stockholders, as is the usage with all "Mixed" and "Proprietary" Companies.
Dividends made Annually, from the start, and not postponed until the third, fourth or fifth year as in most other Companies.
Profits apportioned to the assured on the "Contribution plan," which is conceded to be the only equitable mode of division; and not by the mode adopted by many companies, which is grossly UNJUST to a large proportion of the Policy-holders.
Assets in Cash, $15,000,000.
(None of this is in the Notes-of-hand of Policy-holders, as in many other Companies.)
Its Annual Income, $8,000,000
(No portion of this is composed of Promissory-Notes, as in all Note-Companies.)
The Cash Income is constantly increasing with tremendous rapidity, and as a necessary consequence, swelling the enormous cash accumulation which forms the security to Policy-holders.
All Premiums and all Losses Paid in Cash.
No Promissory-Notes to be deducted from the face of the Policy when it matures, as in all Note-Companies.

CAUTION.
TO FEMALES in Delicate Health.—DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott-street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other Menstrual Derangements, are all treated on new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a very few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.
Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston.
Boarding accomodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.
Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

The Chronicle.

SNUBBINGS.—On the 15th of April, Gen. W. S. Hancock addressed the following telegraphic despatch to Gen. W. T. Sherman, dated at St. Louis:

If my rank will not entitle me to a division, and the changes in the departments are such as to make it practicable, I would prefer this St. Louis station. I leave at once for St. Paul.

The next day Gen. Sherman replied:

General:—I have laid your despatch of the 15th from St. Louis before the President, who authorized me to say that your wishes and claims for the succession to the command of the Military Division of the Pacific, made vacant by General Thomas's death, were fairly considered, and also that your preference for the Department of the Missouri, in case of a change in its commander, was also known to him, but he has ordered otherwise. The President authorizes me to say to you that it belongs to his office to select commanding generals of divisions and departments, and that the relations you chose towards him, officially and privately, absolve him from regarding your personal preferences. The orders announcing these changes will be made public in a very few days, and they will not touch the department of Dakota or the military division of the Missouri.

Gen. Hancock replied from St. Paul, April 27th, as follows:—

General:—Your letter has been received detailing the reasons the President has given why my claims to a more important command should not be regarded. I intended by my despatch to ask for a division, if the existing divisions were all continued, or otherwise, if the changes made it practicable, not as a favor, but as a claim to a command to which I thought my rank entitled me. As the President leads me to believe that because I have not his personal sympathy my preferences for a command will not be regarded, notwithstanding my rank, I shall not again open the subject, but will add in conclusion that I think it is an unfortunate precedent to establish, that military rank in time of peace, especially in the assignment of general officers to commands of divisions and departments, shall not have the consideration hitherto conceded to it.

The reference in Gen. Sherman's letter to the relations which Gen. Hancock chose to assume towards the President officially and privately, as absolving the President from regarding Gen. Hancock's personal preferences, is thus explained: — At the time the reconstruction acts were put in operation, Gen. Hancock was transferred from the Department of Missouri to the District of Louisiana. President Grant, as general-in-chief, modified or revoked one of Gen. Hancock's orders, to which the latter took strong personal exceptions. Shortly after, by order of the President, Gen. Hancock was assigned to the command of the Division of the Atlantic, and came to Washington. He went to Gen. Grant's headquarters, but instead of calling upon him personally, simply registered his name, which was unusual and considered discourteous. Gen. Grant, having no knowledge or apprehension that Gen. Hancock was offended with him, meeting him on the street shortly afterwards, accosted him in this friendly way, "good morning, Hancock." To this Hancock made no verbal response, but merely touched his hat and passed on.

Sometime subsequent the two met at a wedding party, when Gen. Hancock turned his back on Gen. Grant, who was also informed that Gen. Hancock had boasted of his discourtesy to him on the street.

When Hancock issued an order for the removal of certain persons in New Orleans, a correspondence took place between the two generals on the subject, when Gen. Hancock used language which was considered disrespectful and insubordinate to his superior officer.

A mason in Paris lately committed suicide after building a thick brick wall in the doorway of his lodging room, which had to be taken down before his remains were discovered.

Mr. C. Wright of Lewiston recently sent one of his carrier-pigeons to a friend in Portland with a request to leave it at one o'clock the same day. It was done as desired, and in thirty-eight minutes the dove folded its wings on Mr. Wright's doorstep. The distance is about thirty miles. When loosed there he flew spirally upwards, took his bearing, and headed at once for home.

The canker worms, which have caused such havoc among the apple trees for the last few years, are reported to be disappearing, and are succeeded by the currant worm, which are equally destructive of the smaller fruit.

—Sawdust-pills, says an old physician, would effectually cure many of the diseases with which mankind is afflicted, if every patient would make his own sawdust.

THE OLD RELIABLE
NEW ENGLAND FAMILY MEDICINE.
TO BE FOUND IN EVERY VILLAGE AND TOWN IN NEW ENGLAND, IS
DODD'S NERVINE
AND INVIGORATOR.
A THOROUGH TONIC AND STOMACHIC.
DODD'S NERVINE is not a new medicine, but has been before the public for the last fifteen years. It compounded from the best and purest drugs. Contains no OPIUM, STRYCHNINE or MERCURY in any form, and is expressly adapted to the relief and permanent cure of all forms of
NERVOUS DISEASES, &c., &c.,
Coughs, Colds, Fevers, Ague, Biliousness, Constipation, Diarrhœa, Neuralgia, Headache, Convulsions, Sleeplessness, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Consumption, Female Weaknesses, Fainting Fits, Palpitation, Restlessness, Dizziness, Children's Troubles, &c., &c., &c.,
DODD'S NERVINE
Is a COMPLETE SPECIFIC for sleeplessness. It soothes the throbbing muscle like magic, and tranquilizes the mind. And everybody knows that good sleep is better than all medicines. And all folks that
CAN'T SLEEP NIGHTS,
Should use this truly wonderful medicine.
DODD'S NERVINE
Is one of the best remedies ever employed in the cure of the numerous and troublesome ailments known as FEMALE COMPLAINTS.
For Whooping Cough.
DODD'S NERVINE is administered with unexampled success. Mothers, remember this and save your little ones the agony of a most distressing complaint. It also works admirably in Measles, bringing out the rash well and leaving the bowels free and healthful. For the diseases which afflict CHILDREN WHEN TEETHING, nothing can furnish more instant or grateful relief. Remember, it contains no OPIUM in any form.
LOOK OUT FOR COLDS.
It is proverbial that people treat a cold (and the generally accompanying cough) as something that will cure itself; but neglect is serious and sometimes fatal. The fame of DODD'S NERVINE in the relief of colds is established. Use this standard remedy, and so far abstain from liquids of all kinds as to keep somewhat thirsty for a few days, and the worst cold will soon be gone.
DODD'S NERVINE
Is a PURE TONIC—harmonizes perfectly with the NERVE FIBRE—gives increased energy to the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, and other viscera—and supplies FRESH LIFE for the waste that is constantly taking place. It operates soothingly—is as pleasant to take as any wine, and with SLEEP AND GOOD DIGESTION, which it promotes, restores the afflicted to sound health of body and quietness of mind. It contains no opium, mercury or strychnine, (so often used for nervous complaints,) and is wholly free from any deleterious drugs whatever. Tens of thousands are testifying to its curative power. my17tw

FRIDAY, MAY, 27, 1870.

Chat.

The terms of twenty U. S. Senators terminate on the 4th of March next.

A young man by the name of Locke, employed in Worcester, received an ugly gash in his throat one day last week while dressing a calf. He was drawing up its head, having a knife in his hand at the time, when the rope suddenly slipped and the weight drew the knife down across his own throat. The cut was not considered dangerous, but the young man is now past recovery.

The man who stole three axes from a hardware store in Bangor, last week, was recognized by the police as Stephen Frost, and under that name was tried, fined and sent to jail. Subsequently the genuine Stephen Frost appeared in public and it was ascertained that the name of the one in jail was William Rhodes. The two persons looked so much alike that the police were easily mistaken.

Nothing new in the Finnegan line.

CONCORD RAILROAD.—In our report of the meeting, the remarks of President Minot were omitted by the compositor. It should have read thus, as written:

Hon. Mason W. Tappan spoke earnestly in opposition to the ring speculating policy of New York being introduced into New England, and said that ultimately the people of New Hampshire would repudiate it.

Messrs. Marshall and Butler of course made all the law points they could in opposition to the contract (or lease); and after all had done, President Minot made a calm review or summing up of the case, defending the course of the old Directors, both legally and morally, and in a business point of view,—maintaining that the arrangement was not a novel or extraordinary one, but in terms almost exactly like that between the Concord and the M. & L. Roads, which was the foundation of the Concord's success, and that in opposing one, they opposed both.

Mr. Minot, like Messrs. George and Tappan, justified the old Directors in all they had done, and declined to dignify by replying to them, any charges or insinuations of improper conduct on his part—merely appealing to his record for a lifetime. His remarks evidently were well received by the meeting. Gen. Butler and Mr. Marshall had stated that the Concord and Northern contract was singular and illegal, in not being submitted to the stockholders; and means consolidation, tends to that end, and is in itself consolidation. Col. George, while favoring all consolidation, denied this, as did Col. Tappan, who stated that he was retained by John H. Pearson and Geo. Clough to oppose consolidation. This brought up Mr. Pearson, who made the extraordinary statement that his ring had been offered $100,000 by Gov. Stearns to give up their stock at the prices they paid for it, but they had refused the offer!

THE BATTLE OF RICHARDS' FARM. The sunburst-era crossed the border, Wednesday forenoon, with Gen. O'Neill in command. Vowing that he would not return until victorious and that his body should be left on the battle field rather than retreat, Gen. O'Neill penetrated ten rods into the enemy's country and drew up his army of 400 men on a hill in battle array. One fourth of a mile away, one hundred Canadians armed with Spencer rifles were assembled on a hill to dispute the advance of the Fenians.

Capt. Cronan's Burlington, Vermont, company of 50 men dashed down the hill in order to form a skirmish line across a brook, and the Canadians opened fire, bringing the first blood of the war. One man was killed and a Lieutenant wounded. The company wavered, and receiving no support fell back to the shelter of the house and outbuildings of Mr. Alvah Richards. The next company under Captain Cary, joined them in the rear of the house.

Meanwhile the remainder of the Fenian forces, comprising three companies, deployed into the woods on the hill opposite the Canadian intrenchments. A sharp fire was kept up between the two armies and one Fenian was killed.

General O'Neill commanded in the woods in person, but failed to inspire his men with his own bravery, and went back for re-inforcements, after bitterly reproaching the men for their cowardice. The force fought bravely until an order was given to fall back. This was at once effected, and this portion retreated to the rendezvous near Richards', and there remained, fearing to attempt an escape during daylight, the Canadian volunteers having complete range of the open ground over which they must pass.

Shortly after noon, U. S. Marshal Foster with an assistant arrested O'Neill, while he was endeavoring to reach the right of his army, and in default of $20,000 bail he was taken to jail at St. Albans for violating the neutrality laws of the United States. Bail was furnished on Thursday and Gen. O'Neill proceeded to the front again.

After the battle, the desertions from the Fenian army equalled the reinforcements. The arrest of Gen. O'Neill demoralized them greatly. Two men were killed and a dozen wounded during the day. The Canadian loss is not known. They had a strong position—the same occupied by the Fenians in 1866. No artillery was used on either side. Four newspaper correspondents, who were treed with the two companies of Fenians behind Richards' barn, were allowed to return by the Canadians. It is evident that had generalship was shown in exposing the advance to the fire of the Canadians without shelter or support.

A company of U. S. Artillery arrived at the scene of battle on Wednesday and more are on the way. It is said that Maj. Gen. McDowell will take command and check hostile demonstrations from American soil.

The barn-yard heroes finally escaped Wednesday night; only one was wounded.

THE WOMAN'S RIGHTS QUESTION in Concord attracts considerable attention. Rev. S. L. Blake, pastor of the South Congregational church, in his Fast day sermon, discussed the question very bitterly, his conclusions being that the whole thing is a delusion and humbug. In the course of his remarks he took occasion to severely criticize the conduct and words of some of the leading minds in the Woman's Rights Convention in Concord last January.

Rev. J. F. Lovering, pastor of the Unitarian church, through the columns of the Monitor, pronounced Mr. Blake's remarks concerning the Convention an "unmitigated falsehood," and called on him either for proof or a retraction. On the next Sabbath, Rev. E. R. Sanborn, Universalist, reviewed Mr. Blake's discourse in a somewhat caustic manner.

No notice, however, was taken of his critics by Mr. B., until at a meeting in the South Church, of the Hopkinton Association of Congregational ministers, Rev. Dr. Savage of Franklin read an essay on Woman Suffrage, in which he pitched into Mr. Blake without mercy, pronouncing his sermon scandalous, &c. This called forth a sharp rejoinder from Mr. Blake, and other ministers participated in the discussion, which was a very earnest affair.

Again Mr. Lovering enters the field, and charges that Mr. Blake stole the introduction to his last year's Fast day sermon, having it printed as his own, and hence, having been dishonest in this thing, cannot be relied upon in his statements on other matters.

There are 1400 scholars in Dover Common Schools at the present time.

☞ From all appearances there will be more Americans in the Yosemite this year than in Switzerland. There is no horrid Atlantic to cross, and a great tide of travel is setting across the Continent to California. Fitz Hugh Ludlow has given in an octavo volume a glowing description of that wonderful "Heart of the Continent," and Col. Meline gives also the result of a horseback trip to New Mexico. Or, if one's ambition stops at the Adirondacks, let him read the poet Street's account of his adventures, tramping through the woods, climbing Mount Marcy, and making the Indian Pass. And as nobody, probably, is packing his trunk for the North Pole, the best thing he can do is to take a pitcher of ice-water, sit under the trees on a hot day, and read Dr. Hayes's "Open Polar Sea." These books are all published by H. O. Houghton & Co. of Cambridge.

CONGRESS.—The report of the committee of conference on the bill for the enforcement of the 15th Amendment passed the Senate on Wednesday by a vote of 48 to 11.

The House considered the Northern Pacific Railroad bill.

Mr. Ela of New Hampshire opposed the measure as dangerous to the ascendency of the republican party.

Dan. C. Kingman of Dover leaves this week for the Military school at West Point.

"FIVE MINUTES FOR REFRESHMENTS."—Everybody who has travelled by railroad has heard the above announcement, and has probably suffered from eating too hastily, thereby sowing the seeds of Dyspepsia. No. 4. 1ymy24dlaw

TO THE HON. JUDGE OF PROBATE

FOR the County of ROCKINGHAM.

Respectfully represents ABRAHAM Q. WENDELL, Executor of the will of JOHN C. CORNELIUS late of Portsmouth in said County, deceased, that the Personal Estate of said deceased is not sufficient to pay the just demands against his estate by the sum of seven hundred dollars, and that said deceased died seized of a certain lot of land with the dwelling house thereon situate in said Portsmouth, bounded Northerly by land owned by the heirs of the late JOHN RIDDER, Easterly by land formerly of WILLIAM STAVERS now by the heirs of the late THOMAS D. BAILEY, Southerly by Jefferson Street, and Westerly by land formerly of STEPHEN CHASE, and others, now in the occupation of MRS. SARAH CHASE, and that all of said Estate will be required to pay said debts and a part thereof cannot be sold without injury to the persons therein interested.

Wherefore he prays that he may be licensed to sell at Public Auction the whole of said Real Estate of said deceased above described, agreeable to the Statute in such case provided as may be sufficient for the payment of said demands. The tenth day of April, A. D., 1870. ABRAHAM Q. WENDELL, Executor, by his Att'y, WILLIAM H. HACKETT.

State of New Hampshire, Rockingham, ss.

Probate Office at Exeter, in said County May 10, A. D., 1870.

Upon the foregoing Petition, it is Ordered, that a hearing be had thereon at a Court of Probate to be holden at Portsmouth in said County, on the second Tuesday of July next; and that the Petitioner notify the heirs of said deceased, and all persons concerned or interested therein, to appear at said Court and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted, by causing said petition and this order to be published three weeks successively in the Daily Chronicle, a newspaper printed at Portsmouth in said County, the last publication whereof to be at least one week prior to said Court.

By order of the Judge.

THOMAS LEAVITT, Register of Probate.

Portsmouth, May 27, 1870. 3taw

TO THE HON. JUDGE OF PROBATE

FOR the County of ROCKINGHAM, IN THE STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Respectfully shows MARCELLUS BUFFORD of Portsmouth in the County of Rockingham that he is Guardian of ROBERT HORROCKS, an insane person resident in said Portsmouth, by the appointment of the Judge of Probate for the said County of Rockingham; that his said Ward is seized of the right in equity of redeeming the following described Real Estate lying in said Portsmouth to wit;—a certain lot of land situate on the corner of Hanover and Bridge Streets, bounded as follows beginning on Hanover Street at the corner of Bridge Street, and running on Hanover Street twenty-six feet then turning and running Northerly on the Bowling Alley lot forty feet, then turning and running on land now or formerly of BENJAMIN CHESYEE and JOSEPH M. EDMONDS thirty four feet, thence southerly on said Bridge Street to point began at, together with the two stores or building thereon, being premises mortgaged by said HORROCKS to MATHES & YARRELL and JOHN McINTIRE.

And that it is necessary for the support of his said Ward, and will be conducive to his interest to have the premises sold; wherefore, he prays that he may be licensed and authorized to sell the same at public auction, according to the statute in such case made and provided.

MARCELLUS BUFFORD, Guardian.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Thrice Armed!

Thrice is he armed who keeps within reach of his hand a specific that at one and the same time will strengthen, regulate and purify his system when enfeebled, disordered and corrupted.

Such is the threefold operation of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, and hence the great superiority of that standard vegetable restorative over all medicines that are merely tonics and nothing else. The effect of the ordinary astringent tinctures and extracts upon the bowels is disastrous, and upon the depraved blood or bile they produce no beneficial effects whatever in dyspepsia and liver complaint all the fluids and humors of the body are more or less infected, and the bowels are often badly constipated. An unmodified astringent—quinine for instance—does infinitely more harm than good in such cases.

In Hostetter's Bitters, on the other hand, the stimulating and tonic elements are qualified with aperients and antiseptics of magnificent. The finest laxatives and blood depurents in the vegetable kingdom are intermixed with those of a purely invigorating nature, and under the operation of this admirable combination, the three important processes of invigoration, regulation and purification go on together. The rapidity with which the disordered organization returns to its natural condition, under a course of the Bitters, is due to this cause.

Every disturbed function of the body is favorably affected by the various properties of this comprehensive and well balanced preparation. As a general rule the bowels are more subject to irregularities, and hence more liable to become vitiated in spring and summer than in winter, and hence the Bitters are especially valuable as a spring and summer alterative, corrective and invigorant. At all seasons where the seeds of intermittent fevers infect the air, this healthful vegetable elixir should be taken as a protective medicine.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use also saved the lives of those patients which lead the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12

"Children's Lives Saved for 50 Cts."

THOUSANDS OF CHILDREN DIE ANNUALLY OF CROUP. Now, Mothers, if you would spend 50 cents, and always have a bottle of DR. TOBIAS' VENETIAN LINIMENT in the house, you never need fear losing your little one when attacked with this complaint. It is now 22 years since I have put up my Liniment, and never heard of a child dying of Croup when my Liniment was used; and but hundreds of cures have been reported to me, and many state if it was $10 per bottle they would not be without it. Besides which, it is a certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throat, Swellings, Mumps, Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Spasms, Old Sores and Pains in the Limbs, Back, Chest. No one who once tries it is ever without it. It is warranted perfectly safe to take internally. Full directions with every bottle. Sold by the Druggists and Storekeepers in the United States. CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosciusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively, in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung disease in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says; "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case with my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says; I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR,

For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.

A Dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for Preserving the Hair. Faded or gray Hair is soon restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use.

Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remains can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor, can only benefit but not harm it.

If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white linen, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

CITY GOVERNMENT IN CARRIAGES.

The Procession will move at 2 o'clock precisely, through the route as follows: Form on Congress street, right resting at North Church. March through Market to Deer street, through Deer to Vaughan, through Vaughan to Elm to North Cemetery. Countermarch, through Railroad Avenue to Deer street, through Deer to Vaughan, through Vaughan to Congress, through Congress and Islington to Cabot, through Cabot to Middle, thro' Middle to Richards Avenue, through Richards Avenue to the Cemetery. Returning, through South, Pleasant, State, Middle and Congress streets to Market Square, where the Procession will be dismissed.

All Discharged Soldiers and Sailors in this vicinity are requested to meet at the Hall of Storer Encampment and join the Procession. Citizens and all organizations intending to join the line of march, will report to the Adjutant on Congress street at 1 1-2 o'clock, when they will be assigned their places in line.

The Ceremonies at the Cemetery, north of Harmony Grove, will be as follows:—

1 Form three sides of Hollow Square on ground.
2 Reading Scriptures: Prayer by Post Chaplain.
3 Reading of General Order by Post Adjutant.
4 Singing by double quartette of male voices.
5 Poem.
6 Address by Rev. Jas. DeNormandie.
7 Decoration of Graves.
8 Volley by firing party.
9 Re-assemble and sing "Strew Flowers where they Sleep."

On arrival of the procession at Market Square, Parade Dismissed.

YORK COUNTY.—Hon. Benj. J. Herrick died at Alfred, May 24th, aged 79 years. He was Deputy Sheriff many years, Sheriff of York County from 1831 to '36, Register Deeds from '36 to '47; and was prominent in Town, State, Masonic and Militia matters.

Rev. Mr. Hubbard, pastor of the Calvinist Church in Biddeford, died very suddenly on Friday morning last. Twelve clergymen present acted as pall bearers.

Col. F. D. Edgerly died at his residence in Biddeford, Tuesday last. He was elected City Clerk of Biddeford in 1857, and has served in that capacity up to the time of his death, and the town as Clerk for some time previous. He also held the office of Town Clerk in Buxton previous to his removal to Biddeford. His age was 68 years.

☞ A committee of the new board of directors of the Concord Railroad made a demand on Onslow Stearns, manager of the Concord and Northern Railroads, under the recent contract, between these roads, for the delivery of the property of the Concord Railroad. Governor Stearns received the committee very politely, and said that he was very happy to meet them, and as it was probable that their intercourse would extend for a number of years, he hoped that it would be mutually amicable and agreeable. The new board has made an application to the Supreme Judicial Court to have the existing injunction dissolved. A hearing is to be had next Friday.

NEW VESSELS.—Capt. William Morgan, of Seabrook, N. H., is building a handsome and well timbered Schr. designed for the mackerel fishery, from a model furnished by himself. She is built of the best stock, and when completed will be A 1 in every respect. She is to be ready for launching about the 15th of June.

Bradford Oakes, of Kennebunkport, has a frame for a coaster of 130 tons in his yard, and is cutting another the same size, to be built this season. Col. William Thompson, of the same place, will have his 1600 ton ship ready for sea in ten days.

☞ The Annual Meeting of the Northern R. R. Co. was held at Concord on Thursday. The old Board of Directors was unanimously re-elected and a resolution endorsing the business contract with the Concord Road was unanimously passed.

N. H. EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.—On Wednesday, at Dover, on the 8th ballot Professor W. W. Niles, Professor of the Languages and Literature at Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., was unanimously elected for Bishop of New Hampshire.

☞ A blackguard is a blackguard, whether he wears nice clothes, has a smooth tongue and pretends to be a gentleman, or is careless of his looks and reputation, and never claims to be decent.

The Dover Enquirer asks the News Letter wherein Mr. Ela has not made as good and great a record as Gen. Marston in Congress?

William Hartshorn, Esq., of Manchester, a prominent citizen of that city, died on Monday last, aged 57 years. He was a member of the council for several years, and had been elected to the legislature.

P H. Peavey and George Bradford were before the Dover Police Court, on charge of selling liquor to John R. Smith. They were bound over in $200 for appearance at the Sept. term of the S. J. Court. George Bradford and Edwin A. Smith were sureties for Mr. Bradford; J. T. Dodge and Edwin A. Smith were sureties for Mr. Peavy. Five persons were up on complaint of fast driving, four of whom pleaded guilty, and were fined $1 and costs. Mr. Peavy pleaded not guilty, and appealed.

L—O—A—N
—OF THE—
CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILROAD CO.
The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad
Is completed and running from RICHMOND, Va., to the celebrated WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, in West Va., 227 miles. It is being rapidly extended to the Ohio River, 200 miles further, making in all 427 miles.
In its progress Westward, it penetrates and opens up to market the Wonderful Coal Deposits of the Kanawha Region in West Virginia. And thus brings the superior and abundant Coals of that section into communication with the Iron Ores of Virginia and Ohio, and the Western, South Western and Eastern markets.
When completed it will connect the superior harbor facilities of the Chesapeake Bay with reliable navigation on the Ohio River, and thus with the entire system of Railroad and Water transportations of the great West and South-West.
It will make a short, easy, cheap and favorable route from the West, to the sea, and will command a large share of the enormous freights seeking transportation to the east.
It will thus become one of the most important and profitable East and West Trunk Lines of Railroad in the country, and command a trade of immense value.
The completed portion of the Road is doing a profitable and increasing Business, and is fully equal in value to the whole amount of the mortgage upon the entire Line—($15,000,000.)
The loan of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company, being a First Mortgage upon the entire Line, property and equipments, worth when completed at least $30,000,000, is therefore one of the most substantial, conservative and reliable Railroad Loans ever offered in the market, and is peculiarly adapted to the wants of
INVESTORS and CAPITALISTS,
Who desire to make their investments with the most satisfactory assurance of positive and undoubted Security.
The Bonds are in denominations of
$1000, $500 and $100,
and may be had COUPON or REGISTERED.
Interest Six per cent. per annum, payable MAY 1st and NOVEMBER 1st.
PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK.
Price 90 and accrued Interest in Currency, at which price they pay nearly Seven per cent. in gold on their cost.
All Government Bonds and other Securities dealt in at the Stock Exchange, received in exchange, at their full market value, and Bonds sent to all parts of the country, free of Express charges.
They can be obtained by ordering direct from us or through any responsible Bank or Banker in any part of the country.

Weekly Chronicle.

OLD TIME CHRONICLES—No. 3.

BY UNCLE JOSEPH.

PORTSMOUTH SIXTY YEARS AGO.—The period was not very long ago, particularly as relating to this town, now 247 years old. Yet since then two generations have lived, acted and passed away. The limits of the town were about as now. The population was not far from 6000, being more than twice greater than that of any other town in the State. It held this ascendency as to population until Manchester outstripped it, perhaps some twenty years ago.

About 60 years ago, President Timothy Dwight, of Yale College, Conn., visited Portsmouth, and states in his Book of Travels that the number of dwellings was 626, although he thinks that Newmarket was united with it in the enumeration as one District. He says almost all were built of wood. Their contiguity to each other in the compact part of the town, he thought very dangerous if fires should occur, as the conflagration might become extensive. But up to that time Portsmouth had not suffered much by fire. We think not more than a dozen dwellings had been burned, so far as any record appears, and a few other buildings. The jail had been burned, but we have not the date.

Pres. Dwight died in 1817. Before his death he had occasion to learn what ruin fire had caused in this town. That of 1813 was terrible. The light of it was seen 25 or 30 miles back in the country.

Sixty years ago there were seven places of worship; now there are ten. One Society that existed then, the Sandemanian, has become extinct. Another, the Independent, has also ceased. The Universalist was then in its infancy, and small. The Methodists had not commenced a stated meeting then. Rev. Drs. Buckminster and Parker were in the full tide of prosperity as pastors of the two Congregational churches. Rev. Hosea Ballou, afterwards very prominent among the Universalists, was preaching to the Society of that denomination, in this place.

Hon. Daniel Webster and Gov. Woodbury had not come to town. But there were able men. We will only name Jeremiah Mason, famous at the Bar, and John Langdon, then Governor of the State. Gov. Langdon served in that capacity eight years in all, was a true patriot and deservedly popular. He was elected the last time in 1811.

The Brick Market was then regarded as the handsomest building of the kind of any in New England.

The Legislature in the earliest years held its sessions in Portsmouth and Exeter until after the Revolution. Then sometimes here and in Concord, Exeter, Hopkinton and Dover. The last session in Portsmouth was in 1805. Mr. Langdon was then Governor. The building in P. in which the Legislature convened was an indifferent one for the purpose.

The town has had poets from a somewhat early period. They are named quite fully in the Chronicle of April 23. There was one, however, more than 60 years ago not named in that article; Jonathan M. Sewall, a native of Salem, Mass. He was a lawyer and wrote some respectable poetry. He practiced law here for some years, and died in 1808, aged 60.

Portsmouth in various ways has acquired fame in the past. It may have been tarnished by some dishonor, such is the imperfection of the human character. May its future be glorious and equal to its high advantages.

Correspondence of Chronicle and Gazette.

KITTERY, ME, May 26.

Wentworth Encampment, Post No. 14, G. A. R., will observe Sunday, May 29, as Memorial Day. This is deemed desirable for several reasons; we can get the Portsmouth Cornet Band on that day, and hope also to be assisted by Rev. Mr. DeNormandie, of your city; and our citizens can meet better on that day than any other, to render just tribute to the memory of our gallant dead. One pleasant feature of the exercises will be the singing, by about fifty children under the direction of Mrs. Tilton, of the Memorial songs. Armory Hall will be kept open through the day, that all who wish may see how our boys appeared when with us.

The procession will move at 2 o'clock precisely for Orchard Grove Cemetery. The Sabbath Schools and Societies, the God Templars and citizens generally, will turn out; and I believe Storer Encampment and the Fire Companies of Portsmouth have been invited.

It is understood that Wentworth Encampment will assist at Portsmouth on Monday; many of the members will be there, certainly, but there is a desire to appear as a Post; there is to be a meeting on Friday evening, to arrange all matters. K. M.

A GREAT SPRING OF WATER.—Mr. David Murray of Newmarket, (a very smart and capable old gentleman, by the way,) gives in the Exeter News-Letter, some remarkable facts concerning the famous Chapman Spring at Newmarket.

To see it is well worth a ten miles ride. Its source is wholly unknown, and probably is miles back in the country. It issues through a large aperture under the roots of a maple tree, in the field of David Chapman, about 1 1-2 miles northwest of Newmarket village. It has been gauged and found to discharge of pure limpid waters at the rate of about 149,610 gallons per twenty-four hours.

From the earliest recollection of the oldest inhabitants in the neighborhood, and their fathers', there has not appeared to be the slightest variation in the amount discharged, whatever might be the state of the atmosphere. The old plains meeting house where Rev. Nathaniel Ewer and Elder John Osborne formerly dispensed the word, was in the vicinity of this spring, and on pleasant Sabbaths, during the summer season, might be seen a large portion of the worshippers gathered around it to partake of luncheons which had been brought from one to six miles, and to sip of the excellent waters.

It also has been a frequent resort, during the summer months, for picnic parties, bands, engine companies, and numerous individuals. A few years ago, the owner, Mr. David Chapman, built a dam across the ravine, about twenty rods below the spring, and erected a building for mechanical purposes, where quite an amount of business is done by machinery propelled entirely by the waters of this spring. They then fall into the Piscassic River, about a mile above the Falls, where Lafayette Hall, Esq., a very enterprising citizen of Durham, has a large mill, in which about 500 tons of iron per annum is turned or made into nuts, bolts, &c., mostly for the Grand Trunk. This spring is one of the main tributaries of the river, especially during the dry season of the year.

There is a clear and beautiful bubbling Spring or Springs, at Lincoln Hill in this city, much like the above in a smaller way—which never seems to shrink at all in the severest draught, or swell in freshet time, and never freezes in winter; but always pours forth a steady stream of the purest cool water, which ceaselessly runs to the South Pond. A pump, dipper and tub, placed on South Summer Street, enables many a passing man and horse, to test its refreshing quality; and were a steam pump placed there, and pipes laid from the top of the hill, the flow is doubtless sufficient to supply the whole South End.

CONTINUYED YUSE OF MEWSICK INTO MEETIN.—By P. Benson Sr.—When the people gets moastly into meetin, the quire should sing a toon. It kan be enny kind of a toon, for it izzent enny part of the meetin. Wunst there was a preecher to our meetin, which wuzzent very well acquainted there, so, after the quire hed sung thair toon, insted of sayin "We will begin the worship" as he ot to hev sed, sez he, "We will continyue the wursbip by singin sitch a him found on sitch a page." You see he diddent no enny better, and he thot the toon witch the quire had sang was a part of the meetin.

While the quire is a singing of this toon, it is a good time for the sexton to poke the fire, & if he kan make it smoke rite smart so much the better. Let it smoke so that it will be a good eel more smoke than fire. The smoke will have the effeck 2 subdoo the light by dilutin of it when it is two strong, & this will be a bennyfit to them which has week ize, for strong lite is dredful hard on week ize.

The mewsick into meetin is yusephool to hide the noise of enny which may be wispering or taoking. If there is too preechers into the pulpit they kan tock while the quire sings.

If the sexton wants to shut or open the windoughs the best time is while the singin is goin on. As soon as he gets the windoughs fixed, if the singin aint dun yet he kan poke the fire sum moar.

Mewsick is yusephool to help fill up the time, while the hat is passed round to take up a collexion. The singin at this time bad ought to be dun with great earnestness, so as to make most of the konggerrygashen shut thar ize till after the hat is passed by them. The moar earnest they sing the moar the people that's sittin into the same seat with them will poot into the hat.

Sum time must alwaze be spent in lookin around to see how each other is drest & how thair bunnets is trimd & it makes it moar interestin if all does it at the same time. The best time is while they are a singin.—Chicago Song Mes.

Correspondence of the Chronicle and Gazette.

KITTERY POINT, ME., May 25.

Extremes in religious opinions meet in this goodly town of Kittery. On Sunday, May 22nd, the Adventists commenced a Camp Meeting here, near the Christian chapel,—to be continued till June 5th, a period of two weeks. The attendance has not been very large as yet, though there were some hundreds of visitors on the opening day. How much good is being done I cannot say.

At the upper Foreside, the Universalists (who are very numerous there) have held a large meeting to take measures for organizing a Society; and appointed working committees to see what can be done in the way of having regular services. They even talk seriously of building a church, and I am informed have received liberal encouragement among the citizens.

There are many Spiritualists in this town,—a large number of them residing at the Foreside—though they do not make any open profession, nor have public meetings. Perhaps they and the Universalists may unite.

The spiritual wants of all our people will not be supplied until we have, in addition to the churches already established or talked of, a Calvinistic and an Orthodox Society.

I am glad liberality is so marked in our churches here, and hope they all will have all the encouragement needed; and that they may get still more of Christianity and less of Theology. They will have much more power for good, in such a case. No society will plead guilty to the charge of bigotry—but bigotry has existed, even in Kittery; and it has been by no means confined to one sect or denomination. But charity is finding its way into the hearts of all, and intolerance is being cast out. B.

☞ The course taken by the Portland Advertiser doesn't please some of the Republican papers down in Maine, and has led to some strictures from the displeased. The Advertiser raps leading politicians without scruples and that is the cause of the "talking to" it gets. We judge that the editor has got his "dander" up to a high pitch, for in Wednesday's edition he "cleans the coop" with one fell swoop, as follows, to wit:

If these fellows never mind their own business, except when they are seasick, why should we not examine their motives and opinions, as well as they ours? Is it not a notorious fact that the agricultural editor of the Lewiston Journal killed all his hens by forcing them to drink boiling water, in hopes to persuade them to lay boiled eggs? Did not the editor of the Bath Times, when the horse ran away with him, going down hill, and an inscrutable Providence miraculously preserved his life, ungratefully say that his confidence in God remained firm till the breeching broke, and then he gave up in despair? Is not the Kennebec paper like the Dutch justice, who gave judgment after hearing one side, for fear the other would puzzle him? As for the Press, is it not like the sausage, which ceases to inspire respect when people know how it is made?

We hope all this is not in violation of the statute supplementary to an act to amend an act making it penal to alter the mark on an unmarked dog. On reflection we are sure it isn't, for that was a Virginia statute.

New Hampshire Items.

Mr. J. D. Garland, of Farmington, has leased the Norway House in Rochester.

Mr. G. G. Bidwell, of Keene, had fourteen nice sheep killed by dogs on the 5th, in his pasture in Swanzey.

Mr. David Murray says the article (we recently copied) on Atkinson, reminds him of "the Newmarket Plains School District, which is sometimes called Goshen on account of its pure, invigorating atmosphere, and the longevity of its inhabitants. About two years ago, there were living there 16 persons above seventy years of age, six of whom were over eighty years; the whole population being less than one hundred. Atkinson 9 3-5 to the 100, and Newmarket Plains about 17 to the 100. Here lived John Watson, whose family consisted of himself, wife, and seven children, (one having died in infancy,) whose united ages were 746 years; average 82 and 8-9 years. Here, too, is the wonderful Chapman Spring, which discharges 149,610 gallons in 24 hours. Let Atkinson take a back seat."

H. T. HELMBOLD'S
CONCENTRATED
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,
THE GREAT DIURETIC.

The proprietor trusts that his Remedies, from the fact of their being advertised, may not be classed as Patent Medicines.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU

is a pharmaceutical preparation. The proper name is given, and it is the most active which can be made. It is endorsed as a cure by all medical works for such diseases as recommended by the proprietor. It is pleasant in its taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and is taken by adults and children. It is tonic, diuretic, blood-purifying, and invigorating. Enfeebled and delicate constitutions of both sexes will find it far more strengthening than any of the preparations of bark or bitters.

See medical properties contained in Dispensatory of the United States, of which the following is a correct copy:—

BUCHU.—Its odor is strong, diffusive, and somewhat aromatic; its taste is bitterish, and analogous to that of mint. It is given chiefly in complaints of the urinary organs, such as gravel, chronic catarrh of the bladder, morbid irritation of the prostate gland, and retention or the incontinence of urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. It has also been recommended in dyspepsia, chronic rheumatism, cutaneous affections, and dropsy.

Cure of Gravel of Five Years Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

SAVANNAH, TENN., May 14, 1869.

Dr. H. T. Helmbold, Sir:

DEAR SIR: We introduced your "Fluid Extract Buchu" in this county about eight months ago, and are happy to state that it is meeting with universal favor. We wish to inform you of one instance (among many) where your "Buchu" has worked wonders. A man in our county, named J. B. Estell, had been suffering about five years with gravel.

About six weeks ago he bought of us one bottle of your "Buchu," and before he was through with one bottle he passed a gravel that weighs eight grains, which we now have on exhibition in our drug store. He says that he will never do without the "Buchu" in his house again. Your preparations are gaining favor every day.

Very respectfully yours, &c.,
ECCLES & HINKLE, Druggists.

Cure of Bladder and Kidney Affection of long Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

WESTPORT, CONN., Sept. 9, 1869.

H. T. Helmbold, Esq.,

DEAR SIR: I commenced taking your "Extract of Buchu" about two weeks since for an affection of the bladder and kidneys. I have suffered by spells very much for a few days past. But yesterday relief came through the effect of your "Buchu." A stone passed from my bladder about the size of a large pea, and I now feel perfectly well and entirely free from the pain that I have suffered with "so hard." I attribute my cure to your medicine entirely, and would recommend all persons similarly affected to try it. I have great faith in its curative powers.

Yours truly, THOMAS J. BENNETT.

Cure of Kidney and Bladder Affection of a Patient Seventy-eight years of Age. Thanks to Mr. Helmbold.

GIRARD, PA., March 31, 1869.

Editor Cosmopolite: I desire, as an unsolicited tribute to the merits of Helmbold's Buchu, and for the benefit of those similarly afflicted as myself, to say that after consulting many eminent physicians, and trying nearly all the best advertised Remedies, in the vain hope of finding relief from aggravated kidney and bladder diseases, from which I have suffered excessively for many years, good fortune finally suggested to me Helmbold's Buchu, which I commenced using with little faith, and no apparent beneficial results for about a month.

At the expiration of that time, however, I thought I commenced to experience slight relief, which encouraged me to persevere in its use, and now, at the expiration of four months, although I am an infirm old man, nearly 78 years of age, and consequently medicines cannot be expected to favorably affect me as they otherwise would, I have found such unspeakable relief and permanent benefit from Mr. Helmbold's valuable discovery, that I feel I ought to publicly record the fact, as an acknowledgment to him, and a valuable suggestion to the public. Yours respectfully,

D. M. LAREN.

DR. KEYSER
is a physician of over thirty years' experience, and a graduate of the Jefferson Medical College, and of the University of Medicine and Surgery of Philadelphia. Hear him:

Mr. H. T. Helmbold.

DEAR SIR: In regard to the question asked me as to my opinion about Buchu, I wohld say that I have used and sold the article in various forms for the past thirty years. I do not hesitate to say in any form or preparation of it I have not used, or known to be used, in the various diseases where such medicate agent would be indicated. You are aware, as well as myself, that it has been extensively employed in the various diseases of the bladder and kidneys, and the reputation it has acquired, in my judgment, is warranted by the facts.

I have seen and used, as before stated, every form of Buchu—the powdered leaves—tincture, fluid extracts—and I am not cognizant of any preparation of that plant at all equal to yours. Twelve years' experience ought, I think, to give me the right to judge of its merits; and, without prejudice or partiality, I give yours precedence over all others.

I value your Buchu for its effect on patients. I have cured with it, and seen cured with it, more diseases of the bladder and kidneys than I have ever seen cured with any other Buchu or any other proprietary compound of whatever name.

Respectfully yours, &c.,
GEO. H. KEYSER, M. D.,
140 Wood Street, Pittsburgh, Penn.
August 11, 1865.

GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, Jan. 28, 1868.

Mr. H. T. Helmbold,

DEAR SIR: Your communication requesting our terms for advertising was duly received, but from a prejudice I had formed against advertising "cures for secret diseases," it was left unanswered. During an accidental conversation in a drug store the other evening, my mind was changed on the character of your Buchu. It was then highly commended for other diseases by two physicians present. Incosed please find our rate o advertising. Yours, T. B. H. STENHOUSE,
Ed'r and Prop'r of Telegraph.

TESTIMONIALS.

A Permanent Cure of Gravel of twelve Years' Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

BURNSIDE, CONN., Dec. 15, 1869.

Dr. Helmbold,

DEAR SIR: It is with much pleasure that I write you upon facts respecting myself. I do not know hardly how to express myself. I have been for the last ten or twelve years the greatest sufferer man could be and live; but more sometimes than others. The complaint was the "Kidneys" and "Bladder." I have been sometimes from twelve to fourteen hours, and wanted to make water every minute, but could not. I have consulted doctors, both in Massachusetts and this State, and taken pills, I may say by the quart, also liquid medicines, but found no relief from any, and got worse the last six months. I was so that I could scarcely get about, I could not rest night or day.

I heard soon have been "all up" with me if I had not seen your advertisement headed "Kidneys." I read it through and thought I would try it. I purchased a bottle, but, mind you, had not much faith in it. My body was all fallen from being trying so many things that cost me so much? Well, I began taking it, and before I had taken the first bottle I felt that it did me good; got another. By the time I took half of the second I still got worse (apparently.) When I walked it seemed as if my right kidney was falling from its place, and I felt really bad. I felt so, before I had finished the second, that I had madeup my mind it was of no use trying any more—and all the time the "Buchu" was doing its work, but I did not know it, so I gave it up and went to Hartford on Saturday to one of the best doctors in the city. He said it was the last stage, if this I tried again, I should have to undergo an operation. He gave me medicine, and I went home quite downhearted.

On Sunday I was unable to go to church. I had not taken any of his medicine, but on my return continued using the "Buchu;" and in the afternoon I had a desire to make water, but could not. About one hour after this I tried again, with the same result; but the next time I took the vessel it was the same as turning a faucet and stopping it off again. This went on for three times, and the third time there was something came through the passage and struck against the side of the vessel. I reached and felt, and it is the ugliest stone or gravel you ever saw, covered over with little pieces which collected together. It looks and feels just like a piece of flint. I am pretty well known in Berkshire; also in Connecticut. The advertisement saved me. Why not publish more? If any one wishes to see this wonder, they can do so. I could write all day, but I think I have said enough this time. so I remain your ever well-wisher, EDWARD L. HOWARD,

Dr. H. T. Helmbold,

Two bottles only of the package of your valuable Buchu presented to the Institute have been used by the children, and with perfect success. In the case of our little Lieutenant A. J., his pride is no longer mortified, and he is free from the daily morning anathemas of the chamber-maid who has charge of his bedding.

I feel that a knowledge of the result of our use of your Buchu with the children under our charge may save many a Superintendent and Matron of Boarding Schools and Asylums a great amount of annoyance; and many a poor child suffering more from Weakness than from habit, may be spared punishment for faults, not knowing it as a weakness instead of a bad habit) most unjustly inflicted upon them. Thanking you on behalf of the children, and hoping your success may be alike benefitted, I am respectfully yours.

A Case of Twenty Years Standing.

PHILADELPHIA, PENN., June 25, 1867.

H. T. Helmbold, Druggist.

DEAR SIR: I have been a sufferer for upwards of twenty years with gravel, bladder, and kidney affections, during which time I have used various medicinal preparations, and been under the treatment of some of the most eminent physicians, experiencing but little relief.

Having seen your preparations extensively advertised, I consulted a medical physician in regard to using your Extract Buchu.

I did this because I had used all kinds of advertised Remedies and had found them worthless, and some quite injurious; in fact, I despaired of ever getting well, and determined to use no Remedies hereafter unless I knew of the ingredients. It was this last proposition that induced me to try it. As you advertised that it was composed of Buchu, cubebs, and juniper berries, it occurred to me and others, that it was a prescription of medicine; and, with his advice, after an examination of the article, and consulting again with the Druggist, I concluded to try it. I commenced to use it about eight months ago, at which time I was confined to my room.

From the first bottle I was astonished and gratified at the beneficial effect it produced, and after three weeks was able to walk out. I felt much like writing to you a full statement of my case at the time, but thought my improvement might only be temporary, and therefore concluded to defer, and see if it would effect a perfect cure, knowing that it would be of greater value to you and more satisfactory to me.

I am now able to report that a cure is effected after using the remedy for five months. I have not used your Buchu for three months, and feel as well in all respects as I ever did.

Your Buchu being devoid of any unpleasant taste and odor, and a tonic and invigorator of the system, I do not mean to be without it whenever occasion may require its use in such cases.

DODD'S NERVINE is not a new medicine, but has been before the public for the last fifteen years. It is compounded from the best and purest drugs. Contains no OPIUM, STRYCHNINE or MERCURY in any form, and is expressly adapted to the relief and permanent cure of all forms of
NERVOUS DISEASES, &c., &c.,
Coughs, Colds, Fevers, Ague, Biliousness, Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Liver Complaint, Diarrhœa, Consumption, Neuralgia, Headache, Convulsions, Palpitation, Sleeplessness, Restlessness, Dizziness, Children's Troubles &c., &c., &c.,
DODD'S NERVINE
Is a COMPLETE SPECIFIC for sleeplessness. It soothes the throbbing muscle like magic, and tranquilizes the mind. And everybody knows that good sleep is better than all medicines. And all folks that
CAN'T SLEEP NIGHTS,
Should use this truly wonderful medicine.
DODD'S NERVINE
Is one of the best remedies ever employed in the cure of the numerous and troublesome ailments known as FEMALE COMPLAINTS.
For Whooping Cough.
DODD'S NERVINE is administered with unexampled success. Mothers, remember this and save your little ones the agony of a most distressing complaint. It also works admirably in Measles, bringing out the rash well and leaving the bowels free and healthful. For the diseases which afflict CHILDREN WHEN TEETHING, nothing can furnish more instant or grateful relief. Remember, it contains no OPIUM in any form.
LOOK OUT FOR COLDS.
It is proverbial that people treat a cold (and the generally accompanying cough) as something that will cure itself; but neglect is serious and sometimes fatal. The fame of DODD'S NERVINE in the relief of cold, cough, &c., is due to this standard remedy, and so far abstain from liquids of all kinds as to keep somewhat thirsty for a few days, and the worst cold will soon be gone.
DODD'S NERVINE
Is a PURE TONIC—harmonizes perfectly with the NERVE FIBRE—gives increased energy to the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, and other viscera—and supplies FRESH LIFE for the waste that is constantly taking place. It operates soothingly—is as pleasant to take as any wine, and with SLEEP AND GOOD DIGESTION, which it promotes, restores the afflicted to sound health of body and quietness of mind. It contains no opium, mercury or strychnine, (so often used for nervous complaints,) and is wholly free from any deleterious drugs whatever. Tens of thousands are testifying to its curative power. my17tw

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.
The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it shows itself in eruptions on the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly developes into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may suddenly be deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this SARSAPARILLA is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear.

Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and at length, cure, by the use of this SARSAPARILLA: St. Anthony's Fire, Hives or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicide will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac supplied gratis.

Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to this also Dropsies, Neuralgia, Torpidity Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic or Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon a trial.

New Publications Received.

The American Odd Fellow for the current month contains a great variety of interesting reading matter for the fraternity, their families, and the uninitiated. $1.50 per volume. Published by John W. Orr, No. 98 Nassau street, New York.

The Advance.—This excellent paper, which Henry Ward Beecher says is now "standing fairly on the highest ground yet reached by religious journals in America," is offered to the public for one dollar, from June until January next. To all who would be glad to try The Advance, an excellent opportunity is thus offered. Address The Advance Co., Chicago.

The Radical, for June, Boston, $4 a year, 35 cts. per No. The contents include, What is Religion, and What is it for? Theology and Religion, Yankee Church Music Translations of the Voices of the New Time, by C. C. Shackford, &c.

At the annual meeting of the Merrimac and Connecticut River Railroad corporation, the following board of directors was chosen:—Oaslow Stearns, John A. Burnham, George W. Nesmith, Uriel Crocker, David Steele and Otis Daniel. Onslow Stearns was chosen president, Charles P. Sanborn, clerk, and Uriel Crocker, treasurer, pro tem.

—A St. Louis husband applies for a divorce on the ground that his wife made him fast continually for religious purposes.

FROM THE BORDER.—The escape of the Fenians in Richards' barnyard is described as follows:—About dusk, Major McGinnis of Boston, with a few men, brought up from the rear a six-pounder breech-loader and threw a few solid shot toward Eccle's Hill where the Canadian troops were. This movement was intended to divert the attention of the latter while Donnelly and his men withdrew. The gun was handled very awkwardly and did no injury. The Canadians responded by coming down to the line and attempting to flank Donnelly's command. The latter emerged from their position, returned the fire of the Canadians for a few minutes, then turned and ran up the hill to Franklin. In their retreat General Donnelly was seriously wounded in the chest and two others were slightly hurt. One man was killed according to the report of the Fenians, and two according to that of the Canadians. The Fenians say they buried one, but did not know his name.

The cannon was left on the field and in the night the Canadians crossed and captured it. Donnelly received a Snyder rifle ball in his chest. His case is critical. The Canadians are highly elated at their victory, as they have reason to be. Not a man on their side was injured in the least.

Two Fenians from Troy were captured Tuesday evening, on the Canadian side, and taken to Stanbridge. They were intoxicated, lost their way, and were inquiring for O'Neill's headquarters. Two or three men were seized on Wednesday evening. The battlefield was visited by hundreds of people. The United States marshal has taken possession of all the arms and munitions he can find. More United States troops have arrived.

Leading Fenian officers held a meeting, and Gen. Spear was elected commander. The scene of hostilities has been changed to Malone, N. Y. It is certain that several hundred Fenians crossed the line at daylight, Thursday. Reinforcements are arriving there rapidly. The Montreal papers say that the Fenians captured Huntington, Thursday morning, capturing two companies of Canadians.

Gen. Gleason led the Fenian army of 1500 to attack Huntington, on Friday. The whole force was driven across the line by the Canadians, leaving their wounded on the field. Gen. Gleason returned to New York in disgust.

Gen. J. J. Donnelly, of Utica, N. Y., died of his wounds, Friday.

New Hampshire Items.

The house, barn and other outbuildings of M. H. and Sam'l Farnum were burned at West Concord, Sunday night, with most of their contents. A very fine lot of live stock was burned, which included four oxen, three cows, two horses, and swine. The family were all in bed excepting a son, who, on returning from the village, found one of the mows of hay in the barn in a blaze. The flames spread very rapidly. Loss estimated at $12,000, and insured for $3000.

Charles H. Gilman, the noted cattle-selling swindler, has been arrested at Carroll. His friends plead insanity for him.

BRIGHTON CATTLE MARKET.

FOR THE WEEK ENDING THURSDAY, MAY 26.

[Reported for the Boston Journal.]

At market for the current week—Cattle 2166; Sheep and Lambs 5633; Swine 5400; number of Western Cattle 1765; Eastern Cattle 195; Northern Cattle and Working Oxen 256. Cattle left over 56.

Prices Beef Cattle—Extra $12 25 @ $13 75; first quality $12 75 @ $13 00; second quality $11 25 @ $12 50; third quality $12 00 @$11 25; poorest grade of coarse Oxen, Bulls, &c., $8 50 @ $10 50 ℔ cwt, (the total weight of hides, tallow and dressed beef.)

Brighton Hides 7 @ 7½c ℔ lb; Country Hides 6½ @ 7c ℔ lb.

Brighton Tallow 6½ @ 7½c per lb; Country Tallow 6 @ 7c ℔ lb.

Sheep and Lamb Skins $1 25 @ $1 50 each; Calf Skins 16 @ 17c ℔ lb.

There were more Cattle in market from all sections the week than there were last, and the prices have fallen off ½ @ ¾c ℔ lb from our last quotations. A few of the very best Cattle were commissioned, and it was estimated would cost 14c ℔ lb, but the larger portion of the best Cattle sold at 13 @ 14½c ℔ lb. There was not so much change in the extra qualities as in the common grades. The trade was active and nearly all the Cattle were sold. Wednesday there were several hundred Cattle from Canada and the West landed at Cambridge and driven here to be sold.

Store Cattle—With the exception of Working Oxen and Milch Cows there were but a few Stores in market. Nearly all the small Cattle are bought up to slaughter if in a fair condition.

Milch Cows—Most of the Cows in market are of an ordinary grade; prices depend much upon the fancy of the purchaser, buying from $45 to $155 ℔ head.

Working Oxen—During the summer there is not much trade for workers usually, and a small number is all the market requires. We quote sales at $140, $160, $150, $180, $185, $216, $250, $270 ℔ head.

Sheep and Lambs—Nearly all the Western Sheep were owned by butchers, and were taken direct from the cars to be slaughtered. We quote prices of extra at $6 @ $10 ℔ head; ordinary lots $4 @ $6, or from 5½ @ 10c ℔ lb. Lambs $8 to $10 ℔ head

Swine—Store Pigs—Wholesale 11 @ 14c ℔ lb; retail 11 @ 16c ℔ lb. Spring Pigs 18 @ 20c ℔ lb. Fat Hogs—4200 at market: prices 10 @ 10½c ℔ lb. Coarse heavy Shoats 10 @ 12c ℔ lb.

DUPONCO'S GOLDEN PILL. FOR FEMALES.

Infallible in correcting irregularities, and removing obstructions of the monthly periods. It is over forty years since these now so well known pills were first brought to notice by Dr. Duponco, of Paris, during which time they have been extensively and successfully used by some of the leading physicians, with unparalleled success. Ladies in poor health, either married or single, suffering from any of the Complaints peculiar to Females, will find the Duponco Golden Pills invaluable, viz., General Debility, Headache, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Palpitation of the Heart, Retained, Excessive, Irregular or Painful Menstruation, Rush of Blood to Head, Dizziness, Dimness of Sight, Fatigue on any slight exertion, and particularly that most annoying, weakening ailment, so common among Females, both married and single, the Leucorrhœa or Whites. Females in every period of life will find Duponco's Pills a remedy to aid nature in the discharge of its functions. They invigorate the debilitated and delicate, and by regulating and strengthening the system, prepare the youthful constitution for the duties of life, and when taken by those in middle life or old age they prove a perfect blessing. There is nothing in the pills that can do injury to life or health. Sale in their operation, perpetual in their happy influences upon the Nerves, the Mind and the entire organization. S. D. HOWES, Proprietor, N. Y. ALVAH LITTLEFIELD, Boston, Agent, N. E. States.

Ladies by enclosing $1 by mail will have the Pills sent confidentially to any address.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Thrice Armed!

Thrice is he armed who keeps within reach of his hand a specific that at one and the same time will strengthen, regulate and purify his system when enfeebled, disordered and corrupted.

Such is the three-fold operation of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, and hence the great superiority of this invigorant and vegetable restorative over all medicines that are merely tonics and nothing else. The effect of the ordinary astringent tinctures and extracts upon the bowels is injurious, and upon the depraved blood or bile they produce no beneficial effects whatever. In dyspepsia and liver complaint all the fluids and humors of the body are more or less infected, and the bowels are often badly constipated. An unmodified astringent—quinine for instance—does infinitely more harm than good in such cases.

In Hostetter's Bitters, on the other hand, the stimulating and tonic elements are qualified with aperients and antiseptic ingredients. The finest laxatives and blood depurants in the vegetable kingdom are intermixed with those of a purely invigorating nature, and under the operation of this admirable combination, the three important processes of invigoration, regulation and purification go on together. The rapidity with which the disordered organization returns to its natural tone, and hence the Bitters are especially valuable as a spring and summer alterative, corrective and invigorant. At all seasons where the seeds of intermittent fever infect the air, this healthful vegetable elixir should be taken as a protective medicine.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by their persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 3, 1865.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which feed the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12

"Children's Lives Saved for 50 Cts."

THOUSANDS OF CHILDREN DIE ANNUALLY OF CROUP. Now, Mothers, if you would spend 50 cents, and always have a bottle of DR. TOBIAS' VENETIAN LINIMENT in the house, you never need fear losing your little one when attacked with this complaint. It is now 22 years since I have put up my Liniment, and never heard of a child dying of Croup when my Liniment was used; but hundreds of cases have been reported to me, and many state if it was $10 per bottle they would not be without it. Besides which, it is a certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throat, Swellings, Mumps, Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Spasms, Old Sores and Pains in the Limbs, Back, Chest. No one who once tries it is ever without it. It is warranted perfectly safe to take internally. Full directions with every bottle. Sold by the Druggists and Storekeepers in the United States. CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosciusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively, in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung disease in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says: "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says: I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

Physicians do not recommend a medicine which has no merits, what they say about

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

New Advertisements to-day.

Varieties—Lafayette Leighton.
Sewing Machine Emporium, &c.—E. A. Joy.
Duponceo's Golden Pill—S. D. Howe, New York.

☞ No work at the Navy Yard on Monday, Memorial Day.

☞ Richard G. Haley, a fisherman, about 54 years old, fell dead at his residence on Water Street, Thursday evening.

☞ Adjourned Meeting of the Piscataqua Agricultural Society, at National Hotel, this (Saturday) evening at 8 o'clock.

BASE BALL.—The Sawyer club of Dover have accepted a challenge from the Granite State club of this city to play a match game at the Plains on Monday next. A fine game is expected and there will doubtless be a large attendance.

☞ Dr. Gilbert, of the Daniel Street Fruit Store, has arrived home from his trip South; having made satisfactory arrangements for his wholesale supplies for the season, of Strawberries, Peaches and other Fruits. Strawberries clear from Virginia are now the go, with pure apples, oranges, and all the rest.

DRIVEN TO SEA, is the title of a book written by Mrs. George Cupples. Illustrated. 16 mo. Cloth. Bevelled boards, gilt back and centre. Price, $1.50. There is not a dull chapter in the book, and it will find much favor with all lovers of adventure, young and old. Horace B. Fuller, 14 Bromfield Street, Boston, Publisher. For sale in this city by Foster Shores & Co.

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH. — There seems to be a general desire among our citizens to "do something" in the way of celebrating the 94th anniversary of American Independence. The firemen are discussing the matter of having a general muster, and appropriately enough, the new steam fire engine—the Kearsarge—is to be finished in season for the celebration.

There is work in a celebration, but there are live men enough in old Strawberry Bank to make that work light. The grotesque part of the entertainment promises to be an eminent success, and the big chiefs talk eloquently of a procession one mile long and one hundred inches wide. Favorable responses have been received from Kittery and the way stations, and nothing is in the way of success but the dust along the route.

☞ Two stores have been constructed in the lower story of the large dwelling house of Mr. Joseph H. Clark, on Vaughan Street near Congress. One will be occupied as a barber shop, and the other as a millinery establishment, we believe. We hear that a millinery store is to be opened in the old building opposite the Academy on Congress Street.

Besides Mr. Smith's Eating House in the lower story of the old Journal building on Ladd Street, a photograph room is being constructed above—a bay window being run out on both the upper stories. Mr. Robert Drew is doing both the above jobs.

A splendid fire and burglar-proof steel Safe has been placed in the elegant new banking house of the Rockingham 10 cts. Savings Bank on Market Street. It is from the famous Steam Safe Co. of Boston, and like everything else about the premises of this new and popular institution, is of the most substantial character.

Several more house-lots have just been sold at the West End, and a number more new dwellings will be put up there this season.

STILL THEY COME.—The Coos (Lancaster) Republican comes out for Senator Cragin's re-election with these appropriately chosen words:

We have no hesitation in saying that we believe Aaron H. Cragin, our present Senator, now candidate for re-election, to be an honest, earnest and upright man, who has been laborious at his post, and faithful to the interests of the Republican party. He has, since his advent to public life, enjoyed in a marked degree, the confidence of the republicans of this section of the State, and we have no manner of doubt that it is the wish of a preponderating majority of the party, that he be returned to the Senate, at the coming session.

This belief is strengthened by the fact, that no gentleman yet presented for the position now held by him, can, with justice, be pressed on the ground of superior abilities—greater moral rectitude or more consistent devotion to the party.

☞ We hear it said that Gen. Gilman Marston has not been an applicant for the Chilian mission, and will not accept the Governorship of Idaho.

LEGISLATIVE.—The Great and General Court of New Hampshire will convene June 1st. The Senatorial question of course is still the chief topic of discussion in political circles. Concerning this the Nashua Telegraph says, "recently, Mr. Cragin's friends have modified their talk somewhat, and do not appear so positive as they did a little while ago. They begin to realize that the first ballot in the caucus will not decide the matter," &c. Now this is precisely the opposite of what we hear and know on the subject, which is that Mr. Cragin's friends are more and more confident of his re-election on the 1st ballot. Gen. Stevens and Hon. E. H. Rollins will probably be the leading opposing candidates.

Besides the Railroad and Senatorial questions, the legislature will have many other matters to decide. There are numerous candidates for the offices to be filled. The Secretaryship of State is sought after by the present deputy, N. W. Gove, Esq., whom the Telegraph thinks may secure the position. Col. Peter Sanborn will probably retain his old position as Treasurer.

For Warden of the State Prison there are numerous candidates, and as warden Mayo proposes quietly retiring, one of the number will secure the prize. The chaplaincy of the House, over which there has been a wrangle for three years, will doubtless be sought after by a multitude of ambitious young ministers, superannuated preachers, professors and divinity doctors.

So far as the organization of the House is concerned, it is conceded that Hon. Samuel M. Wheeler of Dover will be re-elected Speaker, Josiah H. Benton, Jr. of Lancaster, Clerk, and Col. Chas. H. Roberts, Sergeant-at-arms. For Assistant Clerk several gentlemen are named, including B. E. Badger of Concord, and Nathan P. Hunt of Manchester, but as "doubtful things are very uncertain," the Telegraph does not attempt to indicate who the successful candidate will be.

For State Printer the Telegraph thinks "there will be no lack of candidates, and the choice will doubtless be between the Nashua Telegraph, the Concord Monitor, the Republican Statesman and the Portsmouth Cronicle, unless, perchance, Manchester should against assert her claims"—which the Mirror has stated it will not do.

The officers of the Vermont Central Railroad met at Concord recently, and elected Gen. Stark as the general manager of the through line. The local affairs of the several roads comprising the line are managed independently. Between Boston and Nashua forty miles of track line and seventy-five miles of branches are controlled by Gen. Stark. Between Nashua and White River Junction one hundred and three miles of track line and one hundred and sixty miles of branches are controlled by Gov. Stearns of New Hampshire. Between White River Junction and Rouse's Point are one hundred and forty-four miles of track line and one hundred and seventeen miles of branches, controlled by Ex-Gov. Smith of Vermont. Between Rouse's Point and Ogdensburg, one hundred and eighteen miles of track line are controlled by Governor Smith and Gen. Stark as an executive committee.

DEATHS.

In Green Bay, Wisconsin, May 11th, of disease of the heart, ANDREW BROWN, Esq., aged 67 yrs. A kind husband and father; a christian gentleman; he was widely known and esteemed. (Maine papers please copy.)

But yesterday long years,
Spread down the shining slope;
Far as the eye could see,
Made bright with love and hope.
To-day a narrow mound—
Breaks up the peaceful dream,
All suddenly his foot
Have crossed the silver stream!

With friends long loved and lost,
With brother, sire and son,
He walks the golden streets,—
His earthly tasks are done.
"We soon shall meet again,"
His parting words, dear friends;
May they sustain and cheer
You to your journeys' ends.

—OF THE—
CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILROAD CO.
The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad
Is completed and running from RICHMOND, Va., to the celebrated WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, in West Va., 227 miles. It is being rapidly extended to the Ohio River, 200 miles further, making in all 427 miles.
In its progress Westward, it penetrates and opens up to market the Wonderful Coal Deposits of the Kanawha Region in West Virginia. And thus brings the superior and abundant Coals of that section into communication with the Iron Ores of Virginia and Ohio, and the Western, South Western and Eastern markets.
When completed it will connect the superior harbor facilities of the Chesapeake Bay with reliable navigation on the Ohio River, and thus with the entire system of Railroad and Water transportations of the great West and South-West.
It will make a short, easy, cheap and favorable route from the West, to the sea, and will command a large share of the enormous freights seeking transportation to the cons
It will thus become one of the most important and profitable East and West Trunk Lines of Railroad in the country, and command a trade of immense value.
The completed portion of the Road is doing a profitable and increasing Business, and is fully equal in value to the whole amount of the mortgage upon the entire Line—($15,000,000.)
The loan of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company, being a First Mortgage upon the entire Line, property and equipments, worth when completed at least $30,000,000, is therefore one of the most substantial, conservative and reliable Railroad Loans ever offered in the market, and is peculiarly adapted to the wants of
INVESTORS and CAPITALISTS,
Who desire to make their investments with the most satisfactory assurance of positive and undoubted Security.
The Bonds are in denominations of
$1000, $500 and $100,
and may be had COUPON or REGISTERED.
Interest Six per cent. per annum, payable MAY 1st and NOVEMBER 1st.
PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK.
Price 90 and accrued Interest in Currency, at which price they pay nearly Seven per cent. in gold on their cost.
All Government Bonds and other Securities dealt in at the Stock Exchange, received in exchange, at their full market value, and Bonds sent to all parts of the country, free of Express charges.

Morning Chronicle.

Correspondence of the Chronicle and Gazette.

BOSTON, May 26.

The fear that we were to be deprived of our customary rain during "Anniversary Week" has proved fallacious. It set in last night with a steady drizzle that gives promise of laying the terrible dust that has prevailed on all our suburban roads of late. The anniversaries have drawn the usual accumulation of human dust to the city, but as they appear to be mostly well-disposed people I will not meddle with them.

Boston has had but two public sensations of late. The first, the Saturday night raid on the cyprians who prowl around our streets after nightfall. So far as this movement went, it was well; but I fancy the arrest of twice as many male night-walkers would tend infinitely more to the purification of our thoroughfares. The arrival of the train of Pullman cars, and their departure on Monday with the members of the Board of Trade for California, was our last excitement. Thousands trudged through the stifling dust on Sunday to inspect these fine specimens of railroad architecture.

The subject of opening the Public Library on Sunday has been made the occasion for the display of much rhetoric — good, bad, and indifferent—but principally of the latter class. If by the "public" we are to understand only the wealthier classes, who have books of their own, and time to produce others from the library at any hour they choose, then there certainly can be no good argument for opening the doors upon the Sabbath. If, on the contrary, the institution is designed to furnish wholesome and instructive reading to the great mass of intelligent people who are not so well endowed with worldly goods, then pains should be taken to so conduct this institution that the public may reap its greatest benefit. I know young men living within gunshot of the Library who fail to avail themselves of its vast lore only because they have not time on week day evenings to make their selections according to the rules which govern its conduct; and I know of several instances where parties who have used the privileges of the public library, have felt obliged to procure their reading from the paid libraries, simply because they could obtain their books at a more convenient season. Forty clergymen are said to have petitioned for the opening of the library on the Sabbath, but other of our clergymen say these former are not "evangelical." Evangelical, forsooth! Seems to me I have heard of this "I am holier than thou" sort of evangelism somewhere before.

I noticed a rather curious feature at the great fire in Canal street a few weeks since, though very simple in its explanation. When the fire was at its height, a dense volume of smoke was blown in vast clouds across Portland street. From this smoky canopy quite a brisk little shower fell continually in the latter street. The heat of such great clouds of hot smoke kept the steam caused by the water thrown upon the flames from condensing until it had been borne that distance.

The parks and the ladies have donned their spring suits. It is difficult to say which look the prettiest, but I have a leaning toward the ladies. They have "buckled to it" in earnest—buckles on their hats, buckles on the shoulder of their wraps, buckles on their belts, buckles on their boots. A late novelty is a metallic heel (of the "button" pattern) for ladies' boots. A circular piece of rubber inserted in the bottom of the heel prevents clattering. For the street these heels are enamelled in black or with a pattern, while for house and full dress they are heavily gilded or silvered. For those who prefer an audible response to their footsteps, these heels are made without the rubber centre. I notice this sign on Washington street: "Ladies' Boots Way Down." From what is revealed by the short suits I fancy ladies' boots were way up.

To-day is May training, and a brilliant review is expected on the Common this afternoon, if the weather is favorable. The bands, to the number of 150 pieces, will consolidate under Gilmore. M.

NAVAL STAFF RANK. — The naval committee have a bill pending in the House of Representatives, likely to be called up soon, which provides for the staff-corps in a way that we trust will effectually settle the question of rank to the satisfaction of both line and staff. It provides for 15 medical directors, with the rank of captain; 15 medical inspectors, with the rank of commander; 50 surgeons, with the rank of lieutenant commander, and 100 assistant-surgeons with the rank of master, who, after three years' service, and found qualified by an examining board, shall have the rank of lieutenant, corresponding to that of captain in the army.

The pay-corps is to consist of 13 pay-directors, with the rank of captain; 13 pay-inspectors with the rank of commander; and 50 paymasters with the rank of lieutenant-commander; 40 assistant paymasters with the rank of lieutenant, and 20 assistant-paymasters with the rank of master. The engineer-corps to consist of 10 chief engineers with the rank of captain; 15 chief engineers with the rank of commander, and 25 chief engineers with the rank of lieutenant-commander. There are also 100 assistant engineers with the rank of lieutenant, and 100 with the rank of master. The chaplains and naval constructors are also given a suitable degree of rank, as, strange to say, even clergymen have found it necessary to demand legal rank in order to fix definitely their status on board our war-ships.

The bill restores to the staff officers the rank they held under the Welles regulation of 1863, and provides that the chiefs of the bureaus of medicine and surgery, of steam engineering and of provisions and clothing, shall have the rank of commodore. It also provides, very properly and justly, that all staff officers shall have positive rank, the same as in the army, which General Sherman says "is found to work well," and does away with the precedence of junior line officers over senior staff officers. It gives precedence to the senior line officer over all under his command, and provides that all other officers, line and staff, shall take precedence according to date of commission; and further, that staff officers shall have control only in their own respective departments. On all boards of survey, court-martial, processions on shore and occasions of ceremony, all officers are to take precedence according to rank. The corps of lieutenant-commanders is to be reduced from 180 to 80. This is asked for by the Secretary of the Navy.

It is to be hoped that for the sake of the peace, harmony, and efficiency of the navy, Congress will act speedily on this bill and pass it as it stands. We do not think that 15 captains and 15 commanders in a corps of 80 surgeons is enough, but let the bill be passed for the sake of peace, and the staff-corps will do well to accept what is now offered them by the House naval committee without hesitation or dissent. Order is heaven's first law, and when there is so much disagection by reason of humiliating regulations by one class of officers at the expense of another class, how are we to expect that earnest support of each other so essential to the efficiency and usefulness of the navy? Let us have the bill speedily passed just as it is, and then "let us have peace."—Boston Advertiser.

WELL PLAYED.—The Chicago White Stockings have been making a base ball tour and exhibiting some remarkable feats of skill. Here is one, which occurred in a game with the Atlantics at New Orleans:

The Atlantics were in, and each base was filled, and no out as yet. The backstop stood sixty feet behind the plate, and its face was padded, and the ground in front covered with sawdust to prevent the bounding back of passed balls. Craver had shrewdly noticed the precise point at which every passed ball stopped, and formed a plan to bag the man on third. He contrived to give Myerie a hint of his design, and as the striker stood at the bat, Craver being close behind, he gave the required sign to Myerie, who pitched a very low ball, giving it but a moderate rate of speed. Purposely Craver allowed the ball to pass between his legs and go rolling on toward the back stop. The man on third saw the opening, and stepped into the trap. Quick as a flash Craver wheeled and ran for the ball, while Myerie, well up to the dodge, ran forward to the home plate, and there received the ball from Craver in ample time to secure the runner from third. It was a dangerous trick, to be sure, but the striker at the bat was very liable to make a hit which would bring in the man at third, and Craver, having calculated the chances, concluded to run the risk. He succeeded, and the inning resulted in a whitewash, after all.

☞ The affairs of the Grand Trunk Railroad are now in a favorable condition. All divisions and controversies are healed, all of its debts paid off, both in England and Canada, all its securities placed at low rates of interest, and an abundance of money on hand for working purposes, a state of things heretofore unknown in the history of the Grand Trunk Railway Company. The line is to be put in complete order, and equipped with engines and merchandise cars, with drawingroom and palace sleeping cars, to come upon the line in August. The credit of the company is fully established, and all the recommendations of the superintendent are to be carried out. $100,000 was voted to commence the foundation of the bridge at Buffalo, the great work regarded as essential to the complete success of the company.

THE SACRED GARLANDS.

Inscribed to the G. A. R.

BY GEORGE B. GRIFFITH.

Wreathe sacred garlands for the dead,
The martyred champions of our land!
By sweet and plaintive music led
Bedeck their graves with loving hand.

"By all their Country's wishes blest"
These heroes sleep with folded arms.—
In every holy vale at rest,
Where whispers Peace with lulling charms.

How brave they crossed with foeman's steel,
Met War's fierce onset with a cheer;
And flashed their eyes with noble zeal,
To fall in death for all held dear.

New England holds their names in gold
On cory pies, where'er we turn;
But nare than lips of stone have told
The rich behest that heroes earn.

Flung out, half-wasted, everywhere,
The precious folds that wrapped their clay,
The choicest floral offrings bear
Upon your Decoration Day!

Charlestown, Mass., May, 1870.

A BETTER CUSTOM.—Forty years ago in New Hampshire, it was the custom for the merchants to treat their customers to a glass of rum, or brandy perhaps, after selling them a lot of goods, especially those from a distance. At the Oriential Tea and Coffee Establishment in Boston, a large urn of the very best of hot coffee, with all the "fixings," is kept for its patrons, and with characteristic liberality one of the proprietors said to me and others present lately, "gentlemen, the cups are rather small, but take as many as you like." It was coffee, too, "as is coffee;" none of your slops, but steaming with the rich aroma of the "male berry."

Such coffee is "not bad to take," for "while it cheers it does not inebriate," and in the good time coming, when the ladies get the control of these matters, in a more advanced state of society, coffee and tea rooms will take the place, of grogshops of the present. In fact, that era has already commenced, for "Mrs. Haven's coffee-room" has become a fashionable resort, especially for ladies weary from shopping.

You may think, Mr. Editor, that my communications begin to have a strong flavor of tea and coffee; but I aver that such a flavor is as much better than the fumes of alcohol, as—I came near saying—heaven is better than hell.—Cor. Wolfeborough News.

A GRAVE HUMBUG.—A few days ago, as a gentleman was quietly passing along one of the streets of Boston, his attention was attracted by a woman just opposite, who appeared to be in great distress. He stopped and inquired what troubled her so much. She replied, in a piteous tone, "my husband is dead, and I have no money to bury him." The gentleman hesitated, but she repeated her story, adding "if you do not believe me, come and see." He followed her into the house, and there, sure enough, her husband was lying in the coffin ready for burial.

The gentleman, pitying her distress, removed his gloves and gave her money sufficient to bury her husband, bade her good morning and departed. He had gone but a few steps, when he missed his gloves, and on returning for them, entered without ceremony, and found the supposed dead man quietly sitting up in his coffin, counting the money he had given the woman a few minutes before. He took his gloves, and remarked to the man that he need not trouble himself to count the money, as it was all right, and departed, a wiser man.—Cor. Wolfeborough News.

STATIONERY.—We are glad to see that the awards for stationery for the use of the national goverment this year have been more generally distributed than formerly, and that most of them have gone to regular manufacturers or dealers. Under the old system bids were made for the whole lot in bulk, and unprincipled speculators put in low bids for articles not much used, and made immense profits on articles used in great quantities. The Committee on Printing investigated the subject, and a new system was inaugurated, under which each article must be proposed for separately. Immense fortunes have been made heretofore out of stationery contracts for the government by men who formed "rings" for the purpose, and we are gratified that this leak has been stopped. It will be remembered that Hon. J. H. Ela, has done more than any other man to correct this evil.—Rochester Courier.

—One pound of copperas dissolved in six gallons of water, and sprinkled on the leaves, is sure death to the currant worms which inflicts such terrible ravages on the currant bush. The liquid kills, not by contact with the worms, but by poisoning their food, so that they die in a few hours.

—Stagnant or foul water is injurious to all animals. It causes blood-poisoning, and this leads to many febrile complaints, and is one of the great causes of abortion in cows and other animals.

—A Massachusetts farmer says he can winter his cows on steamed feed for one third less expense than on dry feed, and get one fourth more milk. This is the result of five years' experience.

WHAT ARE
DR. J. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS.
They are not a vile fancy drink.
Made of poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Restorers," appetizers, &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER AND LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the entire System, carrying off all poisonous matter, and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions and remain long unwell. $100 will be given for an incurable case, providing the bones are not destroyed by mineral poisons or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair. THE OLD RELIABLE
NEW ENGLAND FAMILY MEDICINE.
TO BE FOUND IN EVERY VILLAGE AND TOWN IN NEW ENGLAND, IS
DODD'S NERVINE
AND INVIGORATOR.
A THOROUGH TONIC AND STOMACHIC.
DODD'S NERVINE is not a new medicine, but has been before the public for the last fifteen years. Is compounded from the best and purest drugs. Contains no OPIUM, STRYCHNINE or MERCURY in any form, and is expressly adapted to the relief and permanent cure of all forms of
NERVOUS DISEASES, &c., &c.,
Coughs, Neuralgia, Female Weaknesses, Colds, Headache, Fainting Fits, Fevers, Convulsions, Palpitation, Ague, Sleeplessness, Restlessness, Biliousness, Dyspepsia, Dizziness, Constipation, Liver Complaint, Children's Troubles Diarrhœa, Consumption, &c., &c., &c.,
DODD'S NERVINE
Is a COMPLETE SPECIFIC for sleeplessness. It soothes the throbbing muscle like magic, and tranquilizes the mind. And everybody knows that good sleep is better than all medicines. And all folks that
CAN'T SLEEP NIGHTS,
Should use this truly wonderful medicine.
DODD'S NERVINE
Is one of the best remedies ever employed in the cure of the numerous and troublesome ailments known as FEMALE COMPLAINTS.
For Whooping Cough.
DODD'S NERVINE is administered with unexampled success. Mothers, remember this and save your little ones the agony of a most distressing complaint. It also works admirably in Measles, bringing out the rash well and leaving the bowels free and healthful. For the diseases which afflict CHILDREN WHEN TEETHING, nothing can furnish more instant or grateful relief. Remember, it contains no OPIUM in any form.
LOOK OUT FOR COLDS.
It is proverbial that people treat a cold (and the generally accompanying cough) as something that will cure itself; but neglect is serious and sometimes fatal. The fame of DODD'S NERVINE in the relief of colds is established. Use this standard remedy, and so fat abstain from liquids of all kinds as to keep the system thirsty for a few days, and the worst cold will soon be gone.
DODD'S NERVINE
Is a PURE TONIC—harmonizes perfectly with the NERVE FIBRE—gives increased energy to the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, and other vitals, and supplies FRESH LIFE for the waste that is constantly taking place. It operates soothingly—is as pleasant to take as any wine, and with SLEEP AND GOOD DIGESTION, which it promotes, restores the afflicted to sound health of body and quietness of mind. It contains no opium, mercury or strychnine, (so often used for nervous complaints,) and is wholly free from any deleterious drugs whatever. Tens of thousands are testifying to its curative power. my17tw

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.
The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvelous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.
Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly developes into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may suddenly be deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this SARSAPARILLA is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear.
Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and in length, cure, by the use of this SARSAPARILLA: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various affections of the muscular and nervous systems.
Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac supplied gratis.
Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor system. Those who are Languishing, Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

The dwelling house and out-buildings of L. F. Moore, at Northumberland, were destroyed by fire Friday afternoon. Loss about $3000; insured for $2000. Mr. Moore lost considerably by a fire in Lancaster about eighteen months ago.

Mr. Jones Heard From.—We learn of Hon. Horton D. Walker, of Portsmouth, the President of the Board of Trustees of the State Reform School, and who is in town to-day, that on Wednesday last he received a letter from Mr. I. H. Jones, the late Superintendent. The letter is dated Sacramento, California, May 16th. Mr. Jones states that he has endured great mental suffering since he left here, on account of the unsettled condition of his affairs. He says he has not spent any money beyond his salary nor has he a single dollar invested anywhere. He further states that for some time back he had trusted too much to his memory, and entries in his diary, and on scraps of paper. These papers would become lost, and he was therefore unable to adjust his accounts. He says that for sometime he was without a bookkeeper. His ordinary duties, together with sickness in his family, broke him down to a great extent, and his accounts were therefore kept in a careless manner.

As to the reasons why he went away, he says that he knew he could not make his accounts appear correct to the Directors, and had not the moral courage to meet them. He states that he intends to return as soon as he can get the means to do so, and make all the reparation that is possible.—Man. Union.

The Fenian Invasion of Canada has been a foolish farce—serio-comic and suggestive. The fight at Trout River on Friday was a ludicrous affair. Gen. Starr led the Fenian advance of 180 men. Their onward march was resisted by a regiment of militia. Gen. Starr didn't want to "set" so early in the campaign and ordered a retreat. He obeyed his own order with alacrity and left his troops swearing at his cowardice. Finally the forlorn hope fired on the approaching Canadians and took to their heels, leaving one man killed and two wounded.

In view of Gen. O'Neil's quiet arrest, the Boston Advertiser suggests that it would be well for government to send one or two more hacks to the frontier.

THE PRIVATEERS OF 1812.

In his reminiscences of the Privateers of 1812–15, (lately concluded in this paper) the late Uncle Toby made frequent mention of the private armed schooner "Thomas," one of the most famous and successful of the cruisers from this port. Since his death, we have been favored with the persual of a private letter, from Mr. W. F. Shaw of Boston to a lady in this city,—a daughter of Capt. Thomas M. Shaw, under whose command the Thomas achieved her principal successes. The letter was accompanied by a copy of the "Ships' Articles" of the Thomas—which we publish below — giving the names and positions of all her company above the rank of seaman.

Capt. Shaw, his First Lieutenant, Mr. Damrell, and the Sailing Master, Mr. Burbank, were all related to the lady already referred to. The letter of which we speak says, "I find by other letters, and from books, that the most valuable prize taken by the Thomas was while Capt. Shaw had but fourteen men on board, all told. He is accredited as one of the most daring of all privateer commanders—no fear of danger was ever recognized by him." The prize referred to as being the most valuable one taken by this privateer, was probably the British ship Falmouth, of 14 guns and 30 men—ship and cargo valued at $200,000.

The Mr. Burbank who is rated on the articles as sailing master, is probably identical with the Capt. Burbank, who subsequently commanded the Thomas at the time of her capture by the British. Capt. Burbank is said by one of our old citizens, who knew him intimately and remembers him well, to have been a bold and skillful seaman and a dashing privateersman; and he received command of the Thomas on account of the ability he exhibited in a subordinate station. When he was chased by a vessel of superior force, and found he was losing ground in the race, he pitched his guns, shot, anchors, and cables, provisions, and everything else that could be got hold of, overboard, to make his pursuer's prize worthless, if he was to be taken. But all his lightening was of no avail, for the Thomas was caught, and Capt. Burbank was made a prisoner of war. The schooner, though a very fair sailor, was not particularly fast; and probably owed her escape so long more to the skill and audacity of her officers than to her own heels. The Articles of contract need no explanation. Here they are:—

Articles of Agreement made this twenty-third day of April, 1813;—Witnesseth that it is agreed on by and between the Officers, Marines and Seamen on board the private armed schooner Thomas of Portsmouth, N. H., now lying in the harbor of Portsmouth, on one part, and the owners of said privateer on the other part:—That for the consideration of the one half of the net proceeds of the prizes, said schooner may obtain, We, the Officers Marines and Seamen of said schooner do agree to go in the said schooner in the several capacities affixed to our names. And the several shares shall be apportioned in the same manner as we have herein agreed, and sd. shares shall be a full compensation for our services during the cruise of sd. vessel, which is to begin on her leaving the Port of Portsmouth, N. H., and to continue eight or ten weeks. And it is further agreed that in case anyone shall leave the service of sd. privateer during her cruise he shall forfeit the whole of his share or shares to the owners and crew of sd. vessel. And it is further agreed that each and every man who may be put on board a prize shall be entitled to the same shares and emoluments taken during his absence as much as if he were on board of sd. privateer, provided he serve the time above mentioned if called for. And if any one after this desert or refuse to repair on board sd. privateer when called for, he shall forfeit his share or shares in the same manner as above mentioned. And it is further agreed that the owners of sd. privateer shall furnish the necessary supplies of provisions, ammunition and implements for the intended cruise. In witness whereof we have hereunto respectively affixed our names.

The River of the West: Life and Adventure in the Rocky Mountains and Oregon; embracing events in the life of a Mountain-man and Pioneer, with the early history of the north-western slope, including an account of the Fur-traders, the Indian tribes, the Overland Immigration, the Oregon Missions, and the tragic fate of Rev. Dr. Whitman and family. Also a description of the Country, its condition, prospects, and resources; its soil, climate, and scenery; its mountains, rivers, valleys, deserts, and plains; its inland waters, and natural wonders. With numerous engravings. By Mrs. Frances Fuller Victor. Published by subscription only, at Hartford, Conn., by the Columbian Book Company. Agents wanted.

This is a stately volume, crammed with stirring adventure, and picturesque description, and indeed has a very considerable historical value as enclosing and perpetuating so many remarkable illustrations of a kind of life which is rapidly fading off the face of our country. The artist and engraver have been called into liberal requisition. Mrs. Victor is a contributor to the Overland Monthly and other periodicals. She is well qualified for the task she has undertaken, and has made good use of her feminine art of drawing out the hardy founders of our sister State. Of those her special pet and hero is Joseph L. Meek, whose adventurous career is graphically sketched. His career is indeed a remarkable one. A Virginian by birth, aristocratically connected, a near relative to Ex-President Polk, he voluntarily chose the life of a trapper; the business becoming bad he abandoned it. Mr. Meek is the real hero of the story.

Mrs. S. G. Jewell, BLIND CLAIRVOYANT PHYSICIAN, Would inform her friends and the citizens of Portsmouth and vicinity, that she may be consulted at No. 13 Corner St., on WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY, May 4 and 5, and on the first Wednesday and Thursday of each month afterwards, as usual. ap30

Health Regulations.

The BOARD OF HEALTH of the City of Portsmouth call the attention of the public to the following sections of City Ordinances No. 4 and No. 100, and invite their assistance in the preservation of health in the City to aid them in the execution of their duty.

ORDINANCE NO. 4.

Sec. 3.—All waste water of houses, yards, cellars, sinks, pumps, &c. shall be conveyed by their owners or occupiers to the common sewers, or to such places as the Health Officers may direct.

Sec. 4. No person shall be allowed to throw any vegetable or dead animal substance, or any other matter capable of producing infection, into any street, lane, alley or dock, or upon any wharf, but shall bury them or throw them into the river below low-water mark.

Sec. 5. The contents of vaults and privies shall not be permitted to rise within one foot of the surface of the earth. And all owners or occupiers of buildings having such vaults or privies as may cause the same to need to be emptied within ten days from the promulgation of this ordinance, and in future on or before the first day of May in each year. And any such owner or occupier neglecting so to do, shall forfeit and pay for every such neglect a sum not less than three nor more than twenty dollars, and a like sum for every week's neglect after the time above specified.

Sec. 11. The health officers may give written notice to the owner or occupier of any building, vessel or enclosure, to remove or destroy any nuisance or other thing deemed by them, on examination, to be injurious to the public health, within a certain time limited therein; and in case such owner or occupier—the said notice having been given to him, or left at his usual place of abode—shall neglect to comply therewith, the said health officers may, by direction of the mayor and accompanied by the city marshal, forcibly enter such building, vessel, or enclosure, and cause the said nuisance or other thing aforesaid to be removed or destroyed.

Sec. 14. The owner or occupier of any building, vessel or enclosure shall be liable to pay the expense of the removal or destruction of any such nuisance or other thing, as aforesaid, including fees of the health officers who order or cause the same to be removed; and the same may be recovered by action to be brought in the name of the city.

Sec. 17. Any person or persons who shall violate any rule or regulation, or commit any act forbidden in any section of this ordinance, to which no special penalty is annexed, shall forfeit and pay a sum not less than one dollar nor more than twenty dollars, to be recovered by complaint before the police court of this city.

ORDINANCE NO. 100.

Sec. 1. When any householder shall know that any person within his family is taken sick of the Small Pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, he shall immediately give notice thereof to the Health Officers.

Sec. 2. When any physician shall know that any person whom he is called to visit is infected with the Small Pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, such physician shall immediately give notice thereof to the Health Officers.

Sec. 3. If any such householder or physician shall refuse or neglect to give the notice required in the preceding sections, he shall for each refusal or neglect, forfeit the sum of twenty dollars, to be recovered by either of the Health Officers in the name of the city.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Thrice Armed!

Thrice is he armed who keeps within reach of his hand a specific that at one and the same time will strengthen, regulate and purify his system when enfeebled, disordered and corrupted.

Such is the three-fold operation of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, and hence the great superiority of that standard vegetable restorative over all medicines that are merely tonic and nothing else. The effect of the ordinary astringent tinctures and extracts upon the bowels is disastrous, and upon the depraved blood or bile they produce no beneficial effects whatever. In dyspepsia and liver complaint all the fluids and humors of the body are more or less infected, and the bowels are often fairly constipated. A unmodified astringent—quinine for instance—does infinitely more harm than good in such cases.

In Hostetter's Bitters, on the other hand, the stimulating and tonic elements are qualified with aperients and antiseptic ingredients. The finest laxatives and blood depurents in the vegetable kingdom are intermixed with those of a purely invigorating nature, and under the operation of this admirable combination, the three important processes of invigoration, regulation and purification go on together. The rapidity with which the disordered organization returns to its natural condition, under a course of the Bitters, is due to this cause.

Every disturbed function of the body is favorably affected by the various properties of this comprehensive and well balanced preparation. As a general rule the bowels are more subject to irregularities, and the fluids more liable to become vitiated in spring and summer than in winter, and hence the Bitters are especially valuable as a spring and summer alterative, corrective and invigorant. At all seasons where the seeds of intermittent fevers infect the air, this healthful vegetable elixir should be taken as a protective medicine.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which feed the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12

"Children's Lives Saved for 50 Cts."

THOUSANDS OF CHILDREN DIE ANNUALLY OF CROUP. Now, Mothers, if you would spend 50 cents, and always have a bottle of DR. TOBIAS' VENETIAN LINIMENT in the house, you never need fear losing your little one when attacked with this complaint. It is now 22 years since I have put up my Liniment, and never heard of a child dying of Croup when my Liniment was used; but hundreds of cures have been reported to me, and many state it was $10 per bottle they would not be without it. Besides which, it is a certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throat, Swellings, Sprains, Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Spasms, Old Sores and Pains in the Limbs, Back, Chest. No one who once tries it is ever without it. It is warranted perfectly safe to take internally. Full directions with every bottle. Sold by the Druggists and Storekeepers in the United States. CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosciusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively, in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung disease in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says; "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says; I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

CITY GOVERNMENT IN CARRIAGES.

The Procession will move at 2 o'clock precisely, through the route as follows: Form on Congress street, right resting at North Church. March through Market to Deer street, through Deer to Vaughan, through Vaughan to Elm to North Cemetery. Countermarch, through Railroad Avenue to Deer street, through Deer to Vaughan, through Vaughan to Congress, through Congress and Islington to Cabot, through Cabot to Middle, thro' Middle to Richards Avenue, through Richards Avenue to the Cemetery. Returning, through South, Pleasant, State, Middle and Congress streets to Market Square, where the Procession will be dismissed.

All Discharged Soldiers and Sailors in this vicinity are requested to meet at the Hall of Storer Encampment and join the Procession. Citizens and all organizations intending to join the line of march, will report to the Adjutant on Congress street at 1 1-2 o'clock, when they will be assigned their places in line.

The Ceremonies at the Cemetery, north of Harmony Grove, will be as follows:—

1 Form three sides of Hollow Square on ground.
2 Reading Scriptures: Pr Chaplain, ayer: by Post
3 Reading of General Order by Post Adjutant.
4 Singing by double quartette of male voices.
5 Poem.
6 Address by Rev. Jas. DeNormandie.
7 Decoration of Graves.
8 Volley by firing party.
9 Re-assemble and sing "Strew Flowers where they Sleep."

On arrival of the procession at Market Square, Parade Dismissed.

ARREST OF A THIEF.—Officer Thos. Entwistle arrested a thief named Geo. K. Fullerton, on Saturday. Fullerton belongs in Newmarket and entered the house of a Mrs. Sanborn, there, on Friday, broke open her trunk and stole a gold watch and chain and about $30 in money. After his arrest, the fellow disgorged the stolen goods, with the exception of $20 or more. Deputy Sheriff Smart of Newmarket was in town searching for Fullerton, and the City Marshal delivered him to the Sheriff, who took him back to Newmarket for trial.

DESERTER CAUGHT.—George Smith, a seaman of the U. S. S. Plymouth, deserted in a workman's suit of clothes on Wednesday and walked to Hampton, took the train there for Boston and fell into the hands of City Marshal Johnson. George is now in irons on the vessel he deserted from. He has the benefit of a walk of twelve miles to compensate for his present confinement.

THE DUST LAID.—A drenching drizzle of rain with a few snow flakes thrown in, and a raw north-east wind made Saturday a disagreeable day. The dust in the streets was soon succeeded by mud. Portsmouth seems to have been particularly favored, as Conductor Maynard of the Concord road informs us that there had been no rain at Epping, Saturday, but lots of dust.

BASE BALL.—The game between the Sawyer nine of Dover and the Granite State nine of this city will come off at the Plains at 1 o'clock to-day. Both clubs have good players and an interesting game is predicted.

A match between the Shoo Flies and a Picked Nine will be played in the afternoon, commencing at 2 o'clock.

☞ The Schooner Light of Home, Capt. Nichols, arrived 27th May at Messrs. Harding & Doane's; Newcastle, with 150 bbls mackerel—the catch in the last three weeks, and the first arrival of the season.

☞ The numerous Crosswalks in the city are a nuisance—likewise the more numerous and not less unmitigated doorsteps which obstruct the sidewalks in every direction.

☞ This being Memorial Day, there will be no Chronicle issued on Tuesday.

Prominent citizens of Manchester are erecting cottages at Rye Beach.

CONGRESS.—The Senate has adopted an amendment to the appropriation bill increasing the salaries of U. S. Judges. It fixes the salary of the chief justice of the Supreme Court at $10,000, of associate justices at $8000, of circuit judges at $7500, of the chief justice of the Court of Claims at $5500, of the associate justices at $5000, of the chief justice of the Supreme Court of this district at $5500, of the associate justices and all district judges of the United States at $5000.

The House on Friday admitted Mr. Wallace to a seat, from South Carolina, and passed the conference bill enforcing the 15th Amendment by a vote of 133 to 58.

THE SUNDAY PARADE.—We hear numerous inquiries as to where the procession, which marched down Congress Street, Sunday afternoon, came from. Greenland seemed to be the conclusion of all who endeavored to answer the conundrum, but knowing ones asseverated that the corps came from Kittery—the longest way 'round being the shortest way home.

DECORATION DAY was observed at Kittery on Sunday with impressive ceremonies, by Wentworth Encampment of the Grand Army. The Cornet Band and a detachment from Storer Encampment of this city went over in Steamer Emerald and marched back.

☞ At the annual parish meeting of the Universalist church, last week, William Simes, Charles H. Mendum, and John Hodgdon were elected Wardens. The church when refitted, is to have a new organ equal to any in the city.

☞ The Lake house, at the corner of Summer and Austin Streets, was sold at auction on Saturday for the sum of thirty eight hundred and fifty dollars, by William H. Hackett, Auctioneer. Dr. William Laighton was the buyer.

BASE BALL.—The famous Red Stocking Club of Cincinnati are to play a game with the Lowells of Boston next Monday. They play the Tri Mountains on Tuesday.

☞ Sunday Vesper services at the Unitarian Church will commence at 4.30 P. M. during the summer months, beginning next Sunday, ☞ Pure apples, at Gilbert's Fruit Store, should have been Pine Apples, pure Confectionery, also Bananas, &c.

I—O—A—N
—OF THE—
CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILROAD CO.
The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad
is completed and running from RICHMOND, Va., to the celebrated WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, in West Va., 237 miles. It is being rapidly extended to the Ohio River, 200 miles further, making in all 427 miles.

In its progress Westward, it penetrates and opens up to market the Wonderful Coal Deposits of the Kanawha Region in West Virginia. And thus brings the superior and abundant Coals of that section into communication with the Iron Ores of Virginia and Ohio, and the Western, South Western and Eastern markets.

When completed it will connect the superior harbor facilities of the Chesapeake Bay with reliable navigation on the Ohio River, and thus with the entire system of Railroad and Water transportations of the great West and South-West.

It will make a short, easy, cheap and favorable route from the West, to the sea, and will command a large share of the enormous freights seeking transportation to the coas

It will thus become one of the most important and profitable East and West Trunk Lines of Railroad in the country, and command a trade of immense value.

The completed portion of the Road is doing a profitable and increasing Business, and is fully equal in value to the whole amount of the mortgage upon the entire Line—($15,000,000.)

The loan of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company, being a First Mortgage upon the entire Line, property and equipments, worth when completed at least $30,000,000, is therefore one of the most substantial, conservative and reliable Railroad Loans ever offered in the market, and is peculiarly adapted to the wants of
INVESTORS and CAPITALISTS,
Who desire to make their investments with the most satisfactory assurance of positive and undoubted Security.

The Bonds are in denominations of
$1000, $500 and $100,
and may be had COUPON or REGISTERED.
Interest Six per cent. per annum, payable MAY 1st and NOVEMBER 1st.
PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK.
Price 90 and accrued Interest in Currency, at which price they pay nearly Seven per cent. in gold on their cost.

All Government Bonds and other Securities dealt in at the Stock Exchange, received in exchange, at their full market value, and Bonds sent to all parts of the country, free of Express charges.

They can be obtained by ordering direct from us or through any responsible Bank or Banker in any part of the country.

Morning Chronicle.

YANKEE CHURCH MUSIC.

The history of Yankee music has been marked by two curious controversies separated by nearly a century; one raged about 1720, the other about 1805. When the Pilgrim Fathers landed at Plymouth, they brought with them Ainsworth's version of the Psalms, which was not relinquished finally till 1692. Indeed, when a new collection or version, called the Bay Psalm-book, was made, it met with sturdy opposition from the determined Puritans, who wanted to have all things just as they always had been. But whatever psalms they sang, they sang them, the historian tells us, "with decorum, if not ability," and their laudable intentions were manifested by their cultivation of music at Harvard College.

But this excellence soon declined; many were lost and none others obtained, and music was neglected, until at last three or four tunes constituted the repertoire of most congregations, and these were so corrupted that no two persons sang them alike. Every melody was "tortured and twisted" (embellished?) "as every unskillful throat saw fit," until their psalms were uttered in a medley of confused and disorderly noises, rather than in a decorous song.

Rev. Mr. Walter says of their singing, that it sounded "like five hundred different tunes roared out at the same time;" and so little attention was paid to time, that they were often one or two words apart, producing noises, "so hideous and disorderly as is bad beyond expression." The manner of singing had also become so tedious and drawling, that the same author says, "I have myself paused twice in one note to take breath."

To remedy this state of things, it was proposed about the year 1729, by some daring innovators, that the people should learn to sing by note. Then followed the conflict before mentioned. Surely singing by note, said the fathers, can be nothing else than a device of the devil. "Truly," says a writer in "The New-England Chronicle," in 1723, "Truly, I have a great jealousy that if we once begin to sing by note, the next thing will be to pray by rule, preach by rule; and then comes popery." When a man learned to read notes so as to sing a melody he had never learned, many of the astonished people considered him a witch. The controversy raged furiously and gave rise to curious arguments and "cases of conscience." The virtuous contemners of notes objected to the reading of music,

"1. That it was a new way,—an unknown tongue. 2. That it was not so melodious as the usual way. 3. That there were so many tunes, they could never learn them. 4. That the new way made disturbance in churches, grieved good men, exasperated them and caused them to behave disorderly. 5. That it was popish. 6. That it would introduce instruments. 7. That the names of the notes were blasphemous. 8. That it was needless, the old way being good enough. 9. That it was only a contrivance to get money. 10. That it required too much time to learn it, made the young disorderly, and kept them from the proper influence of the family, &c., &c."

With great solemnity it was discussed,—"Whether it was proper for one to sing, and all the rest to join only in spirit, and saying Amen, or for the whole congregation to sing. Whether pagans (the unconverted) be permitted to sing with us, or church-members alone. Also, whether it be lawful to sing psalms in metre devised by man, or whether it be lawful to read the psalm to be sung, and whether proper to learn new tunes which were uninspired; for it appears that they had so long been accustomed to hear and sing the same tunes, that they had imbibed the idea that the tunes were inspired, and that man's melody was only a vain show of art."

So great was the excitement and so bitter the animosity of the controversy, that many clergymen wrote treatises to set things right, and Dr. Cotton Mather circulated a "Pacificatory Letter, pouring oil on the waters, but decidedly favoring the reformation. The reformers were finally successful; notes came into use, and the horrified fathers were not carried up the chimneys on broomsticks as the consequence.

About half a century after the controversy concerning singing by note, American music first made its appearance in the person of William Billings. He introduced and composed the peculiar fugue jingles which characterize the Yankee church music. Billings was a Boston boy, born in 1747; he was a tanner by trade and labored in a building situated in Eliot Street. He is said to have written his first tunes with chalk on the walls of the tannery. The peculiar music which he introduced, and in which many followed him, was a right lusty way of singing praise; and that is about all that can be said for it. Billings used to roar his own tunes with such stentorian power that Dr. Peirce of Brookline, who had a loud organ of his own, used to say that when he sang by Billings' side he could not hear his own voice.

Finally a more refined taste began to revive, and the "Old Hundred" singers, as they were called, began to manifest themselves. These were persons who advocated returning to the old tunes of former and to others like them. Then followed the second controversy before mentioned, about 1805, which was waged stoutly between the Old Hundred singers and the adherents of the Billings' school. Finally, though not without excitement and struggle, the Yankee music came to the ground.

"In some places, at the commencement of the change of music, singers in towns and churches were so equally divided that the struggle was long and tedious to decide which should carry on the singing in church where neither party, in fact, were strong enough to sustain it acceptably; so they had to compromise, and in some instances sing alternately their favorite tunes on the Sabbath. But the effect of this was sad: each would sing from his own book with energy, while the opposers would sing with indifference, and destroy the effect. This state of things could not prevail long, for a house divided against itself cannot stand."

Various morals may be deduced from the whole story. One is, "How will our present controversies look A. D. 1970? Another is, The Yankee music is very well in its place. Another is, Ne quid nimis, nothing too much. Whereupon I will stop.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY, SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of the United States Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837,

No. 78 STATE ST., OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to procure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all papers or drawings for Patents, executed on reasonable terms and with dispatch. Researches made into American and Foreign works, to determine the validity and utility of Patents or inventions, and legal opinions and other advice rendered on all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

During eight months the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected app lications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided IN HIS FAVOR by the Commissioner of Patents.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

"Mr. R. H. EDDY has made for me THIRTEEN applications, in all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGHART."

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR,

For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.

A Dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for Preserving the Hair. Faded or gray Hair is even restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, and baldness, except when caused by age, often, though not always, cured by its use.

Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as are capable may be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous to the hair, to the hair, the Vigor, can only benefit but not harm it.

If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

TO THE HON. JUDGE OF PROBATE

FOR the County of ROCKINGHAM,
IN THE STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Respectfully shows MARCELLUS BUFFORD of Boston, in the County of Suffolk, that he is Guardian of ROBERT HORROCKS, an insane person resident in said Portsmouth, by the appointment of the Judge of Probate for the said County of Rockingham; that his said Ward is seized of the right in equity of redeeming the following described Real Estate lying in said Portsmouth to wit;—a certain lot of land situate on the corner of Hanover and Bridge Streets, bounded as follows: Beginning on Hanover Street at the corner of Bridge, and running on Hanover Street twenty-six feet then turning and running Northerly on the Bowling Alley lot forty-feet, thence turning and running westerly on land now or formerly of BENJAMIN CHEEVER and JOSEPH M. EDMONDS thirty four feet, thence southerly on said Bridge Street forty-feet to the corner with the two stores or building thereon, being premises mortgaged by said HORROCKS to MATHES & VARRELL and JOHN M. CHENTRIE.

And that it is necessary for the support of his said Ward, and will be conducive to his interest to have the premises sold; wherefore, he prays that he may be licensed and authorized to sell the same at public auction, according to the statute in such case made and provided.

MARCELLUS BUFFORD, Guardian.

State of New Hampshire, Rockingham, ss.

Probate Court at Portsmouth in said County, May 10, A. D. 1870.

Upon the foregoing Petition, it is Ordered, that a hearing be had thereon at the Court of Probate to be holden at Portsmouth in said County, on the second Tuesday of July next: and that the Petitioner notify all persons concerned to appear at said Court, and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said Petition should not be granted, by causing said petition and this order to be published three weeks successively in the Daily Chronicle a newspaper printed at Portsmouth in said County, the last publication whereof to be at least one week prior to said Court.

The Chronicle.

"N" for Nannie and "B" for Ben.

"N" for Nannie and "B" for Ben;
I see them now as I saw them then,
On the bark of the oak tree wed.
She sat waist-deep in the clover white,
And the liquid gold of the June sunlight
Swept over her sweet young head.

And I stood carving the letters twaid,
That time and tempest have all in vain
Striven to blur and blot;
They live in the oak tree's dusky grain,
Stamped as their memory on my brain,
Changing and fading not.

Oh! the vows that I vowed that day,
Their broken shreds in my bosom stay,
Wounding it hour by hour.
Could I be false to one so true?
Dared be cruel, my love, to you,
Nannie, my lily flower?

Ere the snow had whitened those letters twain,
In the old church porch you hid your pain,
As my bride and I passed by;
Your eyes were brave, but your cheeks grew white,
The cheek I should have pillowed that night
Where it never now may lie.

Little Nannie, you are at rest;
The butter-cups growing over your breast,
Close by the graveyard gate;
But, ah! I live to rue the day
Gold tempted my steps from love away,
And mine is the sadder fate.

For I'd give the rest of my life to-night
To see you sit in the clover white,
The sun on your locks of gold,
And carve once more as I carved them then,
"N" for Nannie, and "B" for Ben,
On the bark of the oak tree old.

Correspondence of the Chronicle and Gazette.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 25th.

Messrs. Editors:—New England has always been proud of its public and representative men. That it has reason to be is the object of this letter to prove, and I trust your readers may not find it altogether uninteresting.

The important subjects which have come before Congress this session, have brought all the New England Senators prominently before the public. Sumner with his scholarly and masterly speech on the Alabama claims question, carrying the whole senate before his irresistible logic, and lately his exposition of San Domingo affairs, has together with his persistent efforts in the cause of Equal Rights, risen him high in the estimation of New England. The same ability, clear judgment, and unceasing energy has characterized all the New England senators, as all must have observed, who have read the debates on question of Reconstruction, Finance, Foreign Affairs, and all the momentous questions which have received the attention of Congress this session. Sumner, Wilson, Hamlin, Morrill, Patterson, each and all deserve well of their countrymen. But I desire to call your attention Messrs. Editors and your New Hampshire readers to one particular New England Senator.

Senator Aaron H. Cragin has especially characterized himself as a hard worker. Not frequently heard in the brilliant debates which have brought so many senators so prominently before the people, he has been noted as a quiet, hard worker in the committee room. Possessed of clear judgment, good oratorical powers, he has settled himself down to the hard and often neglected routine of work in committee. Courteous in his daily intercourse with men, he does honor to the State he represents, and no man ever leaves his society without feeling in his heart the greatest respect for New Hampshire's honored Senator. Quiet and unassuming yet a powerful worker, scarcely any one was prepared for the splendid burst of eloquence, sound logic and thorough exposition, which the senator exhibited in his great speech delivered in the Senate, May 25th, on the Mormon question.

To the many who have read this speech it would be superfluous to speak of its merits; suffice it to say that in the opinion of the Washington Chronicle (a staunch and highly influential paper), a clearer and more masterly exposition of any of the damning evils which have beset our country has never been made in the Senate. After such an argument, no one need fear but that Congress will mete out to this "twin relic of Barbarism" its well merited doom.

The United States are under obligation to the different New England Senators for their persistent efforts in the cause of freedom. The whole civilized world is indebted to Aaron H. Cragin for his great effort in behalf of civilization and christianity.

New England has a right to be proud of her public men. T. J. M.

WHAT ARE
DR. J. WALKER'S
CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS.
They are not a vile fancy drink.
Made of poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Restorers," appetizers, &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER AND LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter, and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions and remain long unwell. $100 will be given for an incurable case, providing the bones are not destroyed by mineral poisons or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair. THE OLD RELIABLE
NEW ENGLAND FAMILY MEDICINE.
TO BE FOUND IN EVERY VILLAGE AND TOWN IN NEW ENGLAND, IS
DODD'S NERVINE
AND INVIGORATOR.
A THOROUGH TONIC AND STOMACHIC.
DODD'S NERVINE is not a new medicine, but has been before the public for the last fifteen years. Is compounded from the best and purest drugs. Contains no OPIUM, STRYCHNINE or MERCURY in any form, and is expressly adapted to the relief and permanent cure of all forms of
NERVOUS DISEASES, &c., &c.,

Coughs,	Neuralgia,	Female Weaknesses,
Colds,	Headache,	Fainting Fits,
Fevers,	Convulsions,	Palpitation,
Agues,	Sleeplessness,	Restlessness,
Biliousness,	Dyspepsia,	Dizziness,
Constipation,	Liver Complaint,	Children's Troubles
Diarrhœa,	Consumption,	&c., &c., &c.,

DODD'S NERVINE
Is a COMPLETE SPECIFIC for sleeplessness. It soothes the throbbing muscle like magic, and tranquilizes the mind. And everybody knows that good sleep is better than all medicines. And all folks that
CAN'T SLEEP NIGHTS,
Should use this truly wonderful medicine.
DODD'S NERVINE
Is one of the best remedies ever employed in the cure of the numerous and troublesome ailments known as FEMALE COMPLAINTS.
For Whooping Cough.
DODD'S NERVINE is administered with unexampled success. Mothers, remember this and save your little ones the agony of a most distressing complaint. It also works admirably in Measles, bringing out the rash well and leaving the bowels free and healthful. For the diseases which afflict CHILDREN WHEN TEETHING, nothing can furnish more instant or grateful relief. Remember, it contains no OPIUM in any form.
LOOK OUT FOR COLDS.
It is proverbial that people treat a cold (and the generally accompanying cough) as something that will cure itself; but neglect is serious and sometimes fatal. The fame of DODD'S NERVINE in the relief of colds is established. Use this standard remedy, and so far abstain from liquids of all kinds as to keep somewhat thirsty for a few days, and the worst cold will soon be gone.
DODD'S NERVINE
Is a PURE TONIC—harmonizes perfectly with the NERVE FIBRE—invigorating cough; as nothing the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, and other viscera—and supplies FRESH LIFE for the waste that is constantly taking place. It operates soothingly—is as pleasant to take as any wine, and with SLEEP AND GOOD DIGESTION, which it promotes, restores the afflicted to sound health of body and quietness of mind. It contains no opium, mercury or strychnine, (so often used for nervous complaints,) and is wholly free from any deleterious drugs whatever. Tens of thousands are testifying to its curative power. my174w
For Sale by all Druggists. Price $1.

THE MAGIC COMB will change any colored hair or beard to a permanent black or brown. It contains no poison. Anyone can use it. One sent by mail for $1. Address

AYER'S
HAIR VIGOR,
For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.
A Dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for Preserving the Hair. Faded or gray Hair is soon restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use.
Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remains can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor, can only benefit but not harm it.
If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

Chat.

A San Francisco man feels hurt because he was arrested for making ten knife holes in a companion.

The peach stones thrown away by rebel pickets along the "Petersburg line" have formed a continuous line of trees, fifty miles long, which bore profusely last year.

A Salt Lake boy, shooting at a cat, the other day, sent a bullet in among a man's wives, in a house near by, using up two or three. But he killed the cat.

Few men would attempt to dry dampened gunpowder in the kitchen stove. A man in Canada did. His afflicted family would be glad of any information as to his whereabouts.

News from Cuba has a blue look for the insurgents—if true.

The small-pox is raging in Paris.

A trapeze performer was fatally hurt while performing in New York, Monday evening.

Daniel Kimball, Jr., a well-known Boston merchant, was killed in that city on Monday, through his horse running away.

The public debt statement for May, it is said, will show a reduction of $11,600,000.

A respectable family named McLeod, residing in Cumberland County, N. C., were attacked by three ruffians last week, and two men killed. A lad and two women were badly wounded.

The Boston excursionists are expected to arrive in San Francisco to-day.

The very latest from Cuba reports that the steamer Geo. B. Upton has landed her men and munitions of war, and that the Cubans have gained some slight advantages.

The following conundrum was cooked twenty minutes to make it sufficiently hard: What is the difference between a donkey and the only empire in South America? The one brays well: the other, Brazil.

☞ Events are constantly happening in England to prove how much darker is the truth, in the matter of trade's-union outrages, than any picture of it which even Mr. Charles Reade can draw. Sheffield has been the scene of many of these incidents in the past; but now attention is called to Manchester, by the case of a Mr. Johnson, an extensive builder. Having chosen to disregard the ukase of the trades against the shaping of building stone at the quarries, or the use of machine made bricks, Mr. Johnson has found his life in danger for twelve months. His property has been fired; his servants have left him; his friends dare not come to his house; his coachman dares not drive him home. Mr. Johnson's sleeping-place is a profound secret. On the night when he ventured to attempt to remain in his own house in a suburban quarter, a violent explosion of gunpowder took place in his drawing-room, and only accident prevented the whole house from being blown to atoms.

This is in the second city of England to-day; and the police seem quite unable to afford any protection, though the county officers have informed Mr. Johnson that he can have as many guards as he chooses by paying eight pence an hour for each man. This case is made especially aggravating by the fact that the gentleman so persecuted has been constant in his endeavors to better the condition of the workingman, and in attempts to elevate him socially, politically and morally.

SALARIES.—The whole compensation of the collector of New York is $28,-699, of the surveyor $26,814; of the collector of Boston $8027, of the naval officer $6627, surveyor $6142; of the collector of San Francisco, $11,871, of New Orleans $6685, of Portland $9351. Secretary Boutwell recommends a bill giving the following salaries to collectors:—New York $15,000, San Francisco $12,000, Boston and New Orleans $8000 each, Philadelphia, Portland, and Baltimore $6000 each, to the surveyors of New York and San Francisco $8000 each, of Boston and New Orleans $6000 each, of Portland and Connecticut $5000 each, and to naval officers of Boston and New Orleans $6000 each.

☞ Barque Asterias, before reported having exploded off Land's End, was a beautiful vessel, built about one year since at Kennebunk, and was commanded by Capt. James S. Sloan, of Kennebunkport, who leaves there a widowed and childless mother. Capt. Sloan has had several eventful escapes; one, about 3 years since in the vicinity of this disaster, when at the wreck of the ship Addison, he lost a young wife and only child.

THE NATIONAL GAME.—Base Ball practice is being more earnestly supported this year throughout the United States than ever before. During the lull of the last two years, in which interest in the game seemed to be decreasing, the Granite State Club of this city, organized as Juniors several years ago, have kept up their organization, and enter the field this year strengthened by experience and the acquisition of several new players. They have easily defeated the local clubs who have appeared as their opponents thus far this year, and went to Dover a short time ago to play the Sawyer club of that city. The game commenced in a drizzling rain and four even innings only were played—the Granites making 3 on their 5th and no outs, which did not count as the rain stopped the game. The Sawyers scored 21 to 12 for the Granites. At that time the Dover Gazette took the opportunity of indulging in a little crow over the result—the editor probably forgetting that, by the rules of the National Association, it takes five innings to make a game, nine innings being a full game.

Among the best players of the Granite State nine is Stephen Gaines, a quiet, unassuming young man, who was not fortunate enough to be furnished with a white complexion by his Creator. Stephen played so well at Dover that the reporter of the Gazette saw double and called him two 15th amendments, which was not appreciated by the members of the Granite States, who value Gaines at his true worth, which is a good deal—as the sequel will show.

On Memorial Day, the Sawyer club visited this city to play the Granites and notwithstanding the large crowd in attendance at the Memorial ceremonies, quite a large audience assembled at the Plains to witness the game. The Sawyers won the toss and sent their opponents to the bat.

1st Inning.—Morrissey led off with a good hit and went to 2d base. Spalding popped up a fly to Donovan at short and Don pocketed it. Hackett hit well and made 3d. Morrissey got home, Donnell made his 1st and brought Hackett home. Ham was 2d out, Donnell tallied and Hazel was captured at 3d, the baseman lauing him by an enthusiastic swing.—T. McDonald opened for the Sawyers and went to 1st. Ryan offered a fly to Hackett at left field, and Hackett took it in out of the wet, neatly. McDonald stole home and T. McDonough put up a twister which Dow muffed. McDonough stole in. Andy McDonough was out at 1st on an easy grounder. J. McDonald followed on 3 strikes. Score, Granites 3, Sawyers 2.

2nd. Gaines struck beyond centre field and went to 3d. Frye and Dow fouled out. Morrissey hit to left field, Gaines came home and Morrissey followed on an overthrow. Spalding flew out.—Lowe made 1st by a miscalculation of Hazel, and afterwards stole home. Brew went to 1st and Drinkwater fouled out. Donovan made 1st and Brew tallied followed by Don. T. McD. fouled out and Ryan was stopped at 1st by Donnell's fielding. Score 5 to 5.

3d. Hackett made a heavy hit to 1f and went to 3d. Donnell's grounder gave him 1st, and Hackett tallied. Donnell followed on a poor throw to 3d. Ham batted well to 2d, and Hazel went out at 1st. Frye followed on the fly. Gaines put the side out by a beautiful fly which Ryan took handsomely at left field.—T. McDon. hit to 1st. Andy tipped out. J. McDon. followed suit, Tim came in and Lowe made 3d by a hot grounder. Brew out at 1st. Score 7 to 6.

4th. Dow opened with a pealer, which rolled nearly to the old tavern; He made a clean home run, and was received with cheers as he neared the home base. The gamins opened their mouths wide and yelled and screamed with intense delight, while children of a larger growth forgot their dignity and vented their enthusiasm uproariously. Morrissey went to 1st and stole home, Spalding and Hackett were taken on the fly and Donnell went to 2d as Ham flew out.—Drinkwater, Donovan and T. McDonald went out in one, two, three order, and the Sawyers were whitewashed. Score 9 to 6.

5th. Up to this time the game had been sharply played, each side doubtful of the result. But the Granite States had at last got the hang of McDonald's pitching while the Sawyers could with difficulty hit Dow's swift ones. Hazel led off with a close liner to left, and made 2d. Gaines struck nicely for his 3d and Hazel tallied. Frye fouled out, Morrissey went to 1st and Steve tallied. Spalding went to 2d and brought Morrissey in. Hackett did the same for Spalding and Donnell reciprocated. Ham and Hazel were victims to foul balls.—Ryan made 1st, stole home, and Tim and Andy fouled out. J. McD. finished the inning. Score 14 to 7.

6th. Hazel's line shot gave him 1st. Steve brought him home and took his place. Frye followed suit, and Dow struck out. Morrissey shot up an easy fly and retired. Spalding brought Frye in and made 2d. Hackett sent up a fly, splendidly caught.—Low struck finely to rf and went to the 3d. Brew made 2d and Low tallied, Drinkwater and Donovan were victimized at 1st. Brew tallied. T. McD. hit well for 2d and Ryan was out by Donnell. Score 17 to 9.

7th. Donnell went to 1st on a muffed fly. Ham made 1st and Donnell scored. Hazel rapped to 2d and Ham home. Hazel stole in. Gaines made 1st. Frye put up a fly which settled into somebody's hands and Gaines was nabbed by double play at 1st. Dow offered the centre fielder a good fly which was not taken. He went to 2d and stole home. Spalding was 3d out.—T. McDonough made 1st and was sent home by Andy. Ryan, Brew and Drinkwater went out. Score 21 to 10.

8th. The Granite States it is said, generally do their best on their 8th inning, and this inning was no exception. Hackett scored 3, Donnell 2, Ham 3, Hazel 2, Gaines 2, Frye 1, Dow 2, Morrissey 2 and Spalding 2, before the side was out. The outs were furnished by Frye, Donnell and Gaines. The striking throughout was heavy and safe. Dow and Donnell made home runs. Stephen was in his element and, by way of suggestion as to the practicability of his opponents adding an amendment to their nine, gave them a parting salute. The bases were full and Steve grasped the ash with vigor, his eyes twinkling with roguishness and determination. With an extra swing of the bat he gathered himself together and sent the ball whizzing beyond the reach of the centre and left fielders, making his third and bringing in three from the bases. Steve had vindicated himself and was honored with prolonged cheers.—The Sawyers didn't see any chance of winning and took their 2d whitewash with equanimity, Donovan, T. McDonald and Ryan being the victims.

They rallied for a white-wash, however, in the last inning and gave it to the Granites by the courtesy of Dow, Frye and Spalding.—The McDonoughs flew out, batting straight at Donnell at 2d base, who faced the music bravely and took all offerings. J. McDonald stole bases nicely and scored, so did Lowe. Brew was out by Hazel, splendidly fielded by Frye, and the game was over. Score 40 to 11.

There was also a match between a Picked Nine and Shoo Flies, at the Plains, score 24 to 27, which resulted in the victory of the former by 3 runs.

The Fenians are quiet on the frontier, and getting home as fast as possible. They denounce O'Neill.

INQUIRE WITHIN.—The mouth is like a house to let. However pretty it may be externally, it is impossible to judge of its merits until you have seen the inside. If behind the ruby doors there are plenty of pearl-white fixtures, you will exclaim at once, "How beautiful!" To impart the utmost possible brilliancy, there is nothing like fragrant SOZODONT.

"SPALDING'S GLUE" mends everything.

CAUTION.—In our changeable climate, coughs colds and diseases of the throat, lungs and chest will always prevail. Cruel consumption will claim its victims. These diseases, if attended to in time, can be arrested and cured. The remedy is Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Thrice Armed!

Thrice is he armed who keeps within reach of his hand a specific that at one and the same time will strengthen, regulate and purify his system when enfeebled, disordered and corrupted.

Such is the three-fold operation of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, and hence the great superiority of that standard vegetable restorative over all medicines that are merely tonics and nothing else. The effect of the ordinary astringent tinctures and extracts upon the bowels is disastrous, and upon the depraved blood or bile they produce no beneficial effects whatever. In dyspepsia and liver complaint all the fluids and humors of the body are more or less infected, and the bowels are often badly constipated. An unmodified astringent—quinine, for instance—does infinitely more harm than good in such cases.

In Hostetter's Bitters, on the other hand, the stimulating and tonic elements are qualified with aperients and antiseptic ingredients. The finest laxatives and blood purifiers of the vegetable kingdom are intermixed, with those of a purely invigorating nature, and under the operation of this admirable combination, all the three important processes of invigoration, regulation and purification go on together. The rapidity with which the disordered organization returns to its natural condition, under a course of the Bitters, is due to this cause.

Every disturbed function of the body is favorably affected by the various properties of this comprehensive and well balanced preparation. As a general rule the bowels are more subject to irregularities, and the fluids more liable to become vitiated in spring and summer than in winter, and hence the Bitters are especially valuable as a spring and summer alterative, corrective and invigorant. At all seasons when the seeds of intermittent fevers infect the air, this healthful vegetable elixir should be taken as a protective medicine.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which feed the fever of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12

"Children's Lives Saved for 50 Cts."

THOUSANDS OF CHILDREN DIE ANNUNUALLY OF CROUP. Now, Mothers, if you would spend 50 cents, and always have a bottle of DR. TOBIAS' VENETIAN LINIMENT in the house, you never need fear losing your little one when attacked with this complaint. It is now 22 years since I have put up my Liniment, and never heard of a child dying of Croup where my Liniment was used; but hundreds of cures have been reported to me, and many state it it was $10 per bottle they would not be without it. Besides which, it is a certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throat, Swellings, Mumps, Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Spasms, Old Sores and Pains in the Limbs, Back, Chest. No one who once tries it ever without it. It is warranted perfectly safe to take internally. Full directions with every bottle. Sold by the Druggists and Storekeepers in the United States. CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosciusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively, in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung diseases."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says: I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

A Column of Varieties on 4th page, from the Advertising Agency of Geo. P. Rowell & Co., N. York.

We notice in the list of lecturers and readers whose engagements are left to the management of the American Literary Bureau of New York, the name of James P. Bartlett, Esq. of this city. Mr. Bartlett gave great satisfaction as a reader before the Mercantile Library Association on two occasions last winter, and lecture committees will do well in securing an entertainment from him.

THE PROPOSALS for building the new School House near the Creek were opened on Thursday by the Committee on City Lands and Buildings. There were seven bids for the contract, as follows:—

Robert Drew	$3393
Jacob Haddock	3300
Moses Yeaton	2750
Thomas J. Spinney	2650
Joseph W. Marden	2625
Isaiah Wilson	2600
Supply F. Trefethen	2475

The contract was awarded to Isaiah Wilson, at $2600, and the work will be commenced immediately.

Communication.

Messrs. Editors:—It is strange that so few persons in this city have enjoyed the luxury of a Sulphur Bath. At first, with many others who have been cured, I was skeptical, but after taking several, the beneficial effects became apparent.

The Bath will cure and eradicate from the system many diseases, and particularly those of the skin, such as Leprosy, Salt Rheum, Tetter, &c.

Throw away all your drugs, which will not renovate the system, ye who are afflicted, and take the bath as administered by Dr. Strong — and you will never regret it. Attend to it while you have the opportunity.

Too much cannot be said in praise of this remarkable remedial agent, which is performing such wonders in the class of diseases above named.

ONE WHO HAS BEEN CURED.

MEMORIAL DAY was very generally observed in this city as a holiday, nearly all the stores and places of business being closed in the afternoon, flags flying at half-mast, and citizens of all classes turning out in great numbers. The programme previously published was fully carried out, excepting that Rev. Mr. DeNormandie was unable to deliver the Address, — the Episcopal Rector, Rev. Rufus W. Clark, Jr., taking the former gentleman's place.

Mr. Clark's remarks were as pointed as they were appropriate to the occasion. He referred personally to several of the Sons of Portsmouth, now numbered among those who died for their country; spoke feelingly of the duty of the nation to preserve the names of those who fell in the late conflict, and the memory of their sacrifices; earnestly deprecated the keeping alive of the feuds and bitterness engendered by the events of the last decade; and said that the nation's debt of gratitude to its defenders was not cancelled when flowers were strewn on the graves of the dead, —that gratitude to the dead as well as justice to the living demanded that the survivors of those who stood between the nation and destruction,—as ready to lay down their lives as were those who sealed their patriotism with their blood, —and passed safely through the perils of the war, should not now be thrust aside, and have their places filled by those who hung back when the very existence of the nation was threatened, and only patriotism and self-sacrifice could preserve it.

The procession was escorted by a company of U. S. Marines under command of Lieut. Frank D. Webster; and three volleys of musketry were fired by them at the Cemetery. Storer Encampment, Wentworth Encampment of Kittery, Naval Officers from the Yard and the Vandalia, the Sagamore, Dearborn, Atlantic and Granite State Engine Companies, the City Government, and citizens on foot and in carriages, made an imposing procession. The wreaths and boquets borne by many persons in the ranks produced a very pleasing effect.

Sagamore Engine Company strewed with flowers the graves of former members of their organization, (each grave being marked with a white flag,) at the same time that those of the soldiers were decorated; and many others laid wreaths where former friends now rest. The neat uniforms and fine appearance of the fire companies added a pleasant feature to the occasion.

The day was perfection, and thousands of our citizens and those of neighboring towns were at the Cemetery and along the route of the procession,—which started with a commendable degree of promptitude, exactly at 2 o'clock, returning to Market Square at 5, and there dismissing parade.

THE SOLDIERS' GRAVES and Monument at Kittery were decorated with flowers on Sunday, May 29th, as the Post of the G. A. R. there were desirous of assisting at the ceremonies in this city on the 30th, and Storer Encampment of Portsmouth wished to join in with their comrades at Kittery, in the ceremonies there; and the Kittery Post could not secure music for the 30th, if they observed that date as Memorial Day.

The Portsmouth Cornet Band, and Storer Encampment, G. A. R., crossed over in steamer Emerald, and proceeded to Armory Hall, where the exercises consisted of prayer and the singing of "America," the Band accompanying in the latter.

The procession moved shortly before 2 o'clock, and consisted of Wentworth Encampment of Kittery, with the Cornet Band, Storer Encampment of Portsmouth, Good Templars, Sunday Schools and citizens. At the Cemetery, the exercises consisted of prayer by Comrade J. J. Lambert, music, a very appropriate and forcible address by Rev. S. A. Hutchinson of Kittery, (who himself served in a western regiment during the war,) singing of memorial song by Sabbath School children, and the decoration of the Soldiers' Monument and graves with flowers and evergreens—the Band playing a dirge; concluding with "Old Hundred" by the Band and citizens, and prayer and benediction by Rev. Mr. Hutchinson.

The day was beautiful, and the assemblage very large; hundreds of people walked or rode over from this city, and two thousand is not a high estimate of the numbers present at Orchard Grove Cemetery. — Armory Hall was kept open, and many visitors improved the opportunity to view the likenesses of brave men which adorn its walls.

☞ A round tin whistle, the size of an old fashioned cent, and twice as thick, with a hole through its middle, was swallowed on the 22d of May by a boy three years old, son of Charles F. Adams, and was passed by the bowels May 27, with the assistance of sweet oil, and without producing much inconvenience to the child.

S. F. ENGINE CO. KEARSARGE, No. 3, organized on Monday evening by the choice of the following officers;—Foreman, James A. Waterhouse; 1st Asst. John Pender; 2nd Asst. Willis L. Hidden; Clerk, William C. Ham; 1st Pipesman, James Hurd; 2nd Pipesman, Thos. Watkins; Steward, John Harmon.

☞ George Seddons, who was one of the principals a in prize fight at the Shoals some time ago, has been sentenced to six months hard labor, in Boston.

☞ Deputy U. S. Marshal J. B. Adams will commence taking the census to-day. His district embraces Portsmouth, Gosport and Newcastle.

☞ Bidwell's Dramatic Company appear here on Friday evening next, June 3d,—for one night only. See advertisement.

I—O—A—N
—OF THE—
CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILROAD CO.
The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad
Is completed and running from RICHMOND, Va., to the celebrated WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, in West Va., 227 miles. It is being rapidly extended to the Ohio River, 200 miles further, making in all 427 miles.
In its progress Westward, it penetrates and opens up to market the Wonderful Coal Deposits of the Kanawha Region in West Virginia. And thus brings the superior and abundant Coals of that section into communication with the Iron Ores of Virginia and Ohio, and the Western, South Western and Eastern markets.
When completed it will connect the superior harbor facilities of the Chesapeake Bay with reliable navigation on the Ohio River, and thus with the entire system of Railroad and Water transportations of the great West and South-West.
It will make a short, easy, cheap and favorable route from the West, to the sea, and will command a large share of the enormous freights seeking transportation to the coast.
It will thus become one of the most important and profitable East and West Trunk Lines of Railroad in the country, and command a trade of immense value.
The completed portion of the Road is doing a profitable and increasing Business, and is fully equal in value to the whole amount of the mortgage upon the entire Line—($15,000,000.)
The loan of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company, being a First Mortgage upon the entire Line, property and equipments, worth when completed at least $30,-000,000, is therefore one of the most substantial, conservative and reliable Railroad Loans ever offered in the market, and is peculiarly adapted to the wants of
INVESTORS and CAPITALISTS,
Who desire to make their investments with the most satisfactory assurance of positive and undoubted Security.
The Bonds are in denominations of
$1000, $500 and $100,
and may be had COUPON or REGISTERED.
Interest Six per cent. per annum, payable MAY 1st and NOVEMBER 1st.
PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK.
Price 90 and accrued Interest in Currency, at which price they pay nearly Seven per cent. in gold on their cost.
All Government Bonds and other Securities dealt in at the Stock Exchange, received in exchange, at their full market value, and Bonds sent to all parts of the country, free of Express charges.
They can be obtained by ordering direct from us or through any responsible Bank or Banker in any part of the country.

Morning Chronicle.

NASBY ON THE WOMAN QUESTION.—The Brooklyn Woman's club gave under its auspices a lecture at the Brooklyn Academy of Music, which was well filled by appreciative, fun-loving individuals, who knew just what a treat was to be expected from Petroleum.

He commenced by saying that he was born conservative—rocked in a conservative cradle — doctored with Godfrey's cordial because his grandmother and connections used it. It was a rule with the family, that it was better to die on Godfrey's cordial than live on any thing else. He grew up with a reverence for everything old. All the trouble this world has ever seen comes from pestiferous pests, who will think we opposed the abolition of slavery because our fathers left it to us. Petroleum adored woman; indeed, he asked, where should we have been had it not been for woman? But for woman George Washington would never have been the father of his country. But for woman Andrew Johnson would never have been, and thus the world would have lost the most depraved example that ever was brought before it.

Man was first created, and should take precedence. Eve was a good wife, and knew her place; amused her leisure with darning Adam's torn fig leaves; never throw teapots, chairs, or brooms, and never intimated a desire for divorce. Eden was not probably located in Indiana.

Adam, a good husband, didn't have a club—but his son Cain did, as Abel found out to his sorrow. It was well for Eve that she died when she did. It would have broken her heart to see how the rest of her family turned out. Eve was not strong-minded, never delivered lectures, and never desired to sit in Congress.

The serpent selected Eve because she was the most fitting instrument—because he knew that Eve was the weaker.

He was opposed to the advancement of woman because she was inferior to man. She never does what man can. There is nothing succeeds like success.

There have been some women who could do something. Delilah overcame Sampson, the most successful conundrum maker ever known before or since. Mentioned several other examples, principally because he couldn't help it.

Joan of Arc and many others unsexed themselves. All women since Rebecca have deceived men with false hair.

The feminine habit of thought is not such as entitles them to privileges they do not now enjoy. 1st. They can't sing bass: 2d. Her form is graceful rather than strong—therefore, according to Dr. Bushnell, they ought not to expect men's privileges; 3d. They adore millinery goods; 4th. They can't grow a beard.

Women must live, not that they are of any account, but that the noble sex may be perpetuated.

If there is one woman too many, it is bad for that woman. A schoolmistress receives from $300 to $600, a man twice and sometimes three times as much. "But what," he naively asked, "is that to me."

There are too many women in the world, a fact which Petroleum declares he weeps over every day of his life. Women should go into kitchens and strip off their jewels and go to scrubbing.

Men whose fathers fail always take the drays, digging dirt, &c—but they will not make pantaloons at eight cents a pair.

Petroleum then told in his strange—and really touching—manner, the struggles of a poor girl in search of work—from one thing to another until she stole a loaf of bread, and was promptly arrested. Justice, said the lecturer, is always close behind the friendless. Until he had read Dr. Bushnell's Book, Petroleum once believed that there were some decent, respectable politicians in the world, but now he knew better.

What shall we do with the woman question? It is upon us and must be met. I have tried for a time to be a conservative, but it won't do. Like poor calico, it won't wash.

There are hundreds of thousands of women who have suffered in silence more evils by far than the slaves of the South, have no power to redress their wrongs, no voice so potent that the public must hear. After an elegant peroration, Mr. Nasby closed with an eloquent plea in behalf of woman, and sat down after saying:

"I would make woman of more use to humanity by making her fit to mould humanity. I would strengthen her, and through her, the race. The ballot of itself would be of direct use to but few, but indirectly, its effects would reach through all eternity. It would compel a different life. It would compel woman to an interest in life, would fit her to struggle successfully against its mischances, and prepare her for a keener, higher, brighter appreciation of its blessings. Humanity is now undecided. There is strength on the one side and weakness on the other. I would have both sides strong. I would have the two sides equal in strength—equally symmetrical—differing only as nature made them, not as man has distorted them."

FULFIL THE LAW.—Let each one strive with all his might, and every body can, to love his neighbor as himself—upon the golden plan; and if his neighbor chance to be a pretty female woman, why, love her all the more—you see that's only acting human.

U. S. SENATOR.—It is amusing to see how many aspirants for the responsible office of Senator of the United States have contrived to get their names posted in many of the Newspapers of this State. Surely not a few of them lack the requisite qualifications for the office. We would remind them that it would be more judicious for "the office to seek the man, rather than the man to seek the office." But the larger the number of aspirants, the more favorable it will be to the re-election of Senator Cragin, who has been long enough in the Senate to become acquainted with our national interests and affairs, and is therefore now well qualified to exert, in the future, a greater influence.

New Hampshire may well feel some pride in respect to the official conduct of her two Senators, Patterson and Cragin, and our people do approve of their votes, doings, and speeches in the Senate. They desire to be represented by those who are the best qualified to promote their interests. It is no object to confer honor upon a hungry aspirant merely because he cried for the office. Senator Cragin has evinced eminent talents as a statesman, and should our State Legislature possess a sound judgment and discretion, we can have no doubts of his re-election.

There is some talk about rotation in office. Rotation answers a useful purpose in order to get rid of unqualified representatives in the State, or the national Legislature. While we would strongly advocate the re-election of Senator Cragin, yet should not a majority of our legislators unite in his favor, we would propose Hon. John P. Hale, as a distinguished statesman, whose long career and experience in respect to our national concerns, would enable him to exercise great influence in the Senate in promoting the public interests. His public services are too well known throughout the nation, to require any comment. That his recall as Minister to Spain was a mistake and an error on the part of the Administration, is generally conceded. TRUTH.

KITCHEN GARDEN.—Farmers generally pay too little attention to the kitchen garden. Many of them think it beneath their dignity to bestow any labor, or even a thought, on the few square rods of ground inclosed by a paled fence near the dwelling-house, called the "garden." This small portion of the farm is handed over to the good housewife, to be managed and worked by herself and daughters, with the aid, it may be, of the hired house-help. Even a few wheelbarrow-loads of manure is begrudgingly awarded as a great favor, and estimated as an entire loss to the farm.

After a few weeks there is brought to the table peas, beans, radishes, onions, asparagus, tomatoes, cabbages, early potatoes, turnips, sweet corn, and small fruits — strawberries, raspberries and blackberries. Each in its proper season, and each cooked, flavored and served up as the intelligent wife of a farmer can do it. The farmer's plate is served with each in its turn, accompanied with graceful smiles. He eats with a relish, satisfies his appetite, and that is all—never whispers an approving word. He has always been accustomed to have such things on the table through the summer, and expects them as a matter of course, without ever thinking of their real value and the labor and care required to produce them from that little despised kitchen garden.—American Stock Journal.

CORN FODDER.—A communication which appears in a recent issue of the Republican Statesman, from the veteran farmer and intelligent experimenter, Levi Bartlett, Esq., of Warner, N. H., fully coincides with us in our views upon green corn fodder. Mr. B. says, that "Dr. N. is unquestionably right in his views respecting the small nutritive value of the usually late and thickly planted corn for fodder." He recommends as substitutes, in addition to several other plants, the cabbage, the rape-plant, and sweet corn grown in hills. Sweet corn is a very valuable plant, and one too much neglected. Mr. Bartlett says, "plant early, and commence feeding as soon as the ears have fairly formed; continue the feed until there is danger of frost; then cut and shock it, and feed to the cows in milk."

DEATH TO BUGS.—A correspondent sends the following recipe which he has successfully used for years. It is certainly worth trying: "Bugs on squash and cucumber vines—How to destroy them.—Dissolve a table spoonful of saltpetre in a pailful of water, put one pint of this around each hill, shaping the earth so that it will not spread much, and the thing is done. Use more saltpetre if you can afford it—it is good for vegetable, but death to animal, life. The bugs burrow in the earth at night, and fail to rise in the morning. It is also good to kill the 'grub' in peach trees—only use twice as much, say a quart or two to each tree. There was not a yellow or blistered leaf on twelve or fifteen trees to which it was applied last season. No danger of killing any vegetable with it. A concentrated solution applied to young beans made them grow wonderfully."

—"Gerty, my dear," said a Sabbath-school teacher to one of her class, "you were a very good little girl today." "Yes'm—I couldn't help being good; I've got a stiff neck," said Gerty, with perfect seriousness.

The Chronicle.

A KENTUCKY TRAGEDY.—The fatal feuds which have decimated so many families in Kentucky seem to continue with the same furious hate which characterized the combatants of ten or twenty years ago and more. The account published below is but one of many cases which happen every year.

A large portion of the county was thrown into a state of great excitement some days ago over a terrible murder committed just above Rockcastle river, in the border of Laurel county. The victim's name was P. H. Bullock, a young lawyer of Laurel county, and of good standing as a citizen. Young Bullock resided on his father's farm, between whom and some of his neighbors and relations, by the name of Parker, there has, for over a year, existed a mortal feud, which culminated as above stated, in the death of young Bullock and the wounding of his brother, sixteen years old, five times.

The Bullocks were planting corn in a field adjoining a very dense wood, and when within fifty yards of the wood, advancing toward it, they were suddenly fired on out of the brush by five or six persons; two of the party in the field escaped unhurt. There was no positive proof against the Parkers, but a great many strong circumstances pointed to them as the murderers, and accordingly they were arrested, and after some delay tried before an examining court and committed for further trial without bail.

On Saturday morning last (14th), at about one o'clock, the guard state that from 100 to 200 men, all in disguise, suddenly surrounded the jail and demanded the keys, telling the guard they did not "intend them any harm, but unless they surrendered the keys they would tear down the jail." (I have neglected to say that four of the Parkers were arrested and in jail, and a man by the name of William Shelter, an accomplice, making five in all.) The guard readily gave them up, whereupon some of the party went in, took out the five unfortunate men, and carrying them some half a mile from town on the Manchester road, hung four of them to one tree, where they were found next morning by the citizens, stark and cold in death, with a notice pinned to one of them, "Don't cut them down before twelve."

The youngest of the five, Allie Parker, is missing. It is unknown what became of him. Some think he probably escaped the mob. The people are horror-stricken over the act. All four of the doomed victims have left wives and little children to bewail their terrible fate. While in all probability they had forfeited their lives to the laws of the country, still, all good citizens condemn the act of hanging them. Thus, within the short space of two weeks, out of one little neighborhood, five human beings, in the prime and vigor of manhood, have been hurled into eternity without warning and unprepared, and five families of women and little children, besides gray-haired fathers and tottering old mothers, bowed down in sorrow, heart-broken, bereft and refusing to be comforted.—Cor. Louisville Commercial.

A DISINFECTANT WORTH KNOWING. We dare say very few persons are aware that coffee is a valuable disinfectant. Experiments, however, have proved that it is the most powerful means, not only of rendering animal and vegetable effluvia innocuous, but of actually destroying them. A room in which meat in an advanced state of decomposition had been kept for some time, was instantly deprived of all smell upon an open coffee roaster being carried through it, containing a pound of coffee newly roasted.

In another room, exposed to the effluvium occasioned by the clearing out of a manure pit, so that sulphuretted hydrogen and ammonia in great quantities could be chemically detected, the stench was completely removed in half a minute, on the employment of three ounces of fresh roasted coffee, while the other parts of the house were permanently cleared of the same smell by being traversed with the coffee roaster, although the cleansing of the pit continued for several hours after.

The best mode of using the coffee as a disinfectant is to dry the raw bean, pound it in a mortar, and then roast the powder on a moderately heated iron plate, until it assumes a dark brown tint, when it is fit for use. Then sprinkle it in sinks or cesspools, or lay it on a plate in the room you wish to have purified. Coffee-acid or coffee-oil acts more readily in minute quantities.

—Josh Billings says—'I hav sot by the hour and a half down near an ant hill, and marveled; hav wondered at their instincks, and hav thought how big must be the jackass who was satisfied to believe that even an ant, the least uv the bugs, could hav been created, made dizzy, and sot to work by chance.'

—In Boston, May 20th, at an auction sale of pure Jersey stock, just imported, one two-years-old heifer was sold for $705, another for $510, a third for $500, and a fourth for $405. None of the animals sold brought less than $300.

THE OLD RELIABLE
NEW ENGLAND FAMILY MEDICINE.
TO BE FOUND IN EVERY VILLAGE AND TOWN IN NEW ENGLAND, IS
DODD'S NERVINE
AND INVIGORATOR.
A THOROUGH TONIC AND STOMACHIC.
DODD'S NERVINE is not a new medicine, but has been before the public for the past twenty years. Is compounded from the best and purest drugs. Contains no OPIUM, STRYCHNINE or MERCURY in any form, and is expressly adapted to the relief and permanent cure of all forms of
NERVOUS DISEASES, &c., &c.,
Coughs, Neuralgia, Female Weaknesses, Colds, Headache, Painting Fits, Fevers, Convulsions, Palpitation, Agues, Sleeplessness, Restlessness, Biliousness, Dyspepsia, Dizziness, Constipation, Liver Complaint, Children's Troubles Diarrhœa, Consumption, &c., &c., &c.,
DODD'S NERVINE
Is a COMPLETE SPECIFIC for sleeplessness. It soothes the throbbing muscle like magic, and tranquilizes the mind. And everybody knows that good sleep is better than all medicines. And all folks that
CAN'T SLEEP NIGHTS,
Should use this truly wonderful medicine.
DODD'S NERVINE
Is one of the best remedies ever employed in the cure of the numerous and troublesome ailments known as FEMALE COMPLAINTS.
For Whooping Cough.
DODD'S NERVINE is administered with unexampled success. Mothers, remember this and save your little ones the agony of a most distressing complaint. It also works admirably in Measles, bringing out the rash. And keeping the bowels free and healthful. For the diseases which afflict CHILDREN WHEN TEETHING, nothing can furnish more instant or grateful relief. Remember, it contains no OPIUM in any form.
LOOK OUT FOR COLDS.
It is proverbial that people treat a cold (and the generally accompanying cough) as something that will cure itself; but neglect is serious and sometimes fatal. The fame of DODD'S NERVINE in the relief of colds is established. Use this standard remedy, and so far as obtain from liquids of all kinds as to keep somewhat thirsty for a few days, and the worst cold will soon be gone.
DODD'S NERVINE
Is a PURE TONIC—harmonizes perfectly with the NERVE FIBRE—gives increased energy to the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, and other viscera, and supplies FRESH LIFE for the waste that is constantly taking place. It operates soothingly and is pleasant to take as any wine, and with SLEEP AND GOOD DIGESTION, which it promotes, restores the afflicted to sound health of body and quietness of mind. It contains no opium, mercury or strychnine, (so often used for nervous complaints,) and is wholly free from any deleterious drugs whatever. Thousands of thousands are testifying to its curative power. my17tw

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late agent of the United States Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837,
NO. 78 STATE ST., OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bond Assignments, and all papers or drawings for Patents, executed on reasonable terms with dispatch. Researches made into American and Foreign works, to determine the validity and utility of Patents or inventions, and legal and other advice rendered on all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.
No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.
During eight months the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided IN HIS FAVOR by the Commissioner of Patents.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me THIRTEEN applications, in all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGHART."

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.
The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.
Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and insidious foe lurks in the organism, undermines the constitution, and invites attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly developes into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may or may not be deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations upon any part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this SARSAPARILLA is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear.
Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally manifest some relief, and in length, cure, by the use of this SARSAPARILLA: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various affections of the muscular and nervous systems.
Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac supplied gratis.
Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Nervous Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

ORGANIZATION OF THE LEGISLATURE. The House was sworn at 11.30 o'clock on Wednesday, by Gov. Stearns, attended by the Council. The roll call of the House showed a fuller attendance than usual. Hon. James Wilson, of Keene, was elected temporary chairman, and on taking his seat thanked the House for the compliment, and remarked that it was forty-one years ago to-day since he first took his seat in the House. The House then chose the Republican nominees for the various offices.

The Senate proceeded to elect Republican nominees. Each one had 6 votes, the only Democrat in the Senate refraining from voting. There are five Senatorial vacancies to be filled.

Our Legislative Correspondence.

CONCORD, May 31.

Dear Chronicle:—When the roll of early comers is called, yours truly is "here"—at the Phenix Hotel, which as heretofore is the Portsmouth headquarters. Young Seavey keeps the house well, as did his father before him; and on the occasion of the Concord Railroad meeting here, the other day, upwards of 300 persons dined at the house, and were satisfactorily provided for.

The Senator and Railroad questions are all the talk, among the advance members gathered, of the three houses.

The Newspaper question will be of some interest. For many years copies of the Concord Dailies, one of each party, have been voted to the legislators; and of late years the Manchester Mirror has also been paid for; and now the new daily of the People here, and the Telegraph from Nashua, it is understood, will put in an appearance, and claim pay for same. As upwards of 200 copies are furnished, and $200 or $300 paid to each paper, the question is getting to be one of some importance, and may yet include every daily in the State. Any of your citizens who may wish full reports from the Legislature, may depend on getting them through Mr. Yerrington in the Daily Monitor, as advertised in your columns.

In the absence of Messrs. Hackett, Kent and Ray,—Messrs. Wadleigh of Milford, Wilson of Keene, and Ramsdell of Nashua will probably be the Republican leaders in the House.

The new Directors of the Concord Railroad hold a meeting here to-day. They are a strong team, and of course will leave no stone unturned to get control of the Road they have bought control of. But the clause which we are told exists in the charter of the Concord Road, which gives the Directors all the powers of the stockholders in making contracts, it is thought is sufficient guaranty for the action with the Northern Road.

The weather is lovely, May closing with June air and sky. Why didn't they have June 1st for Memorial Day?

Yours ever, F.

☞ A good deal of a stir has been made in literary circles by the appearance, suddenly, of a new book by a new man, which grapples with the greatest subject presented to the American people, namely, the foundations of that liberty and order and union which go to make up the body known as the United States. "The Nation," by E. Mulford, is not a dry technical treatise on the Constitution, but a profound investigation, in the interest of the people, of the fundamental principles of our national life. It discusses the great question of the relation of the nation to the separate States and to individuals; it shows the living connection between morals and politics, and in a word, is a book which every thoughtful American will be thankful to have read. This book, advertised by H. O. Houghton & Co., is coupled by them with another,—Palfrey's "History of New England;" and it will be a good day when boys and young men are induced to read what their fathers have done in history, and what foundations they built upon in the State.

THE SENATOR QUESTION.—The permanent caucus organization of the Republican members of the legislature is considered a triumph of the friends of Senator Cragin.

New Hampshire despatches to the Boston Post for weeks past have been favorable to the opponents of Mr. Cragin, but a Concord despatch of Tuesday to that paper says:—

It is thought that Cragin will receive at least 90 votes on his first caucus ballot, and that Rollins and Stevens will come next. The impression is that Cragin will be re-elected, and great efforts are now being made to reduce his figures as low as possible, in hopes to defeat him. Rockingham, Grafton and Cheshire counties are said to be nearly solid for him. The strength of Rollins is said to be much more than has generally been thought.

☞ We shall publish the Governor's message to-morrow. The State debt has been reduced $357,587.35 during the past year, leaving the debt at $2,779,291.28. Gov. Stearns recommends a reduction of the State tax $200,000 the coming year.

The whiskey tax, which yielded but $12,000,000 last year, is good for $52,000,000 this year.

There were 220 deaths from small pox in Paris last week.

INQUIRE WITHIN.—The mouth is like a house to let. However pretty it may be externally, it is impossible to judge of its merits until you have seen the inside. If behind the ruby doors there are plenty of pearl-white fixtures, you will exclaim at once, "How beautiful!" To impart the utmost possible brilliancy, there is nothing like fragrant SOZODONT.

"SPALDING'S GLUE" mends everything.

STONE AND MURRAY'S CIRCUS.

STONE AND MURRAY'S CIRCUS!

The Colossus of Exhibitions!

NEW DESIGNS TO AMUSE.

Peerless Talent—Unlimited Skill!

Fresh Sensation for 1870.

WILL EXHIBIT IN PORTSMOUTH,

On Middle Street,

Wednesday, June 15th.

The opulent resources of the

Superb Centralization of Arenic Talent

To delight and amuse are of a character quite new to this country. The Exhibition this season will be enriched and adorned by Performers inimitable in their special roles; and the splendor of the Entertainments will be enhanced by every accessory requisite to make them elegant in style and finish, and magnificent in their general character.

The great variety of celebrated Performers in the Troupe is potent to sustain the elevated standard of excellence acquired by this popular Circus.

A perusal of the annexed list of famous actors will serve as palpable evidences to confirm the promise, that the attained eminence and conspicuous superiority of Stone & Murray's Circus will be amply maintained this Season.

Behold the attractions:

Exhibitions will be given Afternoon and Night.

Commencing at 2 and 7½ o'clock. Doors open one hour previous.

Admission 50 cents. Children under 10 years, 25 cents.

☞ In order to gratify the innate desire implanted in the human mind for witnessing

SENSATIONAL SPECTACLES,

STONE & MURRAY will introduce TWO NEW EXCITEMENTS,

Free To The Public?

THE FIRST will be presented on the morning of the Exhibition day, in the form of a

GRAND STREET PAGEANT,

Preceded by the ELEGANT BAND CHARIOT, containing PROF. O. P. PERRY'S FAMED ORCHESTRA, Drawn By Forty Horses!

Managed by the great Maître du Cheval, Mons. J. H. PAUL. This rare sight will be circumvented with too many wonders to be minutely described in the limits of a newspaper advertisement; therefore, the reader is referred TO THE PARADE itself for additional particulars.

THE SECOND FREE EXHIBITION

Will be a marvellous display of human intrepidity

UP IN THE AIR!

By the daring Funambulist, M'LLE JEANETTE ELLSLER, who will Walk from the Ground to the Apex of the Circus Pavilion, and return, on a Slender Cord?

This startling Gratuitous Performance of Consummate Daring will commence about 12 30, noon and the unique nature of the Feat cannot fail to command the attention of the citizens of this vicinity.

☞ For details of these Dual Sensations, see the various Pictorial Descriptive Bills and Programmes.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Thrice Armed!

Thrice is he armed who keeps within reach of his hand a specific that at one and the same time will strengthen, regulate and purify his system when enfeebled, disordered and corrupted.

Such is the three-fold operation of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, and hence the great superiority of that standard vegetable restorative over all medicines that are merely tonics and nothing else. The effect of the ordinary astringent tinctures and extracts upon the bowels is disastrous, and upon the depraved blood or bile they produce no beneficial effects whatever. In dyspepsia and liver complaint all the fluids and humors of the body are more or less infected, and the bowels are often badly constipated. An unmodified astringent—quinine for instance—does infinitely more harm than good in such cases.

In Hostetter's Bitters, on the other hand, the stimulating and tonic elements are qualified with aperients and antiseptic ingredients. The finest laxatives and blood purifiers in the vegetable kingdom are intermixed with those of a purely invigorating nature, and under the operation of this admirable combination, the three important processes of invigoration, regulation and purification go on together. The rapidity with which the disordered organization returns to its natural condition, under a course of the Bitters, is due to this cause.

Every disturbed function of the body is favorably affected by the various properties of this compound medicine and well balanced preparation. As a general rule the bowels are more subject to irregularities, and the fluids more liable to become vitiated in spring, and summer than in winter, and hence the Bitters are especially valuable as a spring and summer alterative, corrective and invigorant. At all seasons where the seeds of intermittent fevers infect the air, this healthful vegetable elixir should be taken as a protective medicine.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which feed the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh.2

"Children's Lives Saved for 50 Cts."

THOUSANDS OF CHILDREN DIE ANNUALLY OF CROUP. Now, Mothers, if you would spend 50 cents, and always have a bottle of DR. TOBIAN' VENETIAN LINIMENT in the house, you never need fear losing your little one when attacked with this complaint. It is now 22 years since I have put up my Liniment, and never heard of a child dying of Croup where my Liniment was used; but hundreds of cures have been reported to me, and many state if it was $10 per bottle they would not be without it. Bruises which, it is a certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throat, Swellings, Mumps, Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Spasms, Old Sores and Pains in the Limbs, Back and Chest. No one who once tries it is ever without it. It is warranted perfectly safe to take internally. Full directions with every bottle. Sold by the Druggists and Storekeepers in the United States. CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosciusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively, in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung disease in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says: "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says; I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

Physicians do not recommend a medicine which has no merits, what then they say about

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM,

Can be taken as a fact. Let all afflicted test it at once. Sold by all Medicine Dealers.

A RADICAL REVOLUTION

Has been accomplished in hair dyes. The horrible compounds containing LEAD, SALT and SULPHUR are discarded. The leading chemists implore the public not to use them, and Professor Chilton, whose reputation is second to that of no analytic chemist in America, has recommended as PERFECTLY INNOCUOUS ARTICLE, which may be used without fear. Remember, it is the only one that has been analyzed and found wholesome. Its effects are instantaneous, and the color it imparts natural.

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye

CRISTADORO'S HAIR PRESERVATIVE, as a Dressing, acts like a charm on the Hair after Dyeing. TRY IT. mh12dawlm

☞ The Jefferson Market building is an abortion—a blemish to our chief Square, a disgrace and laughing stock for citizens and strangers. It is a good strong structure, the City officers are well provided for there; and with a few thousand dollars expended in a new roof and otherwise improving the exterior, the building would answer a good purpose for another age. Why not do it? If desirable, a French roof could be put on, and a new hall made in the third story.

☞ Street Commissioner Ham has given the residents of the South End, and passengers for Newcastle, a better road from South Mill to Newcastle Bridge, than ever the travellers that way for about two and a half centuries have trod before. Islington Street also has been improved, and is now as good perhaps as ever before since Gov. Goodwin's friends thought he had moved out of town and out of the world, in taking up his residence on the corner of Cornwall St. Union Street also is pronounced a good job—but all such cost money; and while most citizens are glad to have the streets where they reside fixed up, the aggregate is what makes the taxes. Poor roads are poor economy, however.

PERSONAL. — Albert L. Jones, Esq., has been severely ill of lung fever for a few days past; but it is hoped is now on the mending hand.

The family of our old and esteemed citizen Dea. John Knowlton has been afflicted with sickness of late. Mr. Knowlton and wife are both in feeble health; and latterly a young and promising daughter is suffering from brain disease. They have the sympathy of all the community.

M. P. Kennard, Esq., of Boston, sailed for Europe last week. The early return of Messrs. M. H. and George Wentworth, and ladies, is reported; also that of Messrs. Pickering, Jenness and ladies. The recent marriage of Mr. J. Horace Jenness, in Paris, is reported, to a lady born and resident in that city, of New York parents.

Correspondence of the Chronicle and Gazette.

RYE, May 30.

The frame of one of the cottages being constructed at Locke's Neck, was blown down during the high wind on Friday night; the other cottage partly finished, came very near going. Damage, not very heavy. The Christian Baptist Society have commenced repairing their church. It is to be shingled and painted. Rev. Mr. Leach, the Congregational minister is off on a week's vacation, up country.

Rev. Mr. Peirce, who has supplied the pulpit at the Baptist church for two years past, has left, and gone to Rockland, R. I. Rev. J. P. Nelson, from Corianna, Me., is at present preaching for the society. R.

☞ Mr. Lynch's bill for the relief of the ship-building interests was finally defeated in the U. S. House of Representatives on Tuesday by a vote of 109 to 60. The New England members voting nay were Messrs. Brooks, Buffinton, Butler, Hoar, Hooper, Smith and Washburn.

Reported for the Chronicle and Gazette.

THE REPUBLICAN LEGISLATIVE CAUCUS at Concord, Tuesday evening, was temporarily presided over by Hon. George M. Herring of Farmington. A committee appointed for the purpose reported a list of caucus officers, whose terms continue during the session, as follows:—Ezra S. Stearns of Rindge, chairman and treasurer; Frank W. Miller of Portsmouth and Daniel H. Hill of Sandwich, secretaries. Hon. Samuel M. Wheeler of Dover was renominated by acclamation for Speaker of the House. Josiah H. Benton, jr., of Lancaster was renominated for clerk by acclamation. Samuel C. Clark of Gilford was nominated for assistant clerk on the first ballot, and Colonel Charles H. Roberts of Farmington had the usual compliment of a unanimous nomination for sergeant-at-arms. The Senate caucus nominated Hon. Nathaniel Gordon of Exeter for President, John W. Currier of Alton for clerk, and Luther G. Merrill of Concord for assistant clerk.

☞ Gov. Padelford of Rhode Island was inaugurated on Tuesday. Hon. A. C. Barstow was elected Speaker of the House and at the Republican caucus, Hon. Henry B. Anthony was nominated for re-election to the U. S. Senate, receiving 64 votes out of 74. Senator Anthony will have served two full terms, 12 years, at the expiration of his present term and is now chosen for six years more from March 4, 1871, making a Senatorial service of 18 years. The Rhode Island Republicans are evidently no more in favor of rotation than are their brethren in New Hampshire.

THE RAILROAD QUARREL. — The case of Walters et al. vs. the Northern Railroad was extended thirty days before the United States District Court at Manchester, Tuesday. The case will have a hearing at the session of the U. S. District Court in this city, July 12.

L— O—A—N
—OF THE—
CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILROAD CO.
The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad
is completed and running from RICHMOND, Va., to the celebrated WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, in West Va., 227 miles. It is being rapidly extended to the Ohio River, 200 miles further, making in all 427 miles.
In its progress Westward, it penetrates and opens up to market the Wonderful Coal Deposits of the Kanawha Region in West Virginia. And thus brings the superior and abundant Coals of that section into communication with the Iron Ores of Virginia and Ohio, and the Western, South Western and Eastern markets.
When completed it will connect the superior harbor facilities of the Chesapeake Bay with reliable navigation on the Ohio River, and thus with the entire system of Railroad and Water transportations of the great West and South-West.
It will make a short, easy, cheap and favorable route from the West, to the sea, and will command a large share of the enormous freights seeking transportation to the coast
It will thus become one of the most important and profitable East and West Trunk Lines of Railroad in the country, and command a trade of immense value.
The completed portion of the Road is doing a profitable and increasing Business, and is fully equal in value to the whole amount of the mortgage upon the entire Line—($15,000,000.)
The loan of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company, being a First Mortgage upon the entire Line, property and equipments, worth when completed at least $30,000,000, is therefore one of the most substantial, conservative and reliable Railroad Loans ever offered in the market, and is peculiarly adapted to the wants of
INVESTORS and CAPITALISTS,
Who desire to make their investments with the most satisfactory assurance of positive and undoubted Security.
The Bonds are in denominations of

AT HOME AND ABROAD.
TRAVEL, HISTORY, ART, and POLITICS.
Spring time is moving time, and while half the American world is getting ready to go to Europe, and the other half to California, the remainder are stay-at-home travellers, and wish to read the best books in travel and home history.
SEVEN BOOKS ON EUROPE.
"One must carry the wealth of Indies with him to the Indies if he would bring it back."
1. REMINISCENCES OF EUROPEAN TRAVEL.
By Professor A. P. PEABODY. $1.50.
Professor Peabody took the familiar route in Europe, and has written a very agreeable account of what all travellers wish to see but cannot so well describe.
2. AN AMERICAN FAMILY IN PARIS.
Fifty-eight illustrations. $1.50.
A book professedly written for the young, but readable by all. It gives a clear and straightforward account of the sights of that wonderful city, and is illustrated with beautiful pictures.
3. THE PILGRIM'S WALLET.
By GILBERT RAVEN. $2.00.
Crowded with experience of travel, minutely and rapidly described.
4. OLD ENGLAND.
By Professor HOPPIN. $2.00
The book of an American thoroughly read in English Literature, ready to enjoy all of Old England without over forgetting his New England education.
5. (a.) VENETIAN LIFE.
(b.) ITALIAN JOURNEYS.
Mr. HOWELLS' two books. Each $2.00
Unquestionably the most generally admired of American books on Italy.
6. Art Thoughts.
By JAMES JACKSON JARVES. $2.50
No better preparation for seeing foreign picture galleries could be obtained than by reading this latest book of the most eminent American art critic.
7. SKETCHES ABROAD WITH PEN AND PENCIL.
By. F. O. C. DARLEY. 88 illustrations. $3.50
A bright, entertaining, and beautiful souvenir of travel.
AMERICA.
We are just beginning to discover the more than Indian wealth in the untravelled regions of our own country.
1. The Heart of the Continent.
By FITZHUGH LUDLOW. With illustrations, 1 vol. 8 vo. 570 pages. $3.75.
The book takes the reader over the most wonderful part of our country, into the famous Yo-Semite country, and also to Oregon. It gives besides a most thorough turning inside out of the Mormon question.
2. THE OPEN POLAR SEA.
By DR. HAYES. Thirty-five engravings; three charts. $3.75. The same, popular edition, $2.50.
A most captivating and thrilling account of the great voyage of discovery toward the North Pole. Dr. Hayes was commander of the expedition.

Morning Chronicle.

A VICTIM OF INDIAN BARBARITY. There is in Washington, prosecuting a claim against the Government for damages done to herself and family by a tribe of Indians who were supposed to be friendly, and with whom we had a solemn treaty of peace, a woman named Mrs. Mary Burns, of Nebraska, whose terrible story the "humanitarian" journals will do well to study.

Some two years ago, her husband, herself, and their children started for the Territory of Wyoming, to settle there. They had a small herd of cattle, three or more teams and wagons, some sheep, and loads of farming stock and tools, household goods, etc. They had hardly proceeded fifty miles out upon the prairie beyond the frontier, when they were visited by a large party of friendly Sioux. The Sioux pretended to be hungry, and begged for a little food. The emigrants fed them, and made them many presents from their little store. But the more kindness the savages received the greater became their demands. They finally demanded a feast for the whole band, promising at its conclusion to leave the party in peace, and direct them on their way.

The Burns family therefore halted and proceeded to kill a cow and prepare a feast. While they were eating the savages suddenly rose, and killed all the males, except Mr. Burns, who managed to get to his horse, and escape, hotly pursued by part of the warriors. Mrs. Burns' sister resisted an attempt to violate her person, when the savages dashed out her brains with a club. Mrs. Burns, was seized so suddenly that she could not resist. She was bound to stakes driven in the ground, when over one hundred of the red devils outraged her person, in rapid succession. This terrible brutality left her nearly dead. But she was revived, after a time, and compelled to accompany the band westward, after they had taken the horses and killed the sheep and cattle, and plundered and destroyed the train. She was treated to daily outrages of her person, for two or three weeks, when she attempted to escape; but was recaptured. To punish her for this, she was beaten, and violated repeatedly for months; but she finally managed to escape, and fortunately found a military post, where she was cared for, and restored to civilization, naked except a bit of blanket, and without money or living friends that she knew of, and with all her children dead. Being a woman of great resolution, she managed to go to Washington, where she is trying to secure some recompense for her sufferings. What became of her husband nobody knows. He was probably overtaken by his pursuers, and slain; or else perished somewhere on the prairie, of starvation.

PRUNING FRUIT TREES.—There is but one proper time for pruning fruit trees, which is during or about the time that the days are longest. The writer has pruned during every month of the year, and observed closely the effect of different seasons, and has become fully satisfied that the latter part of June is the only proper time for pruning. If the limbs to be removed are cut as closely to the trunk, or larger limbs, as is practicable, and the wound made neatly and smoothly, and the work be done at the time I have recommended, wounds two inches in diameter may, on a vigorous tree, be entirely healed over in a single year.

No orchard of apple, pear or peach trees is benefitted by plowing or cultivating after the trees are five years old, but the ground should be mulched with anything that will shade it, and the mulching should always extend from the trunk to a line from two to three feet larger radius than that covered by the heads of the trees. This keeps the ground moist and friable at the locality of the principal root feeders of the tree, and by extending the mulching beyond the ends of the roots, they will be induced to extend themselves, the benefit of which is too apparent to require any comment from me.

There is not a winter or spring-pruned orchard in the country, the trees of which are twenty years old, in which many of the trees have not hollow trunks. This is occasioned by injudicious pruning. If the larger limb is amputated at an improper time, the wound will not heal over, the wood of the wound will die, check and admit rain water, which, when warmed by the sun, combines the true elements of decomposition, viz., heat and moisture. Decay commences at the wood and continues to the trunk, until death ensues.

CUCUMBERS.—The following plan is recommended for raising cucumbers: "Sink a flour barrel in the ground, with a gimlet hole in each stave, about nine inches from the top; fill it nearly to the top with well-rotted manure; then put in as much water as it will hold every day, and at the same time stir it with a strong stick from bottom to top; put in fresh manure about twice during the season; make around this barrel, close up to it, six hills, in which plant the seed, and start them rapidly with some fertilizer. If the striped bug should make its appearance, use plaster freely over the hills and plants. These six hills will probably produce more cucumbers than twenty planted in the ordinary way.

—A Chinese suicide in San Francisco left at his dying confession a letter reading: "Chinese young man, Hemul Hake Foo, twenty-nine years old. Have sick. Would live. From Canton, 2 ward-Name, Sun Word, Farmer. China Saelep Company. I have soul. Had boot on my bad. I dead now. Can't livee."

DISBUDDING THE GRAPE-VINE. — Those who neglected to prune their grape-vines at the proper time, last fall or early this spring, will find it a good plan to disbud them at the present time, for as soon as the buds begin to expand into leaves, This is done by rubbing off all the buds that are not wanted to grow and produce wood or fruit branches.

The greatest fault to be noticed about grape-growing in the gardens of those who do not perfectly understand the habit of the vine is the neglect to prune the vines, as they should be, in the right season of the year. After a vine is five or six years old and has become well established, and it is not desirable to increase its size any more by extending its branches, then all the wood that has been produced the preceding summer should be cut out in the fall of the year. This may seem to be rather severe pruning to any one who does not understand the fruit-bearing habit of the grape-vine, but when it is considered that the vine never produces fruit but once directly on the same branch, the reason for the practice is easily seen.

When a vine is not pruned at all, but is allowed to grow on the "let alone system," it soon becomes an entangled mass of little spindling branches so numerous and small that they are not capable of bearing but a small quantity of small fruit. This may be seen in many gardens and in all places where the vine is allowed to grow according to nature. Those who think so much of letting vines take their own course, "and grow according to nature," had better let them grow in the woods where they can have trees enough to climb and grow upon.

The grape-vine in its fruit-bearing habit is in fact a kind of annual, similar to hop-vine; for, although the branches that bear fruit do not start out from the roots, and after one year of growth die, as the hop-vine branches do, they do start out from the old wood every spring, and the fruit is borne on these new branches, and on no other part of the vine but on these new branches this annually new wood; so after these fruit branches have once produced fruit, they should be pruned away in the fall of the year, then the new branches that start out next spring will start from dormant buds close to the place where the branch cut away grew from; by pruning in this way annually the vine is kept within any desired limits.

It is the general practice, however, when pruning to leave one bud near the base of the old fruit branch for the new branch to start from. This is called the "short spur system of pruning." But if the vine is not pruned in the fall, or disbudded in the spring, the fruit branches will grow from the best developed buds, which are always near the extremities of the branches of the last year's growth, and thus the vine is continually extending itself till it requires large trees to grow upon. Then, again, when a vine is not pruned in some way, almost every bud will grow and produce a branch, and there being so many of them, they cannot all grow vigorously enough to produce fruit, so it becomes filled with little spindling wood branches.—Concord Monitor.

BASE BALL.—The practice the Forest City club had with the Red Stockings, has set them up handsomely. The Cleveland Leader says:

"Tuesday the Forest City club got away with the Atlantics by a score of 132 to 1, in five innings, and it wasn't a good day for base ball either! It may, however, be proper to state that the defeated club was not the Atlantics of Gotham, but an amateur West Side organization, the First Nine of which wanted to see whether they could play base ball or not.

The Forest Citys chased each other around the bases in rapid succession, while the Amateurs were kept galloping all over the field after the ball. The single run made by the Atlantics was a scratch, the striker, Hudson, getting his first on' called balls." The following is the score by innings:

Forest City,	52	16	53	1	10	—132
Atlantic,	0	1	0	0	0	— 1

THE ORCHARD. — Frank Ammon writes in the Rural New Yorker: "I always carry my hand shears and my pruning knife with me when I go into my orchard; for just as sure as I go there, so sure am I to find, here and there, a twig that before escaped the eye, and that should be cut away; and yet I am one who believes in very little pruning of standard trees, whether apple, pear, cherry or plum. I only believe in cutting away a crossing twig or limb, or one that is growing so that in another year it will cross; and if a limb is taking too much to itself, and outstretching so as to cause a loss of balance to the form of the tree, I prefer to rub away the terminal bud rather than cut the limb back, because I have found that in so doing that limb, during the coming season, makes little or no elongated growth; but if I cut it back one-half or one-third, to a good strong bud or two, it will from that bud push out as strong or stronger than ever."

HOW TO RAISE CURRANTS.—There is no difficulty in raising currants in a clay soil if you trench deeply, getting the ground mellow, and leaving it pretty rich. Prune your bush so as to let sun and air have full scope. After the useless wood is removed, the best way is to keep back the sprouts with thumb and finger. Cultivate the soil, and mulch with some vegetable fertilizer, such as chip manure, leaves, garden weeds, &c. The red Dutch is the most reliable variety among the red, the white grape among the white currants. But yearly attention is necessary to good annual crops. For the currant worm, hellebore is a sure cure. Dust the bushes in the morning. One dusting will answer for several weeks. Utica Herald.

BABY'S RIGHTS.

BY GEORGE COOPER.

Her platform is only the cradle—
Her speeches are funny and few—
A wise little head,
But all that is said
Is only a vague little "goo!"

But how baby's rights are respected!
One nod of her dear, downy head,
Whenever she thinks she's neglected,
And down to her feet we are led.

She lifts up her voice in a minute—
Her protests are loud and are long!
Each household affair—she is in it,
To see there is nothing goes wrong.

The right to twist limbs that are dimpled,
In every extravagant way;
To maul and to tease
The cat at her ease—
To crow and to creep all the day.

The right to a love that is purest—
The right to a mother's own love!
The right to a guide that is surest
To lead her wee footsteps above.

Her sweet little mouth she upraises,
As pure as a rose, dew impearled!
The right to our kisses and praises—
O, these her rights, over the world!

FRENCH METHOD OF RAISING TOMATOES.—As soon as a cluster of flowers are visible, the stem is topped down to the cluster, so that the flowers terminate the stem. The effect is that the sap is immediately impelled into the two buds next below the cluster, which soon push strongly and produce another cluster of flowers each. When these are visible, the branch to which they belong is also topped down to their level, and this is done successively. By this means the plants become stout dwarf bushes, not above eighteen inches high. In order to prevent their falling over, sticks or strings are stretched horizontally along the rows, so as to keep the plants erect. In addition to this, all the laterals that have no flowers, and after the fifth topping, all laterals whatsoever, are nipped off. In this way the ripe sap is directed into the fruit, which acquires a beauty, size and excellence unattained by other means.—Horticulturist.

TO DESTROY THE STRIPED OR CUCUMBER BUG.—A correspondent writes to the Maryland Farmer:

"I send you an item, if you think it worth publishing, which effectually protected my melon, squash, cucumber and other vines from that destructive pest, the 'striped or cucumber bug,' the past season, with only one application, viz: A strong solution of hen house manure—say one peck of the manure to one and a half gallons water—let it stand twenty-four hours, and sprinkle the plants freely with it after sunset.

The above was suggested to me by a negro woman living on my place, who has some practical experience in gardening, and says she has used it for years, and has never known the first application to fail to drive them off, and they never return.

YOUNG MEN, DON'T DO IT!—No, young men, don't do it. Don't marry dimples, nor ankles, nor mouth, nor hair, nor necks, nor teeth, nor chins, nor simpers. These bits and scraps of feminity are very poor things to tie to. Marry the true thing—look after congeniality, kindred sympathies, disposition, education, and if this be joined with social position, or even filthy lucre, why don't let them stand in your way. Get a woman—not one of those parlor automatons that sits down just so, thumps on a piano, and dots on a whisper. Living statues are poor things to call into consultation. The poor little mind that can scarcely fathom the depth of a dress trimming can't be a helpmate of any account. Don't throw your time away on such trifling things.

A WEIGHTY CLUB.—We now have the 'heaviest' base-ball club on the Pacific coast, and perhaps in the world. The Fat Men's Base-Ball club of White Pine consists of 21 members, whose united weight foots up 4,856 pounds, divided as follows: A. Cross, 260 lbs.; J. Cross, 240; Frank Wheeler (red), 230; W. Pierson, 235; Jack White, 230; O. H. Grey, 230; Marco Medin, 240; Mart. Carroll, 250; W. P. Taylor, 240; George D. Coburn, 230; B. F. Sherwood, 230; L. (French) Dahlman, 230; P. H. Lannan, 225; Mike McCluskey, 240; George W. Birdsall, 235; L. Hymes, 230; A. M. Hillhouse, 225; Morris Cohn, 255; H. H. Kirchner, 201; H. Bishop, 230; Robert Hannegan, 220. These figures are furnished by the Secretary, and are supposed to be correct.—White Pine News.

—It is said that the ladies of Wyoming are planning to have one of their sex sent as the next Delegate to Congress. They talk of importing some distinguished female orator to fill that position, and a wicked Western editor suggests that, if Miss Anthony should go there, she would undoubtedly be conspicuously men-shunned.

THE OLD RELIABLE
NEW ENGLAND FAMILY MEDICINE.
TO BE FOUND IN EVERY VILLAGE AND TOWN IN NEW ENGLAND, IS
DODD'S NERVINE
AND INVIGORATOR.
A THOROUGH TONIC AND STOMACHIC.
DODD'S NERVINE is not a new medicine, but has been before the public for the last fifteen years. It is compounded from the best and purest drugs. Contains no OPIUM, STRYCHNINE or MERCURY in any form, and is expressly adapted to the relief and permanent cure of all forms of
NERVOUS DISEASES, &c., &c.,
Coughs, Neuralgia, Female Weaknesses, Colds, Headache, Fainting Fits, Fevers, Convulsions, Sleeplessness, Agues, Sleeplessness, Restlessness, Billiousness, Dyspepsia, Dizziness, Constipation, Liver Complaint, Children's Troubles Diarrhœa, Consumption, &c., &c., &c.,
DODD'S NERVINE
Is a COMPLETE SPECIFIC for sleeplessness. It soothes the throbbing muscle like magic, and tranquilizes the mind. And everybody knows that good sleep is better than all medicines. And all folks that
CAN'T SLEEP NIGHTS,
Should use this truly wonderful medicine.
DODD'S NERVINE
Is one of the best remedies ever employed in the cure of the numerous and troublesome ailments known as FEMALE COMPLAINTS.
For Whooping Cough.
DODD'S NERVINE is administered with unexampled success. Mothers, remember this and save your little ones the agony of a most distressing complaint. It also works admirably in Measles, bringing out the rash well and leaving the bowels free and healthy. For the diseases which afflict CHILDREN WHEN TEETHING, nothing can furnish more instant or grateful relief. Remember, it contains no OPIUM in any form.
LOOK OUT FOR COLDS.
It is proverbial that people treat a cold (and the generally accompanying cough) as something that will cure itself; but neglect is serious and sometimes fatal. The flame of DODD'S NERVINE in the relief of colds is established. Use this standard remedy, and so far abstain from liquids of all kinds as to keep the system thirsty for a few days, and the worst cold will soon be gone.
DODD'S NERVINE
Is a PURE TONIC—harmonizes perfectly with the NERVE FIBRE—gives increased energy to the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, and other viscera—and supplies FRESH LIFE for the waste that is constantly taking place. It operates soothingly and pleasant to take as any wine, and with SLEEP AND GOOD DIGESTION, which it promotes, restores the afflicted to sound health of body and quietness of mind. It contains no opium, morphine or strychnine, or other used for nervous complaints, and is wholly free from any deleterious drugs whatever. Tens of thousands are testifying to its curative powers. my17tw

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of the United States Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837,
No. 78 STATE ST., OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all papers or drawings for Patents, executed on reasonable terms with dispatch. Researches made into American and Foreign works, to determine the validity and utility of Patents or inventions, and legal and other advice rendered on all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.
No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.
During eight months the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided IN HIS FAVOR by the Commissioner of Patents.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.
"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me THIRTEEN applications, in all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGHART."

TO THE HON. JUDGE OF PROBATE
FOR the County of ROCKINGHAM, IN THE STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.
Respectfully shows MARCELLUS BUFFORD of Portsmouth in the County of Rockingham that he is Guardian of ROBERT HORROCKS, an insane person resident in said Portsmouth, by the appointment of the Judge of Probate for the said County of Rockingham; that his said Ward is seized of the right in equity of redeeming the following described Real Estate lying in said Portsmouth to wit;—a certain lot of land situate on the corner of Hanover and Bridge Streets, bounded as follows beginning on Hanover Street at the corner of Bridge Street, and running on Hanover Street twenty-six feet then turning and running Northerly on the Bowling Alley lot forty feet, then turning and running on land now or formerly of BENJAMIN CHESEVER and JOSEPH M. EDMONDS thirty four feet, thence southerly on said Bridge Street to point began at, together with the two dwelling-houses or building thereon, being premises mortgaged by said HORROCKS to to MATHES & VARRELL and JOHN McINTIRE.
And that it is necessary for the support of his said Ward, and will be conducive to his interest to have the premises sold; wherefore, he prays that he may be licensed and authorized to sell the same at public auction, according to the statute in such case made and provided.
MARCELLUS BUFFORD, Guardian.
State of New Hampshire, Rockingham, ss.
Probate Court at Portsmouth in said County, May 10, A. D. 1870.
Upon the foregoing Petition, it is Ordered, that a hearing be had thereon at the Court of Probate to be holden at Portsmouth in said County on the second Tuesday of June next; and that the Petitioner notify all persons concerned to appear at said Court, and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said Petition should not be granted, by causing said petition and this order to be published three weeks successively in the Daily Chronicle a newspaper printed at Portsmouth in said County, the last publication whereof to be at least one week prior to said Court.
By order of the Judge.
THOMAS LEAVITT, Register of Probate.

TO THE HON. JUDGE OF PROBATE
FOR the County of ROCKINGHAM.
Respectfully represents ABRAHAM Q. WENDELL, Executor of the will of JOHN C. CORNELIUS late of Portsmouth in said County, deceased, that the Personal Estate of said deceased is not sufficient to pay the just demands against his estate by the sum of seven hundred dollars, and that said deceased died seized of a certain lot of land with the dwelling house thereon situate in said Portsmouth, bounded Northerly by land owned by the heirs of the late JOHN RIDER, Easterly by land formerly of WILLIAM STAVERS now owned by the heirs of the late THOMAS D. BARLOW, Southerly by Jefferson Street, and Westerly by land formerly of STEPHEN CHASE and others, now in the occupation of MRS. SARAH CHASE, and that all of said Estate will be required to pay said debts and a part thereof cannot be sold without injury to the persons therein interested.
Wherefore he prays that he may be licensed to sell at Public Auction the whole of said Real Estate of said deceased above described, agreeable to the Statute in such case provided as may be sufficient for the payment of said demands. The tenth day of April, A. D., 1870. A. Q. WENDELL, Executor, by his Att'y, WILLIAM H. HACKETT.
State of New Hampshire, Rockingham, ss.
Probate Office at Exeter, in said County May 10, A. D., 1870.
Upon the foregoing Petition, it is Ordered, that a hearing be had thereon at a Court of Probate to be holden at Portsmouth in said County, on the second Tuesday of July next; and that the Petitioner notify the heirs of said deceased and all persons concerned or interested therein, to appear at said Court and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted, by causing said petition and this order to be published three weeks successively in the Daily Chronicle, a newspaper printed at Portsmouth in said County, the last publication whereof to be at least one week prior to said Court.
By order of the Judge.

AYER'S
HAIR VIGOR,
For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.
A Dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for Preserving the Hair. Faded or gray Hair is soon restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use.
Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remains can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor, can only benefit but not harm it.
If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet will hold the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

A London letter just received in New York says that the Emperor Napoleon has authorized the director of the Grand Opera at Paris, to engage Christine Nilsson for ten years, with a pension added to her salary, and to pay Strakosch $50,000 penalty for Nilsson's breaking her engagement to visit the United States.

The vote throughout Minnesota, Tuesday, on the proposition to pledge State lands for the payment of railroad bonds, was very light. About forty towns gave for it 5000 votes. The proposition will undoubtedly be passed by a large majority.

MEMORIAL SERVICES were held in South Seabrook, N. H., May 30th. A procession was formed, consisting of citizens and children. A squad of returned soldiers in charge of Rev. Wm. A. Rand, late corporal in the 16th N. H. Vols., did escort duty. The Atlantic Cornet Band of South Seabrook, 16 pieces, furnished the music. The procession came to a halt in the proprietors' cemetery, recently laid out in the rear of the Congregational church, in which had been erected to the memory of the fallen heroes who went from the neighborhood, a terraced mound, 5 feet high and 12 feet in diameter at the base, surmounted by a monument 7 feet high, 12 small flags, each bearing the name of a fallen soldier, were flying from the mound. The services were conducted by Rev. William A. Rand, pastor of the Congregational church, assisted by Rev. J. Garland. The mound and monument were afterward decorated with flowers and wreaths, the Band playing a dirge. Volleys were fired by the veterans, and the benediction was pronounced. The graves in other parts of the town are to be visited and decorated.—Newburyport Herald.

—Nearly all the rum made in the United States is distilled in Massachusetts, and the distilleries are situated around Boston. The Boston Post, in a recent review of the trade in New England rum, says that the greater part of the export is sent to the African coast, and points with pride to the cargo of a recent bark which consisted of rum, tobacco and four missionaries.

New Hampshire Legislature.

The vote for Speaker on Wednesday was as follows:—

Whole number,	318
Necessary to a choice,	160
Alfred W. Savage,	1
Leander W. Cogswell, Lab. Ref.,	15
George F. Putnam, Dem.,	115
Samuel M. Wheeler, Repub.,	188

Mr. Wheeler made a brief speech on being escorted to the chair.

Mr. Putnam, of Warren, for the purpose of forwarding the organization of the House, offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That Josiah H. Benton jr., of Lancaster, be elected Clerk of the House of Representatives, and Samuel C. Clark, of Gilford, be elected Assistant Clerk for the ensuing year. Agreed to.

Mr. Ballou, of Weare, offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That Charles H. Roberts be elected Sergeant-at-arms of the House of Representatives for the ensuing year. Agreed to.

Mr. Folsom, of Exeter, offered the following:

Resolved, That John Underhill, Charles G. Robinson and Samuel F. Montgomery be elected doorkeepers for the ensuing year. Agreed to.

Mr. Adams, of Manchester, offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That each member of the House be furnished with two daily papers reporting the proceedings of the Legislature, and printed in the State; the members individually designating their choice to the clerk. Agreed to.

In Joint Convention balloted for Senators to fill vacancies.

District No. 4. Charles J. Cram had 114, Reuben L. French 187, and was declared elected.

District No. 8. Jonas Livingston had 114, Amos Whittemore 189, and was declared elected.

District No. 6. J. C. Moulton had 116, William N. Blair 208, and was declared elected.

District No. 10. D. W. Johnson had 113, Ira Colby, Jr. 187, and was declared elected.

District No. 11. Lewis W. Fling had 114, Cyrus Taylor 188, and was declared elected.

The successful caudidates are Republicans. The full Senate has 11 Republicans and one Democrat.

On Thursday, Gov. Onslow Stearns was inaugurated. We publish his message on the fourth page. Among the distinguished persons present were Ex-Govs. Goodwin, Haile, Smyth and Harriman.

The House elected Rev. Dennis Powers of Rindge, Chaplain, having previously voted not to elect a member of the House to that position. Mr. Powers is a Congregationalist and has lived in this State but a few months.

CONGRESS. — On Wednesday the Senate rejected the Sandwich Island reciprocity treaty. The vote was 20 in its favor to 19 against, a two-thirds' vote being necessary to ratify.

In the House, Mr. Butler of Massachusetts asked unanimous consent to introduce his joint resolution to annex the republic of Dominica. Mr. Brooks of New York objected.

A debate arose on an amendment to the income tax raising the exemption to $1500. Mr. McCarthy of New York favored the abolition of the tax. Mr. Blair of Michigan opposed the motion, denying that there was any popular feeling against the income tax, as only 275,000 persons in all paid it.

Mr. Hawley of Illinois then moved to increase the exemption tax from $1500 to $2500, which was opposed by Messrs. Ela of New Hampshire and Kerr of Indiana, who wanted the exemption fixed at $2000, and Mr. Schenck of Ohio, who stated that the amount received from the income tax, outside of the tax on dividends paid by associations, was about $25,000,000. The increase of exemption to $1500 would reduce that sum by $5,700,000. The increase of exemption to $2000, leaving the rate at 5 per cent., would reduce the tax between $9,000,000 and $10,000,000, leaving less than $16,000,000 to be collected. If the exemption was left at $1500 and the rate reduced to 3 per cent., the tax would be reduced $13,000,000, and would produce only $11,471,000.

Without disposing of any of the amendments, the House adjourned.

☞ James M. Andrews has closed his quarries for the present, at Biddeford, and is using the tools, derricks, engines, &c., in the construction of a sea-wall at Galloup's Island, Boston Harbor. This work has thus far occupied three years, and it will take another year to finish it. The stone for this important work has been and is quarried.

CHECKMATE.—On Tuesday, May 31, Anson S. Marshall, clerk of the Concord Railroad, sent Col. John H. George a notice discharging him as attorney for the corporation "for any purpose whatever," and demanding papers, etc. Col. George replied at length, saying:—

The only purpose for which I have for some time acted as attorney for the Concord railroad, has been in connection with the pending suits against Mr. George Clough and other ex-conductors. This litigation was, several weeks since, by the concurrent action of the Concord and the Manchester and Lawrence railroads, placed in the hands and control of Hon. Asa Fowler, as trustee for those roads, they being jointly interested in the pending proceedings. This fact will of itself prevent my complying with your request, to send to you, one of the conductors' counsel, the papers pertaining to those cases, but in addition to fact above stated, I have been desired by the trustees to continue the prosecution, with which request I propose to comply. The referees awarded some $15,000 against Mr. Clough. That report, you are aware, has already been sanctioned by the Supreme Court to the extent of some $10,000, debt and cost, and next week I believe that judgment will be ordered against Mr. Clough for the whole amount of the referees' award and a bill in equity would prove efficient to defeat any fraudulent attempt to deprive the corporation of the benefit of the award or judgment.

Perhaps all our readers may not know that Mr. Clough voted on 1400 shares at the late election, but so Col. George states.

THE ADMIRED MURDERER, McFarland, is losing his worshippers one by one. The N. Y. World, which took sides with McFarland during the trial, since the post-trial developments of the case, refers to him in this uncomplimentary style: "We are not sure that hanging would not have been the greatest mercy that could be shown him; for what can life be worth to a miscreant so thoroughly despised and loathed as he is." New York dailies broadly intimate that Dr. Hammond received a "present" of $1,500 in recognition of his testimony to McFarland's insanity. The Doctor's army record is not quite clean, it will be remembered.

Our Legislative Correspondence.

CONCORD, June 1.

The month of June never opened with a more perfect day; and the usual attractions of Concord never looked more beautiful. Yours truly is in luck, too. Friend Morey has a good team, and shew us his favorite five-mile ride last evening, over the bridge and through the woods. Besides, Mr. Coleman, a Newington boy, of the firm of Coleman & Whitaker, keeps a livery stable here, and is not slow in doing the courtesies to his old Portsmouth acquaintances.

The House was quickly organized on Wednesday; 15 votes for Leander W. Cogswell, for Speaker shows the strength of the Labor Reformers. Mr. T. H. Foss, of Strafford, is a leading man among the reformers.

Gen. James Wilson of Keene was chosen Speaker pro tem; and stated that he was first a member of the House 45 years ago. Long Jim is 73 years old, but hale and hearty yet. In personal appearance he much resembles Capt. Daniel Marcy of Portsmouth, but is considerably taller and heavier even than our respected townsman.

It was voted, Wednesday, to elect a Chaplain not a member of the House. Cragin stock appears to be rising—the Concord Railroad ring vice versa.

The Portsmouth delegation were all in their seats at the opening of the session, Wednesday. Yours, F.

FAMILIES VISITING BOSTON can find no better accommodations than a suite of rooms at the AMERICAN HOUSE, with bath rooms, closets, &c. Close to principal places of business and amusement.

INQUIRE WITHIN.—The mouth is like a house to let. However pretty it may be externally, it is impossible to judge of its merits until you have seen the inside. If behind the ruby doors there are plenty of pearl-white fixtures, you will exclaim at once, "How beautiful!" To impart the utmost possible brilliancy, there is nothing like fragrant SOZODONT.

"SPALDING'S GLUE" mends everything.

CAUTION.—In our changeable climate, coughs colds and diseases of the throat, lungs and chest will always prevail. Cruel consumption will claim its victims. These diseases, if attended to in time, can be arrested and cured. The remedy is Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Popular Tonic of the Age.

The day has gone by when a medicine without merit could command and retain the confidence of the world. Advertising induces the public to try many things, but in this shrewd and thoughtful age, words will not suffice without proofs, and it is by the exercise of their private judgment, men determine the relative value of the various articles recommended to their notice through the business columns of newspapers. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS has now been subjected to this searching ordeal for more than eighteen years, and the result is that it stands at the head of the class of remedies to which it belongs.

It has distanced and lived down innumerable competitors, and is to-day the Standard Vegetable Tonic of the western world. The happy effects which have followed its use in cases of dyspepsia, biliousness, nervous affections, intermittent fevers and general debility, and as a constitutional invigorant, have entitled it to universal confidence. Nothing can ever shake its reputation, for it is based on the individual experience of tens of thousands of witnesses, embracing prominent and well known citizens of every profession, occupation and class.

There is not a city, town or settlement, in the United States where it is not a medicinal staple. No druggist or general dealer would consider his stock complete without it, and the returns of the internal revenue department show that its sales exceed those of any other proprietory restorative manufactured on this side of the Atlantic.

The beneficial results derived during a long series of years from the use of Hostetter's Bitters, have convinced the whole community that the only true way to restore to health a broken down or debilitated system, or to put the human body into its defence when exposed to unwholesome influences, is to invigorate, regulate and purify it at one and the same time.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which lend the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12

"Children's Lives Saved for 50 Cts."

THOUSANDS OF CHILDREN DIE ANNUNUALLY OF CROUP. Now, Mothers, if you would spend 50 cents, and always have a bottle of DR. TOBIAS' VENETIAN LINIMENT in the house, you never need fear losing your little one when attacked with this complaint. It is now 22 years since I have put up my Liniment, and never heard of a child dying when this Liniment was used; but hundreds of cures have been reported to me, and many state it is what $10 per bottle they would not be without it. Besides which, it is a certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throat, Swellings, Mumps, Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Spasms, Old Sores and Pains in the Limbs, Back, Chest. No one who once tries it is ever without it. It is warranted perfectly safe to take internally. Full directions with every bottle. Sold by Druggists and Storekeepers in the United States. CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WCOLLEY, M. D., of Kosclusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively, in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung disease in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says: "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says; I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

Physicians do not recommend a medicine which has no merits, what they say about

DEATH OF COL. ALBERT L. JONES. Our citizens were surprised and afflicted, Thursday morning, at the announcement of the death of Col. Albert L. Jones, one of our most honorable, prominent and successful merchants, and one of our most spirited, exemplary and esteemed citizens.

Col. Jones died of double pneumonia, after a brief illness, at the age of 40 years. He contracted a severe cold several weeks ago, which finally brought on an attack of pleurisy, ending in inflammation of the lungs. A physician was almost constantly with him during the past week, and the greatest care was taken to secure his recovery; but all that could possibly be done was of no avail, except that it afforded temporary relief from severe suffering.

Col. Jones was the youngest son of the late William Jones, Esq., and since the death of his father, has been associated in business with his brother, William P. Jones, Esq., who is now the only surviving son. Col. Jones was a gentleman of marked ability, and from his youth has exhibited great aptitude for business, guided by high toned honor and morality. These elements of success, joined with a life of untiring industry, made him one of our most wealthy and influential merchants, and his sudden and unlooked for death is an irreparable loss to his family and friends, and to our city.

Col. Jones was in 1859 appointed one of the aids to Gov. Goodwin, and in 1861-62 was a Representative in the Legislature. During the rebellion he was one of our most public spirited citizens. His influence and his money were always ready to aid and encourage the defenders of our country; and if he had not been an invalid, he would have gone into the service. It is a long time since Portsmouth has lost a citizen so young as Col. Jones, who enjoyed so fully and universally the public confidence and esteem.

A few years since, he married the only daughter of the late Admiral George W. Storer. He leaves no children, but a large circle of relatives and friends, to mourn his loss and to cherish his memory.

☞ Nothing conduces more to the prosperity of a country and the improvement of a population, than their ownership of houses. Indeed it is difficult to see how a man or family can be truly said to have a real home, unless they own the house over their heads, and more or less land to improve. From the first settlement of Portsmouth up to within forty or fifty years, most of the principal inhabitants have deemed it requisite to own their residences; since then, for a generation or two, they largely lived in their own hired houses, like St. Paul; but of late, the fashion of owning, and even of building, a home each for himself, seems coming to be more popular. So mote it be. Let every young man or young couple strive to own a home.

☞ We mentioned recently that Mr. Charles Hutchings of this city found in digging, a pine tree cent,—a copper coin bearing the emblem of the pine. This is a very rare piece, so much so that we do not recollect ever hearing of it before; and we learn there has been considerable competition among antiquarians to possess it. A gentleman in Exeter is said to have offered $40 for it, a coin collector in Philadelphia more yet, and a naval officer is now reported to have offered $125;—but all without securing it. The clear pine tree shilling found several months since by Mr. John W. Pickering of this city, we learn has not been sold, though several offers are reported, but all below the $100 he is said to hold it at.

GOOD.—Mr. William Plaisted has concluded to run his Street Sprinkler another season, and is nearly ready to commence. He has hired a place at Fernald's dock at the North End, from which the City Fathers can't drive him. People who wish the dust laid in front of their residences and places of business can have their wishes fulfilled by laying the dust in the palms of Mr. Plaisted, who will call around and see them.

NAVAL.—Master Charles O. Allison has been ordered to duty at this navy yard.

Capt. Philip R. Fendall has been promoted to brevet-major in the marine corps.

SLEIGHING.—A grocery team on runners, passed the Chronicle office, Thursday forenoon, when the thermometer was at 85 or more.

POOR PUSSY.—A feline of the masculine persuasion, who resides at the West End when he is at home—which is not very often—has lately shown a good deal of enterprise and skill in conducting raids on a neighboring flock of chickens, having acquired a taste for game through eating up a rabbit and a pet canary, at home. The owner of the decimated chickens vowed vengeance dire against poor Thomas; and having caught him in a trap, a day or two since, he killed him, buried him deep—deep down in a manure heap, and performed a triumphant war-dance on his grave. Tom's bereaved friends, aware of his fate, were discussing his life and character while at their supper on the evening of that sad day, and vainly endeavoring to think of some redeeming quality in the departed, so that they could say something good of him,—when the door, already ajar, was pushed open, and in walked Thomas, bringing conclusive evidence that his spirit was not broken if his head was,—in the shape of a nice fat chicken. The poultry-owner, though grieved, is not disheartened; and says he will kill that cat every time he comes into his yard. Luck to 'em both.

NEW FIRM.—A reference to the copartnership notices which we publish under the head of "Marriages," this morning, will show that our former brother typo, Mr. Horace M. Smith, possesses that spirit of enterprise which deserves success,—and wins it. As a printer,—Mr. Smith was a good one. As a soldier he served with honor in the late war, and came out of the conflict with credit, and a large slug in his knee. A few weeks ago he opened the Oriental Coffee Rooms, on Ladd Street, as a first-class eating-house, thus supplying a want long felt in this city; and we are glad to learn that his business has increased so largely and so steadily from the start, as to justify a large outlay for increased accommodations. Now, Horace has taken a partner, tho' no alteration is to be made in the firm name, as the new member will be a silent one—so far as the public business is concerned. We suppose he feels a little puffed up and glorified, now; but have no doubt that even wretched old bachelors will still be served with the same courtesy and delicious coffee that Horace used to serve out when there was but one of him. The new firm have our best wishes for success in all their undertakings.

THEATRE.—"Frou-Frou" at the Temple this evening embraces in the cast, Dollie Bidwell, Lillie Wilkinson, R. S. Meldrum and Bidwell's entire company. Frou-Frou created great excitement in France and its representations in Boston of late have been successful to the managers and met with encouragement from the public.

STONE & MURRAY have expunged the antique abuses and customs which other exhibitions cling to with so much tenacity, and inaugurate a new era in circus amusements. With a troupe of artists the most distinguished in this country, this circus has acquired a fame for excellence and respectability.

☞ Dr. S. Gilbert, at his Fruitery on Daniel Street, has a small cargo of luscious Maryland strawberries, which he is disposing of at 35 cents per box. The Doctor keeps up with the market always and has the earliest supplies of good things on hand.

WARM.—Wednesday was decidedly summerish and Thursday forenoon more so. A refreshing east wind made the afternoon more comfortable to mortals.

—OF THE—
CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILROAD CO.
The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad
Is completed and running from RICHMOND, Va., to the celebrated WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, in West Va., 227 miles. It is being rapidly extended to the Ohio River, 200 miles further, making in all 427 miles.

In its progress Westward, it penetrates and opens up to market the Wonderful Coal Deposits of the Kanawha Region in West Virginia. And thus brings the superior and abundant Coals of that section into communication with the Iron Ores of Virginia and Ohio, and the Western, South Western and Eastern markets.

When completed it will connect the superior harbor facilities of the Chesapeake Bay with reliable navigation on the Ohio River, and thus with the entire system of Railroad and Water transportations of the great West and South-West.

It will make a short, easy, cheap and favorable route from the West, to the sea, and will command a large share of the enormous freights seeking transportation to the coast

It will thus become one of the most important and profitable East and West Trunk Lines of Railroad in the country, and command a trade of immense value.

The completed portion of the Road is doing a profitable and increasing Business, and is fully equal in value to the whole amount of the mortgage upon the entire Line—($15,000,000.)

The loan of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company, being a First Mortgage upon the entire Line, property and equipments, worth when completed at least $30,000,000, is therefore one of the most substantial, conservative and reliable Railroad Loans ever offered in the market, and is peculiarly adapted to the wants of

INVESTORS and CAPITALISTS,

Who desire to make their investments with the most satisfactory assurance of positive and undoubted Security.

The Bonds are in denominations of

$1000, $500 and $100,

and may be had COUPON or REGISTERED.

Interest Six per cent. per annum, payable MAY 1st and NOVEMBER 1st.

Morning Chronicle.

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

Gentlemen of the Senate and House of Representatives:

It is the duty of the Executive, at this commencement of your session, to lay before you such information concerning the affairs of the State, and make such suggestions with regard to its interests and wants, as may aid you in your deliberations.

I shall do this as briefly as possible, and for more particular information refer you to the various reports which will be submitted to you during the session.

In my message to the Legislature last year, I expressed my views upon some of the more important matters of the State; and if at this time I partially repeat them, it is because the experience of the year has confirmed my belief in their correctness and importance.

AMENDMENTS OF THE STATUTES.

I am not aware of any occasion for amendment of the General Statutes of the State; and I should not recommend any alteration in them, except in case of clear and great necessity.

It is of great importance that our general laws be certain, and that nothing so much detracts from the weight of legislative enactments as frequency of amendment and change.

STATE FINANCES.

The financial affairs of the state are in a sound and prosperous condition. During the past year the revenue has been diminished by a reduction of $25,000 in the State tax, and the receipt of only $6,193.44 on war claims, instead of $42,158.21 of the previous year; while the entire revenue of the State has been reduced in the sum of $55,189.24.

But the expenses of the State have been so much curtailed during the same time, that notwithstanding this reduction of revenue, we have been able to pay $357,587.35 of our State debt, leaving the whole debt of the State at the close of the year, $2,779,291.98.

The law passed at the last session, dispensing with the annual parades and encampments of the militia, has already effected a saving of more than $10,000 to the State treasury, and the other military expenses have been reduced about $25,000. The saving above mentioned would have been greater by the sum of $1,461.74 but for the payment of that sum during the past year for expenses of parades which took place in previous years.

The Adjutant-General has returned to the United States, arms and military stores to the value of $74,862, and the State has been credited with that sum by the General Government.

Under these circumstances, and in view of the fact that no part of our State indebtedness bears more than six per cent. interest, while much of the indebtedness of this town probably bears a higher rate, it seems proper that the amount of the annual State tax be reduced. Such a course will relieve the taxpayers in that direction, and thus enable the towns to increase their appropriations for the payment of their debts, without any increase of the aggregate taxes paid by the people.

Large municipal debts are serious weights on the material interests of the town, and the State should favor and aid the reduction of them, as far as practicable. I therefore recommend that the State tax of the coming year be reduced $200,000.

ECONOMY.

A wise and judicious economy, by which the expenses of the State are reduced to the lowest practicable limit, while its revenues are husbanded with care, should be the controlling principle of your legislative action. And in this connection I desire to repeat my recommendation of last year, "that you diligently inquire whether any reduction can be made in any part of our State expenses, and if so, that you provide for the same without delay."

The session of the Legislature is among the large items of annual expense. As short a session, therefore, as is practicable, with proper regard for the business requiring attention, is desirable.

A large portion of the State expenses arise from special appropriations by legislative resolves; and it is your especial duty to exercise great care in considering the various applications which are made for such appropriations, and to see that no expenditure be authorized which is not necessary for the best interests of the State.

INSURANCE.

At the last session of the Legislature an act was passed imposing a tax of one per cent. upon the amount of premiums received in this State by foreign insurance companies. This act, by the provisions of the General Statutes, took effect on the fifteenth of September, so that the premiums returned to the State Treasurer this year, for taxation, have been only those received from Sept. 15th to December 31st, 1869. These amounted to $252,990, yielding a tax of $2,629.90, besides the license tax, amounting to $500. At this rate the tax received for a whole year would probably be not far from $11,000.00.

This tax is believed to be just and proper; and it should be retained. But the present law may require modification to give the Insurance Commissioners larger powers, and afford more complete protection to our citizens against irresponsible companies organized in other states and doing business here.

MILITARY AFFAIRS.

The report of the Adjutant-General, containing a full statement of the business of his office for the past year, will be laid before you. From this you will ascertain the condition of the military affairs of the State.

STATE INSTITUTIONS.

The affairs of the State Prison have been found to require considerable attention during the past year. The General Statutes provide that the Governor and Council shall establish by-laws for the government of the prison. None being found to exist, a code of rules and regulations was established in July last. It is believed that a faithful observance of these rules will do much to promote the good order and discipline of the prison.

The repairs on the prison building, authorized by the Legislature in 1868, have been completed, and the expense is covered by the sum appropriated therefor. The debt and outstanding demands against the prison were reported by the warden in June last as being $10,479.95; but an examination made under law passed at the last session, requiring the accounts of the prison to be kept by the State Treasurer, showed the amount actually due at that time to be $8,068.44 more than the sum reported. This sum has been paid by the increased income of the prison, and the entire debt is now extinguished.

The experience of the year leads to the conclusion that, with proper management, the prison may be made, not only self-supporting, but also a source of considerable revenue to the State. To accomplish this desirable result, however, important changes must be made in the method by which its affairs are managed.

The change introduced last year in the method of keeping accounts has been productive of much good, and further changes can doubtless be made with equally favorable results. In my opinion, if the appointment of the warden and other officers, and the supervision and control of the affairs of the prison, should be vested in a Board of Inspectors or Directors, to serve without compensation, chosen by the Legislature or appointed by the Governor and Council, it would do much to place the affairs of the prison in a better condition.

The proper and successful management of such an institution, with reference to its penal and reformatory designs, as well as to its pecuniary affairs, requires peculiar qualifications in those who have immediate charge of it. And the institution is of too much importance in all these respects, to society and to the State, to allow any considerations except those of ability and fitness to be properly considered in the selection of the officers to whom that charge is entrusted. I commend this subject to your careful attention and consideration.

REFORM SCHOOL.

The Reform School, by subjecting juvenile offenders to the wholesome discipline which punishes them for their offences, and furnishing them at the same time with instruction as will promote their reformation, performs an important work in the State. The report of its Trustees, who are gentlemen of the highest respectability, and justly entitled to public confidence, will be before you. From this you will ascertain the condition of the institution.

ASYLUM FOR THE INSANE.

The Asylum for the Insane is an institution creditable to the State. It is under the control of a superintendent whose reputation in this department of his profession is a sufficient assurance that the treatment of its unfortunate inmates will not only be kind and humane, but in accordance with the most approved scientific methods; while its appointments and management are in every respect proper and fitting.

I am satisfied that this institution is faithfully doing a great work for the most unfortunate class in our State, and is worthy of such confidence and support as will secure its highest degree of efficiency.

BEQUEST OF LIEUT.-GOVERNOR NESMITH.

Among the most deserving objects of our charitable care, are the indigent deaf mutes and blind of our State, who have been the special objects of legislative charity, and for whose education and support annual appropriations have been made.

During the past year the charity of the State has been supplemented by the generosity of one of her former sons. The late Lieut. Governor John Nesmith of Lowell, Mass., a native of Windham, and for many years one of the most respected and influential citizens of his adopted State, has by his will set apart valuable real estate in the city of Lowell, to be held, after the death of his children, to whose use it is reserved during their lifetime, for the benefit of the indigent blind of this State.

Some time will elapse before the bequest will become available for this purpose, but as the property is quite large, it is by estimation that it will amount to nearly $100,000 by that time, it seems proper that the Legislature should, in some fitting manner, manifest its acceptance of the bequest, and designate some suitable person to attend to the interests of the State in relation thereto.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

At the last session of the Legislature an appropriation of $15,000 was made to aid in the erection of "Colver Hall," which is now being constructed for the use of the Agricultural College, and in a few months the college will have one of the finest school buildings in the State, while the trustees have secured for its use a valuable farm adjoining the land upon which the building is located. A full statement of its condition will be found in the report of the trustees.

They desire to increase the number of free scholarships, the present year, and ask an appropriation for that purpose. It is for you to consider whether this can be properly granted. When the college shall have become established, it is to be hoped that, by receiving proper tuition from its students, it will be self-supporting.

EDUCATION.

The educational interests of the State are of such vital importance to the people, that they should receive a large share of your attention. Their present condition will be fully stated in the report of the faithful Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The subject of normal instruction, uniformity of text-books, and the abolition of school districts in towns which desire it, will probably be presented for your consideration.

AGRICULTURE, MANUFACTURES, AND RAILROADS.

In my former message I took occasion to speak of the agricultural interests of the State, which are, and for a long time must be, its most important branch of industry: "The promotion of this interest is your duty, not only on account of its importance in value, and because all other industries so materially depend upon it, but also because the pursuits of agriculture are so eminently favorable to that intelligence, virtue and independence of character which are essential to the promotion of our free political institutions. We cannot compete with the easy and productive agriculture of the West, in any market out of our own State. The only resource left for us is the creation of a home market for the products of our farms, thus bringing the consumer near the producer, and counterbalancing our disadvantages in other respects by a saving of transportation."

To accomplish this desirable result, we must develop our manufacturing interests.

Modern manufactures depend primarily upon the cheapness and constancy of the motive power by which their machinery is driven. This may be by water, which requires for its application the use of dams and canals; or by steam, which requires a constant supply of fuel.

This latter means of power we do not possess to any considerable extent, for the supply of fuel from our forests is continually decreasing, and we have no coal fields within our own borders, while we are at such a distance from those of other states that the cost of transportation renders it difficult for the products of our factories dependent upon steam power to compete with those of states which have their own deposits of coal, or are cheaply supplied with it.

But in the water power of our lakes and streams we have a motive power cheaper in its application, and more constant and lasting in its supply, than is furnished by the coal fields of Pennsylvania or England. The greater portion of this power, which should turn the wheels of busy industry and minister to the wants of a thriving manufacturing population, is still unemployed.

It is to the proper development of these sources of material wealth, and the extension to them of railroad facilities—without which we cannot successfully compete with the productions of manufactories having these advantages—that we should turn our careful attention.

We may thus hope to attract hither foreign capital which will build up within the State new centers of industry, and increase our prosperity and wealth, not only by the taxable property which it will add to our inventory, but by the market which it will create for the products of our agriculture.

"Judicious legislation may do much to strengthen our agricultural, manufacturing and railroad interests in the relations of harmonious co-operation and mutual benefit which they should sustain to each other for the public good, and the advancement of the State."

WATER POWER.

At the last session of the Legislature an act was passed providing for the appointment of a commission to make a general preliminary examination, and take into consideration the desirableness of a thorough survey of the water power of the State; ascertain the best means of procuring it, together with the probable expense, and report concerning the same to the Governor and Council. The commissioners who were appointed have attended to this duty, and their report will be laid before you.

From a careful collation and study of the information obtained, the commissioners are of the opinion that the industrial interests of the State would be greatly promoted by an examination and actual survey, so far as practicable, of its water-power, by persons competent for the work, the results of which should be carefully analyzed, and published for general circulation. They estimate that this could be properly accomplished in two years, at an expense of not more than six or seven thousand dollars. I would respectfully recommend this report, and the subject upon which it is made, to your attentive consideration.

GEOLOGICAL SURVEY.

The geological survey authorized by the Legislature of 1868 has been in progress during the past two years, and the second annual report of the State Geologist will be presented to you at this session. From it you will ascertain the work which has been done, and that which is contemplated for the coming year.

I apprehend the object of the survey to be the collection of useful information, with a view to the practical and advantageous development of the resources of the State, rather than an inquiry for scientific purposes merely; and a due regard for the intention of the Legislature, as well as for proper economy in expense, requires that the survey, for the present at least, should be confined to this object.

The collection of material for the publication of a correct topographical map of the State has been one of the principal objects of the survey. The Geologist states that arrangements can be made for the publication of such a map, from the materials now in his hands and to be obtained during the summer, at a moderate expense to the State. I call your attention to this subject, that you may consider what action, if any, is necessary with regard to it.

NATIONAL AFFAIRS.

Under the guidance of the present national administration, the progress of the country towards a sound and prosperous financial condition has been indicated by the constant appreciation of its currency, and the gradual approach to a specie basis, which it is hoped may not be distant when the last traces of the rebellion shall be expunged from the laws of the land, and removed from the minds of the people.

With a sound and healthy currency, placing us upon an equality in the commercial world, with a once more unbroken union of states, based upon the great principal of absolute political justice and equality, we may expect that the life-blood of commerce will again circulate through all the arteries of trade, that the different portions of the country will come into more intimate commercial and political relations, and that the Union which has been perfected through suffering and trial, will become each year more dear to us all.

Senators and Representatives:—The people of this State have entrusted to you all their interests. May you faithfully execute this trust. To guard the honor, and increase the welfare and happiness of the people, is your sacred duty, in which to co-operate with you will be my highest pleasure.

May your deliberations be guided by that wisdom which cometh from above, and your labors crowned with the blessing of Almighty God.

A special train went up from Plymouth, carrying President Lyon and other officers of the Montreal Railroad, which, on reaching Whitefield, was received with music, ringing of bells, and firing of cannon. A great concourse of people were waiting at the depot. A procession was formed, which passed through the principal streets of the town, after which a splendid dinner was given to the railroad officials and other gentlemen from abroad. A new monitor car, which was on the train, was used on the return by the Coos county delegation of representatives, who constituted the first instalment of passengers over that section of the railroad.

HOW MR. BECK GOT THROUGH THE CIRCUMLOCUTION OFFICE.—Mr. Beck of Kentucky gave in the House the other day a racy history of experiences in getting through the "Circumlocution Office." He said that in collecting a judgment of the Court of Claims a lawyer had to go through the following devious ways:

1. Went to the Chief Clerk of the First Auditor; he stated the account and computed the interest.

2. Went to another clerk in the same office, who copied and numbered the account.

3. Went to another clerk in the First Comptroller's office, who registered in his book the number and amount of the account.

4. Went to the Chief Clerk of the First Comptroller, who verified the account and the computation of interest.

5. Went to the First Comptroller, who signed it.

6. Went back to No. 3, who again verified it.

7. Went to the Register's Clerk, who signed it.

8. Went to the Warrant Clerk, and obtained a warrant.

9. Went to Mr. West, the Chief Clerk, who signed it.

10. Went to Mr. Hartley, the Assistant Secretary, who signed it.

11. Went to Mr. Lamb, in the Comptroller's office, who registered it.

12. Went to the First Comptroller, who signed it.

13. Went to the Register's Clerk, who copied it.

14. Went to Register Allison, who signed it.

15. Went to Mr. Mann, in the draft room, where the draft was made.

16. Went to Mr. Tuttle, Assistant Treasurer, who signed the draft.

17. Went to the Register's Clerk, who recorded the draft.

18. Went to Register Allison, who signed the draft.

19. Went to Mr. Mann, who took my receipt for the draft and handed it over to me.

20. Treated Mr. Mann to a whiskey-toddy.—[Loud laughter.]

H. T. HELMBOLD'S
CONCENTRATED
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,
THE GREAT DIURETIC.

The proprietor trusts that his Remedies, from the fact of their being advertised, may not be classed as Patent Medicines.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU is a pharmaceutical preparation. The proper name is given, and it is the most active which can be made. It is endorsed as a cure by all medical works for such diseases as recommended by the proprietor. It is pleasant to the taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and is taken by adults and children. It is tonic, diuretic, blood-purifying, and invigorating. Enfeebled and delicate constitutions of both sexes will find it far more strengthening than any of the preparations of bark or iron.

See medical properties contained in Dispensatory of the United States, of which the following is a correct copy:—

BUCHU.—Its odor is strong, diffusive, and somewhat aromatic; its taste is bitterish, and analogous to that of mint. It is given chiefly in complaints of the urinary organs, such as gravel, chronic catarrh of the bladder, morbid irritation of the prostate gland, and retention of the incontinence of urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. It has also been recommended in dyspepsia, chronic rheumatism, cutaneous affections, and dropsy.

Cure of Gravel of Five Years Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

SAVANNAH, TENN., May 14, 1869.

Dr. H. T. Helmbold.

DEAR SIR: We introduced your "Fluid Extract Buchu" in this county about eight months ago, and are happy to state that it is meeting with universal favor. We wish to inform you of one instance (among many) where your "Buchu" has worked wonders. A man in our county, named J. B. Estell, had been suffering about five years with gravel.

About six weeks ago he bought of us one bottle of your "Buchu," and before he was through with one bottle he passed a gravel that weighs eight grains, which we now have on exhibition in our drug store. He says that he will never be without the "Buchu" in his house again. Your preparations are gaining favor every day.

Very respectfully yours, &c.,
ECCLES & HINKLE, Druggists.

Cure of Bladder and Kidney Affection of long Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

WESTPORT, CONN., Sept. 9, 1869.

H. T. Helmbold, Esq.,

DEAR SIR: I commenced taking your "Extract of Buchu" about two weeks since for an affection of the bladder and kidneys. I have not had my spells very much for a few days past. But yesterday relief came through the effect of your "Buchu." A stone passed from my bladder about the size of a large pea, and I now feel perfectly well and entirely free from the pain that I have suffered with so hard." I attribute my cure to your medicine entirely, and would recommend all persons similarly affected to try it. I have great faith in its curative powers.

Yours truly, THOMAS J. BENNETT.

Cure of Kidney and Bladder Affection of a Patient Seventy-eight years of Age. Thanks to Mr. Helmbold.

GIRARD, PA., March 31, 1869.

Editor Cosmopolite: I desire, as an unsolicited tribute to the merits of Helmbold's Buchu, and for the benefit of those similarly afflicted as myself, to say that after consulting many eminent physicians, and trying nearly all the best advertised Remedies, to the vain hope of finding relief from aggravated kidney and bladder diseases, from which I have suffered excessively for many years, good fortune finally suggested to me Helmbold's Buchu, which I commenced using with little faith, and no apparent beneficial results for about a month.

At the expiration of that time, however, I thought I commenced to experience slight relief, which encouraged me to persevere in its use, and now, at the expiration of four months, although I am an infirm old man, nearly 78 years of age, and consequently medicine cannot be expected to be favorably affect me as they otherwise would, I have found such unspeakable relief and permanent benefit from Mr. Helmbold's valuable discovery, that I feel I ought to publicly record the fact, as an acknowledgment to him, and a valuable suggestion to the public. Yours respectfully,

D. M. CAREN.

DR. KEYSER
is a physician of over thirty years' experience, and a graduate of the Jefferson Medical College, and of the University of Medicine and Surgery of Philadelphia. Hear him:

Mr. H. T. Helmbold.

DEAR SIR: In regard to the question asked me as to my opinion about Buchu, I would say that I have used and sold the article in various forms for the past thirty years. I do not think there is any form or preparation of it I have not used, or known to be used, in the various diseases where such medicinal agent would be indicated. You are aware, as well as myself, that it has been extensively employed in the various diseases of the bladder and kidneys, and the reputation it has acquired, in my judgment, is warranted by the facts.

I have seen and used, as before stated, every form of Buchu—the powdered leaves—tincture, fluid extracts—and I am not cognizant of any preparation of that plant at all equal to yours. Twelve years' experience ought, I think, to give me the right to judge of its merits; and, without prejudice or partiality, I give yours precedence over all others.

I value your Buchu for its effect on patients. I have cured with it, and seen cured with it, more diseases of the bladder and kidneys than I have ever seen cured with any other Buchu or any other proprietary compound of whatever name.

Respectfully yours, &c.,
GEO. H. KEYSER, M. D.,

GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, Jan. 28, 1868.

Mr. H. T. Helmbold,

DEAR SIR: Your communication requesting our terms for advertising was duly received, but from a prejudice I had formed against advertising "cures for secret diseases," it was left unanswered. During an accidental conversation in a drug store the other evening, my mind was changed on the character of your Buchu. It was then highly commended for other diseases by two physicians present. Inclosed please find our rate advertising. Yours, T. B. H. STENHOUSE,
Ed't and Prop'r of Telegraph.

TESTIMONIALS.

A Permanent Cure of Gravel of twelve Years' Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

BURNSIDE, CONN., Dec. 15, 1869.

Dr. Helmbold.

DEAR SIR: It is with much pleasure that I write you upon facts respecting myself. I do not know hardly how to express myself. I have been for the last ten or twelve years the greatest sufferer man could be and live; but more sometimes than others. The complaint was the "Kidneys" and "Bladder." I have been sometimes from twelve to fourteen hours, and hardly get a drop water every minute, but could not. Have consulted doctors, both in Massachusetts and this State, and taken pills, I may say by the quart, also liquored medicines, but found no relief from any, and got worse the last six months. I was so that I could scarcely get about. I could not rest night or day.

It would soon have been "all up" with me if I had not seen your advertisement headed "Kidneys." I read it through and thought I would try it. I purchased a bottle, but, mind you, had not much faith in it. Why should I, when I had been trying so many things that cost me much? Well, I began taking it, and before I had taken the first bottle I felt bad; but I finished it and got another. By the time I took half of the second I still got worse (apparently.) When I waked it seemed as if my right kidney was falling from its place, and I felt really bad. I felt so, before I had finished the second, that I had made up my mind it was of no use trying any more—and all this time the "Buchu" was doing its work, but I did not know it. At last I gave it up and went to Hartford on Saturday to one of the best doctors in the city. He said it was the neck of the bladder, and I should have to undergo an operation. He gave me medicine, and I went home quite downhearted.

On Sunday I was unable to go to church. I had not taken any of his medicine, but on my return continued using the "Buchu," and in the afternoon I had a desire to make water, but could not. About one hour after this I tried again, with the same result; but the next time I took the vessel it was full of water and blood—and no stopping it off again. It was so for three times, and the third time there was something came through the urinary track against the side of the vessel. I examined it, and it is the ugliest stone or gravel you ever saw, covered over with little pieces which collected together. It looks the color of a mud turtle, and is as hard as flint. So you see the "Buchu" was doing its work, although I was feeling so badly. I procured another bottle, thinking I might be some more troubled; but since that has passed, which is eight weeks ago last Sunday, I have been as well as ever I was in my life. The stone is now securely wrapped, and those who have seen it in this place are surprised.

I cannot tell you all, but this is a true story of my case, and you are welcome to make such use of my name as you think proper. I am pretty well known in Berkshire; also in Connecticut. The statements contained are all true. Why not publish more? If any one wishes to see this wonder, they can do so. I could write all day, but I think I have said enough this time. I remain your ever well-wisher, EDWARD L. HOWARD,

(A Home and School for the Sons of Deceased Soldiers.)

Dr. H. T. Helmbold,

Two bottles only of the package of your valuable Buchu presented to the Institute have been used by the children, and with perfect success. In the case of our little Lieutenant, Harry, his pride is no longer mortified, and he is free from the daily morning anathemas of the chamber-maid who has charge of his bedding.

I feel that a knowledge of the result of our use of your Buchu will the children under our charge may save many a Southern Orphan Asylum, Soldiers' Boarding Schools and Asylums a great amount of annoyance; and many a poor child suffering more from Western Shakspeares than bad, pay for spared punishment, that is (not knowing it as a weakness instead of a bad habit) most unjustly inflicted upon them. Thanking you, in behalf of the children, and hoping others may be alike benefitted, I am respectfully yours,

COL. YOUNG, General Sup't and Director.

A Case of Twenty Years Standing.

PHILADELPHIA, PENN., June 25, 1867.

H. T. Helmbold, Druggist.

DEAR SIR: I have been a sufferer for upwards of twenty years with gravel, bladder, and kidney affections, during which time I have used various medicinal preparations, and been under the treatment of the most eminent physicians, experiencing but little relief.

Having seen your preparations extensively advertised, I consulted my family physician in regard to using your Extract Buchu.

I did this because I had used all kinds of, advertised Remedies and had found them worthless, and some quite injurious; in fact, I despaired of ever getting well, and determined to use no Remedies whose ingredients I did not know of. It was this that prompted me to use your Remedy. As you advertised that it was composed of Buchu, cubeb, and juniper, it recommended itself to me and my physician as an excellent combination; and, with his advice, after an examination of the article, and consulting Mr. Smith, the Druggist, I concluded to try it. I commenced to use it about eight months ago, at which time I was confined to my room.

From the first bottle I was astonished and gratified at the beneficial effect, and after using it three weeks was able to walk out. I felt much like writing to you at that time, but, as I was at the time, but thought my improvement might only be temporary, and therefore concluded to defer, and see if it would effect a perfect cure, knowing that it would be of greater value to you and more satisfactory to me.

I am now able to report that a cure is effected after using the remedy for five months. I have not used any now for three months, and feel as well in all respects as I ever did.

Your Buchu being devoid of any unpleasant taste and odor, a nice tonic and invigorator of the system, I do not mean to be without it, whenever occasion may require its use in such affections.

SATURDAY, JUNE 4, 1870.

Chat.

Portland is to have a $3000 4th of July celebration.

The residence of Mr. Samuel Knapp, of Milton, Conn., was struck by lightning, a few nights since, the bolt grazing one of his daughters, skinning one side of her face, and shattering eighty window panes.

An extensive fire is raging in the Metafedia district of New Brunswick. Miles of telegraph lines have been destroyed.

The five great evils of life are said to be standing collars, stovepipe hats, tight boots, bad whiskey and cross women.

General Starr is not a shooting star, but knowing that he would become a fixed star if the Canadians caught him, he disappeared in a twinkling. It was the best way he could planit.

The short cut through the Suez Canal is proving a serious affair to the health of its navigators. The heat on the Red Sea is almost intolerable, and on one vessel every stoker died during its passage.

New Orleans epicures are rejoicing over green corn at ten cents per ear and new ripe figs at ten cents apiece.

During the past year 183 men, 52 women, and 38 children were killed by tigers in Java, 158 persons by crocodiles, and 22 by snakes.

President Sarmiento welcomed at Buenos Ayres on the 12th of April the Misses Dudley and Miss Wood from Massachusetts, who were en route for the province of San Juan to establish the first free schools in that country, decreed by its Congress.

The Sunday Advertiser of Portland, Me., has been purchased by Captain Enoch Knight who will have editorial charge of the paper.

Alice Cary is much better, and hopes of her ultimate recovery are entertained.

New Publications Received.

Steps of Belief; or Rational Christianity Maintained against Atheism, Free Religion and Romanism—by Rev. Jas. Freeman Clarke; dedicated to the memory of the late Gov. John Albion Andrew of Massachusetts. Published by the American Unitarian Association. An able and interesting book, divided into four "steps," viz: — Atheism to Theism, Theism to Christianity, Romanism to Protestantism, From the Letter to the Spirit.

Merry's Museum ought to satisfy the most fastidious, but the publisher, announces new attractions for the volume beginning with the next number. Ye who have not seen the new series of this old favorite, send for a specimen number. $1.50 a year. Horace B. Fuller, Publisher, Boston.

Manifest Destiny, the Monroe Doctrine and Our Relations with Mexico:—a letter from Gen. Rosecrans to the People of the United States, is received. May be seen at the Mechanics' Reading Room.

STATE MATTERS.—The general desire seems to be not to attempt to pay off the State debt too fast. But the aggregate Town debts of the State, as we learn from the State Treasurer, foot up nearly a hundred thousand dollars more than last year. This is wholly or largely owing to the heavy losses by freshets, in the mountain and river towns, which amount to fully the sum named.

The Savings Banks deposits for the year are larger by about two and a half millions, than last year; and the tax on their funds is the largest paid in the State.

Trains are now run to the Wing road, in Bethlehem, and it is expected the road will be opened to Lancaster by the 1st of January.

Ground was broken at Newport, for the Sugar River Railroad, Tuesday. Cannons were fired, bells rung, and a general rejoicing followed.

The Cantata of "Esther, the beautiful Queen," is to be given at the Congregational Church, in Franklin, Thursday and Friday evenings. Costumes from the Boston Museum.

New Hampshire Legislature.

In Joint Convention, on Thursday, the votes for Governor were reported. Whole number of votes cast, 67,837; necessary to a choice, 33,920. Onslow Stearns had 34,424; John Bedel 24,992; Samuel Flint 7363; Lorenzo D. Barrows 962; scattering 96. Majority for Stearns, 1010.

On Friday, Speaker Wheeler announced the House Committees. The Chairmen are as follows: National Affairs, Hon. Jas. Wilson of Keene; Elections, James O. Adams of Manchester; Judiciary, Hon. Ira Perley of Concord; Banks, Hon. Oliver Wyatt of Dover; State Prison, Hon. H. D. Walker of Portsmouth; Insurance, Wm. A. Preston of New Ipswich; Agricultural College, Chas. W. Pickering of Greenland; Agriculture, R. E. I. Hills of Windham; Manufactures, Hiram Webb of Claremont; Finance, Col. Wm. M. Weed of Sandwich; Retrenchments and Reform, Chas. Wilder of Peterborough; Military Affairs, Converse C. Morgan of Enfield; Education, DeWitt C. Durgin of Hampton; Corporations, George W. Sanborn of Gilmanton; Towns and Parishes, Wm. D. Knapp of Somersworth; Division of Towns, Wm. A. Mack of Amherst; Asylum for the Insane, Jesse C. Sturtevant of Lebanon; Railroads, Nehemiah Butler of Boscawen; Roads, Bridges and Canals, Ephraim W. Woodward of Concord; Unfinished Business, Jarvis Collins of Marlborough; Mileage, Frank Paddleford of Monroe; Fisheries, Rufus G. Morrill of Gilford; Reform School, Hon. Geo. M. Herring of Farmington; Bills on Second Reading, Joel C. Cary of Salem; Printers' Accounts, Frank W. Miller of Portsmouth; Military Accounts, Peter G. Tilton of Hampton Falls; Claims, Capt. Solon A. Carter of Keene; Alteration of Names, Stephen B. Cole of Gilford; Joint Standing Committees and Library, C. G. B. Rider of Dunbarton; State House and Yard, Isaac D. Miner of Lyme; Engrossed Bills, Stephen H. Bacon of Sharon.

The Portsmouth members are on the following named committees; On Elections, Sides and Langdon; Banks, Marcy and Flagg; State Prison, Walker, Chairman; Insurance, Slater; Military Affairs, Locke; Reform School, Ham; Printers' Accounts, Miller, Chairman; Railroads, Wilson.

There are 197 Republicans in the House and 128 Democrats. Republican majority 69. The Senate has 11 Republicans and one Democrat.

The Legislature adjourned Friday afternoon until Monday.

THE SENATORIAL DISCUSSION.—We have watched, with some care, the discussion which has been going on in the columns of nearly every Republican paper in the State, and, according to our recollection, while full three-fourths of the papers have advocated Mr. Cragin's re-election, we cannot remember to have seen an intemperate word in behalf of that gentleman, or against those who aspire to his place.

We have also watched somewhat carefully "any quantity of people travelling up and down the State" at somebody's expense, and have heard them "swear, and tell you, solemnly and sourly, that it won't do." But we have not found the people thus "travelling and swearing" to be Mr. Cragin's friends. According to our observation, the "travelling and swearing" has been all in the interest of other parties." * *

We do not even say that, with a free choice before us, we would favor his re-election. * * A word for our friend of the Manchester Mirror, and the one or two papers which oppose the re-election of Senator Cragin. We do not believe such assaults as they are indulging in, at all calculated to accomplish the object aimed at. No man has a more spotless public and private reputation than Mr. Cragin. No man in this State has ever given less occasion for assaults. It is not a crime to desire a re-election to the high office he holds. It would be a crime to seek it by corrupt and unworthy means. This we have seen no evidence that he is doing. And until we do see this evidence, we shall not consent even by our silence, to see him hounded down by malicious innendoes and false accusations.—Mon.

REDUCING THE INCOME TAX.—The U. S. House of Representatives voted on Friday to reduce the rate of taxation of incomes from 5 to 3 per cent., 115 to 78; and to increase the amount exempted from tax to $2000, 138 to 52.

The House refused to tax the interest and income on bonds, 10 per cent, by a vote of 128 to 45.

A Centenary Mass meeting is to be held at the Universalist church, this city, in about two weeks, when it is expected Rev. Drs. Miner, Ryder, Sawyer, Bowles, Patterson, Mrs. Mary A. Livermore, and others prominent in the denomination, will be present and take part in the services. We learn that Rev. Mr. Bicknell, the pastor of the church, will deliver a Centenary sermon next Sunday morning. The Universalists of Kittery recently held a meeting for the purpose of organizing a society, and measures were taken that will result in their sustaining meetings in Armory Hall. The General Convention will furnish the ministers.

The steamer Appledore will return to this port from Boston in a few days with a new propeller, hurricane deck &c. Messrs. Cook and Rhymes have had the superintending of the work. The Appledore will commence her regular trips on or about the 20th we learn.

The Board of Aldermen of Boston, have ordered to be paid to Samuel S. Green and others of this city, the sum of $1500, for all damages occasioned their estate on Cotton Place, by reducing it to the new grade.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Popular Tonic of the Age.

The day has gone by when a medicine without merit could command and retain the confidence of the world. Advertising induces the public to try many things, but in this shrewd and thoughtful age, words will not suffice without proofs, and it is by the exercise of their private judgment, men determine the relative value of the various articles recommended to their notice through the business columns of newspapers. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS has now been subjected to this searching ordeal for more than eighteen years, and the result is that it stands at the head of the class of remedies to which it belongs.

It has distanced and lived down innumerable competitors, and is to-day the Standard Vegetable Tonic of the western world. The happy effects which have followed its use in cases of dyspepsia, biliousness, nervous affections, intermittent fevers and general debility, and as a constitutional invigorant, have entitled it to universal confidence. Nothing could shake its reputation, for it is based on the individual experience of tens of thousands of witnesses, embracing prominent and well known citizens of every profession, occupation and class.

There is not a city, town or settlement, in the United States where it is not a medicinal staple. No druggist or general dealer would consider his stock complete without it, and the returns of the internal revenue department show that its sales exceed those of any other proprietary restorative manufactured on this side of the Atlantic.

The beneficial results derived during a long series of years from the use of Hostetter's Bitters, have convinced the whole community that the only true way to restore to health a broken down or debilitated system, or to put the human body in a state to defend itself when exposed to unwholesome influences, is to invigorate, regulate and purify it at one and the same time.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their proper use takes one of the bodily ills that others which feed the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12

"Children's Lives Saved for 50 Cts."

THOUSANDS OF CHILDREN DIE ANNUALLY OF CROUP. Now, Mothers, if you would spend 50 cents, and always have a bottle of DR. TOBIAS' VENETIAN LINIMENT in the house, you never need fear losing your little one when attacked with this complaint. It is now 22 years since I have put up my Liniment, and never heard of a child dying of Croup when my Liniment was used; but hundreds of cures have been reported to me, and many state if it was $10 per bottle they would not be without it. Besides which, it is a certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throat, Swellings, Mumps, Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Spasms, Old Sores, and Pains in the Limbs, Back, Chest. No one who once tries it is ever without it. It is warranted perfectly safe to take internally. Full directions with every bottle. Sold by the Druggists and Storekeepers in the United States. Depot 10 Park Place, N. Y. mh12

CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosciusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively, in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung disease in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says: "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says: I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

Physicians do not recommend a medicine which has no merits, what they say about

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM,

Can be taken as a nut. Let all afflicted test it at once. Sold by all Medicine Dealers.

A RADICAL REVOLUTION

Has been accomplished in hair dyes. The horrible compounds containing LEAD, SALT and SULPHUR are discarded. The leading chemists implore the public not to use them, and Professor Chilton, whose reputation is second to that of no analytic chemist in America, has recommended as PERFECTLY INNOCUOUS ARTICLE, which may be used without fear. Remember, it is the only one that has been analyzed and found wholesome. Its effects are instantaneous, and the color it imparts natural.

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye

CRISTADORO'S HAIR PRESERVATIVE, as a Dressing, acts like a charm on the Hair after Dyeing. TRY IT. mh12dawlm

4th July—G. A. O. E. & A. H.

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN, Thursday evening, Com. on Streets reported that a sewer in Bridge Street will cost from $350 to $450 and the abutters will contribute $128. The subject was committed for further report.

Petition of Geo. W. Marston for use of Council room Tuesday evening, for a 4th July meeting, was granted.

The Mayor and Com. on Streets were authorized to inquire into the cost and advisability of a Stone Crusher.

Leave was granted C. P. Kimball to encumber Cabot Street for building purposes.

W. H. Kennison's petition for a concrete sidewalk on Court Street, at 25 cts ft., was referred to Com. on Streets.

Sidewalks were granted to John S. Treat, Deer Street, A. H. Hills, Court Street, and Ten Cent Savings Bank, Market Street.

Leave was granted to John S. Treat to encumber the corner of Deer and Hanover Street.

Petition of Wm. L. Dwight and others for the passage of an ordinance forbidding teams for hire standing in Market Street north of Bow was referred to Com. on Streets, with power to act.

Voted that the City Marshal be instructed to enforce the Ordinance relating to encumbrances of sidewalks and streets.

A vote was passed (as is customary) adding 5 per cent. to taxes, and allowing discounts.

Voted to complete the drain at the Creek cess-pool under direction of the Mayor.

John R. Holbrook's complaint of the pump on Court Street was referred to Com. on Streets with power to act.

Street Commissioner Ham was authorized to purchase gravel of Charles Hayes, if needed.

The Com. on Streets was authorized to carry out the vote of last year relative to straightening Middle Street at M. Eldredge's, and to make drain.

Voted that Com. on Streets be authorized to offer John S. Treat $30 for a strip of land two feet wide from his lot, corner Deer and Vaughan Streets.

Complaint of Police Officers, for accepting presents from a young man under arrest, or just discharged, was referred to the Mayor and Com. on Police, to report.

Voted that the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department be authorized to appoint a company of 24 men for steamer Kearsarge.

Ald. Marvin was authorized to remove dead tree from State St., at head Washington; and the Com. on Sts., to act on the petition of Miss Ham for the removal of trees from Anthony and Cabot Streets.

Petition of owners and occupants of stores on Market St., for removal of job wagons from obstructing the street at its narrowest point, the junction with Bow St., was referred to the Com. on Sts. with power to act—and they have ordered the City Marshal to remove the cause of complaint. The Marshal was also ordered to keep the sidewalks clear of obstructions, in the display of goods at store doors, &c.

Voted that the Mayor be authorized to have drains constructed at the Creek cess-pool, at an expense of $75, so as to secure the filling up of the nuisance.

Mr. Holbrook's complaint of pump on Court St., and request for its removal, was referred to the Com. on Streets with power to act.

The Superintendents of Burying Grounds of last year were re-appointed.

Communication.

☞ The public spirit of Ex-Mayor Jones is again manifest in the way he has graded the avenue leading from Islington Street, by his Brewery and into Cass,—which is beneficial not only to his own teams, but all others which may pass through there. And whatever may be said against the Breweries at the West End, it must be conceded that they are neat and clean, and that every thing about them is in apple-pie order, so much so that if all other premises were kept so, there would be no cause for complaint. And a walk to that beautiful part of our city would be pleasant indeed, were it not for the Creek Cess Pool. Will you inform us, Messrs. Editors, if there is any probability of having this nuisance abated this summer? NEIGHBORHOOD.

[Our correspondent will doubtless be rejoiced to learn that the foul pool will cease to exist ere long. The Board of Aldermen voted on Thursday evening to finish the drain at the Creek, under the supervision of Mayor Adams. The owners of land abutting the cess-pool had previously agreed to fill it whenever the city would finish the drain. We hope the residents at the West End will be relieved of the intolerable nuisance, speedily.—Eds. Chronicle.]

SAVINGS BANK DEPOSITS.—The amount of money on deposit in 1869, by citizens of Portsmouth, and the Banks where deposited, are as follows:

Amoskeag Bank, Manchester,	$206 00
Carroll Co., Wolfeborough,	172 00
Dover Five Cents,	1,427 05
Exeter,	300 00
Gonic Five Cts., Rochester,	624 50
Manchester,	1,359 16
Meredith Village,	120 53
Merrimac River,	1,856 87
National, Concord,	620 00
New Hampshire, Concord,	1,633 69
Portsmouth,	649,240 00
Rockingham 10 ct. Ports.,	69,092 16
Rollinsford,	2784 98
Strafford Co., Dover,	6271 00
Sullivan S. Inst., Newport	5 17
Total,	735,542 83

On this amount, the Tax paid by the State to the City of Portsmouth, is $5516.86. This statement is for last year—and the returns will be considerably larger for 1870. At both Savings Banks in this city there is a large increase,—in the old Portsmouth Bank to the amount of $100,000, we believe.

And the fact that these deposits in the State have increased two and a half millions in a year, would seem to indicate that, despite all croaking, the bottom has not yet tumbled out of the money box, the State or the country. And the growing popularity of our Savings institutions, should teach the people not to allow their immense trust to be managed in any way to the public detriment.

BEAUTIFUL SCENIC EXHIBITION.—Mr. Thos. P. Moses announces an entertainment for next week which will eclipse anything of the kind ever seen in this city. It will consist of tableaux and pantomimes in which recitations and singing are introduced. Fifteen young ladies assist Mr. Moses in the representations, as Goddesses, Fairies and Graces.

Mr. Moses is an untiring worker and his rare artistic taste will be shown in this exhibition, which he considers the crowning one of his life. No man deserves success more than he. He has done a good work in times past for art and music in old Portsmouth, and his later labors will be of lasting benefit long after his work is over.

In this instance, Mr. Moses has wrought quietly by day and night, employing his exquisite taste in the production of the necessary scenery and accompaniments for his exhibition.

He has constructed a Phaeton, Harp, Golden Lyres, &c., which are beautiful beyond description. The whole affair will be a pleasing surprise. Cushing's orchestral band has volunteered to furnish the music, and we hope Mr. Moses' opening night, Wednesday, will see the old Temple filled with an audience desiring to witness the splendid spectacular entertainment.

☞ A lecture will be delivered to-morrow (Sunday) evening at 7 1-2 o'clock, in St. Mary's Church, by Rev. Canon Walsh. The subject will be "What the Popes did for the world in the dark ages." Seats free to all.

☞ Rev. Mr. Adams will give a lecture to young men in the North Church to-morrow (Sunday) evening at 7 1-2 o'clock.

L-- O---A---N
OF THE
CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILROAD CO.
The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad
Is completed and running from RICHMOND, Va., to the celebrated WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, in West Va., 237 miles. It is being rapidly extended to the Ohio River, 200 miles further, making in all 437 miles.

In its progress Westward, it penetrates and opens up to market the Wonderful Coal Deposits of the Kanawha Region in West Virginia. And thus brings the superior and abundant Coals of that section into communication with the Iron Ores of Virginia and Ohio, and the Western, South Western and Eastern markets.

When completed it will connect the superior harbor facilities of the Chesapeake Bay with reliable navigation on the Ohio River, and thus with the entire system of Railroad and Water transportations of the great West and South-West.

It will make a short, easy, cheap and favorable route from the West, to the sea, and will command a large share of the enormous freights seeking transportation to the coast.

It will thus become one of the most important and profitable East and West Trunk Lines of Railroad in the country, and command a trade of immense value.

The completed portion of the Road is doing a profitable and increasing Business, and is fully equal in value to the whole amount of the mortgage upon the entire Line—($15,000,000.)

The loan of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company, being a First Mortgage upon the entire Line, property and equipments, worth when completed at least $30,000,000, is therefore one of the most substantial, conservative and reliable Railroad Loans ever offered in the market, and is peculiarly adapted to the wants of

INVESTORS and CAPITALISTS,

Who desire to make their investments with the most satisfactory assurance of positive and undoubted Security.

The Bonds are in denominations of

$1000, $500 and $100,

and may be had COUPON or REGISTERED.

Interest Six per cent. per annum, payable MAY 1st and NOVEMBER 1st.

PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

Price 90 and accrued Interest in Currency, at which price they pay nearly Seven per cent. in gold on their cost.

All Government Bonds and other Securities dealt in at the Stock Exchange, received in exchange, at their full market value, and Bonds sent to all parts of the country, free of Express charges.

They can be obtained by ordering direct from us or through any responsible Bank or Banker in any part of the country.

OLD TIME CHRONICLES—No. 4.

BY UNCLE JOSEPH.

SKETCHES OF NOTTINGHAM.—Nottingham is a somewhat rough, broken township, in the N. W. part of the County. It embraces 25,800 acres, and only Deerfield, Derry and Londonderry are as large. Northwood was formerly a part of it. Population in 1860. 1297.

Nottingham Square, familiarly known in all the surrounding sections, is on a large swell of land. The site is an exceedingly pleasant one. A fine view of an extended region of country is seen in every direction.

The Square is the name by which it is usually known. It could hardly be called a village as the number of houses on the elevation has rarely exceeded ten.

The whole swell of the land is good for farming, not commonly to wet, and in the dryest seasons, not suffering from drought as farms less elevated.

The first settlements were in the vicinity, although not directly on the Square. On it, however, was a garrison; and in 1752, while the people had left to attend to some work, the Indians came and killed Mr. Beard, Mrs. Simpson and Mrs. Folsom.

The Square early became the seat of the public operations of the town. Rev. S. Emery was settled as minister in 1742, and probably not long after a meeting-house was erected, which stood till 1804, when another was built in its place, which for beauty and convenience exceeded that of any other in all the section. It was lighted by an unusual amount of glass, and had a fine-toned bell, which was heard afar.

The Square became a place of great business. There were stores, that commanded a large trade. People came from Raymond, four or five miles south; some from Epping, Deerfield, and from all parts of Nottingham.

But then were the days of public travel on the highways, there being no railroads. Keeping public houses was a great business. On the Square were two taverns, Bartlett's and Butler's. Also Nealey's, not far west of the Square. All three were often full. And not unfrequently when teams were leaving in the morning, they would extend much of the way for half a mile. This was half a century ago.

But the Square was far from the geographical center. It was towards the south-west. There was a section in the north or north-east called the Chebeag. There was a religious society there, holding meetings in a school-house. At the Square the church had run down, and the meeting-house was seldom occupied for preaching. Town meetings were held there, but the Chebeagers began to feel that it was too far to come to town-meeting. And once, nearly 40 years ago, after part of the business of town meeting had been transacted, a vote was obtained to adjourn to the next day to meet at the Chebeag school house.

It was not long before it was determined to remove the seat of operations from the Square. So a Town House was built a mile or more farther north. Also a building for an Academy. A store and two taverns were opened there; the Post Office moved, and finally the town sold the meeting house on the Square, which was taken down, removed and converted into another building.

Peter the great of Russia, removed the seat of government from Moscow St. Petersburg. The effect was disastrous to Moscow. But not so with the Square. As a place of business it has changed, but quietness, order, prosperity and happiness are left. The buildings have been much improved, so that they exhibit a better show than any in town. As a place of delightful, rural residence and retreat it excels most others. Of two or three families that have been noted there, we shall speak in subsequent papers.

HOW TO GET RICH.—The case of Mr. Allen, of Augusta, Maine, is an attractive illustration of the advantages of advertising. Five years ago his worldly wealth amounted to less than ten dollars, but his knowledge of the value of printer's ink was worth a fortune. Since then, by judicious advertising, he has grown rich. The Hartford Post says the letters received by him have exceeded the entire mail of all citizens combined, his bill for postage stamps averaging more than $100 daily.

So great an influx of mail matter has caused Augusta to be rated as a first-class office, and the happy postmaster is delighted with an increased salary as in such cases is provided by law. The offices which were ample for the State printing and the wants of the most largely circulating newspapers in the State have been compelled to add new presses and material to fill his orders for circulars. A corps of forty assistants is constantly employed. All this grand result has been accomplished by newspaper advertising.

BONE FERTILIZERS FOR TREES.—A writer in the Maine Farmer comments as follows on this subject:—"A wonderful magnetism has been observed to exist between the roots of a tree and a bone deposited in the ground within its reach. For a stone or anything not necessary for its sustenance this is not the case. The greed and alacrity with which a fruit tree sends out its roots, and binds all the bones within its reach with many little clinging cords of affection, affords positive proof that a supply of their most vital nourishment is drawn from them. When setting young trees for an orchard, a quantity of bones scattered around the roots will enhance the value of the tree for all time. Though Nature's laboratory grinds slow, yet it grinds fine, and bones placed in the soil near fruit trees yield a continual feast to the tree.

A smart business in "Agricultural Mining" might be done in and around some out-buildings and the sly places where huge heaps of old shoes, steel springs from ladies' skirts, broken dishes and bone deposits have been accumulating for years. Bones of animals lie bleaching in many places, which, if gathered up, might be turned to a good account. An excellent superphosphate may be made by taking a hogshead, putting in a layer of bones, then another layer consisting of ashes wet down, then another layer of ashes and bones, and so on until filled. Keep wet and wait until the bones are reduced or rendered so soft as to be easily pulverized. I know a few farmers who practice this method, and reap a rich reward for their pains.

FEED THE FRUIT TREES.—It must be apparent to every reflecting person that the material round about a fruit tree which renders important aid in the production of fine fruit of any kind must necessarily be more or less exhausted after a vine, bush or tree has produced abundant crops for several successive seasons. For example, a large pear tree or apple tree will frequently yield from ten to sixteen bushels of fruit annually. Many trees have produced more than twice these quantities at one crop. After a few seasons the material that the roots must be supplied with, in order to develop fruit, will be more or less exhausted. For this reason, fruit begins to fall; and the failure is often attributed to an east wind, or some mysterious atmospheric influence, when, in reality, the sole cause is starvation, arising from an impoverished soil. The remedy is to feed the roots of all kinds of fruit trees with lime, wood ashes, gypsum, chip dirt, bones, fish and anything that will renovate an impoverished soil. It is evident that fruit trees cannot produce fine fruit out of nothing, or out of such material as may be desirable for some other purpose.

The Germantown Telegraph recommends in the case of old orchards the removal of turf and soil to the depth of three or four inches over most of the space covered by the roots once in three or four years. This will disturb and destroy the curculio, while the application of fresh rich mold and compost will impart increased vigor to the trees and augment their productive power.

BRIGHTON CATTLE MARKET.

FOR THE WEEK ENDING THURSDAY, JUNE 2.

[Reported for the Boston Journal.]

At market for the current week—Cattle 1133; Sheep and Lambs 3578; Swine 4750; number of Western Cattle 891; Eastern Cattle 117; Northern Cattle and Working Oxen 125. Cattle left over —.

Prices Beef Cattle—Extra $13 50 @ $14 00; first quality $13 25 @ $13 00; second quality $12 25 @ $12 85; third quality $12 00 @ $11 50; poorest grade of coarse Oxen, Bulls, &c., $8 50 @ $10 50 ℔ cwt, (the total weight of hides, tallow and dressed beef,)

Brighton Hides 7 @ 7½c ℔ lb; Country Hides 6½ @ 7c ℔ lb.

Brighton Tallow 6½ @ 7½c per lb; Country Tallow 6 @ 7c ℔ lb.

Sheep and Lamb Skins $1 25 @ $1 50 each; Calf Skins 16 @ 17c ℔ lb.

The quality of Cattle in market this week was not so good as that of last, and there were not so many Cattle in market. Prices have advanced from ¼ @ ½c ℔ lb over last quotations. The trade has not been very active. The rise in prices is larger on the best grades of Beef than on that of a poorer quality. Most of the Maine Cattle were sold for Beef. Western Cattle cost higher at Albany, and the supply from the West was light for the week.

Store Cattle—With the exception of Working Oxen and Milch Cows there are but a few Store Cattle brought to market at this season of the year. Most of the small Cattle are sold for Beef.

Working Oxen—But a few pairs in market. We quote sales at $265, $165, $135, $120, $160, $180, $225, $155, $215, $190, $225, $140, $175, $250 @ $255 ℔ pair.

Milch Cows—Extra $85 @ $115; ordinary $50 @ $80; Store Cows $35 @ $55 ℔ head. Most of the Cows in market are of a common grade.

Sheep and Lambs—Nearly all the Western Sheep were owned by butchers, and were taken direct from the cars to be slaughtered. We quote prices of extra at $6 @ $10 ℔ head; ordinary lots $4 @ $6, or from 5½ @ 8½c ℔ lb. Lambs $8 to $10 ℔ head.

Swine—Store Pigs—Wholesale 12 @ 13½c ℔ lb; retail 13 @ 16c ℔ lb. Spring Pigs 18 @ 21c ℔ lb. Fat Hogs—3500 at market: prices 10 @ 10½c ℔ lb. Coarse heavy Shoats 10 @ 12c ℔ lb.

Health Regulations.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH of the City of Portsmouth call the attention of the public to the following sections of City Ordinances No. 4 and No. 100, and invite all interested in the preservation of health in the City to aid them in the execution of their duty.

ORDINANCE NO. 4.

SEC. 3.—All waste water of houses, yards, cellars, sinks, pumps, &c. shall be conveyed by their owners or occupiers to the common sewers, or to such places as the Health Officers may direct.

SEC. 4. No person shall be allowed to throw any vegetable or dead animal substance, or any other matter capable of producing infection, into any street, lane, alley or dock, or upon any wharf, but shall bury them or throw them into the river below low-water mark.

SEC. 5. The contents of vaults and privies shall not be permitted to rise within one foot of the surface of the earth. And all owners or occupiers of buildings having such vaults or privies as may require it, shall cause them to be emptied within ten days from the promulgation of this ordinance, and in future on or before the first day of May in each year. And any such owner or occupier neglecting so to do, shall forfeit and pay for every such neglect a sum not less than three nor more than twenty dollars, and a like sum for every week's neglect after the time above specified.

SEC. 11. The health officers may give written notice to the owner or occupier of any building, vessel or enclosure, to remove or destroy any nuisance or other thing deemed by them, on examination, to be injurious to the public health, within a certain time limited therein; and in case such owner or occupier—the said notice having been given to him, or left at his usual place of abode—shall neglect to comply therewith, the said health officers may, by direction of the mayor and accompanied by the city marshal, forcibly enter such building, vessel, or enclosure, and cause the said nuisance or other thing aforesaid to be removed or destroyed.

SEC. 14. The owner or occupier of any building, vessel or enclosure shall be liable to pay the expense of the removal or destruction of any such nuisance or other thing, as aforesaid, including fees of the health officers who order or cause the same to be removed; and the same may be recovered by action to be brought in the name of the city.

SEC. 17. Any person or persons who shall violate any rule or regulation, or commit any act forbidden in any section of this ordinance, to which no special penalty is annexed, shall forfeit and pay a sum not less than one dollar nor more than twenty dollars, to be recovered by complaint before the police court of this city.

ORDINANCE NO. 100.

SEC. 1. When any householder shall know that a person within his family is taken sick of the Small Pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, he shall immediately give notice thereof to the Health Officers.

SEC. 2. When any physician shall know that any person whom he is called to visit is infected with the Small Pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, such physician shall immediately give notice therefor to the Health Officers.

SEC. 3. If any such householder or physician shall refuse or neglect to give the notice required in the preceding sections, he shall for each refusal or neglect, forfeit the sum of twenty dollars, to be recovered by either of the Health Officers in the name of the city.

A MEAN MAN.—But it was not always the Canadians who objected to being taxed, as the following anecdote will show. Dr. McLaughlin was one day seated in his office, in conversation with some of his American friends, when the tall form of the sheriff darkened the doorway.

"I have come to tax you, Doctor," said Meek with his blandest manner, and with a merry twinkle, half suppressed, in his black eyes.

"To tax me, Mr. Joe. I was not aware—I believe I have paid my tax, Mr. Joe," stammered the Doctor, somewhat annoyed at the prospect of some fresh demand.

"Thar is an old ox out in my neighborhood, Doctor, and he is said to be long to you. Thar is a tax of twenty-five cents on him."

"I do not understand you, Mr. Joe. I have no cattle out in your neighborhood."

"I couldn't say how that may be, Doctor. All I do know about it, is just this. I went to old G——'s to collect the tax on his stock—and he's got a powerful lot of cattle,—and while we war a countin 'em over, he left out that old ox and said it belonged to you."

"Oh, oh, I see, Mr. Joe: yes, yes, I see! So it was Mr. G——," cried the Doctor, getting very red in the face. "I do remember now, since you bring it to my mind, that I lent Mr. G—— that steer six years ago! Here are the twenty-five cents, Mr. Joe."

The sheriff took his money, and went away laughing; while the Doctor's American friends looked quite as much annoyed as the Doctor himself, over the meanness of some of their countrymen. From "The River of the West," just published.

SENATOR CRAGIN'S SPEECH. — The speech of Hon. Aaron H. Cragin, delivered in the U. S. Senate May 18th, upon the subjects of the execution of the laws in Utah, and the infamous doctrines, practices, outrages and murders of the Mormons, is one of the most able and fearless ever delivered in this country,—for which he is entitled to high honor. The pamphlet consists of 22 pages, and contains so many extracts from the Mormon books and sermons, and so many facts collected mainly from Mormon and wholly from indisputable authorities, that any attempt to disprove or deny the truth of the same would be futile.

The character of that monster of human depravity, Brigham Young, "the great polygamist of the world," the absolute despot and lawgiver of Utah, is portrayed in true and appalling colors. "He is a man of remarkable ability, bold and bad, and one of the richest men on earth, and has about forty wives." The women in Utah are treated worse than slaves. It was and still is the design of Young to establish a government in Utah independent of the United States; and should the bill now before Congress to prohibit polygamy be passed, the Mormons threaten resistance by war.

Young is convicted of giving authority for the robbery and murder of those "Gentiles" who incur his displeasure. In 1857, a large emigrant train, consisting of about one hundred and fifty men, women and children, with wagons, cattle, &c., mostly from Arkansas, passed through Salt Lake City, bound for California. They were pursued by Mormons disguised as Indians, and for plunder and revenge were all murdered, except a few of the children. For a full account of the wickedness, barbarism and atrocious sins of the Mormons, we refer to Mr. Cragin's disclosures.

Congress having a due regard to our national character, will not fail to enact some salutary law to put an end to Brigham Young's empire, and to "polygamy, the twin sister of slavery."

FIAT JUSTITIA.

WHEN HE WAS HALF THROUGH.—Jonathan says he couldn't help laughing at an anecdote of a man accustomed to make long prayers, who had persuaded a guest, greatly against his inclination, to stay to breakfast. He prayed and prayed, till his impatient guest began to think of edging quietly away, and walking off—but in attempting it he waked up the old man's son, who was asleep in his chair.

"How soon will your father be thro'?" whispered the guest.

"Has he got to the Jews?" asked the boy in reply, in the same tone.

"No," said the other.

"Well, then, he ain't half through," replied the boy, and composed himself again to his nap; whereupon the guest bolted at once.

— A Connecticut paper feelingly remarks: "When Moses got up flies to bother the people of Egypt his head was level."

H. T. HELMBOLD'S
CONCENTRATED
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,
THE GREAT DIURETIC.

The proprietor trusts that his Remedies, from the fact of their being advertised, may not be classed as Patent Medicines.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU is a pharmaceutical preparation. The proper name is given, and it is the most active which can be made. It is endorsed as a cure by all medical works for such diseases as recommended by the proprietor. It is pleasant in its taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and is taken by adults and children. It is tonic, diuretic, blood-purifying, and invigorating. Enfeebled and delicate constitutions of both sexes will find it for more strengthening than any of the preparations of bark or iron.

See medical properties contained in Dispensatory of the United States, of which the following is a correct copy:—

BUCHU.—Its odor is strong, diffusive, and somewhat aromatic; its taste is bitterish, and analogous to that of mint. It is given chiefly in complaints of the urinary organs, such as gravel, chronic catarrh of the bladder, morbid irritation of the prostate gland, and retention or the incontinence of urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. It has also been recommended in dyspepsia, chronic rheumatism, cutaneous affections, and dropsy.

Cure of Gravel of Five Years Standing. The Best Proved and to be Seen.

SAVANNAH, TENN., May 14, 1869.

Dr. H. T. Helmbold.

DEAR SIR: We introduced your "Fluid Extract Buchu" in this county about eight months ago, and are happy to state that it is meeting with universal favor. We wish to inform you of one instance (among many) where your "Buchu" has worked wonders. A man in our county, named J. B. Estell, had been suffering about five years with gravel.

About six weeks ago he bought of us one bottle of your "Buchu," and before he was through with one bottle he passed a gravel that weighs eight grains, which we now have on exhibition in our drug store. He says that he will never be without the "Buchu" in his house again. Your preparations are gaining favor every day.

Very respectfully yours, &c.,

Cure of Bladder and Kidney Affection of long Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

WESTPORT, CONN., Sept. 9, 1869.

H. T. Helmbold, Esq.,

DEAR SIR: I commenced taking your "Extract of Buchu" about two weeks since for an affection of the bladder and kidneys. I have suffered by spells very much for a few days past. But yesterday relief came through the effect of your "Buchu." A stone passed from my bladder about the size of a large pea, and I now feel perfectly well and entirely free from the pain that I have suffered with "so hard." I attribute my cure to your medicine entirely, and would recommend all persons similarly affected to try it. I have great faith in its curative powers.

Yours truly, THOMAS J. BENNETT.

Cure of Kidney and Bladder Affection of a Patient Seventy-eight years of Age. Thanks to Mr. Helmbold.

GIRARD, PA., March 31, 1869.

Editor Cosmopolite: I desire, as an unsolicited tribute to the merits of Helmbold's Buchu, and for the benefit of those similarly afflicted as myself, to say that after consulting many eminent physicians, and trying nearly all the highly advertised Remedies, in the vain hope of finding relief from aggravated kidney and bladder diseases, from which I have suffered incessantly for many years, good fortune finally suggested to me Helmbold's Buchu, which I commenced using with little faith, and no apparent beneficial results for about a month.

At the expiration of that time, however, I thought I commenced to experience slight relief, which encouraged me to persevere in its use, and now, at the expiration of four months, although I am an infirm old man, nearly 78 years of age, and consequently medicines cannot be expected to favorably affect me as they otherwise would, I have found such unspeakable relief and permanent benefit from Mr. Helmbold's valuable discovery, that I feel I ought to publicly record the fact, as an acknowledgment to him, and a valuable suggestion to the public. Yours respectfully,

D. M. LAREN.

DR. KEYSER
is a physician of over thirty years' experience, and a graduate of the Jefferson Medical College, and of the University of Medicine and Surgery of Philadelphia. Hear him:

Mr. H. T. Helmbold:

DEAR SIR: In regard to the question asked me as to my opinion about Buchu, I would say that I have used and sold the article in various forms for the past thirty years. I do not think there is any form or preparation of it I have not used, or known to be used, in the various diseases where such medicate agent would be indicated. You are aware, as well as myself, that it has been extensively employed in the various diseases of the bladder and kidneys, and the reputation it has acquired, in my judgment, is warranted by the facts.

I have seen and used, as before stated, every form of Buchu—the powdered leaves—tincture, fluid extracts—and I am not cognizant of any preparation of that plant at all equal to yours. Twelve years' experience ought, I think, to give me the right to judge of its merits; and, without prejudice or partiality, I give yours precedence over all others.

I value your Buchu for its effect on patients. I have cured with it, and seen cured with it, more diseases of the bladder and kidneys than I have ever seen cured with any other Buchu or any other proprietary compound of whatever name.

Respectfully yours, &c.,
GEO. H. KEYSER, M. D.,
140 Wood Street, Pittsburgh, Penn.
August 11, 1865.

GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, Jan. 28, 1868.

Mr. H. T. Helmbold,

DEAR SIR: Your communication requesting our terms for advertising was duly received, but from a prejudice I had formed against advertising "cures for secret diseases," it was left unanswered. During an accidental conversation in a drug store the other evening, my mind was changed on the character of your Buchu. It was then highly commended for other diseases by two physicians present. Incosed please find our rate o advertising. Yours, T. I. B. H. STENHOUSE,
Ed'r and Prop'r of Telegraph.

HELMBOLD'S BUCHU.
TESTIMONIALS.

A Permanent Cure of Gravel of twelve Years' Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

BURNSIDE, CONN., Dec. 15, 1869.

Dr. Helmbold,

DEAR SIR: It is with much pleasure that I write you a few lines concerning your Buchu. I do not know hardly how to express myself. I have been for the last ten or twelve years the greatest sufferer you could imagine; but more sometimes than others. The complaint was the "Kidneys" and "Bladder." I have been sometimes from twelve to fourteen hours, and wanted to make water every minute, but could not. Have consulted doctors, both in Massachusetts and this State, and taken pills, I may say by the quart, and liquored medicine, but found no relief from any, and got worse the last six months. I was so that I could scarcely get about, I could not rest night or day.

It would seem have been "all up" with me if I had not seen your advertisement headed "Kidneys." I read it through and thought I would try it. I purchased a bottle, but, mind you, had not much faith in it. Why should it, when I had been trying so many things that cost me so much? Well, I began taking it, and before I had taken the first bottle I felt bad; but I persisted and got another. By the time I took half of the second I still got worse (apparently.) When I walked it was clear up hill and against the wind, and all the time the "Buchu" was doing its work, but I did not know it, so I gave it up and went to Hartford on Saturday to one of the best doctors in the city. He said it was the neck of the bladder, and I should have to undergo an operation. He gave me medicine, and I went home quite downhearted.

On Sunday I was unable to go to church. I had not taken any of his medicine, but on my return continued using the "Buchu," and in the afternoon I had a desire to make water, but could not. About one hour after this I tried again, with the same result; but the next time I took the vessel it was the same as turning a faucet and stopping it off again. It was so for three times, and the third time there was something came through the passage and struck against the side of the vessel. I examined it, and it is the ugliest stone or gravel you ever saw, covered over with little pieces which collected together. It looks the color of a small turtle, and is as hard as iron. So you see the "Buchu" was doing its work, although I was feeling so badly. I procured another bottle, thinking there might be some more behind; but since that has passed, which is eight weeks ago last Sunday, I have been as well as ever I was in my life. I have the stone securely wrapped, and those who have seen it in this place are surprised.

I cannot tell you all, but this is a true story of my case, and you are welcome to make such use of my name as you think proper. I am pretty well known in Berkshire; also in Connecticut. The advertisement saved me. Why not publish more? If any one wishes to see this wonder, they can do so. I could write all day, but I think I have said enough this time. so I remain your ever well-wisher, EDWARD L. HOWARD,

(A Home and School for the Sons of Deceased Soldiers.)

Dr. H. T. Helmbold,

Two bottles only of the package of your valuable Buchu presented to the Institute have been used by the children, and with perfect success. In the care of our little Lieutenant A. it is his pride is no longer mortified, and he is free from the daily morning anathemas of the chamber-maid who has charge of his bedding.

I feel that a knowledge of the result of our use of your Buchu with the children under our charge may save many a Sleepless Mortified Mother of Boarding Schools and Asylums a great amount of annoyance; and many a poor child suffering more from Weakness than Vice, Idiocy, may be spared punishment, that is (not knowing it is a weakness instead of a bad habit) most unjustly inflicted upon them. Thanking you on behalf of the children, and hoping of one may be alike benefitted, I am respectfully yours,

COL. YOUNG, General Sup't and Director.

A Case of Twenty Years Standing.

PHILADELPHIA, PENN., June 25, 1867.

H. T. Helmbold, Druggist.

DEAR SIR: I was a sufferer for upwards of twenty years with gravel, bladder, and kidney affections, during which time I have used various medicinal preparations, and been under the treatment of the most eminent physicians, experiencing but little relief.

Having seen your preparations extensively advertised, I consulted my family physician in regard to using your Extract Buchu.

I did this because I had used all kinds of advertised Remedies and had found them worthless, and some quite injurious; in fact, I despaired of ever getting well, and determined to use no Remedies hereafter unless I knew of the ingredients. It was this that prompted me to use your Remedy. As you advertised that it was composed of Buchu, cubeba, nitrate of potash, and juniper, it was to me and my physician as an excellent combination; and, with his advice, after an examination of the article, and consulting a friend in the Druggist, I concluded to try it. I commenced to use it about eight months ago, at which time I was confined to my room.

From the first bottle I was astonished and gratified at the beneficial effect, and after using it three weeks was able to walk out. I felt much better, and as it would not interfere with my cases at the time, but thought my improvement might only be temporary, and therefore concluded to better, and as it would not interfere with my cases, knowing that it would be of greater value to you and more satisfactory to me.

I now am able to report that a cure is effected after using the remedy for five months, and I am not used any now for three months, and feel as well in all respects as I ever did.

Your Buchu being devoid of any unpleasant taste and odor, a nice tonic and invigorator of the system, I do not mean to be without it whenever occasion may require its use in such affections.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years as principal examiner in the Patent Office, EVERY ONE of which was decided IN HIS FAVOR by the Commissioner of Patents.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me THIRTEEN applications, in all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGHART."

MONDAY, JUNE 6, 1870.

Table Talk.

The Prince of Wales is preparing to make his home in Dublin.

The Ecumeniacl Council has decided that the dogma of infallibility shall be proclaimed on the 29th instant, and preparations are making for the most magnificent celebration ever know in Europe.

England is now in a state of alarm over the discovery of a well organized plot of the Fenians to destroy all the great dock-yards and arsenals.

A lady at Paris advertises for employment as "ornamental guest at dinner and evening parties."

A West Virginia paper has come out as a "let upper," and describes itself as "a once proscriptive sheet, which, from an ugly, biting, stinging, malicious bug, has changed into an amiable, loving dove."

The Massachusetts House of Representatives has passed an amended Hartford and Erie bill, 115 to 102.

Gold, Saturday, 114 1-2.

☞ A bill has been introduced into the U. S. Senate by Mr. Pomeroy, prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquor in the District of Columbia. The keeping of dram-shops and the retail business are especially aimed at by the provisions of the bill. It is stringent in regard to sales to minors; and notification by the relatives of any person that he is a drunkard or intemperate will prevent the sale of liquor to him. Aside from the fines and penalties imposed for violations of the different provisions of the bill, the seller of liquors is to be held responsible for all the injuries which may be committed by the person whom his liquors intoxicate; and this applies specially in favor of a wife, child, parent, guardian, employer or person dependent for support, the liquor seller being responsible even for exemplary damages.

But the most interesting feature is the mode it proposes for dealing with drunkards and intemperate men. Enumerating a list of such failings, and winding up with "and refuses or is unable to restrain his appetite and his passions," the man of whom all these peculiarities are descriptive is to be adjudged insane and confined in a lunatic asylum.

☞ The Worcester Spy says two boot-blacks got into a dispute on the street lately, as to which of them could give a boot the best "shine." The one who was beaten determined to be champion in something, and taking a threaded needle he pinched up a large piece of flesh on one leg, and triumphantly drew the needle and thread through; to be beaten would never do for the champion "shine," so he took the needle and placing it in his mouth he forced it through the cheek and pulled it through from the outside. This ended the strife, and the audience dispersed.

HORRIBLE TRAGEDY.—At Newmarket, Saturday morning, Hiram Jones, who was prevented from killing his wife two weeks ago by his daughter, succeeded in his villanous attempt by cutting her throat from ear to ear, severing all the tendons and arteries. He attempted to kill his daughter but she got away from him and he then cut his own throat, severing the wind-pipe. His wife died instantly, but Jones was still living Saturday evening, and may recover. He is 50 years of age. Jealousy is said to be the cause of the deed.

BRADFORD FEMALE ACADEMY.—At the dedication of the new Hall of Bradford (Mass.,) Academy, recently, a meeting of the Alumni was held, at which a Committee was appointed to draft resolutions as a basis for the Constitution of an Alumni Association. This Committee were directed to submit their report at the adjourned meeting, Anniversary Day, July 6th, 1870, when it is hoped there will be a large attendance of the Alumni. This is from a young lady interested.

PAKEHA.—The next annual meeting will convene at Boar's Head Hotel, Hampton Beach, July 4, 1870, at 12 o'clock, noon. Members intending to be present are desired to notify the Secretary, Lock Box 136, Boston, Mass. Important business will come before the meeting.

☞ A temperance friend wishes to know why all the rum-shops and houses of ill-fame in the city are not closed? Simply because the people do not desire it—that's the only reason.

☞ The Republican caucus for the nomination of U. S. Senator will probably be held on Thursday evening of this week.

CONGRESS.—On Friday, in the Senate, memorials and petitions calling upon the President to interfere in behalf of the persecuted Jews in Roumelia, were referred to the committee on foreign relations.

Mr. Sumner of Massachusetts then offered a resolution calling upon the President, if in his opinion it was not incompatible with the public interests, for any information in the Department of State concerning the reported persecution and massacre of Israelites in Roumelia. He said the reports were so absolutely horrible that it was but natural to suppose them grossly exaggerated. It was incumbent upon us in the interest of humanity to possess all the information concerning it that might be attained.

Mr. Sprague of Rhode Island attributed the cause of the massacre to the fact that the Jews had obtained possession of all the business, lands, and trade of the country; that while one class of people were in poverty, without means or business, there was another—an eager, money-getting, monopolizing population.

Mr. Stewart of Nevada remarked that if it was the intention of Senator Sprague to establish a rule that when a man got rich he ought to be killed, while it might not inconvenience some senators, it would bear very hard upon others, and among them the senator from Rhode Island.

Mr. Sumner's resolution was agreed to.

In the House, amendments to the tax bill, limiting the allowance for house rent to $500, and prohibiting the publication of income returns, were agreed to.

Mr. Dawes' (of Massachusetts) amendment to consider the number of persons to a family, in a social or religious community, holding property in common, at five, instead of ten; Mr. Laflin's (of New York) to add to the exemptions losses by floods; Mr. Ela's (of New Hampshire) exempting the wages of minor children; and Mr. Burchard's (of Illinois) providing that assessors shall require all returns to be verified under oath, and that the amount may be increased upon notice to the party that there is reason to believe that the income is understated, were severally agreed to; and Mr. McCarthy's (of New York) to strike out all the sections relating to the income tax, was rejected, 59 to 123.

On the question of reducing the rate of taxation of incomes from 5 to 3 per cent., Mr. Ela of New Hampshire voted "no."

The scheme for taxing government bonds was defeated on a yea and nay vote, by 110 to 78. The debate lasted nearly an hour and was at times quite sharp. General Butler was about its only advocate on the republican side, while Beck and Eldridge sustained the argument on the democratic side. The burden of the opposition was borne by General Schenck, who spoke with unusual vigor and clearness, denouncing the project as flat repudiation, to which Mr. Butler put in a vehement denial. Mr. Ela of N. H. voted to tax the bonds. 30 republicans voted for and 109 against, and 28 democrats for and 17 against the abolition of the income tax.

The funding bill from the ways and means committee will create but one class of bonds—$1,000,000,000 at 4 per cent. running thirty years, principal and interest payable in gold, and exempt from all taxation except that of incomes. The new bond is to be used in taking up five-twenty bonds, beginning with those of the earliest issue.

BASE BALL.—The famous Red Stockings of Cincinnati arrived in Boston and played the Harvards on Saturday. This (Monday) afternoon they will play the Lowell club.

The Tri Mountains of Boston were beaten by the Fairmounts of Marlboro', June 1st, by a score of 13 to 11.

Shirley Brooks succeeds Mark Lemon as editor of Punch.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

THE DUSTY AND WEARY TRAVELLER will find excellent bath rooms at the American House, Boston. Airy rooms, billiard halls, vertical railway, cafe, reading room, and a superior cuisine, render this a favorite house with travellers.

INQUIRE WITHIN.—The mouth is like a house to let. However pretty it may be externally, it is impossible to judge of its merits until you have seen the inside. If behind the ruby doors there are plenty of pearl-white fixtures, you will exclaim at once, "How beautiful!" To impart the utmost possible brilliancy, there is nothing like fragrant SOZODONT.

"SPALDING'S GLUE" mends everything.

THOUSANDS OF PROMISING YOUTHS, of both sexes, go down to untimely graves, from general debility and weakness, who might be saved by fortifying their systems with Iron. The Peruvian Syrup is an Iron Tonic prepared expressly to supply this vitalizing element, and is the only preparation of Iron that will assimilate at once with the blood.

New Hampshire Legislature.

Among the bills introduced in the House on Friday were the following:—

By Mr. Holt of Manchester.—An act to repeal section 10 of the Act in Amendment of Chapter 58 of the General Statutes, in relation to Savings Banks, passed June session, 1869.

By Mr. Walker of Portsmouth.—To amend the character of the Portsmouth Savings Bank, approved June 26, 1823.

By Mr. Baker of Pittsfield.—A bill in relation to the public printing.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Popular Tonic of the Age.

The day has gone by when a medicine without merit could command and retain the confidence of the world. Advertising induces the public to try many things, but in this shrewd and thoughtful age, words will not suffice without proofs, and it is by the exercise of their private judgment, men determine the relative value of the various articles recommended to their notice through the business columns of newspapers. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS has now been subjected to this searching ordeal for more than eighteen years, and the result is that it stands at the head of the class of remedies to which it belongs.

It has distanced and lived down innumerable competitors, and is to-day the Standard Vegetable Tonic of the western world. The happy effects which have followed its use in cases of dyspepsia, biliousness, nervous affections, intermittent fevers and general debility, and as a constitutional invigorant, has established it in universal confidence. Nothing can ever shake its reputation, for it is based on the individual experiences of tens of thousands of witnesses, embracing prominent and well known citizens of every profession, occupation and class.

There is not a city, town or settlement, in the United States where it is not a medicinal staple. No druggist or general dealer would consider his stock complete without it, and the returns of the internal revenue department show that its sales exceed those of any other proprietary restorative manufactured on this side of the Atlantic.

The beneficial results derived during a long series of years from the use of Hostetter's Bitters, have convinced the whole community that the only true way to restore to health a broken down or debilitated system, or to put the human body on its defence when exposed to unwholesome influences, is to invigorate, regulate and purify it at one and the same time.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1863.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being other wise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which feed the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12

"Children's Lives Saved for 50 Cts."

THOUSANDS OF CHILDREN DIE ANNUNUALLY OF CROUP. Now, Mothers, if you would spend 50 cents, and always have a bottle of DR. TOBIAS' VENETIAN LINIMENT in the house, you never need fear losing your little one when attacked with this complaint. It is now 22 years since I have put up my Liniment, and never heard of a child dying of Croup when my Liniment was used; but hundreds of cures have been reported to me, and many state if it was $10 per bottle they would not be without it. Besides which, it is a certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throat, Swellings, Mumps, Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Spasms, Old Sores and Pains in the Limb, Back, Chest. No one who once tries it is ever without it. It is warranted perfectly safe to take internally. Full directions with every bottle. Sold by the Druggists and Storekeepers in the United States. CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosciusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively, in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung disease in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says: "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says; I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedy, and take its place of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

Physicians do not recommend a medicine which has no merits, what they say about

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM,

Can be taken as a fact. Let all afflicted test it at once. Sold by all Medicine Dealers.

A RADICAL REVOLUTION

Has been accomplished in hair dyes. The horrible compounds containing LEAD, SALT and SULPHUR are discarded. The leading chemists implore the public not to use them, and Professor Chilton, whose reputation is second to that of no analytic chemist in America, has recommended

Consisting of Music, Recitations, Elegant Tableaux,

and PANTOMIMES, under new and original phases.

The Costumes, Crowns, Caps, Harps, Wreaths, &c., with Floral Decorations and Illuminations, will be splendid. The single, beautiful Scene with the unique and unmatched FAIRY PHAETON, containing Flora, Queen of the Meadows, drawn by six Fairies, will be worth the price of admission.

The Fairy Car, Caps, Crowns, Golden Lyres, Harp, and other embellishments, have been produced at a large sacrifice of time and some money, and are all done by the individual head and hand of T. P. MOSES, who respectfully solicits the attendance of his friends and the public at this, his benefit occasion—five nights.

STONE & MURRAY have a Circus which wields an unquestionable ascendancy in the realms of amusements. Under their supervision it has attained a popularity alike significant of their superior qualifications as managers, and the unequaled splendor of the entertainments they give their patrons.—Brooklyn Eagle.

AMERICAN PROTESTANT ASSOCIATION.—The following officers were installed in Kearsarge Lodge No. 1, in this city last week, by A. C. Smith, D. D. G. M., of Boston. This is the only Lodge in this State.

Wm. O. Sides, W. M.; A. H. Gilbert, W. D. M.; A. C. Anderson, R. S.; D. Tetherly, F. S.; Geo. P. Edny, Treas.; W. Sartwell Cond.; Wm. Hudson, A. C.; J. W. Fogg, Chap.; F. C. Staples, I. T.; E. K. Amerzeen, O. T.

☞ The Journal laugheth at Gen. Marston's chances for the Senatorship, or at the Portland Press for saying the Journal favors him, — and says aha! ha!!

The Journal also, a week since, kindly expressed its willingness that this Chronicle might get the State Printing, provided it does not return to Concord, —where the Journal, (unlike almost all other people outside of the Capital,) thinks it ought to go.

THE FOURTH.—The call for a meeting to arrange for a Fantastic parade on the coming 4th of July has met with a prompt response from old and young of all classes. Some of our well known citizens who were boys years ago will be found on the march among the disguised masqueraders next month. Mr. Wilber I. Trafton has recruited 167 volunteers for the occasion and Rye and Kittery send word that they will contribute to the Regiment. The prospects for a long procession are decidedly good.

☞ In 1847, we think, the P. S. & P. R. R. was leased to the Eastern, and the B. & M. Roads. We recollect that Mr. Joseph B. Morss, of the Newburyport Herald, on which we were then employed, said on returning from the stockholders, meeting, that the action reminded him of the girl who when asked what she was crying about replied, blubberingly, that she was fearing she might get married, and have a baby, and the baby fall into the fire—Oh, dear!

Now, some of the stockholders of the Portland Road thinking the Boston Roads are making too good a thing out of the lease, desire to terminate it. The annual meeting will be held at Kittery, to-day. F.

We learn that there was no authority for the recent statement that Supt. Chase declines a re-election.

The Chronicle finally awakes to the necessity of improving the exterior of the City Building, and offers some good suggestions to that end. Good. Now, as a member of the City Government, let him urge the matter in council, and persist in it until the desired object is attained. The sentiment of the community, in this matter, is a unit, we feel sure.—Portsmouth Journal.

We did not know before, that the Chronicle was a member of the City Government, though we did duly appreciate that the great popularity of the paper with the public, is a strong recommendation to favor, for its proprietors and others connected with it; probably more so than with any other paper ever printed here. And as to just waking up to the subject of improving the wretched appearance of the old Market — both the Chronicle and its publisher referred to, have several times spoken in favor of it, while the Journal was asleep; and but for the opposition in the Board of Aldermen, of the Journal's pet candidate for Mayor (as we stated a week or two since,) the improvement would have been decided on ere this, we think.

Correspondence of the Chronicle and Gazette.

KITTERY, ME., June 4.

The Confectionery Shop of Darius F. Williams, at Kittery Point, was burned about 11 o'clock Friday night; insured $300. Mr. Williams was agent for some Stocking Company, and put out work for them; but I believe he had not a large stock on hand.

Wentworth Encampment, G. A. R., on Friday evening elected the following officers: M. F. Wentworth, P. C.; A. Fernald, S. V. C.; H. W. Taylor, J. V. C.; S. A. James, Adjt.; F. C. Eaton, Q. M.; J. J. Lambert, Chaplain; L. L. Goodrich, Surgeon; D. H. Nason, Officer of the Day; R. C. Philbrick, Officer of the Guard; Moses Berry, Q. M. Sergeant. K. M.

For the Chronicle and Gazette.

THE COUNTY BARN HUMBUG.—The report of the County Treasurer shows an increase of $26,860 in the expenses for the fiscal year ending May 12th, while the expenditures for 1868–9 were $21,889 more than for the preceding year, $20,000 of that amount being the appropriation for the county farm. The county indebtedness was increased during the fiscal year just closed, $26,786. These are suggestive figures. They show how dearly the people of Rockingham County are paying for their whistle, which their mis-representatives in the legislature of 1868 purchased in defiance of nearly an unanimous vote of the county against it in 1867. The vote of this city was 1956 against the proposition to 7 for it. Portsmouth pays about one third of the county tax and the extravagance of the county farm swindle adds heavily to the amount of tax to be collected the present year. The state tax assessed the city of Portsmouth this year is $30,078, the same amount being paid last year. The county tax last year was $17,885.64; this year it is $21,822.05—an increase of $3,936.41. The contrast is greater when it is known that while Portsmouth has paid a state tax of $60,156 for the past two years, the state debt has been reduced $700,000; but although our citizens have paid $39,707.69 county tax in the same time and the county receipts have increased $27,780 over last year, the indebtedness of the county is $137,000, an increase of $26,786!

We do not attribute this unfavorable exhibit wholly to the county farm business, but a very large share of the increased expense is solely due to that measure. The bad precedent, however, is established, that the people of Rockingham county may quietly vote down a measure, expensive and not needed, and their representatives immediately vote $20,000 or more for a Lunatic Asylum at Gosport; and experience renders the matter less absurd than it would have been considered three years ago, prior to the county farm humbug. TAX PAYER.

From the Portsmouth Journal.

The Concerts advertised by Mr. T. P. Moses, to take place Wednesday and Thursday of next week promise to be very fine. A critical examination of the paraphernalia which is to be used on these occasions show them to be really beautiful in design and execution and will serve to convey to the beholder in the most appropriate manner the thoughts and sentiments which each tableau treats. We believe he becomes the greatest artist who clothes the highest and the noblest sentiments in the most suitable garb of form, light, shade, color. Mr. Moses, we feel sure, dwells not upon the signs of ideas but seeks to produce them with all those accessories which give naturalness and effectiveness to the whole. For this end and to this effect he has expended much time and labor. Each of his concerts have excelled the other, and all those who love Art better than Clog dancing, will receive much benefit by attending these exhibitions. There is a necessity for the encouragement of such public performances among us, for they present a study which elevates and refines the moral nature

The tug boat "Clara Bateman," recently purchased at Philadelphia by our pilots for general purposes, went to Newburyport a few days since to tow to sea the new Ship Importer recently launched there.

—OF THE—
CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILROAD CO.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad

is completed and running from RICHMOND, Va., to the celebrated WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, in West Va., 227 miles. It is being rapidly extended to the Ohio River, 200 miles further, making in all 427 miles.

In its progress Westward, it penetrates and opens up to market the Wonderful Coal Deposits of the Kanawha Region in West Virginia. And thus brings the superior and abundant Coals of that section into communication with the Iron Ores of Virginia and Ohio, and the Western, South Western and Eastern markets.

When completed it will connect the superior harbor facilities of the Chesapeake Bay with reliable navigation on the Ohio River, and thus with the entire system of Railroad and Water transportations of the great West and South-West.

It will make a short, easy, cheap and favorable route from the West, to the sea, and will command a large share of the enormous freights seeking transportation to the coast

It will thus become one of the most important and profitable East and West Trunk Lines of Railroad in the country, and command a trade of immense value.

The completed portion of the Road is doing a profitable and increasing Business, and is fully equal in value to the whole amount of the mortgage upon the entire Line—($15,000,000.)

The loan of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company, being a First Mortgage upon the entire Line, property and equipment, worth when completed at least $30,000,000, is therefore one of the most substantial, conservative and reliable Railroad Loans ever offered in the market, and is peculiarly adapted to the wants of

INVESTORS and CAPITALISTS,

Who desire to make their investments with the most satisfactory assurance of positive and undoubted Security.

The Bonds are in denominations of

$1000, $500 and $100,

and may be had COUPON or REGISTERED.

Interest Six per cent. per annum, payable MAY 1st and NOVEMBER 1st.

PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

Price 90 and accrued Interest in Currency, at which price they pay nearly Seven per cent. in gold on their cost.

AYER'S

HAIR VIGOR,

For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.

A Dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for Preserving the Hair. Faded or gray Hair is even restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use.

Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remains can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor, can only benefit but not harm it.

If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

Morning Chronicle.

From the Suncook Valley Times.

MRS. POLLY CILLEY BUNKER.—Died at Barnstead Parade, March 19, Mrs. Polly Cilley, widow of Abraham Bunker, aged 81 years. She was born in Barnstead, May 2d, 1789, and was the daughter of Mr. Richard Sinkler, (now written Sinclair) and her mother's name was Betsey Hodgdon, daughter of the late Charles Hodgdon of Barnstead. Her father was the son of Capt. Richard Sinkler who served in the French, and with his son Richard also, in the Revolutionary War. Capt. Sinkler was one of the first settlers of Gilmanton. He afterwards removed to Barnstead, and built the first framed house in that town, near the spot on the old Province Road, where now stands the residence of the late Elder Nathaniel Wilson, and his son-in-law, Mr. James Woodes.

The wife of Capt. Sinkler was Polly Cilley, and sister of Gen. Joseph Cilley of Nottingham Square, of Revolutionary memory. (Mrs. B. was therefore named for her Grandmother Sinkler.) She was a woman of great strength and courage and endured the hardships of the first settlers with unusual fortitude. During one cold winter, after settling in Barnstead, and in the absence of her husband from home, at a time also when the snow was very deep and the cold intense, she and her boys hauled hay on handsleds, from a stack in the Tasker meadows at the lower part of the town, a distance of six miles, to feed a cow and a yoke of oxen.

When Capt. Sinkler was getting timber to build his house, (above named,) his little son, Samuel, a lad of seven years old, strayed away from his father in the woods and, though diligent search was made for him with lanterns that evening, he could not be found. The search was renewed the next morning by all the people that could be collected, and he was, at length, found. They asked him where he slept the previous night. He said, "I crept into a hollow log and slept till a Molly-muffy-pole came and knocked on the log in the morning and waked me up." This Molly-muffy-pole was a Partridge that came in the morning and drummed on the log.

The wife of Capt. Sinkler had a sister Sarah Cilley who was captured by the Indians during the French War. She went out to catch a horse in a pasture a little below Nottingham Square, near the old mansion where her father lived and where her brother, afterward Gen. Joseph Cilley was born, to go to mill; and while there, some Indians who were lurking about in the woods seized her and carried her off with other captives, through the wilderness to Canada.

After she had been with her captors nine months, she was, one night, left with seven male Indians, near the line between Canada and New York. On that night, the Indians drank freely of Rum, and made themselves merry over their recent success in bringing in a larger number of scalps and captives taken from the lower part of what is now New Hampshire and Massachusetts. At a late hour in the night, these Indians had become quite drunk. The hands of their captive, young Miss Cilley, had been tied, and she secured to a tree; but with true Cilley courage, she resolved to make one desperate effort to escape.

She succeeded in working her hands free from the cords which had bound them, and then unfastened herself from the tree. She then caught up one of the tomahawks, which lay beside one of the Indians, and with the bravery of a heroine, cleft the heads of six of the red-skins, almost instantly. When she came to the seventh, she only stunned him by her first blow, when he raised himself up upon his knees: a second blow from her hatchet dispatched him.

She then ran through the woods in the direction, as nearly as she could, toward the camp of the English and Colonial troops which were then lying just over the line in the State of New York. As the morning broke up on the fugitive from captivity, what was her joy, when she heard the drums beat in the American camp. She soon encountered the advance guard of our army and made known her situation. She asked one of the sentinels, if he knew one Capt. Joseph Cilley who might be in that division of the American army, he replied, "He is my Captain; I shall soon be relieved and will conduct you to him." Her cup of joy now overflowed. She was soon with her dear brother; and he, with emotions not to be expressed, embraced his long lost sister.

He soon procured a horse, and his sister rode on horse-back by the way of the city of New York, to her home in Nottingham; where she arrived safe, to her own great joy, and that of her parents and all her friends.

Mrs. Bunker had only one brother, Mr. Charles Sinclair, who died in Barnstead several years since. He was the father of Hon. John G. Sinclair, now of Littleton. She has also had two sisters: Nancy who was the wife of Obediah Eastman of Dorchester. She and her husband are both dead. Her sister Eliza, also deceased, was the wife of William Jenkins, of Barnstead, who still survives.

Mrs. Bunker lost several children in infancy and early childhood. Her children who lived to grow up, were Hannah T., wife of Mr. Hiram Tibbets of Northfield, both dead; Charles S. who lives in Rumney; His wife still survives; Mary Ann, the present wife of Dr. J. Blake of Gilmanton; Enos A. who now resides in Minnesota; Cyrus E. who lives in Bethlehem; John Elbridge, who also resided in Minnesota, and Eliza S. the wife of Danl. F. Davis of Barnstead. She has left 29 Grandchildren and 5 Great-grand-children. She was a woman of an iron constitution, strong mind, and sound judgment.

Correspondence of Chronicle and Gazette.

WOLFEBORO', June 2.

This "corner"—unsurpassed by any other, for true loveliness—will soon be one place sought for by the votaries of health and pleasure, as well as the lovers of the grand and beautiful. The White Mountain Region of the old Granite State can never grow old. It has long been, and ever will be, the haunt of earth's humanity, and every year its attractions are becoming more and more, as people leave the scalding heat of the cities for the pure, cool mountain air, and desert the dusty, crowded marts, for the grand shrine of Nature's omnipotence; they are constantly learning the advantages of a mountain tour, and, returning, tell their cousins, uncles and friends, who in turn make the experiment, and ere many days the gates of the cities will have to shut down to give tired humanity a taste of the bounteous feasts Nature has in store for those who will but seek them.

The appearance of the whole country round about is charming. The grand old mountains never loomed up more gloriously, the quiet waters of beautiful Winnepesaukie were never clearer, and Dame Nature seems putting on her brightest smiles and gayest vestments to welcome the merry throng. Of all places for recreation, to be found among the "Hills," Wolfeboro' is one of the first, being situated as it is on a wide spread valley, where the air has room to become dried and purified, and where one enjoys the most bounteous feast of reason and flow of soul to be dreamed of. The greatest of anticipations are now entertained for the coming season, and already many engagements have been made for accommodations. The "almanax" and wonderful "oldest inhabitants" say that, from all the signs given, a warm summer is before us. Such being the case, business can but be thriving. Every preparation is being made for an immense influx of pleasure travel.

The Pavilion has had an immense wing added, which enlarges the dining room so that 300 people can gather around its festal board at one time, and have plenty of elbow room. Now apartments are added, and the capacity of this favored house greatly increased. A large stud of horses has been engaged for the stables, with experienced drivers.

The Pavilion will put out its latch string June 20th, and from then until the first of September the faithful will throng its hospitable halls. It is truly a pleasing feature to notice how people are travelling earlier in the season than usual, showing that experience is a teacher in dictating the time of year in which to travel, as well as other matters. Here are already many people making the tour of the lake.

The cosy little steamer "Chocorua," Capt. Wiggin in command is making its regular trips,—will make the daily voyage to Center Habor after June 15th. The B. & M. R. R. is making preparations for an extended travel, by extra trains and increased facilities. The Senter house at Center Harbor has a new wing added, and is much enlarged. WILSON.

—A little chap had a dirty face and his teacher told him to go and wash it. He went away and after a few minutes came back with the lower part of his countenance tolerably clean, while the upper part was dirty and wet.

"Johnny," said the teacher, "why didn't you wash your face?"

"I did wash it, sir."

"You didn't wipe it all over, then."

"I did wipe it as high as my shirt would go."

—At a religious meeting among the blacks, a colored preacher requested that some brother should pray. A half-witted fellow commenced a string of words without meaning. At this the parson raised his head and inquired, "Who's dat prayin'? Dat you brudder Mose? You let somebody pray dat's better acquainted wid de Lord."

Health Regulations.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH of the City of Portsmouth call the attention of the public to the following sections of City Ordinances No. 4 and No. 100, and invite all interested in the preservation of health in the City to aid them in the execution of their duty.

ORDINANCE NO. 4:

SEC. 3.—All waste water of houses, yards, cellars, sinks, pumps, &c., shall be conveyed away by their owners or occupiers to the common sewers, or to such places as the Health Officers may direct.

SEC. 4. No person shall be allowed to throw any vegetable or dead animal substance, or any other matter capable of producing infection, into any street, lane, alley or dock, or upon any wharf, but shall bury them or throw them into the river below low-water mark.

SEC. 5. The contents of vaults and privies shall not be permitted to rise within one foot of the surface of the earth. And all owners or occupiers of buildings having such vaults or privies as may require it, shall cause them to be emptied within ten days from the promulgation of this ordinance, and in future on or before the first day of May in each year. And any such owner or occupier neglecting so to do, shall forfeit and pay for every such neglect a sum not less than three nor more than twenty dollars, and a like sum for every week's neglect after the time above specified.

SEC. 11. The health officers may give written notice to the owner or occupier of any building, vessel or enclosure, to remove or destroy any nuisance or other thing declared by them, on examination, to be injurious to the public health, within a certain time limited therein; and in case such owner or occupier—to whom such notice has been given to him, or left at his usual place of abode—shall neglect to comply therewith, the said health officers may, by direction of the mayor and accompanied by the city marshal, forcibly enter such building, vessel, or enclosure, and cause the said nuisance or other thing aforesaid to be removed or destroyed.

SEC. 14. The owner or occupier of any building, vessel or enclosure shall be liable to pay the expense of the removal or destruction of any such nuisance or other thing, as aforesaid, including fees of the health officers who order or cause the same to be removed; and the same may be recovered by action to be brought in the name of the city.

SEC. 17. Any person or persons who shall violate any rule or regulation, or commit any act forbidden in any section of this ordinance, to which no special penalty is annexed, shall forfeit and pay a sum not less than one dollar nor more than twenty dollars, to be recovered by complaint before the police court of this city.

ORDINANCE NO. 100.

SEC. 1. When any householder shall know that any person within his family is taken sick of the Small Pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, he shall immediately give notice thereof to the Health Officers.

SEC. 2. When any physician shall know that any person whom he is called to visit is infected with the Small Pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, such physician shall immediately give notice thereof to the Health Officers.

SEC. 3. If any such householder or physician shall refuse or neglect to give the notice required in the preceding sections, he shall for each refusal or neglect, forfeit the sum of twenty dollars, to be recovered by either of the Health Officers in the name of the city.

☞ Mr. Moses' Concerts, for Wednesday and Thursday evenings, will recall his splendid Floral Concerts of former days—in which line few can equal him.

☞ A refreshing shower of rain fell on Monday afternoon, laying the dust and invigorating vegetation, and cheering and delighting all but those who had their "Monday's wash" out to dry.

☞ Types sometimes make people utter things which astonish themselves. In a late issue, the compositor made us say that the "character" of the Portsmouth Savings Bank needs amending; but we didn't write it that way. We wrote that the "charter" needs amending—the character of the institution is high.

☞ Mrs. Wentworth, wife of Gen. Mark T. Wentworth of Kittery, received a painful and serious injury on the 5th inst., in a singular manner. She was engaged in feeding her poultry, and separating the hens from the ducks, when the old rooster flew at her and struck her in the leg, wounding her severely. She had to be carried into the house, and has not been able to step since; and suffers much pain.

P. S. & P. R. Railroad. — The annual meeting of the Stockholders of the P. S. & P. R. R. was held at Kittery on Monday. The old board of Directors was re-elected without opposition, save Mr. E. A. Rollins, who declined serving, and whose place was filled by Hon. A. Huntington of Salem. By a stock vote the corporation voted to cancel the lease of their Road to the Eastern and Boston & Maine Roads, and the Directors were instructed to take proper steps in relation thereto. The meeting was fully attended. Considerable discussion was had on various votes offered, but the above is the substance of the votes passed.

☞ The meeting called for this (Tuesday) evening at the Common Council Room, City Building, should be attended by all who are willing to assist in getting up a good celebration of the coming anniversary of American Independence. The only stir we had in this city on that day last year, was the procession of Odds and Ends; and the prime mover on that occasion is again stirring this year, and about 200 persons have already enrolled themselves as candidates for glory under his banner. The ball is started, and only needs to be kept rolling to ensure such a celebration as Portsmouth has not enjoyed for many years. Our streets can accommodate a very long procession; and every walking or riding member, as soon as the parade is dismissed, will be allowed to procure strawberries and cream.

The Circus. — Stone & Murray's great Circus is coming, with a larger troupe of performers than they have ever had before, and will exhibit in this city on Saturday, June 4th. Stone & Murray will introduce two new excitements, free; the first on the morning of the exhibition day, in the form of a grand street pageant, preceded by the elegant band chariot containing Prof. O. P. Perry's famed orchestra, drawn by forty horses, managed by Mons. J. H. Paul. The second free exhibition will be a marvellous display of human intrepidity up in the air by the daring funambulist, M'lle Jeanette Ellsler, who will walk from the ground to the apex of the Circus Pavilion, and return, on a slender cord. This startling gratuitous performance will commence about half past twelve o'clock, noon, and the unique nature of the feat cannot fail to command attention. It is evident that a Circus which can exhibit year after year with constantly increasing success, must possess attractions of a vastly superior character to those offered by the ordinary travelling companies.—*Mer. —OF THE—

CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILROAD CO.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad

Is completed and running from RICHMOND, Va., to the celebrated WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, in West Va., 227 miles. It is being rapidly extended to the Ohio River, 200 miles further, making in all 427 miles.

In its progress Westward, it penetrates and opens up to market the Wonderful Coal Deposits of the Kanawha Region in West Virginia. And thus brings the superior and abundant Coals of that section into communication with the Iron Ores of Virginia and Ohio, and the Western, South Western and Eastern markets.

When completed it will connect the superior harbor facilities of the Chesapeake Bay with reliable navigation on the Ohio River, and thus with the entire system of Railroad and Water transportations of the great West and South-West.

It will make a short, easy, cheap and favorable route from the West, to the sea, and will command a large share of the enormous freights seeking transportation to the coas

It will thus become one of the most important and profitable East and West Trunk Lines of Railroad in the country, and command a trade of immense value.

The completed portion of the Road is doing a profitable and increasing Business, and is fully equal in value to the whole amount of the mortgage upon the entire Line—($15,000,000.)

The loan of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company, being a First Mortgage upon the entire Line, property and equipments, worth when completed at least $30,000,000, is therefore one of the most substantial, conservative and reliable Railroad Loans ever offered in the market, and is peculiarly adapted to the wants of

INVESTORS and CAPITALISTS,

Who desire to make their investments with the most satisfactory assurance of positive and undoubted Security.

The Bonds are in denominations of

$1000, $500 and $100,

and may be had COUPON or REGISTERED.

Interest Six per cent. per annum, payable MAY 1st and NOVEMBER 1st.

PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

Price 90 and accrued Interest in Currency, at which price they pay nearly Seven per cent. in gold on their cost.

All Government Bonds and other Securities dealt in at the Stock Exchange, received in exchange, at their full market value, and Bonds sent to all parts of the country, free of Express charges.

They can be obtained by ordering direct from us or through any responsible Bank or Banker in any part of the country.

New Hampshire Items.

William West, of Bradford, was so badly beaten by James Russell, that his life is despaired of.

Messrs. Morse & French, managers of the Pemigewasset House, at Plymouth, had a rush Tuesday, at the Montreal R. R. meeting, which did not appear to disturb them at all. They dined nearly 600 guests, at admirably spread tables, and were successful in making all look happy, notwithstanding a notice was posted on the wall, "Bar closed to-day."

Col. Paran Stevens proposes to give the High School of Claremont, two full length portraits,—one of Daniel Webster, by Hoyt, and the other of Washington.

The following remarkable instance of contagion was communicated to the Monitor by Mr. N. P. Rines:—Andrew Goodhue went from Manchester to Autrim, last town meeting day, and at the time had the measles. As the result of his visit, 83 men and boys, who were at the town house, were taken down with measles within 24 hours of each other.

The amount of damage to the Montreal R. R. by the October freshet was great. There were over 70 places where culverts were carried away, together with breaks.

Col. John E. Bickford of Dover was thrown from his carriage, Monday, and narrowly escaped being killed; his injuries about the head being of a serious nature.

A young married lady in Franklin took eighteen grains of arsenic, on account of jealousy of her husband, but a Doctor saved her.

Mr. Benjamin Mills, a well-known citizen of Rochester, was killed on Wednesday, June 1st, very suddenly. He entered the stall of a horse to feed him, when the animal became frightened and trampled on him, mangling him dreadfully, and causing death before assistance could arrive.

Mr. Gilman Crowell, trainmaster on the Concord Railroad, was badly injured on Tuesday last by being caught between a locomotive and a car.

Mr. John Garland of Gorham, while in a state of somnambulism, walked out of a second story window at Portland, a few days since, and broke his legs.

—The New York Tribune, commenting upon the fact that a Georgian, who was quite ravished by the histrionic excellence of a Mrs. Oats, threw upon the stage a complete set of furs, says: "It is hoped that this utilitarian taste will pass into a precedent. We have (we regret to say) seen actresses to whom the gift of a box of soap and another box of towels would have been more appropriate. We have seen actresses whose dresses (to borrow Talleyrand's mot) 'began too late and left off too soon,' and to whom a few gowns of the usual length would have been a seasonable donation. Flowers are well enough in their way, but they do not supply the solid necessities of the theatrical ladies, unless they are accompanied by ingeniously-hidden greenbacks. We never see one of these variegated bunches thrown, without thinking of the exclamation of Pauline, in 'The Lady of Lyons,' "Ma, I wish I knew who sent me these 'ere greens."

—A writer in the Chicago Advance says:—"Not long since I heard sung in the church the anthem 'Rock of Ages,' in which there is a solo to the words, 'Should my tears,' etc., which was sung as follows:—

"Shoo-hoo-hood my-hi-te-hears
Fo-eh-ver-her flow-ho,
Shoo-hoo-hood my-hi-ze-heal
No languor kno-ho,
This-his for her si-hin could
No-hot ah-ha-to-hone,
Thou-how muh-hust sa-have,
And thou-how ah-ha-alone,
In my hand no price I bring,
Simply to thy craw-hoss I-hil-cling."

—There once lived in a village not more than three hundred miles west of New York, a certain tradesman who had a large family, and "little treasures" were continually being added to his board. One day one of his little boys happened to be in a store, and was thus interrogated by a young man present: "John, how many brothers and sisters have you got?" "I don't know," answered the boy, "I hain't been home since morning."

ECONOMY IN ICE is to be reached in this wise—:Make a double pocket of strong woolen cloth, no matter how coarse and faded it is. Have a space of two inches or so between the inner or outer pocket, and pack this space as full as possible with feathers. You have no need to use geese feathers; hen's feathers are just as good. With a pocket thus constructed and kept closely tied at the mouth, a few pounds of ice may be kept a week.

—"Why do you call me Birdie, my dear?" inquired a wife of her husband. "Because," was the answer, "you are always associated in my mind with a bill."

—"Mary, my love, this apple dumpling is not half done." "Well, finish it, then, my dear."

TO RAISE GIANT ASPARAGUS.—A writer in one of the early volumes of the Horticulturist, (Mr. Downing, we believe,) tells how to grow common asparagus so that it will always rival any giant production. He says:

"Every one who has seen my beds has begged me for the seed, thinking it a new sort; but I have pointed to the manure heap, the farmer's best bank, and told them the secret all lay there. The seed was only such as might be had in every garden. About the first of November, as soon as the frost has well blackened the asparagus tops, I take a scythe and mow all close down to the surface of the bed; let it lie a day or two, then set fire to the heap of stalks; burn it to ashes, and spread the ashes over the bed. I then go to my barnyard; I take a load of clean, fresh stable manure, and add thereto half a bushel of ben dung, turning over and working the whole well together throughout. This makes a pretty powerful compost. I apply one such load to every twenty feet in length of my asparagus beds, which are six feet wide. With a strong three-pronged spud or fork I dig this dressing under. The whole is now left for the winter.

In the spring, as early as possible, I turn the top of the bed over lightly once more. Now, as the asparagus grows naturally on the edge of the ocean, and loves salt water, I give it an annual supply of its favorite condiment. I cover the surface of the bed about a quarter of an inch thick with fine packing salt; it is not too much. As the spring rains come down, it gradually dissolves. Not a weed will appear during the whole season. Everything else,—pigweed, chick-weed, purslane—all refuse to grow on the top of my briny asparagus beds. But it would do your heart good to see the strong, stout, tender stalks of the vegetable itself, pushing through the surface early in the season. I do not stretch a point at all when I say that they are often as large round as my hoe handle, and as tender and succulent as any I ever tasted. The same round of treatment is given to my bed every year."

NOT A MARRYING MAN.—A year or two before his death Artemus Ward visited the Mormons at Salt Lake City. On his return he wrote a book giving an account of what he saw and heard, in which among other things he tells of a narrow escape he made from being married to seventeen young widows, as follows:—

I regret to say that efforts were made to make a Mormon of me while I was in Utah.

It was leap year while I was there, and seventeen young widows, the wives of a deceased Mormon, offered me their hearts and hands. I called on them one day, and taking their soft white hands in mine, which made eighteen hands together, I found them in tears.

And I said, "Why is this? What is the reason of this thusness?"

They hove a sigh, seventeen sighs of different size. Then said:—

"Oh! soon thou will be gonested away."

I told them when I got ready to leave a place, I wentest.

They said, "Doth not like us?"

I said, "I doth, I doth."

I also said, "I hope your intentions are honorable, as I am a lone child, my parents are far, far away."

They then said, "Will not marry us?"

I said. "Oh! no, it cannot was."

Again they asked me to marry them, and again I declined, when they cried:—

"Oh! cruel man! this is too much, oh! too much!"

I told them it was on account of the muchness that I declined.

THE BISHOP ELECT OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.—Rev. William Woodruff Niles is about thirty-five years old. He was born in Hatley, Canada West, but is of New England parentage, his father being from Massachusetts, his mother from Connecticut. He graduated at Trinity College, Hartford, and received his theological education at the Berkeley Divinity School, Middletown, Conn. He was ordained Deacon by Bishop Williams, at Middletown, May 2d, 1861. Soon after his ordination he went to St. Philip's Church, Wiscasset, Maine, and while there, received Priest's orders from the hands of the revered Bishop Burgess. Between five and six years ago, he was elected Professor of Latin and of Literature in Trinity College. When the President of that college, Rev. Dr. Kerfoot, was elected Bishop of the Diocese of Pittsburg, in 1865, we understand that the Presidency was offered to Prof. Niles, but he would not take it.

It is too soon to say whether he will accept the Bishopric of New Hampshire or not. If he does, it is hoped that he will make Concord his place of residence, and that in due time St. Paul's Church will be made the Cathedral of the Diocese, though the Convention does not wish him confined by parochial cares. And is it making too light of grave matters to state a fact, not before in print, that when the sum fixed upon for his salary was announced, a great white rooster flew upon the fence around the church in which the Convention was sitting, and gave a lusty, vigorous crow.—Providence Journal.

—Bromley of the Hartford Post thus retracts a reflection on the bald head of the New London Star; "We had no business to be fooling with Ruddock. We know—of course everybody knows—that it was brains that 'knocked the hair off Ruddock's head.' It is a great credit to Ruddock that he is bald. And so long as he can fold his ears over the top of his head—really what's the use of his having any hair, any way?"

—Why does the washing come home on a Saturday? Because it's the close (clothes) of the week.

—A standing dish—stood-oysters.

Cabin, $5.00; Deck, $4.00.

Baggage checked through and transferred in New York free of charge.

New York trains leave the Old Colony and Newport Railway Depot corner of South and Kneeland Streets, daily (Sundays excepted,) as follows: at 4.30 P. M., arriving in Fall River 80 min. in advance of the regular Steamboat Train, which leaves Boston at 5.30 P. M., connecting at Fall River with the new and magnificent Steamers PROVIDENCE, Capt. B. M. Simmons, and BRISTOL, Capt. A. Simmons. These steamers are the fastest and most reliable boats on the Sound, built expressly for speed, safety and comfort. This Line connects with all the Southern Boats and Railroad Lines from New York going West and South, and convenient to the California Steamers.

"To Shippers of Freight," this Line, with its new and extensive freight accommodations in Boston, and large pier in New York, (exclusively for the business of the Line,) is supplied with facilities for direct and passenger business which cannot be surpassed. Freight always taken at low rates, and forwarded with despatch.

New York Express Freight Train leaves Boston at 1.30 P. M.; goods arrive in New York next morning before 10 A. M. Freight leaving New York reaches Boston on the following day, at 9.30 A. M.

For tickets, berths and staterooms, apply at the Company's office at No. 3 Old State House, corner of Washington and State Streets, and at old Colony and Newport Railroad Depot, corner of South and Kneeland Streets, Boston.

Steamers leave New York daily, (Sundays excepted,) Pier 38 North River, foot of Chambers Street, at 5 P. M.

THE COLORED PREACHER AND THE HARVARD PROFESSOR.—The following tribute to one of the colored preachers of Boston, by Rev. Dr. A. P. Peabody of Harvard University, is copied from the Monthly Review and Religious Journal, for June.

Some twelve or more years ago, I chanced to stray one Sunday evening into the Joy Street Church. I found the pulpit occupied by a man as black as my coat. To my dismay he took for his text the four beasts (or cherubforms) of the Apocalypse. That he could manage them or escape being torn in pieces by them was wholly beyond my expectation. I had never ventured to grapple with them till I took courage from him. But I soon found that he had the mastery of them. He preached one of the most striking sermons I ever heard. I quoted a large part of it, giving due credit to its author, in my next Sunday's sermon; and it remains still as distinct in my memory as if I had heard it but yesterday.

He rightly, as I suppose, defined the four cherub-forms as symbolizing the four cardinal types of spiritual excellence, belonging to the individual Christian worthy of the name, to the church on earth so far as it embodies the character of its Lord and Master, to the church of the redeemed in heaven. Each type was dealt with as by a mind familiar with the mysteries of the "life hid with Christ in God." When he came to the eagle, he seemed to have borrowed his pinions. The following is the substance of some part of what he said on this head; but I cannot do justice to his burning words, still less to the glow that lighted up his dusky countenance, and the intense, rapt fervor of his utterance:

"The eagle, on his upward flight, keeps his wings evenly balanced, thus floating heavenward as if borne by the very breath of heaven. But were either of his wings crippled, he would turn over in the air, and fall heavily to the ground. The Christian's wings are faith and good works. So long as they are in equipoise—faith embodied in a life of active and loving duty, duty making faith ever clearer and stronger—the Christian is all the time soaring heavenward. Let him grow either remiss in duty or feeble in faith, his flight is arrested; the broken wing flaps idly at his side; he flounders in midair, sinks rapidly to the earth and grovels there as a mere worlding.

The eagle, as he soars, looks right in the face of the sun, and no mortal can take aim at him; for no human eye can so bear the direct rays of the sun as to give fatal effect to the shot. Thus, Christian, see that you fix your eye steadfastly on the eye of Righteousness. The Old Enemy is on the watch, for your soul; but he cannot look undazzled where you can. So long as your eyes are unto the Lord, he cannot take aim at you; his shots will fall wide of the mark."

On the evening of May 7, at the reception given by Governor Claflin to Hon. Mr. Revels, I saw a venerable negro who at once reminded me of the black preacher. I sought an introduction to him, and asked him if he had preached in Joy Street at such a time. "Yes," said he, "I supplied the pulpit there for three months in brother Grimes' absence. I asked him if he remembered that sermon. He recalled it instantly. He is Rev. Mr. Mars, now pastor of the Revere Street Methodist church.

He is probably but little known in Boston. No one can see him and talk with him without being impressed with the manifest tokens equally of a clear and strong mind and of a saintly purity and elevation of spirit. His congregation is obscure, his place of worship very humble; but if any of the readers of this magazine should be induced to visit it, they will find in the preacher one of the Lord's own—a jewel which, though few may mark its lustre now, will one day shine with purest radiance in the coronet of the King of kings.

—We heard a good story on a certain slow railroad the other day. On the road the train was frequently delayed by cattle upon the track. This had happened several times, but finally the locomotive entered upon clear sailing, and for ten or fifteen miles the train rattled along at a lively jog. All of a sudden, however, the engine began a lively blowing, showing that trouble had come again. At this, one individual, who had been watching the trees fly past the windows, and had just persuaded himself into the belief that he was riding into glory at the rate of a league at a breath, jumped up with surprise, with the ejaculation: "Well, I'll be hanged if we haven't caught up with those blarsted cattle again!"

—First young lady—"So poor Susan is dead?" Second young lady—"Yes, poor thing. She suffered terribly!" "Didn't she? And only think, she couldn't wear that beautiful silk dress her mother gave her, and it is too short for her sister."

—A southern paper announces that the editor is fortified against snake bites. Some one has sent him a barrel of whiskey.

WHAT ARE
DR. J. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS.
They are not a vile fancy drink.
Made of poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Elixirs," "Bitters," "Restorers," "Appetizers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER AND LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter, and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions and remain long unwell. $100 will be given for an incurable case, providing the bones are not destroyed by mineral poisons or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair. THE OLD RELIABLE
NEW ENGLAND FAMILY MEDICINE.
TO BE FOUND IN EVERY VILLAGE AND TOWN IN NEW ENGLAND, IS
DODD'S NERVINE
AND INVIGORATOR.
A THOROUGH TONIC AND STOMACHIC.
DODD'S NERVINE is not a new medicine, but has been before the public for the last fifteen years. Is compounded from the best and purest drugs. Contains no OPIUM STRYCHNINE or MERCURY in any form, and is expressly adapted to the relief and permanent cure of all forms of
NERVOUS DISEASES, &c., &c.,
Coughs, Neuralgia, Female Weaknesses, Colds, Headache, Fainting Fits, Fevers, Convulsions, Palpitation, Fits, Sleeplessness, Restlessness, Biliousness, Dyspepsia, Dizziness, Constipation, Liver Complaint, Children's Troubles Diarrhœa, Consumption, &c., &c., &c.,
DODD'S NERVINE
Is a COMPLETE SPECIFIC for sleeplessness. It soothes the throbbing muscle like magic, and tranquilizes the mind. And everybody knows that good sleep is better than all medicines. And all folks that
CAN'T SLEEP NIGHTS,
Should use this truly wonderful medicine.
DODD'S NERVINE
Is one of the best remedies ever employed in the cure of the numerous and troublesome ailments known as FEMALE COMPLAINTS.
For Whooping Cough.
DODD'S NERVINE is administered with unexampled success. Mothers, remember this and save your little ones the agony of a most distressing complaint. It also works admirably in Measles, bringing out the rash well and leaving the bowels free and healthful. For the diseases which afflict CHILDREN WHILE TEETHING, nothing can furnish more instant or grateful relief. Remember, it contains no OPIUM in any form.
LOOK OUT FOR COLDS.
It is proverbial that people treat a cold (and the generally accompanying cough) as something that will cure itself; but neglect is serious and sometimes fatal. The fame of DODD'S NERVINE in the relief of colds is established. Use this standard remedy, and so far abstain from liquids of all kinds as to keep somewhat thirsty for a few days, and the worst cold will soon be gone.
DODD'S NERVINE
Is a PURE TONIC—harmonizes perfectly with the NERVE FIBRE—gives increased energy to the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, and other viscera—and supplies FRESH LIFE for the waste that is constantly taking place. It operates soothingly—is as pleasant to take as any wine, and with SLEEP AND GOOD DIGESTION, which it promotes, restores the afflicted to sound health of body and quietness of mind. It contains no opium, mercury or strychnine, (so often used for nervous complaints,) and is wholly free from any deleterious drugs whatever. Tens of thousands are testifying to its curative power. my17tw

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 8, 1870.

WHO SHALL BE SENATOR?—The canvassing and wire pulling at Concord is growing warmer as the day for a decision draws near. The violent attacks on Senator Cragin, in some quarters, are re-acting on the authors of the abuse, while Mr. Cragin's friends are firmer in their support. His personal character is unassailable, his record in the Senate is unmarred by a single stain, and he enters the canvass for re-election on his merits as a man faithful to his trusts, right in his convictions and unswerved by flattery or threats. It is characteristic of the man that he frowned upon an attempt to give an important position now occupied by a soldier, whose war record would be an honor to any American, to a Democrat who voted for Grant and whose sole claim to any recognition for being politically virtuous once in his life was that he had a brother who had influence in Republican circles. Senator Cragin cannot be bought or sold; and should he be re-nominated, it will be on his own honest merits and not by the application of greenbacks.

Table Talk.

There are about 800,000 professional singers in France.

Buffalo-hunting is to be the fashionable sport this year.

Emery, the Reform Republican candidate, was elected Mayor of Washington on Monday by 3000 majority. He is a New Hampshire man.

A destructive tornado swept over Scott Country, Ill., on Saturday. It covered an area of four or five miles in length and a mile wide. Fences were demolished and fields of wheat, corn, oats, and garden vegetables were completely destroyed. The largest forest trees were torn up by the roots, and orchards and vineyards were ruined. No lives were lost.

The Massachusetts Senate has passed an eight-hour bill by a vote of 25 to 12.

Drought is complained of out West.

Zoologists predict that in a very few years the buffalo of the western plains will be extinct.

A serious drought prevails about Poughkeepsie, and the heat is intense.

Horace Greeley is ill.

The city of Oaxaca, Mexico, has been visited by a terrible earthquake. 103 persons were killed, and one-third of the city rendered uninhabitable. Life and buildings were destroyed in all parts of the State.

Citizens of Guatemala have invaded Mexico, and proceeded to occupy the land as if they owned it.

A little girl in Brooklyn fell and broke a rum bottle, which she was carrying, and was killed by a piece of the glass which pierced almost to her heart.

THE SENATOR QUESTION.—With not more than one or two exceptions, every Republican paper in the State has taken part in the discussion. The result may be stated as follows:—About four-fifths favor the re-election of Senator Cragin; while but three, the Exeter News Letter, Manchester Mirror and Nashua Telegraph advocate a different selection upon various grounds, but principally upon the ground of "rotation."—Concord Monitor.

☞ The citizens of Portland are making arrangements for a celebration on the 26th instant, in commemoration of the capture of the rebels who in 1865 seized and burned in that harbor the United States revenue cutter Caleb Cushing.

☞ Mrs. Susan Hutchins, aged 70 years, was run over and instantly killed near Kennebunk on Saturday last by a gravel train on the Portland, Saco and Portsmouth Railroad. Being very deaf, she did not hear the whistle.

Mrs. Harriet C. Thomas of Derry, 82 years of age, reads and plays music as correctly and dexterously as many younger players. She also enjoys backgammon and like games, as well as most young people.

Dr. Fletcher of Concord, and Dr. Hatch of Keene, both of the Fish Commission, went to Long Pond for the purpose of looking after the black bass they put into that sheet of water two years ago. They not only found bass about two years old, but the old fish upon the spawning beds with myriads of small fry. They are confident that in a few years the pond will be well stocked.

CONGRESS.—On Monday, the Senate passed a bill prohibiting contracts for Chinese immigration to last more than six months.

A joint resolution for the increase of pay of assistant census marshals was amended and passed. As amended, it provides that the increase shall not exceed 50 per cent. of the present compensation, nor shall the entire compensation be more than eight dollars per day, exclusive of mileage for the time actually employed. An additional allowance will be made when by reason of the sparseness of the population the compensation allowed by law is not sufficient.

A bill repealing all laws authorizing the transportation of merchandise in bond to Mexico was passed.

Mr. Patterson of New Hampshire said that the Secretary of the Treasury was anxious for the passage of the bill, as it would do away with an immense amount of smuggling over the Mexican border.

Mr. Chandler of Michigan said that the saving to be effected by it would amount to $6,000,000 per annum.

Mr. Schenck of Ohio, chairman of the committee of ways and means, reported a bill to authorize the refunding and consolidation of the national debt and for other purposes, which was recommitted and ordered to be printed. Section one authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury to issue, at his discretion, $1,000,000,000 of thirty year four per cent. bonds, the principal and interest payable in coin, and to be exempt from taxation of every description. But nothing in the act is to authorize an increase in the present bonded debt of the United States.

Section two authorizes the exchange of the new bonds for 5-20's, dollar for dollar, or their sale at par and the application of the proceeds to the redemption of the 5-20s.

Section three provides for the classification of the bonds, to be designated by dates and numbers and to be redeemed at a time appointed by the Secretary of the Treasury, the interest to cease three months after.

Section four authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury, at his discretion, to pay and cancel 5-20s with the coin in the treasury, giving public notice of the class, dates and numbers of the bonds which he will redeem, and an opportunity to holders to exchange them for bonds maturing subsequently. The interest on the bonds advertised to be paid cease three months from the date of redemption.

Section five authorizes all the bonds now composing the sinking and special funds to be cancelled and destroyed, and the interest applied to the payment of the debt.

Section six authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury to receive gold coin or bullion on deposit, issuing therefor 3 per cent. certificates. The bill makes no provision for foreign agencies for the disposition of bonds, and contains no compulsory requirements on national banks to exchange their present securities for the new issues.

The House debated the bill reducing the taxes and Mr. Schenck offered the free list section of the tariff bill as an amendment. Adopted, 102 to 40.

Section three, relieving coasting and fishing vessels from tonnage duties, and section four, modified so as to apply only to imported goods in bonded warehouses, were agreed to as amendments.

The previous question was seconded and the bill passed — 150 to 35 — the nays all being from the democrats. The bill provides for a reduction of $45,000,000 of internal taxation and of about $20,000,000 on the tariff.

In committee of the whole on the Post Office appropriation bill, an amendment restricting the letter carrier system to cities of 40,000 inhabitants and upward was agreed to, 62 to 60.

The English monthly magazines of all parties denounce D'Israeli's "Lothair" as immoral, shallow and snobbish.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

THE AMERICAN HOUSE, BOSTON, has been newly fitted and furnished throughout. The reputation of the senior partner has been too well established by a long test of years, to need further endorsement from us.

BEWARE OF TOOTH POISONS—Vended under the name of Dentrifices. Adopt and adhere to the only preparation that really preserves the teeth and hardens the gums, fragrant SOZODONT. Its effects on decaying teeth are marvellous.

THOUSANDS OF PROMISING YOUTHS, of both sexes, go down to untimely graves, from general debility and weakness, who might be saved by fortifying their systems with Iron. The Peruvian Syrup is an Iron Tonic prepared expressly to supply this vitalizing element, and is the only preparation of Iron that will assimilate at once with the blood.

BASE BALL.—Quite a delegation of Portsmouth base ball players witnessed the game between the Cincinnati Red Stockings and the Lowells, at Boston, on Monday. The Reds won a game with the Harvards on Saturday by a score of 46 to 15, and as the Harvards are generally considered superior to the Lowells, it was supposed by some that the Red Stockings would win the game with the Lowells, easily. It is a singular fact, however, that the Lowells usually make a better score with a visiting club than the Harvards can. The friends of the Lowells, therefore, were confident that their favorites would play the Red Stockings a good game, and this confidence was not misplaced, for the match proved to be one of the most brilliant ever played in Boston.

The fielding of both clubs was almost perfect and in that regard the Lowells were but little inferior to the Red Stocking professional nine. The Red Stockings were evidently bothered by Lovett's pitching, but still won the game by superior batting. The play of Bradbury, the Lowell catcher, was fully up to that of Allison of the Cincinnati club and there were but three passed balls during the game, one for Bradbury and two for Allison. Harry Wright of the Red Stockings made two beautiful foul catches at left running from second base for them, and we venture to say that no other base ball player living could have captured them. The small scores of both clubs show how sharply every point was contested throughout the game. The Western men were obliged to play for every tally they secured, while their fine fielding kept the Lowell score down. It will be noticed by the innings record that the Lowells were whitewashed seven times, while in five innings the Red Stockings scored but four runs. Briggs of the Lowells won the praise of all for his heavy and safe hitting, by which he secured one of the four runs credited to the Lowells and brought in two more than himself.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Popular Tonic of the Age.

The day has gone by when a medicine without merit could command and retain the confidence of the world. Advertising induces the public to try many things, but in this shrewd and thoughtful age, words will not suffice without proofs, and it is by the exercise of their private judgment, men determine the relative value of the various articles recommended to their notice through the business columns of newspapers. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS has now been subjected to this searching ordeal for more than eighteen years, and the result is that it stands at the head of the class of remedies to which it belongs.

It has distanced and lived down innumerable competitors, and is to-day the Standard Vegetable Tonic of the western world. The happy effects which have followed its use in cases of dyspepsia, biliousness, nervous affections, intermittent fevers and general debility, and as a constitutional invigorant, have entitled it to universal confidence. Nothing can ever shake its reputation, for it is based on the individual experience of tens of thousands of witnesses, embracing prominent and well known citizens of every profession, occupation and class.

There is not a city, town or settlement, in the United States where it is not a medicinal staple. No druggist or general dealer would consider his stock complete without it, and the returns of the internal revenue department show that its sales exceed those of any other proprietary medicine manufactured on this side of the Atlantic.

The beneficial results derived during a long series of years from the use of Hostetter's Bitters have convinced the whole community that the only true way to restore to health a broken down or debilitated system, or to put the human body on its defence when exposed to unwholesome influences, is to strengthen, regulate and purify it at one and the same time.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which need the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12

"Children's Lives Saved for 50 Cts."

THOUSANDS OF CHILDREN DIE ANNUNUALLY OF CROUP. Now, Mothers, if you would spend 50 cents, and always have a bottle of DR. TOBLAS' VENETIAN LINIMENT in the house, you never need fear losing your little one when attacked with this complaint. It is now 22 years since I have put up my Liniment, and never heard of a child dying of Croup when my Liniment was used; but hundreds of cures have been reported to me, and many state it it was $10 per bottle they would not be without it. Besides which, it is a certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throat, Swellings, Mumps, Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Spasms, Old Sores and Pains in the Limbs, Back, Chest. No one who once tries it is ever without it. It is warranted perfectly safe to take internally. Full directions with every bottle. Sold by the Druggists and Storekeepers in the United States. CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosciusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively, in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung disease in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says: "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says: I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

Physicians do not recommend a medicine which has no merits, what they say about

Special Meeting—Antiques and Horribles.

4th of July.—At the regular meeting of the G. A. O. E. & A. H., Monday evening, Mr. Wilber I. Trafton was chosen Grand Marshal and recruiting officer. He has opened a recruiting office at No. 45 Congress St. Various committees were chosen, and an invitation was extended to the Spring Hill Band, under the lead of Marco Bozzaris Goodrich to furnish the music. The meeting was largely attended and highly enthusiastic. Delegates from Kittery, Newcastle and other suburban towns were present and made speeches pledging companies to aid in filling the Regiment. The meeting adjourned to Thursday evening, at Union Hall, Market St.

The Exhibition To-Night. — We hope our citizens generally will encourage Mr. Thomas P. Moses in his painstaking efforts to please them and at the same time to elevate the tastes of lovers of amusements. This is no ordinary entertainment, a fact which will be apparent when Mr. Moses opens the beautiful series of tableaux and pantomimes, this evening. His wonderful skill in patterning the conceptions of his busy brain into reality, his quiet zeal in working day and night to feast others' eyes with dazzling scenes of beauty, his unassuming conduct in using his riper years for the production of the beautiful and for the good of the rising generation, merit a cordial reception at the hands of the generous public, who know but little of the many weeks of toil, the many sacrifices he has been called on to make, and the perplexities he has undergone. The representations of the evening will be finely carried out, as Mr. Moses' past record warrants us to expect; and that he may receive the cordial support of our citizens is the hope of all who have been enabled to judge of the merits of the exhibition by a glimpse at the bounteous surprises prepared for the evening's amusement.

Philharmonic Society.—At the regular weekly meeting of this Society on Monday evening, after a short rehearsal, a business session was held, at which the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—

J. C. Butler, President; E. P. Davis, Vice President; W. N. Ilsley, Calvin Davis, L. S. Butler, Executive Committee; L. V. Newell, Secretary and Treasurer; Miss Agnes Plumer, Pianist; A. Pearson, Conductor.

A committee was appointed to draw up a series of resolutions, to be presented at the next meeting of the Society; and after the reading of Reports, it was voted to adjourn, to meet only on the first Tuesday of each month until September next, after which the Society will again assemble weekly.

The members were out in nearly full numbers, and evidently enjoyed themselves pretty well at this, their last regular meeting until the heat of summer has passed. The ladies on this occasion voted on the choice of officers, for the first time; and those opponents of Woman Suffrage who claim that the sex don't want to vote, and wouldn't vote if they had the chance, would have been put to open shame had they been present. When the vote for Pianist was taken, the President, a little astonished at the bulk of the pile of ballots poured out of the "hat," carefully counted the whole lot before separating those cast for different candidates.

When he had finished his count, and looked a little oddly at the expectant voters, some of the ladies smiled; when, instead of declaring the result of the ballot, the President commenced counting the number of persons present, all the ladies smiled; and the whole Society smiled aloud when it was announced from the chair that nine more votes had been thrown than there were persons in the room, counting visitors and all! The women won't vote, oh?

The President, while commending the zeal displayed by the ladies in their new sphere as electors, and acknowledging that if he was ever going to be a candidate for office he would like to be the women's candidate, as he would then be sure of election, if four or five votes each on the part of his friends could do it—of course all the "repeaters" were ladies, men being too jealous of the purity of the ballot ever to vote more than once on any occasion — labored to impress on the minds of the culprits that on this occasion repeating wasn't exactly the fair thing. His labors were successful, for the ladies were not detected in any more roguery.

It is a pretty high compliment to the young lady pianist, that she is so popular with the lady members of the Society that—tho' "they don't want the ballot,"—they threw two votes apiece for her, all 'round.

Our Legislative Correspondence.

Concord, June 7th.

The Senatorship is all the talk, and about all the work, till that is settled. Mr. Cragin, Gen. Stevens and Mr. Rollins, are all here; and their rooms at the Eagle Hotel are continually thronged. It seems to be generally considered that the contest is between Cragin and Rollins; and although Rollins stock is loud, the friends of our truly honorable Senator confidently expect his re-nomination on the first ballot.

For Secretary of State, the present incumbent and his Deputy, Mr. Gove of Concord, are the candidates.

The welcome showers of Monday made all nature rejoice, and renders Concord enjoyable to-day. Pastures and fields in this vicinity were getting to need rain much.

Yours, F.

Special Dispatch to the Daily Chronicle.

Concord, N. H., Tuesday Eve'g.

Senatorial caucus Thursday evening. None but members and reporters admitted. The vote will be made by roll-call. Caucus for State officers next week. The House has voted 169 to 122 to lay on the table a resolution condemning land grants to the Union Pacific Railroad.

From the Concord Monitor.

A Suggestion.—Messrs. Editors:—As the editor of the Manchester Mirror is not slow to impute interested and venal motives to all who wish for Senator Cragin's re-election, perhaps it is no more than fair that you allow me to say that some folks think that if the said editor's brother had received the appointment of Pension Agent, instead of the gallant soldier incumbent, Mr. Cragin would not be so vehemently opposed now.

And the chief point of the Mirror's opposition seems to be, that Mr. Cragin can't be re-elected; granting which, what do all the other counts amount to?

Coming.—The Head Guards, Co. C., 1st Reg't., N. H. S. M., Capt. David Urch, will visit this city for a shooting match, to-morrow morning, returning on the evening train for Manchester. This Company visited our city a year ago to-day, and created a favorable impression.

☞ The Boar's Head Hotel, Hampton Beach, will open for the season June 13th. Dumas is enlarging and improving the premises each year.

The Grand Opening Day of the Boston Trotting Association at Beacon Park, Brighton, on Tuesday, was a grand success, and a large audience greeted the first public appearance of the trotters on the new grounds.

To-day, the first race is for 2.40 horses, in which there are eight entries, and for horses that never beat 2.28, in which there are the following eight, all good ones: H. W. Genet, Locust, Taylor, Shepard Knapp, Jr., Lady Sheridan, Fanny Lee, Jessie Wales and Western New York. The first named has already won two races on Long Island this spring. The sport will be good.

The professional trainers located at the Beacon track and at the Riverside House, in the immediate vicinity, are Wm. Woodruff, Dan Bigley, Hiram Woodruff and R. L. Flanders, and they have in their charge very many excellent and valuable horses. In the elder Woodruff's stable may be found the brown stallion Mambrino Prince, a half brother to Lady Thorn, and a very valuable horse; the bay gelding Czar; the black gelding Regulator; Lady Maynard, a promising Ethan Allen mare, owned by J. E. Maynard; Lillie Allen, an Ethan Allen three-year-old in the New England colt stake, owned by the same gentleman; and several other good ones owned by Frank Ricker, of Brighton. Young Hiram has the famous black team Jessie Wales and Darkness and others in his stable, and Dan Bigley has the well known Chestnut mares Fanny and Lady Bartlett; the sorrel gelding Daylight, a promising green gelding owned by Ex-Mayor Jones, of this city; a bay filly of the Clay stock, — a six-year-old stallion, sired by Ethan Allen, and a dozen others.

☞ In the civil appropriation bill reported in the U. S. House of Representatives on Monday, $514,000 are for Navy Yards.

I—O—A—N

OF THE

CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILROAD CO.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad

is completed and running from RICHMOND, Va., to the celebrated WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, in West Va., 227 miles. It is being rapidly extended to the Ohio River, 200 miles further, making in all 427 miles.

In its progress Westward, it penetrates and opens up to market the Wonderful Coal Deposits of the Kanawha Region in West Virginia. And thus brings the superior and abundant Coals of that section into communication with the Iron Ores of Virginia and Ohio, and the Western, South Western and Eastern markets.

When completed it will connect the superior harbor facilities of the Chesapeake Bay with reliable navigation on the Ohio River, and thus with the entire system of Railroad and Water transportations of the great West and South-West.

It will make a short, easy, cheap and favorable route from the West, to the sea, and will command a large share of the enormous freights seeking transportation to the coast

It will thus become one of the most important and profitable East and West Trunk Lines of Railroad in the country, and command a trade of immense value.

The completed portion of the Road is doing a profitable and increasing Business, and is fully equal in value to the whole amount of the mortgage upon the entire Line—($15,000,000.)

The loan of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company, being a First Mortgage upon the entire Line, property and equipments, worth when completed at least $30,000,000, is therefore one of the most substantial, conservative and reliable Railroad Loans ever offered in the market, and is peculiarly adapted to the wants of

INVESTORS and CAPITALISTS,

Who desire to make their investments with the most satisfactory assurance of positive and undoubted Security.

The Bonds are in denominations of

$1000, $500 and $100,

and may be had COUPON or REGISTERED.

Interest Six per cent. per annum, payable MAY 1st and NOVEMBER 1st.

Principal and Interest payable in Gold in the City of New York.

Price 90 and accrued Interest in Currency, at which price they pay nearly Seven per cent. in gold on their cost.

All Government Bonds and other Securities dealt in at the Stock Exchange, received in exchange, at their full market value, and Bonds sent to all parts of the country, free of Express charges.

They can be obtained by ordering direct from us or through any responsible Bank or Banker in any part of the country.

Morning Chronicle.

N. H. FARMERS' MEETING.—Hon. Simon Brown of Concord, Mass., was introduced and said that the best of signs in rural life was the spirit of inquiry. No man rested content with the present in manufacture or trade, and it might not be impossible that the belle of future days would be arrayed in a garb made from thistle down or the ethereal substance upon the back of a fly. So, as in trade, should it be with the farmer; he should also ask how and why.

Farming had been called unpopular, and the decrease of population in rural towns evinced it. This he accounted for by the fact that in history the splendid was always more prominent and oft-quoted than the useful. The idea had been current that one portion of mankind should do all the thinking and another all manual labor; certainly there is now no justification for that, when education is in the reach of all. The farmer had in past times been too content to accept the idea, and even refused to better his condition by using such aids as machinery.

The business of the farmer is apart from much society, for he must have fields, forests and brooks. To counterbalance this, every man must have a home and do his best to make it attractive and happy. Mr. B. then painted an ideal home in glowing and most attractive colors. Though there are fewer recreations, one's family should create their own, and the infinity and variety of these will surprise whoever tries the experiment. These lie largely in the hands of the mothers and daughters. In this connection, the power of united effort was pleasingly illustrated. No one man could bore the Hoosac tunnel or channel out the sands of Suez, nor yet could one have laid the rails across the continent; it required concerted and intelligent action.

As other men organize, so ought the farmers. A good way of getting lectures, he thought, is to give out a topic one winter and let a man study on it till the next. In clubs the inexperienced trader, for each farmer, thought Mr. B., is necessarily a trader, could learn experience. An example was instanced of two farmers who raised equally good apples and got $1 a barrel difference on the price. The fruit of one was sorted and neatly put up; the other was careless and regardless of appearances. This, which the talk of a farmers' club would have made common property, made a difference of $150, a sum which would have enabled the purchase of a horse or horned stock.

In a farmers' club facts in regard to a thousand subjects are learned, and prejudices against certain kinds of machinery, processes, &c., are dispelled. A farmer may also learn to preside and perform official duties that may fit him for political preferment and make him a facile writer and speaker. Some thought intelligent farming to be based on knowledge of chemistry; others on natural and vegetable physiology; but after all, these could not tell him in regard to the planting or seeding a grass plot. He must have sound sense, a knowledge of the laws of nature, and how to use tools.

Nature runs in a circle; what is poison to a high class of nature, is the life of a lower class. The particulars of a knowledge of nature's economy would make farming less dirty and more scientific. By these points Mr. Brown illustrated the importance of combining in clubs for the interchange of ideas, saying that for one fact stated in a farmers' club, a dozen more experiments would be elicited.

Farmers themselves had discouraged their own cause by inculcating the idea that the profession was a dirty one. All their money was spent on one child to make him a professional man or set him up a storekeeper. Home had not been made attractive to children, for though tolerable pictures and flowers are cheap, they have been largely ignored. Yet all these aid in making a cheerful home, and it is the farmers' wisest course, to gather around himself and his as many refinements as possible and all that goes to add to a cheerful home.

These will go far to keep offspring at home to sustain the old age and declining years of parents. Though everything springs from labor, it is labor of the head, as well as of the hands. The speaker dwelt at length on woman as the most important of all aids to a farmer's life, not only as an assistant in manual labor, but as the maker of a pleasant home and an educator. Each man he urged to have a home, and after an eulogy on farming, the address was brought to a close amid applause.

Joseph B. Walker of Concord believed a man could live by farming in New Hampshire, and by farming alone. In relation to the corn and wheat crop, he believed that our State can raise, with effort, all or nearly all it needs. He showed by government reports that in an average of thirty-five States, New Hampshire had raised above the average. Fine samples of wheat, raised in Hanover by Messrs. Foster and Bridgeman, were shown to certify as to quality. In the same States, New Hampshire's corn crop stood above the average. In farm crops per acre, we stand number fifteen on the list. These facts the speaker showed to be substantial encouragement. Mr. Walker showed specimens of New Jersey and other corn.

Prof. E. W. Dimond alluded to the use, or rather misuse, of grains sent out from the Agricultural Department at Washington.

—Mr. Hamilton, the new Senator from Texas, is said never to have smoked a cigar, taken a drink, or kissed a woman.

—What is mind. No matter. What is matter? Never mind. What is the nature of the soul? It is immaterial.

New Hampshire Items.

The fishermen of Exeter are busy after alewives. Eighteen hundred barrels are taken annually in the tributaries of the Piscataqua.

Mr. James R. Leavitt of North Hampton sheared from a year old lamb, a South-Down crossed with the Cotswold breed, 114 1-4 pounds of wool.

It was conjectured that the bishop-elect of the State would select Dover as his place of residence, and a new and desirable church be erected in lieu of the present dilapidated building. A despatch from Concord, however, says, the new Bishop will locate in that city.

Col. J. W. Robinson has left Concord, for Middlebury, Vt., where he has purchased a farm. We hope, wherever he goes, the Colonel will do well, for he has done great service to the people in securing telegraphic facilities, and has played no mean part in the extension of wires over various sections of our State. We hope, in tilling the soil he will find health, pleasure and profit.

James M. Lovering, Esq., has begun the work of Census-taking. He is the responsible man for the returns from Exeter, Hampton, North Hampton and Stratham.

Mr. Jacob P. Cilley of Exeter, has a full-blooded Dutch Bull which has gained in weight, during the last 12 months 563 lbs. He now weighs 1852 lbs. His only food has been hay and straw. His age is three years.

The Newmarket Manufacturing Company have nearly all of their new mill in operation. They now have four large substantial factories, mostly in full operation.

HON. NATHANIEL GORDON, of Exeter, the newly elected President of the Senate, is a lawyer by profession, and graduated at Dartmouth in 1841. Of late he has been engaged in business and has held various places of trust, having served two years in the House and now being in his second Senatorial year. He is wealthy, generous and public-spirited, as well as a fine scholar. He is positive in his political opinions, but generally respected for his rectitude of character and good qualities as a citizen. His qualifications promise to make him an efficient and popular President of the Senate.—Boston Post.

—The "ring" express surprise that Gov. Stearns did not refer to the contract, in his Message! They might as well condemn him for not referring to any business transaction between two traders or a sale of real estate by one citizen to another. It is a matter with which the Legislature have nothing to do; it is a question for the courts, before which it is already pending. If the contract is legal, the Legislature can not annul it; if it is illegal, it is for the courts to so declare it, not for the Legislature. Hence it would have been idle and impertinent for the Governor to bring it before the Legislature. Patriot.

—The Massachusetts Editors' and Publishers' Association will hold a business meeting in Boston, June 13th. On the next day an excursion will be made to Gloucester and a dinner at the Pavillion House. Superintendent Prescott, of the Eastern Railroad, has placed a special train at the disposal of the excursionists, and Mr. Harvey T. Litchfield has also tendered the steamer Emeline for the same purpose. The probability is that both offers will be accepted, the trip down being made by rail and return by steamer.

DISASTROUS CONFLAGRATION IN CONSTANTINOPLE.—A fire broke out in Constantinople, Turkey, Sunday afternoon, which spread with alarming rapidity through the richest quarter of the city. The efforts of the firemen and citizens to stop the flames were futile, and in a few hours the residences of the English, American and Portuguese ambassadors and consulates, Naom Theatre, many churches and mosques, thousands of horses and the richest stores and shops in the city were reduced to ashes. The loss of life by the falling of walls has been fearful. It is estimated that at least thirty people have been killed or injured by this cause alone.

A NOVEL RACE.—The Boston correspondent of the Springfield Republican narrates the following:

Early morning passengers into Boston on the Eastern and Maine Railroad usually are treated to a specimen of iron horse racing. The time tables of the two roads bring the first inward trains into their passenger stations at the same time, and the two tracks lie parallel to each other for some two miles, till the Eastern diverges across the channel of the Mystic river to the northeast, the Maine keeping on for some considerable distance in a direction northwesterly. At the point where this convergence of the tracks toward each other brings the trains in sight of the passengers, lies an immense stretch of land, level as a house floor, giving an unobstructed view of the cars, even to the minuter portions of the lively working machinery of the engines. The seats on the sides of the cars opposite the rival trains, are always occupied, while the rest, if occupied at all, are filled by strangers, or those who don't know what is up.

As this point in the trip is reached where the column of smoke and steam from the locomotive heaves in view, every eye is bent toward the exciting racers. Midway this section of the race course in each road is a station, at which both trains haul up, and great is the interest to see which one brakes up, and start off again first at this point. If they are together, they now begin to approach each other at a rapid rate, neck and neck, sometimes one slowly gaining on the other. Meantime the most spirited conversation goes on inside the cars; and most generally if the morning is not too cold and stormy, the windows are thrown up, hats are waved, and cheers begin to be heard as the brakemen slow the trains for a stop at the Somerville crossing. It is a most agreeable episode to the monotony of a railroad ride to Boston in the gray morning light.

MR. JOHN PEPPER has bought the mill formerly run by Thomas Appleton, in Lake Village, has repaired the old machinery and put in new, for making ladies' hose full fashioned,—or in other words the hose are made perfectly shaped on the machine, — also machines for making the ribb balmoral by power, which has never before been done. Patents have been issued in this country and have been applied for in England, France and the German states.

The patents are controlled by the Ipswich Mills Co., of Ipswich, Mass., who are running them, and are taking out their old cotton machinery and are putting in new woolen cards and jacks so as to run all their mills on goods made on the above mentioned knitting machines. Mr. Pepper has been agent of the Ipswich Mills the past three years, but has now resigned to enable him to run the Appleton mill, now to be known as the Pepper Knitting Mills.

Mr. Pepper retains an interest at Ipswich and is a director in the Company, but will spend most of his time at Lake Village, only visiting the Ipswich Mills one day in each week. Two years ago he introduced the ten-hour plan at Ipswich, and finding that by running sixty hours per week he accomplished as much work as before, has now started the Pepper Knitting Mills on the same running time.—Lake Vil. Times.

MULCHING.—The trees transplanted this spring should be mulched as soon as the ground becomes dry. For this purpose grass is as good as anything. Don't put around the tree too much at a time, and repeat the mulch when it gets dry and thin. Remove it once or twice during the summer, and stir up the ground well, then replace it. It will save many a tree, if the season be hot and dry, which we think this season will be.

The strawberry, raspberry and blackberry beds should also be well mulched. Any quantity of dry stuff about a place, especially leaves, scrapings, &c., or short grass cut from the lawn, will do. An application of the contents of a hotbed is very beneficial.—Germantown Telegraph.

MILK-PAILS grow yellow by standing and always before being used in the spring should be scoured with clear water and clean sand. When used, they should be always scalded at least once a day in boiling water, and then wiped with a cloth wrung out of hot water as dry as possible. There should be one cloth used alone for this purpose. They should be laid on the side, and not bottom up, to dry; and every thing that could possibly give them the least taint, or a semblance of anything not perfectly clean, should be most carefully kept from them.

—A hack on its way to a depot in Boston the other day, became mixed up in an almost interminable funeral procession. Coming to a spot where two ways met, the head of the procession turned one way, the hack another; the carriages in the rear followed the latter and the deluded drivers noticed not their error until they were quite nigh the depot. Then there was turning in hot haste, and lively time made until the solemn and staid portion of the funeral procession was overtaken.

AYER'S
HAIR VIGOR,
For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.
A Dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for Preserving the Hair. Fades or gray Hair is restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use.
Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remains can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of soiling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor, can only benefit but not harm it.
If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

THE OLD RELIABLE
NEW ENGLAND FAMILY MEDICINE.
TO BE FOUND IN EVERY VILLAGE AND TOWN IN NEW ENGLAND, IS
DODD'S NERVINE
AND INVIGORATOR.
A THOROUGH TONIC AND STOMACHIC.
DODD'S NERVINE is not a new medicine, but has been before the public for the last fifteen years. It is compounded from the best and purest drugs. Contains no OPIUM, STRYCHNINE or MERCURY in any form, and is expressly adapted to the relief and permanent cure of all forms of
NERVOUS DISEASES, &c., &c.,

Coughs,	Neuralgia,	Female Weaknesses,
Colds,	Headache,	Painting Fits,
Fevers,	Convulsions,	Palpitation,
Agues,	Sleeplessness,	Restlessness,
Biliousness,	Dyspepsia,	Dizziness,

Constipation, Liver Complaint, Children's Troubles Diarrhœa, Consumption, &c., &c., &c.,
DODD'S NERVINE
Is a COMPLETE SPECIFIC for sleeplessness. It soothes the throbbing muscle like magic, and tranquilizes the mind. And everybody knows that good sleep is better than all medicines. And all folks that
CAN'T SLEEP NIGHTS,
Should use this truly wonderful medicine.
DODD'S NERVINE
Is one of the best remedies ever employed in the cure of the numerous and troublesome ailments known as FEMALE COMPLAINTS.
For Whooping Cough.
DODD'S NERVINE is administered with unexampled success. Mothers, remember this and save your little ones the agony of a most distressing complaint. It also works admirably in Measles, bringing out the rash well and leaving the bowels free and healthful. For the diseases which afflict CHILDREN WHEN TEETHING, nothing can furnish more instant or grateful relief. Remember, it contains no OPIUM in any form.
LOOK OUT FOR COLDS.
It is proverbial that people treat a cold (and the generally accompanying cough) as something that will cure itself; but neglect is serious and sometimes fatal. The fame of DODD'S NERVINE in the relief of colds is established. Use this standard remedy, and so far abstain from liquids of all kinds as to keep somewhat thirsty for a few days, and the worst cold will soon be gone.
DODD'S NERVINE
Is a PURE TONIC—harmonizes perfectly with the NERVE FIBRE—gives increased energy to the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, and other viscera—and supplies FRESH LIFE for the waste that is constantly taking place. It operates soothingly and is a pleasant to take as any wine, and will SLEEP AND GOOD DIGESTION, which it promotes, restores the afflicted to sound health of body and quietness of mind. It contains no opium, mercury or strychnine, (so often used for nervous complaints,) and is wholly free from any deleterious drugs whatever. Tens of thousands are testifying to its curative power.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.
The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvelous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public generally need to be informed of its virtues or uses.
Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and inoculates it with the germs of fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly developes into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may suddenly be deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this SARSAPARILLA is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear.
Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and at length, cure, by the use of this SARSAPARILLA: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various affections of the muscular and nervous systems.
Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac supplied gratis.
Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the afflictions and symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

THE COLONNADE is the name of a new and elegant Hotel in Philadelphia; concerning which, a friend who has been stopping there for a few weeks writes us that the rooms are spacious, clean and neat, and the table excellent. The Colonnade, which was built by Mr. John Crump, the well known architect of the Union League House, is well located on the corner of Fifteenth and Chestnut Streets; and is conducted by Mr. George Freeman, who graduated from the Girard House in that city, and last year had charge of the United States Hotel in Atlantic City. The success of the House thus far justifies his efficient management. The price, in accordance with the spirit of the times, will be but $3.50 per day, instead of $4.50 as heretofore. The house will accommodate about 100 guests.

Our correspondent also describes the recent hail storm there, which was a big thing on ice for Philadelphia in May—hail-stones literally as large as hen's eggs, coming through the glass roof of the dinning-room by the peck. 83 panes of glass were broken, and in other buildings near, ten times as many. But as such occurrences are in the regular bill of fare, we shall not particularize.

—What is the difference between a chattering lover and a pedestrian excursion? One is a talking wooer, the other a walking tour.

HE DEFENDS HIMSELF. — On Tuesday, a council between the Indian delegation, Secretary Cox and Commissioner Parker, was held in Washington. Vincent Collyer, Felix R. Brunot, and other gentlemen familiar with Indian affairs were present. Secretary Cox delivered an address to the Indians, assuring them of the friendly intentions of the government towards them, of its purpose to furnish abundance of food and clothing so long as they observed treaties and did not molest settlers, and said they should be protected on the reservations from white marauders. In regard to supplying them with arms and ammunition with which to hunt game, the Secretary said he must defer an answer to that request until Mr. Brunot returned from a tour that he was about to make through the tribes, but gave encouragement that if peace was preserved on the frontier this summer, and they promised good faith for the future, arms, powder and lead would be issued.

Red Cloud listened attentively to the Secretary's remarks, and at the close came forward and said:—

"I came from where the sun sets. You were raised on chairs. I want to sit where the sun sets. [Here he sat on the floor in Indian fashion, and proceeded.] The Great Spirit has raised me this way. He raised me naked. I run no opposition to the Great Father who sits in the White House. I don't want to fight. I have offered my prayer to the Great Father so that I might come here safe and well. What I have to say to you and to these men and to my Great Father is this:—Look at me! I was raised where the sun rises and came from where he sets. Whose voice was first heard in this land? It was the red man who used the bow. The Great Father may be good and kind, but I can't see it. I am good and kind to the white people, and have given my lands, and have now come from where the sun sets to see you. The Great Father has sent his people out there and left me nothing but an island. Our nation is melting away like snow on the side of the hills where the sun is warm, while your people are like the heads of grass in spring when the summer is coming. I don't want to see white people making roads in our country.

Now that I have come into my Great Father's land, see if I have any blood when I return to my home. The white people have sprinkled blood on the blades of grass about the line of Fort Fetterman. Tell the Great Father to remove that fort; then we will be peaceful and there will be no more trouble. I have got two mountains in that country—Black Hill and Big Horn. I want no roads there. There have been stakes driven in that country, and I want them removed. I have told these things three times and I have now come here to tell them for the fourth time. I have made up my mind to talk that way. I don't want my reservations on the Missouri. Some of these people here are from there and know what I say. What I hear is that my children and old men are dying off like sheep. The country don't suit them. I was born at the forks of the Platte. My father and mother told me that the land there belonged to me. From the north and west this nation has come into the Great Father's house. We are the last of the Ogallalas. We have come to know the facts from our Father, why the promises which have been made to us have not been kept. I want the two or three traders that we ask for at the mouth of Horse Creek.

In 1852 there was a treaty made, and the man who made that treaty [alluding to Mitchell] told me the truth. The goods which have been sent out to me have been stolen all along the road, and only a handful would reach me to go among my nation. Look at me! I am poor and naked. I was not raised with arms; I always want to be peaceful. The Great Spirit has raised you to read and write, and has put papers before you, but he has not raised me in that way. The men whom the President sends us are soldiers, and all of them have no sense and no heart. I know it to-day. I did not ask that the whites should go through my country killing game, and it is the Great Father's fault.

You are the people who should keep peace. For the railroads you are passing through my country I have not received so much as a brass ring for the land they occupy. I wish you to tell that to my Great Father. You whites make all the ammunition; what is the reason you don't give it to me? Are you afraid I am going to war? You are great and powerful and I am only a handful. I do not want it for that purpose, but to kill game with. I suppose I must in time go to farming, but I can't do it right away."

Each sentence of this speech was received with loud grunts, denoting hearty applause from the Indians present.

After Red Cloud had concluded, Little Bear made a short speech, complaining of bad treatment by the soldiers, and other whites engaged in farming operations. Several of his young men were shot while out hunting, and that ended his corn-raising.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

RIVERSIDE PRESS BULLETIN!

BOOKS TO BE READ ON THE GRASS.

1. AMONG THE TREES.

This is a book by MARY LORIMER, giving a journal of walks in the woods, and flower-hunting through field and by brook. It is a quarto volume, with beautiful illustrations from nature, and sells for $2.25. It is an exceedingly pretty volume, and has a calendar of wild flowers found each month. "The 'New York Evening Post'" says of it, "It links lively short stories and incidents, bits of pertinent sentiment and gems of poetry, to the plant-treasures it describes, and adorns many of them with graceful drawings, which make it easier to recognize them than the longest scientific description could."

2. DAME NATURE.

A book by SAINTINE, the famous author of "Picciola." It is a grand-papa's talks and stories about natural history and things of daily use. A capital book for young people, making them observant and curious about life around them. Price $1.50.

3. HOMESPUN.

"Homespun," by THOMAS LACKLAND (an assumed name), is a harmless book of rural scenes and incidents, in which country life, especially of the old-fashioned sort, is described in a way to bring back vividly the country church, the country tavern, the district school, farmers' daughters, hard winters, huckleberrying, etc., etc. A pleasant book to read aloud. Price $1.75.

4 PICTURES OF COUNTRY LIFE.

One of ALICE CARY's enjoyable books. Price $2.00. The "Philadelphia Telegraph" sends this despatch: "We have seldom been more pleased with any light work than with 'Pictures of Country Life.' It is written in a genial, pleasant style, and abounds in little sketches drawn from rural life, and depicts society as it exists far from our great commercial centres. Every story is interesting, and just of the proper length."

5. THREE CLASSES.

These are three famous books which seem especially adapted to common reading. They can be slipped into the pocket, and read in the shade of a tree or by a brook, and will make a nature without. They are LAMTTER'S "Picciola" and ST. PIERRE'S "Paul and Virginia" (each $1.25,) and FOUQUE'S "Undine and other Stories" ($1.50) They are pretty books prettily illustrated.

BOOKS FOR A RAINY DAY.

1. ANDERSEN.

HANS CHRISTIAN ANDERSEN, who has been known to American readers by his wonderful stories for children, can now be known in his dramatical novels and tales. There is publishing a complete series of his writings, each volume of which is entire by itself. Thus one can now procure "The Improvisatore," his famous novel of Italian life; and "The Two Baronesses," and "O. T." romances of Danish life; "In Spain and Portugal," a captivating volume of travels; and "Wonder Stories told for Children." Each of these is $1.75, except the last, which is larger and richly illustrated. Price $2.25.

2. COOPER.

COOPER'S novels are household favorites, and are selling now steadily as well as ever. He is not likely to go out of fashion yet,—he is too good a story-teller for that. His works are published in 32 vols. Household Edition, each $1.25. HURD & HOUGHTON'S Catalogue will give the names of each volume can be bought separately, such as "The Spy," "The Pilot," "The Water Witch," "Last of the Mohicans," "The Deerslayer," etc.

3. DICKENS.

There is nothing quite so good to keep on hand for bright reading as DICKENS's novels. Every family out to have a set, and every one will have his or her favorite story. HURD & HOUGHTON'S Globe Edition, (each sold separately at $1.50,) is the most complete of any in the market. "Edwin Drood" will be added to it when complete.

A Book that should be kept on hand.

DR. HALL'S

HEALTH BY GOOD LIVING.

This book is selling by thousands. Every one recognizes it as a most practical, sensible book on health. It is crowded with sound sense and experience. Its price ($1.50) ought to save hundreds of dollars to doctors' bills. Another book by the Doctor can also be had at the same price, —"Sleep; or, the Hygiene of the Night,"—which tells how we should do, the way we do, do not, ought to, and ought not to, spend a third of human existence.

The Book that should stand side by side with Webster's Dictionary.

DR. WILLIAM SMITH'S

UNABRIDGED DICTIONARY OF THE BIBLE.

Edited by PROF. H. B. HACKETT and EZRA ABBOTT, LL. D.

This magnificent work is to be completed this summer. Three of the four volumes are already out, and the remaining parts are rapidly appearing. Any one can subscribe now, get the three volumes, and receive the parts as they come out. It is the Great Biblical Work of 19th Century.

DR. HOWARD CROSBY says of it: "It is worth more on a Bible-reader's desk than fifty commentaries." One can find plenty of unsatisfactory abridged dictionaries, but no one should be satisfied until he has the

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Popular Tonic of the Age.

The day has gone by when a medicine without merit could command and retain the confidence of the world. Advertising induces the public to try many things, but in this shrewd and thoughtful age, words will not suffice without proofs, and it is by the certain of the silent, private judgment, men determine the relative value of the various articles recommended to their notice through the business columns of newspapers. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS has now been subjected to this searching ordeal for more than eighteen years, and the result is that it stands at the head of the class of remedies to which it belongs.

It has distanced and lived down innumerable competitors, and is to-day the Standard Vegetable Tonic of the western world. The happy effects which have followed its use in cases of dyspepsia, biliousness, nervous affections, intermittent fevers and general debility, and as a constitutional invigorant, have entitled it to universal confidence. Nothing can ever shake its reputation, for it is based on the individual experiences of tens of thousands of witnesses, embracing prominent and well known citizens of every profession, occupation and class.

There is not a city, town or settlement, in the United States where it is not a medicinal staple. No druggist or general dealer would consider his stock complete without it, and the returns of the internal revenue department show that its sales exceed those of any other proprietary restorative manufactured on the side of the Atlantic.

The beneficial results derived during a long series of years from the use of Hostetter's Bitters, have convinced the whole community that the only true way to restore to health a broken down or debilitated system, or to put the remains body on its defence when exposed to unwholesome influences, is to invigorate, regulate and purify it at one and the same time.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the blood those matters which feed the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12

"Children's Lives Saved for 50 Cts."

THOUSANDS OF CHILDREN DIE ANNUNUALLY OF CROUP. Now, Mothers, if you would spend 50 cents, and always have a bottle of DR. TOBIAS' VENETIAN LINIMENT in the house, you never need fear losing your little one when attacked with this complaint. It is now 22 years since I have put up my Liniment, and never heard of a child dying of Croup when my Liniment was used; but hundreds of cures have been reported to me, and many state if it was $10 per bottle they would not be without it. Besides which, it is a certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throat, Swellings, Lamps, Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Spasms, Old Sores and Pains in the Limbs, Back, Chest. No one who once tries it is ever without it. It is warranted perfectly safe to take internally. Full directions with every bottle. Sold by the Druggists and Storekeepers in the United States. Depot 10 Park Place, N. Y. mh12

CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosciusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively, in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung disease in use."

ISAAC A. DOKAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says: "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I feel no delicacy in my practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever seen or heard of."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says; I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

Physicians do not recommend a medicine which has no merits, what they say about

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM,

Can be taken as a sample. Let all afflicted test it at once. Sold by all Medicine Dealers.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

New Advertisements to-day.

Coal—C. E. Walker & Co.
Riverside Press Bulletin—H. O. Houghton & Co.

☞ The U. S. tug Speedwell was taken into the Dock at the Navy Yard, Wednesday.

☞ The Second Nine of the Granite State Base Ball Club, of this city, start for Biddeford this morning, in the 10 o'clock A. M. train, to play the 1st nine of the Dirigo Base Ball Club of that city.

PROPOSED NAVY YARD CONSOLIDATION.—In the U. S. House of Representatives on Tuesday Mr. Lynch of Maine introduced a joint resolution, which was referred, authorizing the Secretary of the Navy to sell the Navy Yard at Charlestown, Mass., and to remove the materials to this Naval Station.

☞ Speaking of the circus which appears here next week, the Boston Saturday Evening Gazette says:—"The experiment of circus exhibitions so well managed by Stone & Murray has proved entirely successful, as large audiences have eagerly sought admission, and the congregation of bright and happy little faces which illuminate the Pavilion is which their exhibitions are given it is delightful to look upon."

☞ Mr. J. L. Hatlinger of Dover has the Agency for the Little Washer for this city,—a valuable machine. It works smoothly and thoroughly. One hundred and seventy have been sold in Dover within seven weeks. Quilt, blankets, thick goods and thin are washed speedily, saving time and labor. Mr. H. demonstrates the capabilities of the washer to all who notify to give them a call, and sells them for $5 each.

☞ The points to be observed in the selection of a good cow, are good color, face and form—good butter maker—good age and kindness. Such a cow was owned by Civil Engineer Chandler, at Seavey's Island—eight years old—last summer gave 22 quarts of rich milk per day. She was of splendid form, bright red color, and kind as a lamb. She calved on Monday, and died on Tuesday, being sick only three hours. She was valued at $200; and the death of such a cow is a great loss to anybody. We understand that Mr. Chandler intends to raise the calf, which is a heifer; he ought to. *

MR. MOSES' SCENIC EXHIBITION last evening drew a good audience, and fully satisfied them. The dresses and decorations are splendid, and made up with Mr. Moses' well known taste and appreciation of the beautiful. The entertainment is to be repeated this evening; and all who have children in their families should take them to see the elegant tableaux and gorgeous dresses. It will be an era in the life of all the youngsters who see it—and a wrong to all who do not have that pleasure; and every person, of whatever age, who enjoys the bright and beautiful, will be richly rewarded for attending.

THE SENATORIAL CONTEST. — The Advertiser's Concord special says:

My impression is that either Mr. Cragin or General Stevens will be nominated, although a choice on the first ballot is not expected. The excitement among republican members of the Legislature is very great, as the most strenuous efforts are making by Messrs. Cragin, Stevens and Rollins, to influence votes in their behalf. Mr. Cragin says he is sure of the nomination. General Stevens says either himself or Mr. Cragin will certainly be elected, while Mr. Rollins is working with his accustomed energy, and claims to have more strength than is credited to him.

Probably there has never before been so much interest manifested in a similar contest in New Hampshire, the sidewalks and hotels being crowded with knots of politicians vehemently discussing the merits of their respective candidates. The contest seems to really lie between Mr. Cragin and General Stevens, although it is possible that Mr. Rollins' strength may be much greater than is generally supposed. It is conceded that Mr. Cragin will lead in the first ballot, but it is not absolutely certain that he can command enough additional votes to secure the nomination.

We have made arrangements with the Western Union line for specials during the balloting this evening, and hope to announce the re-nomination of Mr. Cragin to-morrow morning.

THE TROTTING AT BEACON PARK. On Tuesday, the opening day, bay gelding Charlie Green won first money in $2000 trot, Lady Emily 2d and Daylight 3d. Time, 2.36, 2.40, 2.39 1-2. The 2.24 race was postponed on account of the rain. See advertisement for to-day's races for 2.40 and 2.28 horses.

The races assigned for Wednesday afternoon were postponed on account of rain, and will take place to-day.

New Hampshire Legislature.

On Tuesday, the Senate met the House in Convention.

The joint committee to count the votes for Councillors made the following report:

BOOKS FOR SUMMER TIME.—There is a time for everything, and the books which one chooses to read on hot days are not likely to be those which require close application. The publishers, H. O. Houghton & Co., in their advertisement to-day, name several books which belong to the easy reading kind,—books which one can read out of doors if he chooses without feeling any inappropriateness in it. We will speak now only of one mentioned there,—Fouque's "Undine, and other Stories." Undine is known to most lovers of good literature as one of the most delicate creations of fancy, and the publishers have added to this tale, the three others: "The Two Captains," "Aslauga's Knight," and "Sintram," which Fouque published first under the title of "The Four Seasons," as emblematic of Spring ("Undine,") Summer, Autumn, and Winter.

☞ The Portland Advertiser says that Mr. Lynch's renomination is seriously imperilled by dissatisfaction which may be traced quite uniformly to his appointments.

☞ It is stated that there is a man in this city who walked a mile the other day, to contradict a truth which he had told by mistake. He must be a stringed instrument of the harp order, much used by the ancients, and of the constellation Lyra,

—The organ grinders are up to snuff. "The Wearing of the Green" has been superseded by "Johnny Comes Marching Home."

OF THE

CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILROAD CO.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad

Is completed and running from RICHMOND, Va., to the celebrated WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, in West Va., 227 miles. It is being rapidly extended to the Ohio River, 200 miles further, making in all 427 miles.

In its progress Westward, it penetrates and opens up to market the Wonderful Coal Deposits of the Kanawha Region in West Virginia. And thus brings the superior and abundant Coals of that section into communication with the Iron Ores of Virginia and Ohio, and the Western, South Western and Eastern markets.

When completed it will connect the superior harbor facilities of the Chesapeake Bay with reliable navigation on the Ohio River, and thus with the entire system of Railroad and Water transportations of the great West and South-West.

It will make a short, easy, cheap and favorable route from the West, to the sea, and will command a large share of the enormous freights seeking transportation to the cons

It will thus become one of the most important and profitable East and West Trunk Lines of Railroad in the country, and command a trade of immense value.

The completed portion of the Road is doing a profitable and increasing Business, and is fully equal in value to the whole amount of the mortgage upon the entire Line—($15,000,000.)

The loan of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroa Company, being a First Mortgage upon the entire Line, property and equipments, worth when completed at least $30,000,000, is therefore one of the most substantial, conservative and reliable Railroad Loans ever offered in the market, and is peculiarly adapted to the wants of

INVESTORS and CAPITALISTS,

Who desire to make their investments with the most satisfactory assurance of positive and undoubted Security.

The Bonds are in denominations of

$1000, $500 and $100,

and may be had COUPON or REGISTERED.

Interest Six per cent, per annum, payable MAY 1st and NOVEMBER 1st.

PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

Price 90 and accrued Interest in Currency, at which price they pay nearly Seven per cent. in gold on their cost.

All Government Bonds and other Securities dealt in at the Stock Exchange, received in exchange, at their full market value, and Bonds sent to all parts of the country, free of Express charges.

They can be obtained by ordering direct from us or through any responsible Bank or Banker in any part of the country.

Correspondence of the Chronicle and Gazette.

BOSTON, June 6, 1870.

This is "Election Day" of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery, including the 232d parade of this notable corps—notable not only from the fact of its including so large a number of our leading citizens, but from the fact that among those who bear a musket therein may be singled out men who have acted as Colonels, Brigadier Generals, Major Generals and Commanders of Departments in active service. Dan Simpson, whose early morning call, with his corps of drummers and fifers, aroused the veterans, made his sixtieth annual report on this occasion, a circumstance which is without parallel in the United States, excepting the case of Si Smith, the fifer of the corps, who cleaned his old fife for its sixty-seventh yearly duty.

The morning was overcast and very sultry, and as the Ancients left the Old South to march to Faneuil Hall to dine a sudden shower descended in torrents upon the very full attendance of Boston's most distinguished militia company. They bore it unflinchingly—worthy of the service so many had seen in the field. Among the staff I noticed the figure of Col. S. R. Niles, the well-known advertising agent. At present, the prospect of their parade on the Common is considerably clouded.

Active endeavors are being made to have a continuous road laid out from Hampton Beach to Portsmouth, to follow the seashore. The County Commissioners, I am credibly informed, have been ready to lay out this road at any time for the past ten years, but a lack of concert in action among the hotel and boarding house keepers along the line, has deterred those who were awake to the vast advantages of this step from undertaking its accomplishment. I could give you a column of data I have gathered to show how persistently the people along New Hampshire's seaboard have combatted projected public improvements, or have retarded progress by sins of omissions, but the unfinished plans of the Portsmouth & Dover Railroad, the City Park on the lot so generously donated land offered by Mr. Elwyn, the Cess Pool at the Creek, and the difficulty of obtaining new streets in Portsmouth, are all instances too familiar with your readers to need comment on this point. I regret that I was unable to attend a recent meeting held to push the subject of this new road—a road that will not only furnish the finest drive on the whole continent, (combining ocean views, rustic homes, sylvan shades and wide-spreading meadow and tillage lands in one panorama,) but will incalculably benefit your whole seacoast, if not your whole country. There is so little to do to accomplish this, and so much to gain by the completion of the road, that it seems to me no hesitancy is possible in the matter; but I have too much knowledge of the ways of the people in your section to fondly hug the delusion that because anything ought to be done that it will be done. To benefit the people of that vicinity one has to fight them determinedly to induce them to accept the benefit.

The dog who sits upright on the seat of an express wagon has lost his laurels. He is supplanted in the minds of the novelty-loving public by a small black Scotch terrier who accompanies the wagon of Fera's confectionery saloon. This canine seemingly scorns the safety of the vehicle, and so rides erect on the back of the horse that draws the wagon, offering a comical spectacle to the crowds who gaze upon him.

M.

WELL PUT.—The Traveller says: "A colored Cadet lately sent to West Point has been sent to Coventry by the 'high-toned' society of that flunkeyfied hole. He has not been able to obtain a boarding place. The prejudice against color is almost as strong as ever it was, and there is a hard fight to be gone through before the remains of slavery shall be buried, and pollute the earth no more. Our country is the most illiberal part of the earth. Why, the young man who is snubbed at West Point, could enter any European institution of instruction, and not a person there would be moved by his entrance,—unless, indeed, there should chance to be among the students the son of a prosperous American tinker or rag-picker, who should think it his duty to illustrate the American idea of liberty and equality by standing up for the position that this is 'a white man's world.'"

—The Unitarian Society at Lynn sets an example worthy of general imitation during the summer season, in furnishing at the entrance to their church an ample supply of pure ice water.

New Hampshire Items.

In Alton, a few days ago, a man named Charles Adams found a complete set of burglar's tools, of 42 pieces, concealed in a clump of alders on the bank of the Evans brook. It is not improbable that they were placed there by the robbers of the Wolfeboro' Bank, who were suspected of having passed through Alton.

The residence of Aaron Quimby at East Grantham, was entered on Friday night last and robbed of money and valuables to the amount of $1000.

The survey of an important railroad link, connecting the towns of Peterborough and Hillsborough, will be completed in a few days. This connects the Hillsborough road from Concord with the Peterborough and Monadnock, and with the Fitchburg road at Winchendon, Mass., making the distance from Concord to New York some twenty-eight miles shorter than the existing routes. President Hon. Jonas Livingston, of the Monadnock road, says that the road will be put under contract within three months.

A young lady of Great Falls who had a beautiful head of hair, was obliged to have it cut off close to the head on account of the insects that got into the hair from a switch she had been wearing.

Professor John S. Woodman of Dartmouth College heard a few recitations recently when not fully recovered from his recent attack of illness, and is now very much prostrated, and consumption is feared.

We are sorry to learn from the Monitor, that Prof. Woodman of Dartmouth College, in consequence of too early resuming his duties after his recent severe illness, has had a relapse and serious fears are entertained that he may go into a decline of health. It is probably known to but few of your citizens that Prof. W. is a real estate owner in Portsmouth, but he has for years owned the little cottage opposite Mr. Grover's residence on Sagamore road, and we believe also owns a farm in Newcastle.

COUNTY ITEMS.—Mrs. E. S. Ordway, of Hampstead, has given five dollars to the American Tract Society. The Sabbath School of the Congregational church in Stratham, has raised twenty dollars for the American Missionary Association. The first Congregational church in Derry, has contributed thirty-one dollars to the American Missionary Association.

A steam saw-mill is to be built in the north part of Danville.

On Saturday, 4th inst., a trial was had before a Justice in Raymond. Two families living near each other, had a quarrel. One Stevens gave, as is alleged, a blow to the wife of a Mr. Roberts, which nearly felled her to the floor. Mr. Hopkins of Epping, was counsel for the plaintiff, Mr. Hazen of Raymond, for the defence. The judgment of the most part of those present, seemed to be that the charge was proved. The counsel for the defence said privately before the argument, that the accused would be fined. To the great surprise of the multitude, the Justice cleared the respondent. So just now, striking defenceless females is cheap in Raymond. There are, however, husbands there that will protect their wives by some means.

More than thirty years ago, a meeting-house was built in the south part of Brentwood, by the Universalists. It was used for several years, part of the time, but experience has shown that a meeting-house should be located at some village or seat of town operations. This, in late years, has not been occupied for service, and has gone much to decay. It is now proposed to sell it to be converted to other use.

DONN PIATT ON JUDGE HOAR.—That merciless satirist, Donn Piatt, who formed one of the distinguished pleasure party which steamed down the Potomac the other day, alludes to one of his compagnons du voyage as follows:

At the last moment, when the plank was about being pulled in, Attorney-General Hoar made his appearance. The Attorney-General moves with a slow dignity, peculiarly impressive. He was just one hour and five minutes crossing the island, and all the while looked calmly through the gold-rimmed glasses into the dim distance, as if he saw the day of judgment, and was preparing an opinion for that occasion. When he arrived on board, the thermometer fell ten degrees, and ladies began putting on their wraps. To equalize the temperature, the committee sat the Attorney-General on the sunny side of the boat, where he remained, blinking like an owl during the entire excursion. He gave but one opinion during the day, and that was of a constitutional sort to the President. His Excellency, Utter Silence, seeing his Attorney-General sitting so long in one position, asked him if that part of his person where the legs end and the body begins, did not ache. Attorney-General Hoar, after half an hour's calm consideration, responded clearly and decidedly, "that it did." A meeting of the Cabinet was immediately called in State-room "D" abaft the boilers. What transpired is not yet positively promulgated, but as General Dent was seen to emerge with a pillow, which he proceeded, aided by General Sherman, to insert under the Attorney-General, it is believed among the better informed, that General Belknap, Secretary of War, had suggested that the Attorney-General had better change his base, and that General Cox, seeing the strategic point, had seconded the suggestion, which Generals Dent and Sherman had carried into effect. I do not vouch for this, however, and would recommend that the anxious public should wait for the venerable Gobright's dispatches, that are never interesting but always reliable.

MARK TWAIN ON MCFARLAND.—Under this heading Mark Twain reports some of the reasons which influenced the jury to acquit McFarland.

That the prisoner Daniel McFarland, is insane, as above described. Because:

1. His great-grandfather's step-father was tainted with insanity, and frequently killed people who were distasteful to him. Hence, insanity is hereditary in the family.

2. For nine years the prisoner at the bar did not adequately support his family. Strong circumstantial evidence of insanity.

3. For nine years he made of his house as a general thing, a poor-house; sometimes (but very rarely,) a cheery, happy habitation; frequently the den of a beery, driveling stupid animal; but never, as far as ascertained, the abiding place of a gentleman. These be evidences of insanity.

4. He once took his young unmarried sister-in-law to the museum; while there his hereditary insanity came upon him, and to such a degree that he hiccupped and staggered; and afterward, on the way home, even made love to the young girl he was protecting. These are the acts of a person not in his right mind.

5. For a good while his sufferings were so great that he had to submit to the inconvenience of having his wife give public readings for the family support; and at times when he handed these shameful earnings to the barkeeper, his haughty soul was so torn with anguish that he could hardly stand without leaning up against something. At such times he has been known to shed tears into his sustenance until it was diluted to utter inefficiency. Instantention of this nature is not the act of a Democrat unafflicted in mind.

—The New York Standard says that John G. Whittier, the American Quaker poet, has left for his quiet and modest home in Amesbury, after several weeks' visit at the residence of Col. Julian Allen of Brooklyn, where many of his friends and admirers paid their respects to him. A reception was intended to be given by his host, but owing to Mr. Whittier's feeble health, and on his own earnest solicitation not to do so, it was obligatory to abandon it, to the regret of many. Nevertheless, his visit to and reception by the Union League Club was a source of gratification.

—The Argus tells the following tale: "Senator Nye put his new silk tile carlessly upon a sofa. A few minutes after the veteran philosopher Greeley sat down upon and crushed the hat fearfully. "Hang it," roared Nye, "I could have told you it wouldn't fit before you tried it on."

—The words of wisdom uttered by Alexander Hamilton about taxing the public debt when he was Secretary of the Treasury, stand, says the Advertiser, "as a perpetual rebuke to the financial charlatans who look upon public credit as something fit only to be speculated with."

CALIFORNIA
VINEGAR
BITTERS.
They are not a vile fancy drink.
Made of poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and refuse Liquors, sweetened, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Restorers," appetizers,' &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER AND LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter, and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions and remain long unwell. $100 will be given for an incurable case, providing the bones are not destroyed by mineral poisons or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair. THE OLD RELIABLE
NEW ENGLAND FAMILY MEDICINE.
TO BE FOUND IN EVERY VILLAGE AND TOWN IN NEW ENGLAND, IS
DODD'S NERVINE
AND INVIGORATOR.
A THOROUGH TONIC AND STOMACHIC.
DODD'S NERVINE is not a new medicine, but has been before the public for the last fifteen years. Is compounded from the best and purest drugs. Contains no OPIUM, STRYCHNINE or MERCURY in any form, and is expressly adapted to the relief and permanent cure of all forms of
NERVOUS DISEASES, &c., &c.,

Coughs,	Neuralgia,	Female Weaknesses,
Colds,	Headache,	Fainting Fits,
Fevers,	Convulsions,	Palpitation,
Agues,	Sleeplessness,	Restlessness,
Biliousness,	Dyspepsia,	Dizziness,
Constipation,	Liver Complaint,	Children's Troubles
Diarrhœa,	Consumption,	&c., &c., &c.,

DODD'S NERVINE
Is a COMPLETE SPECIFIC for sleeplessness. It soothes the throbbing muscle like magic, and tranquilizes the mind. And everybody knows that good sleep is better than all medicines. And all folks that
CAN'T SLEEP NIGHTS,
Should use this truly wonderful medicine.
DODD'S NERVINE
Is one of the best remedies ever employed in the cure of the numerous and troublesome ailments known as FEMALE COMPLAINTS.
For Whooping Cough.
DODD'S NERVINE is administered with unexampled success. Mothers, remember this and save your little ones the agony of a most distressing complaint. It also works admirably in Measles, bringing out the rash well and leaving the bowels free and healthful. For the diseases which afflict CHILDREN WHEN TEETHING, nothing can furnish more instant or grateful relief. Remember, it contains no OPIUM in any form.
LOOK OUT FOR COLDS.
It is proverbial that people treat a cold (and the generally accompanying cough) as something that will cure itself; but neglect is serious and sometimes fatal. The fame of DODD'S NERVINE in the relief of colds is established. Use this standard remedy, and so far abstain from liquids of all kinds as to keep somewhat thirsty for a few days, and the worst cold will soon be gone.
DODD'S NERVINE
Is a PURE TONIC—harmonizes perfectly with the NERVE FIBRE—gives increased energy to the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, and other viscera—and supplies FRESH LIFE for the waste that is constantly taking place. It operates soothingly—is as pleasant to take as any wine, and with SLEEP AND GOOD DIGESTION, which it promotes, restores the afflicted to sound health of body and quietness of mind. It contains no opium, mercury or strychnine, (so often used for nervous complaints,) and is free from all other deleterious drugs whatever. Tens of thousands are testifying to its curative power. my17tw

TO THE HON. JUDGE OF PROBATE
FOR the County of ROCKINGHAM, IN THE STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.
Respectfully represents ABRAHAM G. WENDELL Executor of the will of JOHN C. CORNELLUS late of Portsmouth in said County, deceased, that the Personal Estate of said deceased is not sufficient to pay the just demands against his estate by the sum of seven hundred dollars, and that said deceased died seized of a certain lot of land with the dwelling house thereon situate in said Portsmouth, bounded Northerly by land owned by the heirs of the late JOHN RIDER, Easterly by land formerly of WILLIAM STAVERS now owned by the heirs of the late THOMAS D. BAILEY, Southerly by Jefferson Street, and Westerly by land formerly of STEPHEN CHASE and others, now in the occupation of MRS. SARAH CHASE, and that all of said Estate will be required to pay said debts and a part thereof cannot be sold without injury to the persons therein interested.
Wherefore he prays that he may be licensed to sell at Public Auction the whole of said Real Estate of said deceased above described, agreeable to the Statute in such case provided as may be sufficient for the payment of said demands. Thereto the day of April, A. D., 1870. A. G. WENDELL, Executor, by his Atty, WILLIAM H. HACKETT.
State of New Hampshire, Rockingham, ss.
Probate Office at Exeter, in said County May 10, A. D., 1870.
Upon the foregoing Petition, it is Ordered, that a hearing be had thereon at a Court of Probate to be holden at Portsmouth in said County, on the second Tuesday of July next; and that the Petitioner notify the heirs of said deceased and all persons concerned or interested therein, to appear at said Court and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted, by causing said petition and this order to be published three weeks successively in the Daily Chronicle, a newspaper printed at Portsmouth in said County, the last publication whereof to be at least one week prior to said Court.
By order of the Judge.
THOMAS LEAVITT, Register of Probate.
Portsmouth, May 27, 1870. my27|e3&10

TO THE HON. JUDGE OF PROBATE
FOR the County of ROCKINGHAM, IN THE STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.
Respectfully shows MARCELLUS BUFFORD of Portsmouth in the County of Rockingham that he is Guardian of ROBERT HORROCKS, an insane person resident in said Portsmouth, by the appointment of the Judge of Probate for the said County of Rockingham; that he said Ward is seized of the right in equity of redeeming the following described Real Estate lying in said Portsmouth to wit;—a certain lot of land situate on the corner of Hanover and Bridge Streets, bounded as follows beginning on Hanover Street at the corner of Bridge Street and running Southerly on Hanover Street twenty-six feet then turning and running Northerly on the Bowling Alley lot forty feet, then turning and running westerly parallel to Bridge Street to point began at, together with the two stores or building thereon, being premises mortgaged by said HORROCKS to MATHES & VARRELL and JOHN McINTIRE.
And that it is necessary for the support of his said Ward, and will be conducive to his interest to have the premises sold; wherefore, he prays that he may be licensed and authorized to sell the same at public auction, according to the statute in such case made and provided.
MARCELLUS BUFFORD, Guardian.
State of New Hampshire, Rockingham, ss.
Probate Court at Portsmouth in said County, May 10, A. D. 1870.
Upon the foregoing Petition, it is Ordered, that a hearing be had thereon at the Court of Probate to be holden at Portsmouth in said County, on the second Tuesday of July next; and that the Petitioner notify all persons concerned to appear at said Court, and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said Petition should not be granted, by causing said petition and this order to be published three weeks successively in the Daily Chronicle a newspaper printed at Portsmouth in said County, the last publication whereof to be at least one week prior to said Court.

The frauds perpetrated by Charles and Frank A. Zeitz in New York involve at least $150,000. It appears that they purchased tobacco from merchants in Louisville, Cincinnati, and other western cities, on time, which they sold for cash. They have left no clue to their whereabouts.

A small party of U. S. Gavalry had a fight with a party of stock-stealing Indians, in Nebraska, Wednesday, and killed two of them. The Indians' camp and all their stock was captured.

The Tuesday night train from Boston ran into a culvert near Summit Station, Vt., by which accident three persons were killed and fourteen seriously wounded.

Frederick Kelling, a German, stabbed James Eagan, an Irishman, to the heart in a slaughter house, near Union Hill, N. J., Wednesday. The affair arose from an ill-feeling between the German and Irish butchers. Eagan called Kelling a liar, the latter retorted, Eagan drew a revolver, and Kelling immediately plunged a knife into Eagan's heart,—then drew it out, calmly walked into a saloon, called for a drink and subsequently surrendered.

The great fire in Constantinople is out. Loss estimated at $25,000,000. About 150 dead bodies have been recovered, and as many more persons are supposed to have perished.

The Portland Yacht Club arrived at Boothbay Wednesday evening.

KITTERY CAUCUS.—The Republicans of Kittery, at a Caucus held Thursday evening, chose the following persons as Delegates to the District Convention to be held at Saco on the 27th inst:—

Joshua H. Sanborn, Francis Bacon, Charles H. Bartlett, Luther B. Call, Robert Briard, John Rogers.

These delegates are all in favor of the nomination of Gen. M. F. Wentworth of Kittery, and were chosen by a vote of 190 to 58.—Gen. Wentworth deserves well of the Republicans. His war record will bear the closest scrutiny; and among his most ardent supporters are those who served under him in the field, during the rebellion. He has never faltered in his support of the most advanced Republican principles; and as a gentleman of education, natural ability, and decision of character, may safely be entrusted with an office by the party he has always consistently supported.

Our Legislative Correspondence.

CONCORD, June 8th.

Dear Chronicle:—The Senatorial combat deepens, if it don't widen—and Thursday's Caucus will doubtless decide it. The new national law which provides that the vote in the Legislature shall be taken viva voce, will prevent all dodging and pretences; and the adoption of a check-list for the Caucus, will secure fairness otherwise not attainable. I shall not even attempt to influence the result by bluffing on the certainty of any candidate; but I see no reason to change my belief that Mr. Cragin will be re-nominated, and probably on the first ballot.

Gen. Wilson delivered a Lecture [on California and the 100,000 Chinamen there, in the Representative's Hall, Tuesday evening, and is to give another soon. He spoke many good, and no bad words for John Chinaman.

The resolutions virtually condemning all votes in Congress in favor of Pacific Railroads, which were laid on the table Tuesday in the House, was not exactly a showing of hands for anybody. For while Portsmouth was unanimously yea, and Nashua (Gen. Steven's home) nay, still of course none of the Rollins' men would dare vote against a Pacific R. R.

The Concord Railroad matter is still somewhat "cussed" and discussed. The new (or ring) Directors have decided to discontinue if they can, the "Conductor suits," and a motion to that effect will probably be made by their counsel, at the present term of the Supreme Court at Manchester. One of the counsel for the joint or Northern management remarks that if there was any doubt about the contract being sustained, at the outset, either by the Court or public, the course of the "ring" have already removed it. Well, we shall see—for the Courts will doubtless soon commence some sort of proceedings in the case; but it is hard to see how the matter can get before the Legislature, though it may.

At a preliminary meeting of the County Convention, Wednesday, Frank W. Miller of Portsmouth, (last year's Secretary,) was elected Chairman, and N. G. Gilman of Exeter Secretary. It was voted to hold a meeting for business and examination of County affairs, on Tuesday afternoon next, and that the Secretary request the attendance of the County Commissioners.

Yours always, F.

CONGRESS.—The Senate on Wednesday, after an exciting and bitter controversy, referred the memorial of Mr. Hatch of Connecticut concerning his imprisonment in San Domingo, to a special committee of seven. The Indian appropriation bill was passed after being amended so as to provide for the sale of the Osage Indian lands in Kansas for the benefit of the tribe. The House spent the session on Mr. Garfield's funding and banking bill, and left it as good as dead.

BEACON PARK RACES.—As will be seen by the advertisement, this is the last day of the races of the Boston Trotting Association. The sport has been excellent, though the bad weather has occasioned two postponements. For the last race, free to all horses, $6000 premium, the famous racers Goldsmith Maid, Lady Thorne, American Girl and George Palmer, are entered; an assurance that an exciting and hotly-contested race will result.

GRAND ORDER OF A. & H.—At the meeting of the Antiques & Horribles held last evening the following Committee, were chosen. For receiving delegations from the neighboring towns, Messrs. T. E. Stoodley, William A. Payson and Clarence O. Walker; for the procuring of old horses and teams, C. E. Johnson, Hiram M. Prescott, Frank W. Varrell, George Tripp; on uniforms, &c., Charles A. Wilson, George Parks, William Chase, Frank A. Colley. After some remarks from their leader, urging them to still work with all zeal, the meeting adjourned to meet at the same place next Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock. A committee will call upon the citizens for subscriptions next week, which we hope will meet with a liberal response.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Three Requisites of Health.

If all the sickly people in the world were to take to their beds, and demand medical treatment, their would not be doctors enough to attend them nor a sufficient number of the robust to nurse them. Three conditions are absolutely essential to health. viz; a good appetite, easy digestion, and the ability to sleep soundly. Seven-eighths of the many thousands who suffer from indisposition, yet do not labor under serious disease, complain that they "haven't an appetite," that their stomachs are "out of order," or that they "don't sleep well." For this class of ailments few persons think of calling in a physician. Nor it is necessary; inasmuch as a course of Hostetter's Bitters, will certainly relieve the derangements of the stomach, the liver, and the nervous system, from which want of appetite, indigestion and sleeplessness arise.

This excellent vegetable tonic and corrective is also a delightful anodyne. Insomnia (or incapacity to sleep) which has resisted all the ordinary remedies, will yield readily to a dose of this pleasant sedative taken just before retiring to rest. In ordinary medical practice it is usual to give a stomachic, an aperient, an invigorant, a soporific or an antiseptic, as the case for the time being may seem more particularly to require; but in this grand restorative all these medicinal properties, and many others are blended in due proportion. Thus, the digestion is stimulated, while the bowels are regulated, the liver toned, the strength recruited, the nerves calmed, the fluids purified and the circulation equalized.

It is believed that there is no other restorative and regulating medicine in the world which acts so beneficially and agreeably upon all the assimilating and secretive organs at the same time, and to all who lack the three fundamental requisites of health and enjoyment, a vigorous appetite, sound digestion and refreshing sleep, it is confidently recommended as a specific.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which feed the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12

"Children's Lives Saved for 50 Cts."

THOUSANDS OF CHILDREN DIE ANNUNUALLY OF CROUP. Now, Mothers, if you would spend 50 cents, and always have a bottle of DR. TOBIAS' VENETIAN LINIMENT in the house, you never need fear losing your little one when attacked with this complaint. It is now 22 years since I have put up my Liniment, and never heard of a child dying of Croup when my Liniment was used; but hundreds of cures have been reported to me, and many state if it was $10 per bottle they would not be without it. Besides which, it is a certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Headache, Toothache, Sore throat, Swellings, Mumps, Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Spasms, Old Sores and Pains in the Limbs, Back, Chest. No one who once tries it is ever without it. It is warranted perfectly safe to use internally. Full directions with every bottle. Sold by the Druggists and Storekeepers in the United States. CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosciusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively, in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung disease in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says; "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL ROBINSON, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says; I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

Physicians do not recommend a medicine which has no merits, what they say about

Proposals For Supplies—Maj. Wm. B. Slack.
Wanted—A Good Cook.

☞ The Maine Printers' Association have voted to hold the next meeting of the Maine and New Hampshire Associations at Rye Beach, Wednesday and Thursday, July 6th and 7th.

STONE & MURRAY'S CIRCUS has created a genuine sensation in this city. The performances last night were extremely interesting from beginning to end, and elicted enthusiastic applause from "hands with hearts in them."—Jersey City Standard.

☞ The Head Guards, Co. C., 1st Regt. N. H. S. M., Capt. David Urch, visited this city yesterday from Manchester, on a target shooting excursion, and returned on the evening train. They appeared to be a well disciplined and orderly body of young men, and numbered about thirty muskets—or rifles we don't know which. Their target looked pretty well battered as they marched past the Chronicle office on their return. This same company was here about a year ago.

☞ There is an event which occurs nearly every day at the Navy Yard, which shows the remarkable docility of birds. At the watch station at the end of the Seavey's Island bridge, the watchman, some weeks since, was in the habit of throwing crumbs to a pair of sparrows in front of the Station. They became so tame that they were tolled into the premises, and now they are very regular at lunch time, and fly directly inside the Station, where they run around and pick up the crumbs, and are more docile than chickens.

STORER ENCAMPMENT, G. A. R.—At a regular meeting of Storer Encampment, G. A. R., June 8, the following Resolution was unanimously adopted.—

Resolved, With grateful hearts we tender our sincere thanks to the ladies of Portsmouth, whose fair hands twined the garlands and arranged the boquets with which the graves of our departed comrades were crowned on Memorial Day. And we would also express our indebtedness to the Commandant of this Naval Station for the escort of Marines; to the Naval Officers who kindly honored us with their presence; to the gentleman who furnished the exquisite vocal music; to the eloquent speaker who paid such fitting tribute to the memory of the fallen ones; to Wentworth Encampment of Kittery; and to the Fireman, City Government, and citizens, who with their contribution and presence assisted in the services of the day.

A DESERTER.—A few days since we gave an account of a cat that would neither die or give up his bad habits, even though killed and buried. Since then another instance of uncatlike conduct on the part of a masculine feline has been brought under our notice.

A family in this city boasts of the possession of a cat that rejoices in the name of Jim. Like Jonah, Jim is a terrible fellow for fish. One evening a member of the family brought home a number of live minnows, and put them in a large basin of water, which was placed on a table. Jim knew that the minnows were choice eating, and allowed himself to covet them much. After sitting by the basin for some time, watching his supper swim around, he inserted one arm into the water, trying to hook out a minnow; but finding that the fish could move faster under water than his paw could, he at length got boldly into the basin, and shutting his eyes, splashed about furiously with all four legs until he had kicked and clawed all the fish and half the water out of the dish, and given a shower-bath to pretty much every thing in the room. He then got out of the basin, looking very much like an old dish-cloth, and ate his well earned supper.

Jim not only likes fish, but is fond of riding in a carriage, or following different members of the family out into the city; and has had to be carried back by force, and imprisoned in the house, whenever his society was not considered desirable. The family have lately commenced removing to a new residence, and Jim has regularly mounted each load of furniture, and growled fiercely when he was as regularly banished to durance vile. On Thursday Jim was not to be found when the load was about starting, and it was supposed that Satan had found some other mischief still for his idle hands to do, besides trying to steal rides; but on arriving at his destination, the driver was amused and astonished to see Sir James crawl out of the middle of the furniture to the topmost peak of the load, and complacently commence to wash his face. He was ignominiously captured and consigned to a closet in the house; and may now justly claim to be the first of the family to desert the old habitation and take up a residence in the new one.

☞ The P. S. & P. R. R. have placed a new Locomotive on that road. The Engine is of a recent pattern, has cylinders 16-22 inches in size, 5 1-2 feet driving wheels, and weighs 31 tons. She is named the Pepperell, and was built by the Portland Co.

THE REPUBLICAN CAUCUS for the nomination of a candidate for United States Senator from New Hampshire was held in Concord Thursday evening. The excitement in Concord during the day was intense, numerous friends and advocates of the various candidates being on the ground, each endeavoring to advance the cause of his own man. The Manchester Mirror's "Outsider" made up a "slate" in the morning, giving the following as the probable relative strength of each candidate on the first ballot, in a caucus numbering 200 people.

Scattering	5
Gordon	5
Tappan	30
Stevens	33
Rollins	52
Cragin	75

The estimate of the number of members at the Caucus was very close, but Rollins was set much too high, while Stevens was not voted high enough.

By special arrangement with the Western Union Telegraph Line, we received prompt advices of the progress of the contest from our reporter at Concord. Perfect order prevailed at the Caucus; and the vote was taken by Counties, commencing with Rockingham. The first ballot resulted as follows:—

Whole number of votes	203
Necessary to a choice	102
Cragin	95
Stevens	43
Rollins	32
Tappan	21
Gordon	8
Smythe	3

On the second ballot Cragin stock had gone up so that the vote stood as follows:—

Whole number of votes cast	204
Necessary to a choice	103
Cragin	109
Stevens	46
Tappan	23
Rollins	21
Gordon	5

and Hon. Aaron H. Cragin was declared to have received the nomination, —which was then made unanimous.

A Committee of ten waited on Mr. Cragin, who made a speech of acceptance and thanks, promising to maintain his present character for honor. Mr. Cragin spoke with much feeling; and his neat speech was applauded to the echo.

Gen. Stevens followed, thanking his friends for their support,—and saying that but one other result would have pleased him so well as the success of his loved friend and colleague, Mr. Cragin. His remarks were received with long continued applause.

After the adjournment of the Caucus, Messrs. Cragin and Stevens underwent a general shaking of the hands by their delighted friends. Portsmouth voted solid for Cragin on both ballots.

To the readers of this paper it is needless to say that we are glad of this result; and in the absence of our seniors, we (the junior we) take occasion to congratulate those papers which seem to regard "all strategem as fair in war and politics," that unjust and uncalled for aspersions on the character of a rival, and untruthful and ungentlemanly imputations regarding the motives of his supporters, do not always have the wished for effect. We feel a little jovial—but kicking the under dog or crowing over a defeated antagonist is not our forte; so we leave those who have shouted so loudly over mare's nests of their own manufacture, to the punishment of their own guilty consciences, and the knowledge that New Hampshire is to be represented in the United States Senate for another term by the honest and irreproachable gentlemen and legislator, Aaron H. Cragin.

—OF THE—

CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILROAD CO.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad

Is completed and running from RICHMOND, Va., to the celebrated WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, in West Va., 227 miles. It is being rapidly extended to the Ohio River, 200 miles further, making in all 427 miles.

In its progress Westward, it penetrates and opens up to market the Wonderful Coal Deposits of the Kanawha Region in West Virginia. And thus brings the superior and abundant Coals of that section into communication with the Iron Ores of Virginia and Ohio, and the Western, South Western and Eastern markets.

When completed it will connect the superior harbor facilities of the Chesapeake Bay with reliable navigation on the Ohio River, and thus with the entire system of Railroad and Water transportations of the great West and South-West.

It will make a short, easy, cheap and favorable route from the West, to the sea, and will command a large share of the enormous freights seeking transportation to the coas

It will thus become one of the most important and profitable East and West Trunk Lines of Railroad in the country, and command a trade of immense value.

The completed portion of the Road is doing a profitable and increasing Business, and is fully equal in value to the whole amount of the mortgage upon the entire Line—($15,000,000.)

The loan of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company, being a First Mortgage upon the entire Line, property and equipments, worth when completed at least $30,000,000, is therefore one of the most substantial, conservative and reliable Railroad Loans ever offered in the market, and is peculiarly adapted to the wants of

INVESTORS and CAPITALISTS,

Who desire to make their investments with the most satisfactory assurance of positive and undoubted Security.

The Bonds are in denominations of

Morning Chronicle.

☞ That the following little poem presents a very pleasing picture of rural felicity, all our readers must allow. Fortunate indeed are they who retain the feelings of youth in maturer years.

For the Chronicle and Gazette.

"PROSPECT HILL."

At sunset hour, so calm and still,
I sauntered forth for Prospect Hill;
Nature's fair work with joy to scan
With her, whose name was Abby Ann.

Her presence added to the scene;
The sky was clearer,—more serene;
The fields assumed a deeper hue,
Refreshed by gently falling dew.

The earth beneath, the sky above,
Inspired me with words of love;
The prospect never seemed so fine,
I whispered low, "will you be mine?"

She slightly blushed, her head inclined,
And soft she answered words divine;
What joy, what solace did enfold
This treasure, worth far more than gold.

And now within our cottage door,
Tho' Time our hair has silvered o'er,
Our hearts remain as youthful still
As when we roamed on Prospect Hill.

Greenland, June 9. AUGUSTUS.

STRAWBERRY CULTURE.—Having had some experience in the raising of strawberries, I offer you this as my method of cultivation. I set my plants about the first of May, about a foot apart in a single row, and the rows four and a half feet apart, on good, well-manured ground. I keep the cultivator going between the rows till about the 8th of July, when the runners begin to run; and then go over the ground with a rake, and make it level; after this, I go over the beds, and place the runners so that the plants will be as near four inches apart as I conveniently can.

With me the runners cover all the ground between the rows. Keeping the ground light till you set the runners gives the young plant a chance to make good roots, which stand the dry weather the next summer when they are in bearing. If you let the ground get hard for the new plants, the roots will be short, and the plant will not be able to carry their fruit to the size and quantity it otherwise would. I cover my beds, when they are frozen in the fall, so that I can drive my team over them without leaving a mark, with fine, light horse-manure; cover it lightly as possible, and yet have them covered.

In the spring I let the plants come up through the manure, which serves as a mulching, to keep the berries clean. As soon as the plants are started enough in the spring to see the old plants that were set the spring before, I put a line on the beds, and take out the old row, and make the path about fourteen inches wide, so as to keep the pickers in their proper places. I do not set every year, as some growers do; but, as soon as I get through picking, I dig or plough up the sides of my beds to a strip eight or ten inches wide; from this strip new runners will start, which I set over the ground as at the first season.

I cart off all the plants I plough up, and make the ground as light as possible; then, the next spring (of course, manuring in the fall as above) I take out the old strip with some of the new for my path; and thus I keep my plants one year old, which is the best for bearing. I never allow weeds to grow at any season of the year. I have had the greatest success with the Brighton Pine. [Augustus Parker of Roxbury, Mass., in Tilton's Journal of Horticulture.

DO NOT LET THE CATTLE INTO THE MEADOWS.—Some farmers allow themselves to fall into the miserable and costly practice of letting their cows, early in the spring, roam at will over the fields they propose to mow the coming July. Nothing is more injurious. The ground, always wet in the spring, is trodden into such an unequal surface that, besides the injury to the grass roots, mowing is made more difficult, and the loss in the subsequent crop is many times greater than all the cattle get from their perambulations. Keep the cattle in the barn or barn-yards, or some adjoining lot, till there is grass enough in the pastures to give them a good bite, and then when turned out, with one feeding of hay per day, they will have just what they need to secure to them the best health and to the owners the largest profits.

TOMATOES, EGG PLANTS, &c.—Tomatoes, Egg and Cabbage plants, after being set out, generally become somewhat wilted in their leaves, and loose some of them from the effects of the sun before they become established. This can be prevented by setting over the plant, say from eight or nine to five o'clock in the day, boxes in the shape of cones, about fourteen inches in height, open at the top. They also protect the plants against frost. By the use of these boxes a week is gained in time, and sometimes the plants saved from severe and fatal injury. The boxes will last twelve or fifteen years. Germantown Telegraph.

—A correspondent of the Rural New Yorker says that he has known a horse that went for twelve months on three legs from ringbone, made perfectly sound by the application once a day of an ointment composed of half an ounce of red precipitate, half an ounce of blue stone, half a pint of turpentine, thoroughly mixed. Keep the hoof greased.

The newly chosen Bishop of the N. H. Episcopal church will make Concord his place of residence.

At the law term of the Supreme Judicial Court at Manchester, the important and long pending divorce case of Whittle vs. Whittle for the alleged adultery of Dr. Whittle's wife with one Sawyer, Jr., was decided in favor of Dr. Whittle. All of the parties are of Nashua. Judge Smith in delivering the opinion administered a caustic rebuke to the young adulterer.

Moses Wingate died at his residence at Haverhill, Mass., Wednesday, aged one hundred years and eight months. He served in the Massachusetts Senate and House, and was one of the delegates in 1820 to revise the constitution. He held the office of Postmaster fifteen years, and has been a prominent Mason since 1830. He was a brother of Hon. Paine Wingate, of Stratham, a lidading man in the early days of this State, who died in 1838 at the age of 99.

Dr. George B. Loring of Salem, has been engaged to deliver the oration at the coming anniversary of the Literary Societies at Dartmouth Commencement. Rev. Silvanus Hayward, of South Berwick, will be the poet of the occasion. Gen. A. K. Oliver of Salem, will deliver the address before the Phi Beta Kappa society.

On Saturday the town of Salisbury, Mass., voted to take $20,000 of the stock of the Amesbury & Exeter Railway, on condition that the Eastern Railroad will lease the road for twenty-five years at six per cent.

Two gentlemen from Hopkinton, named Chase, stopped their team in front of Fisk's store in Concord, and one was preparing to give the horse some oats, having taken the animal's headstall off. It happened to thunder, and the horse looking behind, saw the gentleman in the wagon spreading his umbrella. The horse at once took fright, ran away, and after knocking against the tress threw Mr. C. out, cutting his head and jamming his right foot badly.

The Boston Traveller, in an article on the recently consummated "business contract" between the officers and ex-officers of the Northern and Concord Railroads, claims that it practically completes the consolidation of the whole line of roads from Boston to Ogdensburg. It is under the direction of George Stark, L. Millis of Boston, Gov. Stearns, and Gov. Smith of Vermont.

—Last Friday, as a little son of Francis Avery, of Biddeford, was quietly walking down Main street, he was attacked by a bull dog belonging to one Charles A. J. Blake, and very severely bitten in the abdomen. The little fellow at last accounts was confined to his bed, under the care of Dr. Warren. An action has been taken against Blake by the boy's father. It is high time the city fathers began to look to the enforcement of their dog law, ere some more serious occurence of the same character take place.—Bid. Dem.

☞ Old and New has transferred its headquarters to the publishing house of Messrs. Roberts Brothers, of Boston, thus becoming nominally what it has always been actually, a Boston magazine. It will issue the July number under the new auspices, beginning the second volume of a literary enterprise which has been wonderfully successful from the start.

BRIGHTON CATTLE MARKET.
FOR THE WEEK ENDING THURSDAY, JUNE 9.
[Reported for the Boston Journal.]

At market for the current week—Cattle 2114; Sheep and Lambs 4238; Swine 4700: number of Western Cattle 1648; Eastern Cattle 166; Northern Cattle and Working Oxen 300. Cattle left over —.

Prices Beef Cattle—Extra $13 25 @ $14 00; first quality $12 75 @ $13 00; second quality $12 00 @ $12 50; third quality $11 00 @ $11 75; poorest grade of coarse Oxen, Bulls, &c., $8 50 @ $10 50 ℔ cwt, (the total weight of hides, tallow and dressed beef.)

Brighton Hides 7 @ 7½c ℔ lb; Country Hides 6½ @ 7c ℔ lb.

Brighton Tallow 6½ @ 7½c per lb; Country Tallow 6 @ 7c ℔ lb.

Sheep and Lamb Skins $1 25 @ $1 50 each; Calf Skins 16 @ 17c ℔ lb.

The supply of Cattle in market was larger than the demand required and the quality was mostly of a common grade. Prices have fallen off from ½ @ 1c ℔ lb from our last quotations. There was not so much decline upon the best grades of Beef as upon the poorer qualities. Most of the Maine Cattle were suitable for Beef. There was a few very nice Cattle from St. John, N. B., sold at 9½ c ℔ lb, live weight.

Store Cattle—With the exception of Working Oxen and Milch Cows there are but a few Store Cattle brought to market at this season of the year. Most of the small Cattle are sold for Beef.

Milch Cows—Extra $85 @ $115; ordinary $50 @ $60; Store Cows $35 @ $55 ℔ head. Most of the Cows in market are of a common grade. But a few extra ones in market.

Working Oxen—There has been a fair supply in market for the week. The trade is rather quiet and not much doing with Working Oxen. We quote sales at $165, $180, $205, $220, $210, $230, $175 @ $220 ℔ pair.

Sheep and Lambs—Those from West were taken at a commission or owned by butchers. We quote extra and selections at $7 @ $8 ℔ head; ordinary lots $4 @ $6, or from 5 @ 10c ℔ lb. Lambs $7 @ $8 ℔ head.

Swine—Store Pigs—Wholesale 11 @ 13c ℔ lb; retail 11 @ 13c ℔ lb. Spring Pigs 18 @ 20c ℔ lb. Fat Hogs—5000 at market: prices 10 @ 10½ ℔ lb. Coarse heavy Shoats 9½ @ 12c ℔ lb.

The great fire in Constantinople destroyed 7000 houses and caused the loss of 300 lives. The destruction of property is estimated at over $125,000,000. At some points whole families were hemmed in by the flames, and perished in full view of the spectators, who were unable to rescue them.

Two brothers by the name of Stevens, of Loudon, entered the grocery store of a Mr. Kendrick in Chichester a few days since, and called for a lot of goods. The goods were put up, when the roughs demanded a credit for them. This was firmly refused, upon which the villains knocked the storekeeper down and stole the goods and made off. They were pursued and overtaken at Suncook. They evaded the officers by jumping from the cars, and escaped with the officers in pursuit of them.

ROCKINGHAM COUNTY.—The Convention of the members of the Legislature from Rockingham County was called on Wednesday, at the State House, by Mr. E. W. Miller, Secretary of last year's Convention; and Frank W. Miller, of Portsmouth, was elected Chairman, and Mr. N. G. Gilman, of Exeter, Secretary of the Convention.

The county indebtedness is stated to be $137,700, the receipts and expenditures last year $149,000, and the amount called for by the Commissioners this year is $77,000. It is said that many of the towns desire their paupers to be received at the county farm, which has as yet admitted county charges only; and that a bill will be introduced at this session, obligating the Commissioners to provide for these also.

The Convention adjourned to Tuesday afternoon next, at which time the attendance of the Commissioners is requested. The county house at Brentwood, concerning which there is great dissatisfaction in the county, is still the subject of a lawsuit between the contractors and the building committee.—Monitor.

FATE OF THE YOUNG WOMEN.—Thus passed four or five days. On Saturday a new horror was added to the others. The savages began to carry off the young women for wives. Three were thus dragged away to Indian lodges to suffer tortures worse than death. One young girl, a daughter of Mr. Kimble, was taken possession of by the murderer of her father, who took daily delight in reminding her of the fact, and when her sorrow could no longer be restrained, only threatened to exchange her for another young girl who was also a wife by compulsion.

Miss Balee, the eldest of the young women at the mission, and who was a teacher in the mission school, was taken to the Umatilla, to the lodge of Five-Crows. As has before been related, there was a house on the Umatilla belonging to Tau-i-tan, in which were residing at this time two Catholic priests —the Vicar-General Brouillet, and Blanchet, Bishop of Walla-Walla. To this house Miss Balee applied for protection, and was refused, whether from fear, or from the motives subsequently attributed to them by some Protestant writers in Oregon, is not known to anybody but themselves. The only thing certain about it is, that Miss Balee was allowed to be violently dragged from their presence every night, to return to them weeping in the morning, and to have her entreaties for their assistance answered by assurances from them that the wisest course for her was to submit. And this continued for more than two weeks, until the news of Mr. Ogden's arrival at Walla-Walla became known, when Miss Balee was told that if Five-Crows would not allow her to remain in their house altogether, she must remain at the lodge of Five-Crows without coming to their house at all, well knowing what the Five-Crows would do, but wishing to have Miss Balee's action seem voluntary, from shame perhaps, at their own cowardice. Yet the reason they gave ought to go for all it is worth—that they being priests could not have a woman about their house. In this unhappy situation did the female captives spend three most miserable weeks.—From the River of the West, just published.

H. T. HELMBOLD'S
CONCENTRATED
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,
THE GREAT DIURETIC.

The proprietor trusts that his Remedies, from the fact of their being advertised, may not be classed as Patent Medicines.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU is a pharmaceutical preparation. The proper name is given, and it is the most active which can be made. It is endorsed as a cure by all medical works for such diseases as recommended by the proprietor. It is pleasant in its taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and is taken by adults and children. It tonic, diuretic, blood-purifying, and invigorating. Enfeebled and delicate constitutions of both sexes will find it far more strengthening than any of the preparations of bark or iron.

See medical properties contained in Dispensatory of the United States, of which the following is a correct copy:—

BUCHU.—Its odor is strong, diffusive, and somewhat aromatic; its taste is bitterish, and analogous to that of mint. It is given chiefly in complaints of the urinary organs, such as gravel, chronic catarrh of the bladder, morbid irritation of the prostate gland, and retention or the incontinence of urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. It has also been recommended in dyspepsia, chronic rheumatism, cutaneous affections, and dropsy.

Cure of Gravel of Five Years Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

SAVANNAH, TENN., May 14, 1869.

Dr. H. T. Helmbold,

DEAR SIR: Having introduced your "Fluid Extract Buchu" in this county about eight months ago, and are happy to state that it is meeting with universal favor. We wish to inform you of one instance (among many) where your "Buchu" has worked wonders. A man in our county, named H. Ezell, had been suffering about five years with gravel.

About six weeks ago he bought of us one bottle of your "Buchu," and before he was through with one bottle he passed a gravel full weighs eight grains, which we now have on exhibition in our drug store. He says that he will never be without the "Buchu" in his house again. Your preparations are gaining favor every day.

Very respectfully yours, &c.,
ECCLES & HINKLE, Druggists.

Cure of Bladder and Kidney Affection of long Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

WESTPORT, CONN., Sept. 9, 1869.

H. T. Helmbold, Esq.,

DEAR SIR: I commenced taking your "Extract of Buchu" about two weeks since for an affection of the bladder and kidneys. I have suffered by spells much more than for a few days past. But yesterday relief came through the effect of your "Buchu." A stone passed from my bladder about the size of a pea, large enough, and now feel perfectly well and entirely free from the pain that I have suffered so much and so hard. I attribute my cure to your medicine entirely, and would recommend all persons similarly affected to try it. I have great faith in its curative powers.

Yours truly, THOMAS J. BENNETT.

Cure of Kidney and Bladder Affection of a Patient Seventy-eight years of Age. Thanks to Mr. Helmbold.

GIRARD, PA., March 31, 1869.

Editor Cosmopolite: I desire, as an unsolicited tribute to the merits of Helmbold's Buchu, and for the benefit of those similarly afflicted as myself, to say that after consulting many eminent physicians, and trying nearly all the best advertised formulas in the vain hope of obtaining relief from aggravated kidney and bladder disease, from which I have suffered excessively for many years, good fortune finally suggested to me Helmbold's Buchu, which I commenced using with little faith, and no apparent beneficial results for about a month.

At the expiration of that time, however, I thought I commenced to experience slight relief, which encouraged me to persevere in its use, and now, at the expiration of four months, although I am an infirm old man, nearly 78 years of age, and consequently medicines cannot be expected to favorably affect me as they otherwise would, I have found such unspeakable relief and permanent benefit from Dr. Helmbold's valuable discovery, that I feel I ought to publicly record the fact, as an acknowledgment to him, and a valuable suggestion to the public. Yours respectfully,

JOHN MCLAREN.

DR. KEYSER
is a physician of over thirty years' experience, and a graduate of the Jefferson Medical College, and of the University of Medicine and Surgery of Philadelphia. Hear him:

Mr. H. T. Helmbold.

DEAR SIR: In regard to the question asked me as to my opinion about Buchu, I wohld say that I have used and sold the article in various forms for the past twenty years. I do not think there is any form or preparation of it I have not used, or known to be used, in the various diseases where such a medicate agent would be indicated. You are aware, as well as myself, that it has been extensively employed in the various diseases of the bladder and kidneys, and the reputation it has acquired, in my judgment, is warranted by the facts.

I have seen and used, as before stated, every form of Buchu—the powdered leaves—tincture, fluid extracts—and I am not cognizant of any preparation of that plant at all equal to yours. Twelve years' experience ought, I think, to give me the right to judge of its merits; and, without prejudice or partiality, I give yours precedence over all others.

I value your Buchu for its effect on patients. I have cured with it, and seen cured with it, more diseases of the bladder and kidneys than I have ever seen cured with any other Buchu or any other proprietary compound of whatever name.

Respectfully yours, &c.,
GEO. H. KEYSER, M. D.,

GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, Jan. 28, 1868.

Mr. H. T. Helmbold,

DEAR SIR: Your communication requesting our terms for advertising was duly received, but from a prejudice I had formed against advertising "cures for secret diseases," it was left unanswered. During an accidental conversation in a drug store the other evening, my mind was changed on the character of your Buchu. It was then highly commended for other diseases by two physicians present. Incosed please find our rates o advertising. Yours, T. I B. H. STENHOUSE,

HELMBOLD'S BUCHU
TESTIMONIALS.

A Permanent Cure of Gravel of twelve Years' Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

BURNSIDE, CONN., Dec. 15, 1869.

Dr. Helmbold.

DEAR SIR: It is with much pleasure that I write you upon facts respecting myself. I do not think I can hardly hope to express myself. I have been for the last ten or twelve years the greatest sufferer man could be and live; but more sometimes than others. The complaint was the "Kidneys" and "Bladder," by which I passed something from twelve to fourteen hours, and wanted to make water every minute, but could not. Have consulted doctors both in Massachusetts and this State, and taken pills, I may say by the quart, also liquored medicines, but found no relief from any, and got worse the last six months. I was so that I could scarcely get about, I could not rest night or day.

It would soon have been "all up" with me if I had not seen your advertisement headed "Kidneys." I read it through and thought I would try it. I purchased a bottle, but, mind you, had no much faith in it. Why should I, when I had been trying so many things that cost me my money? Well, I began taking it, and before I had taken the first bottle (a half pint bottle) but I finished it and got another. By the time I took half of the second I still got worse (apparently.) When I walked it seemed as if my right kidney was falling from its place, and I felt really bad. I left off, before I had finished the second, that I had made up my mind it was of no use trying any more—and all this time I had taken no other medicine, but I did not know it, so I gave it up and went to Hartford on Saturday to one of the best doctors in the city. He said I was the worst case of the bladder, and I should have to undergo an operation. He gave me medicine, and I went home quite downhearted.

On Sunday I was unable to go to church. I had not taken any of his medicine, but on my return continued using the "Buchu," and in the afternoon I had a desire to make water, but could not. About two hours after this I went again, with the same result; but the next time it took the vessel it was the same as turning a faucet and stopping it again. This was so for three times, and the third time there was something came through the passage and struck against the side of the vessel. I examined it, and it is the ugliest stone or gravel you ever saw; covered over with little pieces which collected together. It looks the color of a mud turtle, and is as hard as flint. So you see the "Buchu" was doing its work, as though I was feeling so badly. I procured another bottle, thinking there might be some more behind; but since then I have improved fast. Three weeks ago last Sunday, I have been as well as ever I was in my life. I have the stone securely wrapped up, and those who have seen it in this place are surprised.

I cannot tell you all, but this is a true story of my case, and you are welcome to make such use of my name as you think proper. I am pretty well known in Berkshire; also in Connecticut. The advertisement saved me. Why not publish more? If any one wishes to see this wonder, they can do so. I could write all day, but I think I have said enough this time, so I remain your ever well-wisher, EDWARD L. HOWARD,

Dr. H. T. Helmbold,

The bottle of your valuable package of your valuable Buchu presented to the Institute have been used by the children, and with perfect success. In the case of our little Lieutenant A. J., his pride is no longer mortified, and he is free from the daily morning anathemas of the chamber-maid who has charge of his bedding.

I feel thank ful for the benefit the result of our use of your Buchu with the children under our charge may rave many a Superintendent and Matron of Boarding Schools and Asylums a great amount of annoyance; and many a poor child suffering more from Weakness than from habit, may be spared punishment, that is just knowing it is a weakness instead of a bad habit; most unjustly inflicted upon them. Thanking you on behalf of the children, and hoping others may be alike benefitted, I am respectfully yours,

COL. YOUNG, General Sup't and Director.

A Case of Twenty Years Standing.

PHILADELPHIA, PENN., June 25, 1867.

H. T. Helmbold, Druggist.

DEAR SIR: I have been a sufferer for upwards of twenty years with kidney and bladder affections, during which time I have used various medicinal preparations, and been under the treatment of the most eminent physicians, experiencing but little relief.

Having seen your preparations extensively advertised, I consulted my physician in regard to using your Extract Buchu.

I did this because I had used all kinds of advertised Remedies and found them worthless, and some quite injurious; in fact, I despaired of ever getting well, and determined to use no Remedie hereafter unless I knew of the ingredients. It was this that prompted me to use your Extract Buchu, cubebs, and juniper berries, it occurred to me and my physician, from a knowledge of its action; and, with his advice, after an examination of the article, and consulting again with the Druggist, I commenced to use it. I commenced to use it about eight months ago, at which time I was confined to my room.

From the first bottle I was astonished and gratified at the beneficial effect, and continued for three weeks was able to walk out. I felt much like writing to you a full statement of my case at the time, but thought my improvement might soon be temporary, and therefore concluded to defer, and see if it would effect a perfect cure, knowing that it would be of greater value to you and more satisfactory to me.

I am now able to report that a cure is effected after using the remedy for five months. I have not used any now for three months, and feel as well in all respects as I ever did.

Your Buchu being devoid of any unpleasant taste and odor, a nice tonic and invigorator of the system, I do not mean to be without it whenever occasion may require its use in such affections.

DODD'S NERVINE
Is a COMPLETE SPECIFIC for sleeplessness. It soothes the throbbing muscle like magic, and tranquilizes the mind. And everybody knows that good sleep is better than all medicines. And all folks that

CAN'T SLEEP NIGHTS,
should use this truly wonderful medicine.

DODD'S NERVINE
Is one of the best remedies ever employed in the cure of the numerous and troublesome ailments known as FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

For Whooping Cough.

DODD'S NERVINE is administered with unexampled success. Mothers, remember this and save your little ones the agony of a most distressing complaint. It also works admirably in Measles, bringing out the rash well and leaving the bowels free and healthful. For the diseases which afflict CHILDREN WHEN TEETHING, nothing can furnish more instant or grateful relief. Remember, it contains no OPIUM in any form.

LOOK OUT FOR COLDS.

It is proverbial that people treat a cold (and the generally accompanying cough) as something that will cure itself; but neglect is serious and sometimes fatal. The fame of DODD'S NERVINE in the relief of colds is established. Use this standard remedy, and so far abstain from liquids as will tend to keep the bowels open. Nervine will soon be gone.

DODD'S NERVINE
Is a PURE TONIC—harmonizes perfectly with the NERVE FIBRE—gives increased energy to the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, and other viscera—and supplies FRESH LIFE for the waste that is constantly taking place. AYER'S
HAIR VIGOR,
For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.

A Dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for Preserving the Hair. Faded or gray Hair is soon restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use.

Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remains can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor, can only benefit but not harm it.

If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.
The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and, when the victim supposes fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection through out the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly developes into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may suddenly be deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this SARSAPARILLA is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear.

Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find benefit from trying it fairly, and, in many cases, by the use of this SARSAPARILLA, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other outward manifestations of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Liver Complaint, Jaundice, and the painful afflictions of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Incrustations, and Menstrual Derangements, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac supplied gratis.

Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity Congestion, Inflammation, Enlargement and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. The SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor system. Those who are Languishing and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections peculiar to females, will find in it an immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, JUNE 11, 1870.

Editorial Correspondence.

CONCORD, June 10.

The pressure is over, the exciting contest for U. S. Senator is ended, and wearied lobbyists, lookers-on and legislators are leaving. Senator Cragin has won and his many friends "rejoice with exceeding great joy." The good feeling shown at the caucus, where the excited partizans had no opportunity to be noisy, augurs well. Of course there are many disappointed ones, but Senator Cragin's dignified manner of conducting the caucuss has disarmed all irritable opponents. He will be elected on Tuesday by the unanimous vote of his party. The smallness of the vote for Hon. E. H. Rollins surprised everybody, as it was supposed he would receive from 50 to 60.

It was evident, when the result of the first ballot was announced, that Mr. Cragin's nomination was assured, as he lacked but seven votes of a majority over all. An expectant crowd impatiently awaited the result on the stairways leading to Central Hall, where the caucus was in session, and the ballotings were announced through a wicket in the door, by the obliging sergeant-at-arms, Col. Roberts. The nomination of Mr. Cragin was whispered about, a minute or two before the exact vote was declared and the rumbling sound proceeding from the stairways reminded insiders of a young earthquake and of the fact that the news was spreading.

There was "hurrying in hot haste" to see who should be the successful bearer of the first news to headquarters. It chanced that among the stairway audience was a well-known Portsmouth merchant, who will never see his 40th anniversary birth day again. The announcement of 109 votes for Cragin upset his dignity and he led the advance down stairs, two steps at a time. Reaching the open air, a hasty glance showed that he had the lead by a few yards. The sidewalks were filled with people and he took to the centre of Main Street and put on more steam. He made rapid strides toward the Eagle, the headquarters of the several candidates, followed by a crowd who were gaining on him. His 5.20 pace attracted the notice of the anxious crowd at the Phenix, who watched his coming with interest. As he passed, he was recognized by a friend, who shouted "Go it ——, what's the news?" "Cragin's nominated," was the reply as he sped on. He reached the Eagle a length ahead, darted up stairs like a Navy Yard workman for home at bellting and bolted into Mr. Cragin's arms, winning the race by one-eighth of a second. May he live to run again and we be there to see!

The interest was great along the telegraph lines extending into the interior of the State, crowds being assembled at the various stations waiting for the news.

The delighted friends of the successful candidate had a nice time at the reception rooms of Marston and Hunt of Sandown, at the Phenix, last night, no intoxicating liquors being needed to strengthen their enthusiasm. Chester of Morse, of the third house, made several speeches, ably assisted by "Rev." S. Lord of Manchester. Singing was on the programme and we detected another Portsmouth merchant marching around the room to the tune of "three crows,"—the ones that sat on a tree. The rooms were thronged during early hours of the night by Republicans who had supported Mr. Cragin and by others who had not. Everybody was welcome, and Leaguers, Democrats and citizens generally put in an appearance. One of the caucus Secretaries was urged into the rooms by four persons, but beat a retreat on being called on for a speech. We noticed also the presence of members of the legislature who had no chance to make their toilets when waited upon by committees.

At the Eagle, Senator Cragin was escorted into Harry Bingham's room, the Democratic headquarters, Mr. Bingham being the Democratic nominee for U. S. Senator. After exchanging congratulations, Mr. Cragin found the remainder of his leisure time occupied in congratulations and hand shaking at his own rooms. Being strictly temperate, he had provided only ice-water for his friends, and one who knew the fact, with a knowing wink suggested that the water "would do to commence with." "Yes, and to end with also," said Mr. Cragin, "that is the only kind of drink I shall furnish you with."

We noticed Reuel Durkee, who pockets his hands occasionally, moving about among the throng, as if he did n't know anything about it. Reuel, as he is familiarly called, looks as if he wouldn't care to know how any one votes or intends to vote, so everybody makes it everybody's business, out of opposition, we presume, to tell him all they know. Reuel is a sponge; he absorbs, but never emits:—likewise he is an oyster. He is the repository of news that lies buried from sight or hearing, and is likely to. What an autobiography he might write! On motion of Gen. Natt Head, he was chosen Speaker of the third house, to-night, but did not deign to accept or decline.

The worthy Sandown hosts of last night, Messrs. Marston and Hunt, were serenaded this morning by the early risers, who in solemn procession marched to the outside door of their rooms and found it locked. The band consisted of the gong and beater. The serenade was a success—as a serenade,—but M. & H. are not dead Fenians and would n't be waked. The procession retired in good order, its constituent elements feeling satisfied that they had discharged their debt of gratitude, after ten minutes' practice on the gong. A veteran member of the lobby from Ward Three was discovered standing on his head during the night, in No. 20. His three comrades testified that he was rejoicing over the nomination, and was upside down 59 seconds. G.

THE RE-NOMINATION OF SENATOR CRAGIN.—The Republican members of the Legislature have done right. They have carried out the will of the Republican party of this State in endorsing Senator Cragin's course in the United States Senate during the past five years, and we cannot see that they could have well done otherwise. There were other candidates who would have represented the State honorably at the National Capital, but there were none who could have represented it more honorably, more faithfully or more ably than Mr. Cragin. Nothing could be found in his Congressional life to censure or condemn. His main strength was in his manifest integrity and spotless character, his intuitive perception of right and honorable reputation maintained by devotion to principle. His noble speech of acceptance is characteristic of the man. No one who listened to it distrusted a word of the gratitude evinced, or his declared intentions to continue his career in a manner honorable to himself and his constituents.

We have more faith than ever in the Republican legislators of New Hampshire. At the time they were chosen, it was considered a foregone conclusion that Senator Cragin would be re-elected and endorsed. His rivals strove to unseat him, and as it grew more and more evident that he was impregnably intrenched in the hearts of the people, some of their special advocates unwisely abused him. Personal feeling entered into the contest, yet Mr. Cragin refrained from noticing it. He had implicit confidence in his course and his friends, for an honest man need never fear betrayal at the hands of true friends. It is a noticeable fact that those who were for him first did not change. The appliances used against him failed signally. The members were coaxed, solicited, threatened and begged to vote for others, until the friends of the candidates, the public, and even the members were uneasy and doubtful of the result.

When the caucus assembled, every member's mind was made up, yet none could predict the result with any degree of certainty, although each was confident that his favorite would win. Mr. Cragin estimated his strength at 92 and received 95 on the first ballot, which insured his re-nomination.

There is much in faith, and faith is strengthened by being faithful. Senator Cragin had faith in the people and the people have faith in him. They can ask no more of him in the future than his past most honorable career warrants, and there is not an unprejudiced man in New Hampshire who does not believe that the Republican party and the people of the whole State are honored by being represented in the United States Senate for six years from March 4th, 1870, by a man who holds his character, publicly and privately, dearer than all the emoluments of office and the reputation that distinction brings.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Three Requisites of Health.

If all the sickly people in the world were to take to their beds, and demand medical treatment, their would not be doctors enough to attend them nor a sufficient number of the robust to nurse them. Three conditions are absolutely essential to health, viz; a good appetite, easy digestion, and the ability to sleep soundly. Seven-eights of the many thousands who suffer from indigestion, yet do not labor under serious disease, complain that they "can't eat," that their stomachs are "out of order," or that they "don't sleep well." For this class of ailments few persons think of calling in a physician. Nor it is necessary, inasmuch as a course of Hostetter's Bitters, will certainly relieve the derangements of the stomach, the liver, and the nervous system, from which want of appetite, indigestion and sleeplessness arise.

This excellent vegetable tonic and corrective is also a delightful anodyne. Insomnia (or incapacity to sleep) which has resisted all the ordinary remedies, will yield readily to a dose of this pleasant sedative taken just before retiring to rest. In ordinary medical practice it is usual to give a stomachic, an aperient, an invigorant, a soporific or an antiseptic, as the case for the time being may seem more particularly to require; but in this grand restorative all these medicinal properties, and many others are blended in due proportion. Thus, the digestion is stimulated, while the bowels are regulated, the liver toned, the strength recruited, the nerves calmed, the fluids purified and the circulation equalized.

It is believed that there is no other restorative and regulating medicine in the world which acts so beneficially and agreeably upon all the assimilating and secretive organs at the same time, and to all who lack the three fundamental requisites of health and enjoyment, a vigorous appetite, sound digestion and refreshing sleep, it is confidently recommended as a specific.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use taken out of the body those matters which feed the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and more he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12

"Children's Lives Saved for 50 Cts."

THOUSANDS OF CHILDREN DIE ANNUALLY OF CROUP. Now, Mothers, if you would spend 50 cents, and always have a bottle of DR. TOBIAS' VENETIAN LINIMENT in the house, you never need fear losing your little one when attacked with this terrible disease. It is now 22 years since I have put up my Liniment, and never heard of a child dying of Croup when my Liniment was used; but hundreds of cures have been reported to me, and many state if it was $10 per bottle they would not be without it. Besides which, it is a certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throat, Swellings, Sprains, Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Spasms, Old Sores and Pains in the Limbs, Back, Chest. No one who once tries it is ever without it. It is warranted perfectly safe to take internally. Full directions with every bottle. Sold by the Druggists and Storekeepers in the United States. CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosciusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung disease in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says: "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says: I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

New Advertisements to-day.

Masten's Colored Fire-Works—Benj. T. Wells, Grand Tableaux Repetition.

☞ The Brooklyn Union says:—Stone & Murray's is the most magnificent circus performance ever given in Brooklyn. A greater variety of first-class performers are centered in this circus than we ever saw before, and their wonderful exhibitions of skill and intrepidity electrified the immense audience present.

MR. T. P. MOSES announces a repetition of his Grand Tableaux, on Monday evening, June 13th, at the Temple. He has reduced the price of admission to a popular figure, and should have a full house; the tableaux are really very beautiful, a sight of almost any one of them being worth the price of admission; and their preparation has cost Mr. Moses a large outlay of money, time and labor. For particulars see adv't.

TEMPERANCE MOVEMENT.—About six weeks ago, five residents near the Creek met one evening and organized a Society, with Joseph Wain as President, for the purpose of advocating and spreading temperance principles. The Society have held weekly meetings since, in the Sunday School room back of Eldredge's brewery; and quite a temperance revival has taken place in the neighborhood, the organization now numbering 41 members.

On Thursday evening a special meeting was held, and Sergeant Ambler addressed the assemblage very forcibly on the subject of temperance. The room was crowded to overflowing, a number of people being unable to enter the building; and great interest was manifested. One young man made an eloquent and earnest appeal, which produced a marked effect—men who are in earnest generally do make themselves felt. During and at the close of the meeting, eighteen persons — some of them men who know too well how bitter is the bondage of the intemperate man to his appetite for strong drink—signed the pledge of total abstinence; and two others, both elderly men, said they would sign on Saturday evening.

This little Society, begun under such humble auspices, and in face of many discouraging circumstances, is doing a good work, and deserves the countenance and moral support of every one who believes sobriety preferable to intemperance, or a sober man better than the same man drunk.

DANGEROUS DOGS.—As Mr. Lowell Jenness, of this city, was proceeding to Eliot with a load of headstones from the Stone and Marble Yard of Mr. John S. Treat, (whose business is so brisk that he has lately been compelled to employ four extra workmen, and is fitting up new and larger premises to accommodate his rapidly increasing trade) on Friday, June 3d, he entered a field in Kittery to speak with a friend, Mr. Blaney, who was at work there.

The latter's dog at once assailed Mr. Jenness, flying at his throat; but Mr. J. interposed his right arm to save his neck, and was so severely bitten near the elbow that he has been unable to do any work since. Mrs. Blaney dressed his wounded arm, and her husband made sure that the dog would play no more tricks upon travellers, by killing him.

Mr. Mark Caswell of this city, who is somewhere near 70 years old, was attacked (also in Kittery,) by a dog, a few weeks since, and had his hand bitten and his coat torn from his back in strips.

A son of Mr. Davis, the daguerrean artist, was bitten in the face some time ago, by a dog that seemed to think boys good only for dogs to eat. After he had bitten one more boy, the brute was killed.

And we are informed that a Mr. Alton, living near the Creek, was bitten by his own dog lately, and seriously hurt. This dog, too, was killed—after he had done the mischief.

We lately copied an item from the Biddeford Democrat, which stated that a little boy in that place was last week so badly bitten about the body that he is yet under the care of a physician. So Portsmouth and Kittery are not the only cities where savage dogs go about like roaring lions, seeking whom they may devour.

Dogs are very pleasant companions, if they are gentle and intelligent; and some of them are useful and valuable. But no man has any right to let a dog go loose to tear men, women and children in pieces, even if the animal is licensed; dogs are not licensed to bite people. And the blundering, thick skulled, ugly-looking brutes of bull-dogs that run at large, with no claim on our admiration save for their ferocity, stupidity, strength and insensibility to pain, are dangerous public nuisances.

☞ Hon. Daniel Marcy of Portsmouth had 13 votes in the Democratic caucus at Concord for candidate for U. S. Senator.

HON. JOHN P. HALE arrived in New York from Europe on Thursday and is to have a grand reception this afternoon at Dover. A delegation from Portsmouth will be in attendance.

☞ The editor of the Nashua Telegraph, now that "election's over," will please take notice that the Portsmouth Chronicle has but two proprietors and that the gentleman whom he charges with holding one of the best offices in the gift of Senator Cragin is not and never was connected with this paper.

RAILROAD CONSOLIDATION.—A bill passed to a third reading in the Massachusetts House, Friday, to incorporate the Boston & Portland Trust Railway Company, with eighteen millions capital, Geo. M. Browne, Francis Coggswell and numerous others being corporators; who are to purchase the stock of the Eastern Road at $130, and the B. & M. at $150; the Road to be managed in terms of five years, successively, by changing bonds of six of the corporators named, as enrolled; the stock to pay six per cent. until 1900, when it is to pass into the hands of the State of Massachusetts, as we understand. The bill must pass the Legislatures of the States connected, ere the plan can be effected—which union of Roads we have no doubt will be made at no distant day in some manner.

CHARLES DICKENS, the great novelist, is dead. He was entertaining a dinner party at his residence at Gads Hill when he was suddenly struck with alarming symptoms—the illness depriving him of speech and volition. He was thought to be dying. Medical assistance was summoned and Mr. Dickens conveyed to his chamber. Physicians pronounced it to be a formidable stroke of apoplexy. Everything was done to alleviate his sufferings, but all was useless. He remained in a comatose state from which it was impossible to rouse him. He remained insensible up to the time of his death, at five o'clock Thursday evening, when he was examined by physicians and found dead. His age was 58 years.

From the Portsmouth Journal.

The miscellaneous appropriation bill just reported by Congress gives $50,000 for repairs at this Yard.

The afternoon service at the Episcopal church will be held at 5 o'clock during the summer months, commencing next Sunday.

At an adjourned Parish meeting, at the Universalist church held Tuesday evening, it was voted to procure a fine new organ immediately—a result which meets with hearty approval.

The rite of baptism was most impressively administered at this church before a large audience last Sunday after the morning service, by Rev. Mr. Bicknell.

The first service of the recently organized Universalist church at Kittery was inaugurated last Sunday afternoon. Sermon by the Rev. Mr. Bicknell of this city. A delegation were present from this city.

OF THE

CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILROAD CO.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad

Is completed and running from RICHMOND, Va., to the celebrated WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, in West Va., 227 miles. It is being rapidly extended to the Ohio River, 200 miles further, making in all 427 miles.

In its progress Westward, it penetrates and opens up to market the Wonderful Coal Deposits of the Kanawha Region in West Virginia. And thus brings the superior and abundant Coals of that section into communication with the Iron Ores of Virginia and Ohio, and the Western, South Western and Eastern markets.

When completed it will connect the superior harbor facilities of the Chesapeake Bay with reliable navigation on the Ohio River, and thus with the entire system of Railroad and Water transportations of the great West and South-West.

It will make a short, easy, cheap and favorable route from the West, to the sea, and will command a large share of the enormous freights seeking transportation to the coas

It will thus become one of the most important and profitable East and West Trunk Lines of Railroad in the country, and command a trade of immense value.

The completed portion of the Road is doing a profitable and increasing Business, and is fully equal in value to the whole amount of the mortgage upon the entire Line—($15,000,000.)

The loan of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company, being a First Mortgage upon the entire Line, property and equipments, worth when completed at least $30,000,000, is therefore one of the most substantial, conservative and reliable Railroad Loans ever offered in the market, and is peculiarly adapted to the wants of

INVESTORS and CAPITALISTS,

Who desire to make their investments with the most satisfactory assurance of positive and undoubted Security.

The Bonds are in denominations of

$1000, $500 and $100,

and may be had COUPON or REGISTERED.

Interest Six per cent. per annum, payable MAY 1st and NOVEMBER 1st.

PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

Price 90 and accrued Interest in Currency, at which price they pay nearly Seven per cent. in gold on their cost.

All Government Bonds and other Securities dealt in at the Stock Exchange, received in exchange, at their full market value, and Bonds sent to all parts of the country, free of Express charges.

Morning Chronicle.

THE REPUBLICAN SENATORIAL CAUCUS at Concord was presided over by Ezra S. Stearns of Rindge, with Frank W. Miller of Portsmouth and W. H. Hill of Sandwich for Secretaries. It was voted to admit representatives from all the papers in the State, one for the Boston Advertiser and one for the Associated Press. The caucus was a remarkably orderly one, thanks to the presiding officer. The committee to assist in counting the votes were friends of the opposing candidates, Messrs. Wadleigh of Milford, Preston of New Ipswich, Herring of Farmington and Walker of Portsmouth.

After the re-nomination of Senator Cragin, Messrs. Ramsdell of Nashua, Woodward of Concord, Senators Gordon, Small and Scripture, Carter of Keene, Wilder of Peterborough, Marston of Sandowa, Wyatt of Dover, and Long of Claremont, were appointed a committee of ten to wait on Mr. Cragin to inform him of his re-nomination and request his presence in the Hall in company with his late competitors. The committee returned with Messrs. Cragin and Stevens, being unable to find Messrs. Rollins and Tappan. The speeches of Messrs. Cragin and Stevens we give as reported by the wide-awake correspondent of the Boston Journal.

Senator Cragin spoke as follows:—

Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen: Your Committee have informed me of the result of your balloting, and have invited my attendance in the Hall. I come with a heart overflowing with gratitude, and almost speechless from emotion. I am thankful, very thankful for this nomination, embodying as it does the respect and confidence of this large body of representative Republicans, and as I trust the will of the Republican party of New Hampshire. (Applause.) My friends, I do not intend to detain you. I will only to-night point you to my past record, and promise you that if Providence favors me, I will improve upon it in the future. (Applause.) The office of United States Senator is the highest position in the gift of the people of any State, and is therefore a worthy object of honorable ambition. That I should be selected to fill this exalted position, when so many other worthy gentlemen were candidates, is very gratifying to me, while at the same time I sympathize with those who have failed.

In this somewhat excited contest I have not uttered one word of disparagement or disrespect of any of my rivals, and I hope the time may come when they may receive, if not the same, yet some high honor. If I am permitted to remain in the Senate of the United States I shall have no selfish ends to attain, no ambition to satisfy, except the ambition to do right. My friends, I have little in this world except character. I value that more than wealth—more than mere reputation. I mean to preserve it free and untarnished, as my most precious earthly inheritance. (Applause.)

Not to detain you, for it is not fitting, I will again thank you for this admiration and close. (Cheers.)

After Mr. Cragin's address, the Chairman said: I take great pleasure in announcing that Gen. Aaron F. Stevens will follow Mr. Cragin with some remarks.

Gen Stevens said:—

Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen of the Convention:—I come with alacrity at your summons to indorse with the most hearty commendation the work of this evening, which has culminated in the nomination of my friend and my colleague, Aaron H. Cragin. (Great applause.) It is among the most pleasant of my duties. There would have but one pleasanter, and you may imagine what it would have been. (Laughter and cheers.) It is among the most pleasant of the remaining duties which I can recall, to acknowledge, that, although there may have been some slight friction for the last few days in Concord, it is all ended in the decision of a calm, cool and deliberate judgment of the most calm, cool and intelligent representation of Republicans of New Hampshire that it has ever been my fortune to look upon. (Applause.) But now let me say here that my first words are due to those gentlemen, my neighbors and my friends, who have had the kindness to give me a vote, I think quite respectable, gentlemen, for all in this contest. (Laughter and applause.) But I tell you it is a great honor in the first place to be a Republican.

It is a great honor to be a successful candidate for the United States Senate, and it is a great honor to have a respectable minority in such a convention as this. (Laughter and applause.) Now Mr. Chairman, let me say here, and I do not propose to detain you scarcely a moment, let me say here, that having alluded to the character of this contest, it gives me the greatest pleasure in the first place to pay my tribute to the high and honorable position which has been occupied by the successful as well as the other unsuccessful candidates in this contest, so far as I know you showed your partiality to a distinguished gentleman who has long served the Republican party, ever since its organization, in a very important position. You have shown your partiality by supporting to some extent another distinguished gentleman, who represented with honor and with success the District which I now represent in the Congress of the United States.

Your have chosen to renominate him, and I have no doubt you will reelect the honorable and distinguished gentleman who now represents your interest in the Senate of the United States. It is especially due to you that I should acknowledge here to night that his honorable conduct and his kind words, so far as I am concerned, have tended to lessen the asperities of this canvass, and they have done honor alike to himself, the Republican party, and to his supporters here to-night. (Applause.) I trust that example will always be emulated, and now let me say gentlemen that having served with the honorable gentleman in the Congress of the United States for three years and there learned to know him, may I say that as a friend and associate, I entertain not the scintilla of a doubt that for six years to come, the honor of our gallant State and the wide interests of our wide spread country, will be safe in the hands of Aaron H. Cragin. (Applause.)

N. H. HISTORICAL SOCIETY.—The 48th annual meeting was held Wednesday at the Historical Society's Building in Concord. The Treasurer's report showed a balance of $78.50 on hand. Dr. Stone presented the Librarian's report, which made some remarks on the needs of the library. Rev. Dr. Bouton, Cor. Secretary, made his report, and read some letters which had been received during the past year, one of which was an autograph of Count Rumford, written in 1773.

Messrs. W. H. Y. Hackett of Portsmouth, Amos Hadley of Concord, and Wm. Bartlett of Nashua, were appointed a committee to nominate officers, and reported for President, Charles H. Bell; Vice Presidents, Wm. L. Foster, John M. Shirley; Cor. Sec. Nathl. Bouton; Rec. Sec., Saml. C. Eastman; Treasurer, Charles W. Sargent; Librarian, Benj. P. Stone; Asst. Lib., Amos Hadley; Pub. Com., Wm. L. Foster, John J. Bell, S. C. Eastman; Standing Com., S. C. Eastman, A. F. Pike, J. B. Walker, — and the gentlemen named were elected.

Mr. Hackett presented the following resolution, which was adopted:—"That the President be requested to invite Doctor Joseph G. Cogswell, of New York, to prepare for this Society, a memorial of the late John Taylor Gilman." The subject of memorial sketches of members who had deceased during the past year was introduced by Mr. Hackett, and Judge Foster was requested to prepare and read before the Society, a memorial notice of the late Ex-President Pierce; and Asa McFarland, Esq., one of the late N. G. Upham. Dr. A. P. Peabody, of Cambridge, Mass., was also requested to prepare a sketch of the late Rev. Dr. Charles Burroughs, of Portsmouth.

The assessment for the ensuing year was fixed at $2, and members can have the third volume of the Provincial Records, just published, by paying $1.50 additional.

Rev. Dr. Stone, from the Committee to procure an orator, reported that Senator James W. Patterson had accepted an invitation to deliver an address, fixing upon Tuesday, the 21st inst., as the day.

The following list of names as members of the society, are reported, and the several gentlemen named were elected. Major Otis F. R. Waite, Claremont; Rev. S. L. Blake, Rev. E. R. Sanborn, Rev. H. G. Safford, John M. Hill, Dr. G. P. Conn, A. H. Robinson, Concord; Charles Marseilles, Exeter; John M. Parker, Fitzwilliam; Colonel L. W. Cogswell, Henniker; Edward P. Parker, Merrimack; William B. Towne, Milford; E. F. McQuestion, Orrin C. Moore, Rev. William L. Gaylord, Nashua; Rev. George Dustin, Peterborough; William H. Rollins, Portsmouth; Charles W. Burns, Wilton.

Rev. Dr. Bouton offered the following resolution, which was adopted:—"That a committee of three be appointed to complete the enclosure of the Bradley Monument, and that a sum sufficient for that purpose be appropriated from the treasury of the society."

Amos Hadley offered the following resolution, which was adopted:—"That an Annalist be selected, who shall collect, arrange, and present in a paper or address, annually, a summary of the leading events occurring during the previous year throughout the world." Mr. Hadley was appointed as Annalist for the present year.

Messrs. John J. Bell, Joseph B. Walker and Samuel C. Eastman were appointed a committee to select an orator for next year, and to invite persons to prepare and read papers at the quarterly meetings.—Monitor.

VACCINATION.

A cow and a chemist once sat by a stream
Thus the first having a meadow so fair;
The cow calculating the cost of her cream,
The chemist the weight of the air.

At length said the chemist, observing the cow,
"Maybe you can give some idea
On a question now causing no end of a row,
And important to peasant and peer.

It is said that if lymph be extracted from you,
And into man's system conveyed,
He will never have small-pox—yet not a few
This doctrine have wholly gainsayed."

Said the cow: "I can't argue a question like this;
I know nothing of you or your blood;
You've spoiled my post-prandial moments of
I was quietly chewing the cud." [bliss—

"Oh, fie!" said the chemist; "you will not decline
To argue the question at all;
You give your opinion, and I will give mine,
And an umpire perhaps we can call."

"Look here!" said the cow, "tho' the plan may be
To decide the moot point I can see [odd
The way is most clearly to try Tommy Dodd—
I'll toss you which way it shall be."

So she tossed the old chemist right over the stream
And smashed his silk chapeau—his best—
And resuming her thoughts on the cost of her
She quietly lay down to rest. [cream,

Only bruised was the chemist—he luckily fell
On a bank of the downiest moss:
Though he might have argued uncommonly well,
He had certainly lost in "the toss."

MUSCULAR FORCE OF THE HUMAN HEART.—A curious investigation of the muscular force of the human heart, and the comparative amount of work it performs, has recently been made and published by Mr. Haughton, an eminent English mathematician. Starting with the postulates—first, that three ounces of blood are driven from each ventricle at each stroke of the heart; second, that the hydrostatic pressure in the left ventricle and aorta against which the blood is forced out amounts to a column of blood nearly ten feet in vertical height; third, that the muscular force of the left ventricle in contracting bears to that of the right ventricle in proportion of thirteen to five—he proceeds to show that the daily work of the left ventricle is equivalent to over eighty-nine tons lifted one foot, and that of the right to over thirty-four tons; or, for both together, to over one hundred and twenty-three tons lifted through one foot.

The enormous amount of force denoted by the preceding result our author goes on to illustrate by showing, first, that if the daily work of ten hours by a laboring man be equivalent to three hundred fifty-four tons lifted through one foot, the heart does over one-third as much in twenty-four hours; therefore three old women doing nothing whatever, actually accomplish more work in one day than the strongest average laboring man; second, that the laboring force of the heart is greater than that expended in propelling an eight-oared boat through the water during the severest boat-race; third, that if the heart expended its entire force in lifting its own weight vertically, it would raise this weight nearly 20,000 feet in one hour, or twenty times as far as an active pedestrian can climb in vertical altitude in the same time; fourth, that the greatest distance through which a locomotive has been able to lift itself up an incline has been 2700 feet in an hour, and that this is equal to one-eighth part of the energy of the human heart.

In fine, our author thinks he has succeeded in proving that the human heart is the most wonderful piece of mechanism known, since he has shown that its energy is equal to one-third of the total daily force of all the muscles of a strong man; that it exceeds by one-third the labor of the muscles in a boat-race, estimated by equal weights of muscle; that it is equivalent to twenty times the force used in climbing vertically; and finally, that it has eight times the force of the most powerful engine invented by the art of man.—Harpers' Mag. for May.

WHITEWASH.—The American Builder gives the following as a recipe for the best whitewash for general use: "Take the best stone lime, and slack it in a close tub, covered with a cloth, to preserve the steam. Salt—as much as can be dissolved in the water used for slacking and reducing the wash to the requisite degree of fluidity—should be applied, and the whole mass carefully strained and thickened with a small quantity of sand, the purer and finer the better. A few pounds of wheat flour mixed as paste may be added, and will give greater permanency and durability to the mass, especially when applied to the exterior surface of buildings. With pure lime, properly slacked and mixed with twice its weight of fine sand and sifted house ashes (oak or hickory is to be preferred), in equal proportions, almost any color may be made by the addition of pigments. To the quality of being exceedingly durable, a whitewash made in the manner described above possesses the additional advantage of being made to imitate many kinds of stone commonly used in building."

—A lady, describing an ill-tempered man, said, "He never smiles but he feels ashamed of it."

H. T. HELMBOLD'S
CONCENTRATED
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU.
THE GREAT DIURETIC.

The proprietor trusts that his Remedies, from the fact of their being advertised, may not be classed as Patent Medicines.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU is a pharmaceutical preparation. The proper name is given, and it is the most active which can be made. It is endorsed as a cure by all medical works for such diseases as recommended by the proprietor. It is pleasant in its taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and is taken by adults and children. It is tonic, diuretic, blood purifying, and invigorating. Enfeebled and delicate constitutions of both sexes will find it far more strengthening than any of the preparations of bark or iron.

See medical properties contained in Dispensatory of the United States, of which the following is a correct copy:—

BUCHU.—Its odor is strong, diffusive, and somewhat aromatic; its taste is bitterish, and analogous to that of mint. It is given chiefly in complaints of the urinary organs, such as gravel, chronic catarrh of the bladder, morbid irritation of the prostate gland, and retention or the incontinence of urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. It has also been recommended in dyspepsia, chronic rheumatism, cutaneous affections, and dropsy.

TESTIMONY.

Cure of Gravel of Five Years Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

SAVANNAH, TENN., May 14, 1869.

Dr. H. T. Helmbold, Esq.,
DEAR SIR: We introduced your "Fluid Extract Buchu" in this county about eight months ago, and are happy to state that it is meeting with universal favor. We wish to inform you of one instance (among many) where your "Buchu" has worked wonders. A man in our county, named J. B. Estell, had been suffering about five years with gravel.

About six weeks ago he bought of us one bottle of your "Buchu," and before he was through with one bottle he passed a gravel that weighs eight grains, which we now have on exhibition in our drug store. He says that he will never be without the "Buchu" in his house again. Your preparations are gaining favor every day.

Very respectfully yours, &c.,
ECCLES & HINKLE, Druggists.

Cure of Bladder and Kidney Affection of long Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

WESTPORT, CONN., Sept. 9, 1869.

H. T. Helmbold, Esq.,
DEAR SIR: I commenced taking your "Extract of Buchu" about two weeks since for an affection of the bladder and kidneys. I have suffered, by spells very much for a few days past. But yesterday relief came through the effect of your "Buchu." A stone passed from my bladder about the size of a large pea, and I now feel perfectly well and entirely free from the pain that I have suffered with "so hard." I attribute the cure to our medicine entirely, and would recommend all persons similarly affected to try it. I have great faith in its curative powers.

Yours truly, THOMAS J. BENNETT.

Cure of Kidney and Bladder Affection of a Patient Seventy-eight years of Age. Thanks to Mr. Helmbold.

GIRARD, PA., March 31, 1869.

Editor Cosmopolite: I desire, as an unsolicited tribute to the merits of Helmbold's Buchu, and for the benefit of those similarly afflicted as myself, to say that after consulting many eminent physicians, and trying nearly all the best advertised Remedies, in the vain hope of finding relief from aggravated kidney and bladder diseases, from which I have suffered excessively for many years, good fortune finally suggested to me Helmbold's Buchu, which I commenced using with little faith, and no apparent beneficial results for about a month.

At the expiration of that time, however, I thought I commenced to experience slight relief, which encouraged me to persevere in its use, and now, at the expiration of four months, although I am an infirm old man, nearly 78 years of age, and consequently medicines cannot be expected to favorably affect me as they otherwise would, I have found such unspeakable relief and permanent benefit from Mr. Helmbold's valuable discovery, that I feel I ought to publicly record the fact, as an acknowledgment to him, and a valuable suggestion to the public. Yours respectfully,

D. S. LAREN.

DR. KEYSER
is a physician of over thirty years' experience, and a graduate of the Jefferson Medical College, and of the University of Medicine and Surgery of Philadelphia. Hear him:

Mr. H. T. Helmbold,
DEAR SIR: In regard to the question asked me as to my opinion about Buchu, I would say that I have used and sold the article in various forms for the past thirty years. I do not think there is any form or preparation of it I have not used, or known to be used, in the various diseases where such medicate agent would be indicated. You are aware, as well as myself, that it has been extensively employed in the various diseases of the bladder and kidneys, and the reputation it has acquired, in my judgment, is warranted by the facts.

I have seen and used, as before stated, every form of Buchu—the powdered leaves—tincture, fluid extracts—and I am not cognizant of any preparation of that plant at all equal to yours. Twelve years' experience ought, I think, to give me the right to judge of its merits; and, without prejudice or partiality, I give yours precedence over all others.

I value your Buchu for its effect on patients. I have cured with it, and seen cured with it, more diseases of the bladder and kidneys than I have ever seen cured with any other Buchu or any other proprietary compound of whatever name.

Respectfully yours, &c.,
GEO. H. KEYSER, M. D.,
140 Wood Street, Pittsburgh, Penn.
August 11, 1865.

GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, Jan. 28, 1868.

Mr. H. T. Helmbold,
DEAR SIR: Your communication requesting our terms for advertising was duly received, but from a prejudice I had formed against advertising "cures for secret diseases," it was left unanswered. During an accidental conversation in a drug store the other evening, my mind was changed on the character of your Buchu. It was then highly commended for other diseases by two physicians present. Incosed please find our rates o advertising. Yours, T. B. H. STENHOUSE,
Ed't and Prop'r of Telegraph.

HELMBOLD'S BUCHU.
TESTIMONIALS.

A Permanent Cure of Gravel of twelve Years' Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

BURNSIDE, CONN., Dec. 15, 1869.

Dr. Helmbold,
DEAR SIR: It is with much pleasure that I write you upon facts respecting myself. I do not know hardly how to express myself. I have been for the last ten or twelve years the greatest sufferer man could be and live; but more sometimes than others. The complaint was the "Kidneys" and "Bladder." I have been sometimes from twelve to fifteen hours, and wanted to make water every minute, but could not. Have consulted doctors, both in Massachusetts and this place. Have taken pints, I may say by the quart, all so liquored medicines, but found no relief from any, and got worse the last six months. I was so that I could scarcely get about, I could not rest night or day.

It would soon have been "all up" with me if I had not seen your advertisement headed "Kidneys." I read it through and thought I would try it. I purchased a bottle, but, mind you, had not much faith in it. Why should I, when I had been trying so many things that cost me so much? Well, I beganing to get better after I had taken the first bottle I felt bad; but I finished it and got another. By the time I took half of the second I still got worse (apparently.) When I walked it seemed as if my right kidney was falling from its place, and I felt really bad. I felt so, before I had finished the second, that I had majesty my mind it was of no use trying any more—and so, this time the "Buchu" was doing its work, but I did not know it, so I gave it up and went to Hartford on Saturday to one of the best doctors in the city. He said it was the neck of the bladder, and I should have to undergo an operation. He gave me medicine, and I went home quite downhearted.

On Sunday I was unable to go to church. I had not taken any of his medicine, but on my return continued using the "Buchu," and in the afternoon I had a desire to make water, but could not. About one hour after this I tried again, with the same result; but the next time I took the vessel it was the same as taking a fancet and stopping it off again. It was so for three times, and the third time there was something came through the passage and struck against the side of the vessel. I examined it, and it is the ugliest stone or gravel you ever saw, covered over with little pieces which collected together. It looks the color of a mud turtle, and is as hard as flint. So you see the "Buchu" was doing its work, although we felt not so badly. I procured another bottle, thinking there might be some more behind; but since that has passed, which is eight weeks ago last Sunday, I have been as well as ever I was in my life. I have the stone nicely wrapped, and those who have seen it in this place are surprised.

I cannot tell you all, but this is a true story of my case, and you are at liberty to make such use of my name as you think proper. I am pretty well known in Berkshire; also in Connecticut. The advertisement gave me. Why not publish more? If any one wishes to see this wonder, they can do so. I could write all day, but I think I have said enough this time, so I remain your ever well-wisher, EDWARD L. HOWARD,

Corner of 5th av. and 76th st., Central Park.
(A Home and School for the Sons of Deceased Soldiers.)

Dr. H. T. Helmbold,
Two bottles only of the package of your valuable Buchu presented to the Institute have been used by the children under my care, with success. In the case of our little Lieutenant A. J., his pride is no longer mortified, and he is free from the daily morning anxiousness of the chamber-maid who has charge of his bedding.

I feel that a knowledge of the result of our use of your Buchu with the children under our charge may save many a Superintendent and Matron of Boarding Schools and Asylums a great amount of sanoyance; and many a poor child suffering more from Weakness from bad habit, may be spared punishment, that is (not knowing it as a weakness instead of a bad habit) most unjustly inflicted upon them. Thanking you on behalf of the children, and hoping others may be alike benefitted, I am respectfully yours,

COL. YOUNG, General Sup't and Director.

A Case of Twenty Years Standing.

PHILADELPHIA, PENN., June 25, 1867.

H. T. Helmbold, Druggist.
DEAR SIR: I have been a sufferer for upwards of twenty years with gravel, bladder, and kidney affections, during which time I have used various medicinal preparations and underwent the treatment of the most eminent physicians, experiencing but little relief.

Having seen your preparations extensively advertised, I consulted my family physician in regard to using your Extract Buchu.

I did this because I knew the old kinds of advertised Remedies and had found them worthless, and some quite injurious; in fact, I despaired of ever getting well, and determined to use no Remedies hereafter unless I knew of the ingredients. It was this that prompted me to use your Remedy. As you advertised that it was composed of Buchu, cubebs, and juniper berries, it occurred to me and my physician as an excellent combination; and, with his advice, after an examination of the article, and consulting again with the Druggist, I concluded to try it. I commenced to use it about eight months ago, at which time I was confined to my room.

From the first bottle I was astonished and gratified at the beneficial effect, and after using it three weeks was able to walk out. I felt much like writing to you at full length about my case at the time, but thought my improvement might only be temporary, and therefore concluded to defer, and be sure that it effects permanent, knowing that it would be of greater value to you and more satisfactory to me.

I now have no hesitancy in report that a cure is effected after using the remedy for five months. I have not used any now for three months, and feel as well in all respects as I ever did.

Your Buchu being devoid of any unpleasant taste and odor, a nice tonic and invigorator of the system, I do not mean to be without it whenever occasion may require its use in such affections.

Diarrhœa,	Consumption,	&c., &c., &c.,

DODD'S NERVINE
Is a COMPLETE SPECIFIC for sleeplessness. It soothes the throbbing muscle like magic, and tranquilizes the mind. And everybody knows that good sleep is better than all medicines. And all folks that
CAN'T SLEEP NIGHTS,
Should use this truly wonderful medicine.
DODD'S NERVINE
Is one of the best remedies ever employed in the cure of the numerous and troublesome ailments known as FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

For Whooping Cough.

DODD'S NERVINE is administered with unexampled success. Mothers, remember this and save your little ones the agony of a most distressing complaint. It also works admirably in Measles, bringing out the rash well and leaving the bowels free and healthful. For the diseases which afflict CHILDREN WHEN TEETHING, nothing can furnish more instant or grateful relief. Remember, it contains no OPIUM in any form.

LOOK OUT FOR COLDS.

It is proverbial that people treat a cold (and the generally accompanying cough) as something that will cure itself; but neglect is serious and sometimes fatal. The fame of DODD'S NERVINE in curing Colds is established. Use this standard remedy, and so far abstain from liquids of all kinds as to keep somewhat thirsty for a few days, and the worst cold will soon be gone.

DODD'S NERVINE
Is a PURE TONIC—harmonizes perfectly with the NERVE FIBRE—gives increased energy to the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, and other viscera—and supplies FRESH LIFE for the waste that is constantly taking place. It operates soothingly—is as pleasant to take as any wine, and with SLEEP AND GOOD DIGESTION, which it promotes, restores the afflicted to sound health, body and quietness of mind. It contains no opium, mercury or strychnine, (so often used for these complaints,) and is entirely free from any deleterious drugs whatever. Tens of thousands are testifying to its curative power. my17 4w

Table Talk.

The U. S. Senate has voted by a handsome majority that all newspapers shall continue to receive their exchanges free. The next question will be whether country newspapers shall circulate free in the counties where published, and that will probably be carried.

There were fifty-four deaths in Portland last month, twenty of which were caused by consumption and five by other lung diseases.

The Massachusetts House has passed resolution declaring in favor of the annexation of Canada to the United States.

Portugal has published a decree of amnesty for political offences.

Red Stockings 30, Tri Mountains 5.

A boy named Dargin lost both legs by attempting to get on a train at Portland, while in motion.

They must have very good water in Indianola, Texas, as it is said to be worth a dollar a bucketful. In most places down South it is not worth a cent.

The Mystery of Edwin Drood will always remain a mystery. Dickens left it unfinished. What will become of Orpheus C. Kerr's burlesque on the Mystery in Punchinello?

Two more of the victims of the Rutland, Vt., Railroad accident have died and others are in a critical condition.

Scarlet rash is called the scare-crow measles in Kentucky.

One thousand lives were lost by the Constantinople fire.

THE SCALP HUNTERS are on their way home from Washington. Red Cloud expresses much dissatisfaction at the President's refusal to abandon Fort Fetterman, and complained in strong terms that the treaties with his people had been repeatedly violated, and said that if trouble resulted, it would be the fault of the Great Father. He also said he did not want Governor Campbell, of Wyoming, as superintendent of the affairs of his tribe, but wanted Mr. Beauvain for superintendent, B. B. Mills for agent, and Coffee and Bullock for traders.

Secretary Cox explained to the Indians that General Sherman's treaty of 1867 was the basis of all the present negotiations, and that, having signed it, they must conform to its provisions. Red Cloud denied that he ever signed the treaty, and said that he did not mean to follow it. It was never explained to him, and he knew nothing about it. The Secretary insisted that the treaty was fairly and honorably negotiated by Generals Sherman, Sanborn, Harney and others, who would not tell a lie to save their lives. Red Cloud replied that he did not say the commissioners lied, but that the interpreters were wrong. Red Dog, Brave Bear and Bear-in-the-Grass also took part in the conference, and sustained the assertion of their chief.

Red Dog said the keeping of the force at Fort Fetterman was throwing away my Great Father's money for nothing. The officers there are not as good as those around here; they are all whiskey drinkers. Gen. Smith does not drink whiskey, and therefore he can talk with our Great Father. He sends out these whiskey drinkers because he does not want them around him here. I do not allow my nation or any white man to bring a drop of liquor into my country. If he does, that is the last of him and his liquor too. Spotted Tail can drink as much as he pleases on the Missouri River, and they can kill one another if they choose. I do not hold myself responsible for the acts of Spotted Tail, and the traders, and when you buy me anything with my money I want you to buy what is needful. I don't want dirty flour, rotten tobacco and old soldiers' cloths, dyed black, such as you bought Spotted Tail.

☞ W. Scott Smith, the Washington correspondent of the Traveller, is in danger of being expelled from the reporters' gallery of the U. S. House of Representatives, for stating in his correspondence that certain members had been offered bribes. He was arraigned before the bar of the House on Friday. The matter is to be inquired into by an investigating committee.

—Somebody in Keokuk, accusing Mrs. Stanton of blundering in her grammar, that indomitable woman replied thus; "That is nothing; we women have no hand in making these grammars. Ten to one they all all wrong."

—If you are in public office, always be punctual—in leaving.

—Chicago wishes to hear Patti in "Shoo Fly."

THE REPUBLICAN CONGRESS CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE has made a permanent organization. The following permanent executive committee was elected:—Senator Wilson, Chairman; Logan of Illinois, Cameron of Pennsylvania, Ketcham of New York, Chandler of Michigan, Sawyer of South Carolina, Rice of Arkansas, Sargent of California and Platt of Virginia. We give a corrected list of the committee:

Cattell; North Carolina — Senator Joseph C. Abbott; Ohio—Representative Robert C. Schenck; Oregon—Senator George H. Williams; Pennsylvania — Senator Simon Cameron; South Carolina—Senator Frederick A. Sawyer; Texas — Representative W. T. Clark; Tennessee — Representative Samuel M. Arnell; Vermont—Representative Charles P. Willard; Virginia—Representative James H. Platt; West Virginia—Senator Arthur L. Boreman; Wisconsin—Representative David Atwood.

New Hampshire Items.

A gang of roughs, at East Unity, called Mr. Sylvanus True from his house, one night recently, bound him and carried him some distance astride a pole. The pretext for this violence is not given. Several persons have been arrested on suspicion of being concernee in it.

John F. Shepard of Hampton Falls, has obtained a patent for a grating, sifting and slicing machine.

Mr. Benjamin Mills, an esteemed citizen of Rochester, was on Wednesday killed very suddenly. He entered the stall of a horse to feed him, when the horse became frightened and trampled on him, mangling him dreadfully, causing death. He was about 70 of age.

The G. A. R. in Dover has purchased three acres of land adjacent to Pine Hill Cemetery and are to reserve a good portion of it for a soldiers' burial ground.

The whole number of census enumerators in New Hampshire is 65, of whom one-half are veteran soldiers.

Mr. James Eaton, of East Weare, commited suicide a few days since, by cutting his throat.

Geo. G. Prescott, of Epping, has a heifer calf one year old, that weighs 609 pounds.

The reception of Hon. John P. Hale at Dover will take place next Wednesday, the 16th.

The hearing on the injunction served on the Concord Railroad directors, to restrain them from taking forcible possession of the road from Manager Stearns, was begun before the Supreme Judicial Court, Friday. Judges Foster and Nesmith withdrew from the bench, being stockholders and officers. Hon. B. R. Curtis of Boston appears for the Concord, and Hon. Ira Perley of Concord for the petitioners, each supported by a large number of assistants prominent at the bar. On Thursday, the hearing was postponed to the law term, next August.

THE NEW ARMY BILL.—The conference army bill retains the section of the House bill giving all officers a fixed rate of pay, with some slight and immaterial amendments. Officers are allowed to keep their brevets, but are prohibited from wearing the uniform or assuming the title of any but their lineal grade. It is thought retirement, resignations, discharge with a year's pay, and the weeding out of incompetents, will so reduce the supernumaries by that time, as to give a chance to retain all meritorious officers.

The number of rank and file of the army is to be reduced to 30,000; brevet rank promotions and appointments of staff corps are to be abolished; Mr. Logan's schedule of officers' pay to be retained; the retired list to be increased to 300; all officers unassigned by the first of January, 1871, to be mustered out; officers resigning before the first of next October, to receive only one year's pay and allowances. A board is to be convened to examine all officers whose discharge is recommended by division and department commanders and chiefs of staffs. Officers so reported can appear before the board for their defence, and such officers as may be mustered out by the action of this board shall receive but one year's pay proper; officers, of any grade, unassigned on the 1st of next January, may, at their option, elect to be assigned to duty as second lieutenants.

—Chicago belles number their accepted suitors, and marry them by rotation.

CINCINNATI INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION. The General Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, Board of Trade & Ohio Mechanics' Institute, announce that a Grand Industrial Exposition of manufactures, products and arts, will be held in Cincinnati, commencing Wednesday, Sept. 21, 1870, and continuing until Oct. 15, 1870, to which artisans, manufacturers, inventors, and all engaged in the production of works of art and ingenuity are invited to contribute. Ample preparations have been made for the exhibition of machinery in operation, for the prominent display of manufactures, works of art and products; and also for the general convenience of exhibitors. Arrangements are being made for the cheap transportation of articles for exhibition from all parts of the country, and for their removal from the depots and wharves in that city to the place of exhibition with safety and at low rates. Circulars containing full and specific information relating to the Exposition may be obtained by addressing "Cincinnati Industrial Exposition," Cincinnati.

THE ATLANTIC CABLE.—It is a curious illustration of the advantage of competing lines of Atlantic telegraph, that the English and French cables would now both be useless, but for the other. They both have stations on the little island of St. Pierre, on the coast of Newfoundland; and it so happens that just now, the English cable is broken between St. Pierre and London, while the French cable is broken between St. Pierre and Duxbury; so the London despatches have to come over the French line to St. Pierre, and at that point are transferred to the English line to the United States; while the despatches from the United States for French have to be sent to St. Pierre over the English cable, and then transferred to the French cable.

New Hampshire Legislature.

We have neglected to state that Hon. Ezra Gould, the Republican candidate for Councillor in the 2d District, where there was no choice at the March election, was chosen in joint convention by a strictly party vote, receiving 189 votes to 109 for Rust.

On Thursday, a bill was introduced to set off a part of the town of Durham and annex the same to the town of Newmarket.

Mr. Walker of Portsmouth, introduced a bill entitled an act to incorporate the Indemnity Life Insurance Company.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Three Requisites of Health.

If all the sickly people in the world were to take to their beds, and demand medical treatment, their would not be doctors enough to attend them nor a sufficient number of the robust to nurse them. Three conditions are absolutely essential to health, viz; a good appetite, easy digestion, and the ability to sleep soundly. Seven-eighths of the many thousands who suffer from indigestion, yet do not labor under serious disease, complain that they "can't eat," that their stomachs are "out of order," or that they "don't sleep well." For this class of ailments few persons think of calling in a physician. Nor it is necessary, inasmuch as a course of Hostetter's Bitters, will certainly relieve the derangements of the stomach, the liver, and the nervous system, from which want of appetite, indigestion and sleeplessness arise.

This excellent vegetable tonic and corrective is also a delightful anodyne. Insomnia (or incapacity to sleep) which has resisted all the ordinary remedies, will yield readily to a dose of this pleasant sedative taken just before retiring to rest. In ordinary medical practice it is usual to give a stomachic, an aperient, an invigorant, a soporific or an antiseptic, as the case for the time being may seem more particularly to require; but in this grand restorative all these medicinal properties, and many others are blended in due proportion. Thus, the digestion is stimulated, while the bowels are regulated, the liver toned, the strength recruited, the nerves calmed, the fluids purified and the circulation equalized.

It is believed that there is no other restorative and regulating medicine in the world which acts so beneficially and agreeably upon all the assimilating and secretive organs at the same time, and to all who lack the three fundamental requisites of health and enjoyment, a vigorous appetite, sound digestion and refreshing sleep, it is confidently recommended as a specific.

CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosciusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively, in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung diseases in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says; "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says; I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

Physicians do not recommend a medicine which has no merit, what they say about

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM,

Can be taken as a fact. Let all afflicted test it at once. Sold by all Medicine Dealers.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise healthy. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which feed the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12

"Children's Lives Saved for 50 Cts."

THOUSANDS OF CHILDREN DIE ANNUNUALLY OF CROUP. Now, Mothers, if you would spend 50 cents, and always have a bottle of DR. TOBIAS' VENETIAN LINIMENT in the house, you never need fear losing your little one when attacked with this complaint. It is now 22 years since I have put up my Liniment, and never heard of a child dying of Croup when my Liniment was used; but hundreds of cures have been reported to me, and many state if it was $10 per bottle they would not be without it. Besides which, it is a certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throat, Swellings, Mumps, Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Spasms, Old Sores and Pains in the Limbs, Back, Chest. No one tasted perfectly safe to take internally. Full directions with every bottle. Sold by the Druggists and Storekeepers in the United States. Depot 10 Park Place, N. Y. mh12

A RADICAL REVOLUTION

Has been accomplished in hair dyes. The horrible compounds containing LEAD, SALT and SULPHUR are discarded. The leading chemists implore the public not to use them, and Professor Chilton, whose reputation is second to that of no analytic chemist in America, has recommended

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye,

a PERFECTLY INNOCUOUS ARTICLE, which may be used without fear. Remember, it is the only one that has been analyzed and found wholesome. Its effects are instantaneous, and the color it imparts natural.

CRISTADORO'S HAIR PRESERVATIVE, as a Dressing, adds like a charm on the Hair after Dyeing. TRY IT. je13tjy12

Wanted—A House.
Coal—Roberts & Co.

From the Portsmouth Journal.

STATE PRINTER.—Our neighbor of the Chronicle seems to question the sincerity of our good wishes for his success in securing an election to this office. We think he is suspicious overmuch. We really hope he will succeed, because if it is settled that the office is not to go back to Concord, after our friend has enjoyed its honors and emoluments the customary time, the Journal, which is an older, (we will not say a better) soldier in the Republican army, may ask to be remembered. We thought, and still think, that the business could be most conveniently done at Concord, and if so, that it properly belonged there—just as work for the Navy Yard, Custom House, &c., here, properly belonged to those here, or who come here to do it. But if the Legislature think otherwise, we shall be pleased to have our judgment overruled in the matter.—Journal.

[Note.—We don't see but we stated the Journal's position fairly, from their first item—namely, that the editor is willing the Chronicle shall have the State Printing, if it be not sent back to Concord, as he thinks it should be. If that is not exactly the meaning of the above item also, then we cannot understand it; only this time he gives his reason for said reluctant willingness, and that is, that he himself might get the appointment afterwards! Well, we wish he may, without any ifs or ands. We do not consider ourself very suspicious or jealous—least of all, of our old cotemporary the Journal.

He also claims the Journal to be an older worker for Republicanism than the Chronicle. He does not say a better, so we will not—but as we have worked all the years the party has existed, we don't know how he figures the older.

He also reiterates that the printing ought to be done in Concord, just as the Navy Yard and Custom House work belongs in Portsmouth. Just the same—well, we will agree to that; and everybody knows Portsmouth people do not get a quarter of the money spent or of the offices at the Navy Yard. Nor should they, for the money is the Nation's in the one case, and the State's in the other, and there is no reason in making either especially a local matter. The National authorities have always "thought otherwise," and the State Legislature ditto at least on the last three occasions, as to Printer—and the public service has suffered no detriment. The work can be as well and conveniently done in Portsmouth as anywhere else.

Concord derives great benefit from being the capital of the State—and her citizens have got nearly all the offices, and want the rest. We don't find any fault with them for getting all they can; but it does seem a little strange that if old Rockingham has prospects for a chance favor, any of our citizens should oppose it,—that's all. F.

THE TABLEAU EXHIBITION at the Temple this evening, offers an opportunity for all to enjoy themselves at a trifling expense. The representations are well conceived and beautifully got up, and no similar exhibition has ever been given here. The music will be furnished by Cushing's Orchestra—and of course will be good. See the advertisement, and go yourself and send all the children.

CALVES.—Mr. Nathaniel Wiggin of Greenland has a little herd of 12 as good Calves as we know of. At a year (twelve months) old, one yoke of steers, tall, straight and handsome, girted 5 feet 4 inches; a bull 5 feet 3 inches; and another heifer ten months girted 5 feet. Nine of the twelve girted 5 feet and upwards when twelve months old. They are of pure or grade Durham stock, and not easy to beat.

One of these heifers is to come in at the age of 15 months. Also another fine yearling we know of in this city. A young heifer in Dover last year calved at this age and did well.

☞ We learn that Mr. Robert Drew is soon to put up a wooden dwelling house and store, adjoining the southern end of the Clark mansion on Vaughan street.

☞ Among the late arrivals at New York from Europe, we notice that of Mr. Robert Roberts of this city, of the firm of Roberts & Co., who has been absent a few months on a European tour.

—The preliminary praise bestowed upon the superb Circus of Stone & Murray attracted crowded audiences; and we have no hesitation in saying that the performances amply justified the announcements of the great superiority of the troupe.—Brooklyn Times.

☞ The Lebanon Granite State Free Press says: "Gen. Marston and Ex-Gov. Smyth very handsomely withdrew" from the Senatorial contest.

From the Portsmouth Journal.

In the list of cabin passengers of the Cunard Steamship Siberia which left Boston for Liverpool on Saturday, we notice the name of Mrs. R. W. Sargeant and child, of Kittery, Me.

From a recently published letter from Paris we clip the following:—

The first of this week, the American-Paris colony lost one of its bright jewels. Miss Carrie S. Deming was married to Mr. J. Horace Jenness of Portsmouth, New Hampshire. Miss Deming was a belle, not alone because she was one of the acknowledged beauties of "the colony," but because she was full of piquancy and good nature. She has engraved on her thoroughly American character the grace and tact of a Frenchwoman.

SPEND YOUR MONEY AT HOME.—Some persons as soon as they get a little money to lay out for clothing, millinery, &c., never rest until they go to Boston. These very persons are dependent upon the citizens of Portsmouth and vicinity for their livelihood. They expect people here at home to support them; but when they have a few dollars to spend, they must do it in Boston. Our merchants and dealers generally can and do sell just as cheap or cheaper than those of Boston, and they should be sustained.

The Boston Advertiser of a recent date says that Portsmouth is overrun with goats. Is that the name it gives the "loafers" seen on Congress Street every evening.

While walking on Congress Street between 7 and 8 o'clock on Saturday night last, there were counted just one hundred and three "loafers" standing on the corners and curbstones, from Thacher's drug store on Market Square to Middle Street. Of this number forty-eight were smoking, and we venture the assertion that the greater part of the remaining number were intent on the "cud," if jaw motion is a sufficient criterion.

AN EXTENSIVE ENTERPRISE.—One of the most conspicuous innovations of our city is that just introduced at the flour and grain establishment of Messrs. Pickering & Tompson on Market St. A 25-horse power engine, constructed by Holmes & Blanchard of Boston, has been put in, which is run each day of the week, turning out usually 25 barrels of flour per diem. The several processes for transporting the wheat, its sifting, cleansing, etc., before becoming the "the flour of the family," is a fresh proof of the fertile ingenuity of the Yankee, and deserving of a careful study. The flour produced is of exceedingly fine grade, and equal if not superior to any foreign brand.

Attached to the building is an Elevator, with capacity for shipping or unshipping twelve hundred bushels an hour. This, with a storage accommodation of thirty thousand bushels of grain, makes up a business enterprise such as we may well be proud of. The firm name is a sufficient recommendation, and a synonym for generous dealings.

One of our most talented ministers received a "loud" call from a distant parish last week. We learn that it will not be accepted. We should regret to lose one who possesses such ability as a Christian teacher, and such genial and expansive sympathies as a citizen.

After the morning service at the Orthodox church last Sunday, twenty eight persons were received into the church by profession of faith. Of this number four were of one family, a father, mother and two daughters. A similar service will take place at this church in a few weeks.

At the Middle St. church in the afternoon thirty one new members received the right hand of fellowship. The services were unusually impressive, the touching remarks of the pastor serving to bring forth deep and sympathetic responses from the very large audience pasent. The success which has thus far attended the ministry of Rev. Mr. Alden is rarely surpassed, and forms a conclusive evidence of his deep research in sacred letters, giving him ability in exposition (fruitfulness in suggestive hints, and strength in all the choicest gifts of the Christian character. The several churches of our city are enjoying a greater degree of prosperity than ever before. The ministerial profession of our city at the present time is rich in talent, and the success which attends each one is a strong proof of untiring study, energy and devoted piety in the work and service of the Master.

We learn that Rev. A. J. Patterson, formerly of this city, and now of the Universalist church, Boston Highlands, administered the ordinance of baptism by immersion at City Point, South Boston, last Sunday afternoon, to a person who requested the observance of that rite previous to admission to the church. The service by the sea-shore was witnessed by a large number, and was especially impressive, as it is not often observed by this denomination.

Because of the recent heated term, landlords at our summer resorts, more especially at the Shoals, are rejoicing at the number of letters daily coming in for "rooms." A seaside residence will be found quite beneficial to "fat men, infatuate, who fat this stagnant air."

The epicurean display of imported and domestic shelf goods just received at the store of Messrs. Butler & Laighton, Daniel Street, is very large and enough to satisfy the most fastidious for quality and prices.

HOME MANUFACTURE.—We want no better soap than we have for years purchased of Messrs. S. Cleaves & Son of this city. The experience of their workmen, the long and high standing of the firm and its rejuvenation in the hands of Mr. Henry C. Walker, warrants a recommendation to look at home before we go abroad.

—OF THE—

CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILROAD CO.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad

Is completed and running from RICHMOND, Va., to the celebrated WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, in West Va., 227 miles. It is being rapidly extended to the Ohio River, 200 miles further, making in all 427 miles.

In its progress Westward, it penetrates and opens up to market the Wonderful Coal Deposits of the Kanawha Region in West Virginia. And thus brings the superior and abundant Coals of that section into communication with the Iron Ores of Virginia and Ohio, and the Western, South Western and Eastern markets.

When completed it will connect the superior harbor facilities of the Chesapeake Bay with reliable navigation on the Ohio River, and thus with the entire system of Railroad and Water transportations of the great West and South-West.

It will make a short, easy, cheap and favorable route from the West, to the sea, and will command a large share of the enormous freights seeking transportation to the coast

It will thus become one of the most important and profitable East and West Trunk Lines of Railroad in the country, and command a trade of immense value.

The completed portion of the Road is doing a profitable and increasing Business, and is fully equal in value to the whole amount of the mortgage upon the entire Line—($15,000,000.)

The loan of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company, being a First Mortgage upon the entire Line, property and equipments, worth when completed at least $30,000,000, is therefore one of the most substantial, conservative and reliable Railroad Loans ever offered in the market, and is peculiarly adapted to the wants of

INVESTORS and CAPITALISTS,

JOSH BILLINGS ON THE 'COON.—The raccoon iz a residint uv the United States uv America. He emigrated to this country soon after its diskovery by Columbus, without a cent, and nothing but his claws to get a living with.

He iz one uv them kind uv persons whose hide iz wuth more than all the rest uv him.

He resides among the heavy timber, and cultivates the corn fields and garden sass for sustenance, and understands his business.

His family consists uv a wife and 3 children, who reside with him on the inside uv a tree.

He can always be found at home during the day, ready to receive calls, but his nights are devoted to looking after his own affairs.

He dresses in soft fur, and his tail, which iz round, haz rings on it.

These rings are uv the same material that the tail iz, and are worn upon all occasions.

During the winter he ties himself up into a hard not, and lays down by hiz fireside.

When spring opens, he opens, and goes out to see how the chickens hev wintered.

Hiz wife iz az free from labor as a new penny, and if it wasn't for the dogs and the rest uv mankiud, the raccoon would find what everybody else hez lost—a heaven upon earth.

But the dogs tree him, and the men skin him, and what there iz left ov him ain't with a cuss.

He iz not a natural vagabond like the hedge-hog and the alligator, but civilized, and lives among folks; but he haz one vice that the smartest missionary on earth kan't redeem, and that iz the art ov stealing.

He iz second only to the crow in petit larceny, and will steal what he kan't eat or hide.

He will tip over a barrel ov applesass just for the fun ov mauling the sass with his feet, and will pull out the plug ov the molasses barrel, not because he luvs sugar any better than he does a young duck, but jist to see if the molasses haz got a good daub to it.

I hev studied animal devilry for 18 years, because the more devilry in an animal the more human he iz.

I kan't find, by searching the passenger list, that Noah had a coon on board, but I am willing to bet 10 pound of mutton sassage that mister coon and his wife commuted by stealing a ride.

CONGRESSIONAL DANCERS. — Donn Piatt, who accompanied the festive party of Congressmen and others on an excursion down the Potomac the other day, describes some of the dancers as follows:

S. S. Cox shines as a dancer. Like his speeches, his style is light and graceful. He dances generally all over—and seems to feel quite good at every point. His tails fly a good deal, and this rather impairs the tout ensemble. If he would put a few pounds of pig iron in his coat tails, or, better yet, a few of Kelley and Oake's speeches, so as to keep down his tails, and steady his gait, it would be a pleasing improvement.

Hon. Mr. Roots has a hilarious style, that is at the same time Congressional. He has a little kick out behind, like a sportive calf, that is very pleasing. But his general manner is that of a member of the House, about 3 o'clock in the morning, who thinks he won't go home till morning, "till daylight doth appear."

Hon. Norman Judd excel as one of the graces in the dance, if he could take off his nose, and ship some of his commissary. As it is, he runs bows under, as it were, and reminds one of a Kanawha kick-up-behind, as we call stern-wheelers at the West.

Dear old Senator Hamlin, who adds to the wisdom of years the simplicity of a child! His dancing is very Senatorial. From his head to his hips he is all Senate, and solemn, and upright as a gate-post. From that down his venerable legs are very frisky. It has the strangest effect to see the solemn, dignified, Senatorial body carried about on two such puny, old, frisky legs.

But when one comes to the great Michigander—the mighty Puttyface—words fail to do the subject justice. I asked myself, can this be the fearful ring-tail snorter of the Senate, who bearded the British Lion in his den? Thunder and Mars! Here he is, cavorting like an elephant with the toothache! With his Senatorial hat jammed on the back of his Senatorial head—with, evidently, a Senatorial brick in it—he kicked out his tremendous mud-hooks to the right and left, to the great terror of the young ladies about him.

CAULIFLOWERS succeed best in a deep, rich and cool soil. If one does not possess such a soil, it is not necessary to forego the luxury of having an abundance of this fine vegetable, as we have fully proved by experience. On light, sandy soils, even if made very rich, the cauliflower will usually fail to produce good, large heads, probably owing to the want of sufficient moisture, or the excessive high temperature of the soil. We have succeeded admirably in growing cauliflowers on a light sand by using plenty of manure and mulching. If the mulch is composed chiefly of coarse manure from the barn-yard, so much the better; weeds, straw or hay will answer, but they should be applied early and liberally.

—One of the wise sayings with which D'Israeli's Lothair is filled, reads like a prophecy in the light of recent events: "There is no real business in the Fenians. Their treason is a fairy tale, and their sedition a child talking in its sleep."

WISHING.

BY JEAN INGELOW.

When I reflect how little I have done,
And add to that how little I have seen,
Then furthermore how little I have won
Of joy, or good, how little known, or been;
I long for other life more full, more keen,
And years to change with such as well have run.
Yet reason mocks me—nay, the soul, I ween,
Granted her choice would dare to change with No,—not to feel, as Blondel, when his lay [none,
Pierced the strong tower, and Richard answered No, not to do, as Eustace on the day [(it—
He left fair Calais to her weeping fit—
No, not to be Columbus, waked from sleep,
When his new world rose from the charmed deep. [—Good Words.

For the Chronicle and Gazette.

ORIGIN OF TOWN MEETINGS.—The Pilgrims, who came to New England in 1620, formed a religious compact while on the voyage. Avoiding all that was arbitrary and oppressive that they had felt in the old country, the government was in the body. De Focqueville, a Frenchman, writing of it since, says it was a democratic and republican religion.

After the settlement commenced, the church meeting was a meeting of its members. The decisions were by the church as an organized body. This suggested the town meeting. England had no such thing as a town organization and town government. Town meetings, with their municipal authority, are a part of the glory of New England and many other parts of our country. Rightly conducted they are important, interesting and beneficial.

In the history of our nation it appears that Jefferson, in Virginia, was acquainted with a small church in which the government was congregational. He said it was pure democracy, and the best plan for the government of the American Colonies. It is hardly necessary to say that this plan was in his mind when he drafted the Declaration of Independence, and in carrying out republican principles in his illustrious career as a statesman. J.

Correspondence of the Chronicle and Gazette.

DEERFIELD, June 11.

The accidental shooting of Geo. Lottre's child, last Sabbath, by his cousin, occurred in this town, not Concord.

The crops of grass and fruit look very promising; and the farmers have had a fine opportunity for planting.

As a result of the revival, 106 have joined the three churches in Deerfield, and many more are expected to unite.

The Rockingham Co. conference of Congregational churches meets at Kingston on the 14th and 15th of June.

Deacon W. G. Brown, bible agent, in 8 days called on 408 families, (nearly every one in Deerfield), and found 6 destitute of bibles. He distributed books to the amount of more than $70 and received in donations, $23.80.

☞ There is a remarkable community living in Iowa who call themselves the "Christian Brothers." They have a monastery on one of the highest Mississippi bluffs, approached by a rough and rocky road. They wear the garb worn by St. Bernard, in the sixth century. From two o'clock in the morning until daylight they devote to prayer. Some of them have been there twenty, and a few about thirty years. Their religious belief is Roman Catholic, and they are never allowed to marry. Women are never allowed in their place of worship under any circumstances. After a certain time they take upon themselves a vow never to speak aloud, and a number have kept that vow for twenty years, living in a state of unspeakable enjoyment.

BAKING BREAD.—If you wish to bake your bread and biscuit without a hard, dry crust, you can do so very readily. Just before placing the bread in the oven, rub its surface with lard or butter. This will close the pores, preventing the escape of the gas which is produced by the yeast, and the escape of the steam which is produced by the moisture of the heated loaf. Bread thus baked will be almost crustless. Indeed, so long as the moisture is confined it will be difficult burning the loaf to any great depth. The large vacuities in the bread will be less numerous, though, as the whole, it will be more perous and therefore lighter.

—When Asa McFarland of the Concord Statesmen went to Boston in a chaise to learn the printer's trade of Mr. Willis of the Boston Recorder, the vehicle took as return freight N. P. Willis, the young son, as a pupil to Rev. Dr. McFarland, the father of the 'prentice boy.

—The Gloucester Advertiser itemizes thus: "A man who is owing us a little bill, said he would call last week and pay us if he was alive. He still appears on the street, but, as he did not call, it is naturally supposed that he is dead and is walking around to save funeral expenses."

—The difference between a country and a city greehorn is, that the one would like to know everything, and the other thinks he can tell him.

—A Newburyport sexton says:—"Business is mightly dull here; I haven't buried a single living soul for over a week."

KIDNAPPING A MISSIONARY'S WIFE.—The heat was excessive; and the absence of water made the journey across the arid plain between Sandy and Green Rivers one of great suffering to the traveller and his animals; and the more so as the frequent references to the alcohol kettle only increased the thirst-fever instead of allaying it. But Meek was not alone in suffering. About half way across the scorching he discovered a solitary woman's figure standing in the trail, and two riding horses near her, whose drooping heads expressed their dejection. On coming up with this strange group, Meek found the woman to be one of the missionary ladies, a Mrs. Smith, and that her husband was lying on the ground, dying, as the poor sufferer believed himself, for water.

Mrs. Smith made a weeping appeal to Meek for water for her dying husband; and truly the poor woman's situation was a pitiable one. Behind camp, with no protection from the perils of the desert and wilderness—only a terrible care instead—the necessity of trying to save her husband's life. As no water was to be had, alcohol was offered to the famishing man, who, however, could not be aroused from his stupor of wretchedness. Seeing that death really awaited the unlucky missionary unless something could be done to cause him to exert himself, Meek commenced at once, and with unction, to abuse the man for his unmanliness. His style, though not very refined, was certainly very vigorous.

"You're a d——d pretty fellow to be lying on the ground here, lolling your tongue out of your mouth, and trying to die. Die if you want to, you'll never be missed. Here's your wife, who you have keeping standing here in the hot sun; why don't she die? She's got more pluck than a white-livered chap like you. But I'm not going to leave her waiting here for you to die. Thar's a band of Indians behind on the trail, and I've been riding like h—l to keep out of their way. If you want to stay here and be scalped, you can stay; Mrs. Smith is going with me. Come, madam," continued Meek, leading up her horse, "let me help you to mount, for we must get out of this cursed country as fast as possible."

Poor Mrs. Smith did not wish to leave her husband; nor did she relish the notion of staying to be scalped. Despair tugged at her heart-strings. She would have sunk to the ground in a passion of tears, but Meek was too much in earnest to permit precious time to be thus wasted. "Get on your horse," said he rather roughly. "You can't save your husband by staying here, crying. It is better that one should die than two; and he seems to be a worthless dog anyway. Let the Indians have him."

Almost lifting her upon the horse, Meek tore the distracted woman away from her husband, who had yet strength enough to gasp out an entreaty not to be left.

"You can follow us if you choose," said the apparently merciless trapper, "or you can stay where you are. Mrs. Smith can find plenty of better men than you. Come, madam!" and he gave the horse a stroke with his riding-whip which started him into a rapid pace.

The unhappy wife, whose conscience reproached her for leaving her husband to die alone, looked back, and saw him raising his head to gaze after them. Her grief broke out afresh, and she would have gone back even then to remain with him: but Meek was firm, and again started up her horse. Before they were quite out of sight, Meek turned in his saddle, and beheld the dying man sitting up. "Hurrah," said he: "he's all right. He will overtake us in a little while;" and as he predicted, in little over an hour Smith came riding up, not more than half dead by this time.

The party got into camp on Green River, about eleven o'clock that night, and Mrs. Smith having told the story of her adventures with the unknown trapper who had so nearly kidnapped her, the laugh and the cheer went round among the company. "That's Meek," said Ematinger, "you may rely on that. He's just the one to kidnap a woman in that way." When Mrs. Smith fully realized the service rendered, she was abundantly grateful, and profuse were the thanks which our trapper received, even from the much-abused husband, who was now thoroughly alive again.—From the River of the West, just published.

—Some rash fellow says that the giving of the ballot to women would not amount to much, for none of them would admit that they were old enough to vote until they were too old to take any interest in politics.

—There is a kind of grim humor in the address of a devout deacon to his newly-settled pastor as he gave him the usual welcome: "The Lord keep you humble, and we will keep you poor."

—An impudent fellow says: "Show me all the dresses a woman has worn in the course of her life, and I will write her biography from them."

THE OLD RELIABLE
NEW ENGLAND FAMILY MEDICINE.
TO BE FOUND IN EVERY VILLAGE AND TOWN IN NEW ENGLAND, IS
DODD'S NERVINE
AND INVIGORATOR.
A THOROUGH TONIC AND STOMACHIC.
DODD'S NERVINE is not a new medicine, but has been before the public for the last fifteen years. Is compounded from the best and purest drugs. Contains no OPIUM, STRYCHNINE or MERCURY in any form, and is expressly adapted to the relief and permanent cure of all forms of
NERVOUS DISEASES, &c., &c.,
Coughs, Neuralgia, Female Weaknesses, Colds, Headache, Painting Fits, Fevers, Convulsions, Palpitation, Agues, Sleeplessness, Restlessness, Biliousness, Dyspepsia, Dizziness, Constipation, Liver Complaint, Children's Troubles, Diarrhœa, Consumption, &c., &c., &c.,
DODD'S NERVINE
Is a COMPLETE SPECIFIC for sleeplessness. It soothes the throbbing muscle like magic, and tranquilizes the mind. And everybody knows that good sleep is better than all medicines. And all folks that
CAN'T SLEEP NIGHTS,
Should use this truly wonderful medicine.
DODD'S NERVINE
Is one of the best remedies ever employed in the cure of the numerous and troublesome ailments known as FEMALE COMPLAINTS.
For Whooping Cough.
DODD'S NERVINE is administered with unexampled success. Mothers, remember this and save your little ones life agony of a most distressing complaint. It also works admirably in Measles, bringing out the rash well and leaving the bowels free and healthful. For the diseases which afflict CHILDREN WHEN TEETHING, nothing can furnish more instant or grateful relief. Remember, it contains no OPIUM in any form.
LOOK OUT FOR COLDS.
It is proverbial that people treat a cold (and the generally accompanying cough) as something that will cure itself; but neglect is serious and sometimes fatal. The fame of DODD'S NERVINE in the relief of colds is established. Use this standard remedy, and so far abstain from liquids of all kinds as to keep constantly thirsty for a few days, and the worst cold will soon be gone.
DODD'S NERVINE
Is a PURE TONIC—harmonizes perfectly with the NERVE FIBRE—gives increased energy to the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, and other viscera—and supplies FRESH LIFE for the waste that is constantly taking place. It operates soothingly—is as pleasant to take as any wine, and with SLEEP AND GOOD DIGESTION, which it promotes, restores the afflicted to sound health of body and quietness of mind. It contains no opium, mercury or strychnine, too often used for nervous complaints, and is wholly free from any deleterious drugs whatever. Tens of thousands are testifying to its curative powers. my17w

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of the United States Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837,
No. 78 STATE ST., OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all papers or drawings for Patents, executed on reasonable terms with dispatch. Researches made into American and Foreign works, to determine the validity and utility of Patents or Inventions, and legal and other advice rendered on all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.
No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.
During eight months the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided IN HIS FAVOR by the Commissioner of Patents.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.
"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me THIRTEEN applications, in all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such cases take proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.
The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painful and afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.
Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unnoticed and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to break infection through out the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly developes into one or other of its hideous forms, subjecting the unfortunate victim to the agonies of the rack, or, among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may suddenly be deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this SARSAPARILLA is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear.
Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and at length, cure, by the use of this SARSAPARILLA: St. Anthony's Fire, Tetter or Erysipelas, Pimples, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various affections of the muscular and nervous systems.
Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac supplied gratis.
Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Dropsy, Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. THE SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic or Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

Is an excellent combination of IRON with MANDRAKE and vegetable tonics. The Mandrake acts on the Liver, and prevents the bracing effects which Iron has in many other preparations—while the vegetable tonics strengthen the stomach and promote digestion of the food and facilitate the absorption of Iron into the blood.

☞ A curious instance of the death of a bird occurred at Worcester on Thursday last. Mr. J. Nichols, of that city, had a pet bullfinch, a beautiful singer, who could whistle two tunes as correctly as they can be played on a flute. The bird was very tame and much petted by the family; so much so that it would call to Mr. Nichols as he passed through the room. He went to the cage in answer to one of these calls; and after fluttering about the face of his friend a few minutes, the bird dropped dead on the bottom of its cage.

BRUTAL ASSAULT.—On Sunday forenoon last, as a young girl named Goodwin, between 13 and 14 years of age, the daughter of a clergyman in York, Me., was on her way to church in that town, she was assaulted by a wretch who attempted forcibly to violate her, though he happily failed in his atrocious design. The girl's screams were heard at the farm house nearest the scene of the attempt; and after escaping from the ruffian, she arrived at the house almost naked, and fainted immediately. The assailant is a man of about 35 years of age, and stopped at the residence of Elder Pike, in Kittery, and got something to eat, about an hour before his villainous assault on the girl. After the attack, he was stopped on the road by three citizens, but escaped by "bluffing" them; he said they had no legal right to arrest him without a warrant, that the law would justify him in resisting an illegal arrest, and that unless they produced a warrant he would not be taken alive:—and they let the scoundrel go! He may have been correct as to his law; but public opinion would have upheld the citizens had they arrested him, dead or alive, for the life of such a wretch is not worth even a legal scruple.

City Marshal Johnson turned a tramp out of the Portsmouth lock-up Saturday morning, he having applied for lodgings the evening before; and from the description furnished the Marshal, he is confident that the would-be violator and the hard-up tramp are identical. The telegram warning our police of the affair was sent at about 10 o'clock Sunday forenoon, and received by the City Marshal at half past 8 on Monday morning, the telegraph offices being closed on Sunday.

Since the above was in type, we have received a letter from a correspondent, who says the girl is the "youngest daughter of Elder Charles E. Goodwin of the Christian Society; and that while passing over a wild and unfrequented spot in the highway, a man or demon in human shape, in sailor rig, emerged from a pasture and accosted her, inquiring the time of day, and if there were any houses near; which being answered by her in a courteous manner, that there was a house over the hill, he seized and dragged her into some bushes in a pasture near by, and attempted to violate her person, threatening to kill her if she did not keep quiet, but nothing daunted, she continued to scream and struggle until she succeeded in escaping from his grip, and running to the nearest house, (an eighth of a mile distance), Mr. Henry S. Thompson's, fell fainting in Mr. Thompson's arms.

Soon recovering, she described the man and place; and upon repairing to the spot, her hat was found, and indications of a violent struggle. Parties started immediately in all directions, and one of them, consisting of David Sewall, Edward Ramsdell and Joseph W. Bragdon, soon overtook and stopped a man answering the description, accused him of the crime and attempted to arrest him, but he warning and threatening them not to take him without a warrant, Mr. Bragdon started to notify the officers of the law. Upon being informed of the fact, Justice Putnam and Deputy Sheriff Thompson promptly repaired to the spot, only to find that the prisoner had escaped from his keepers to the woods. All the men in the neighborhood turned out to scour the woods, and at the close of the afternoon service, the men in the several congregations, were requested by their Pastors to repair to the woods and reinforce those already there. A large number acceded to the request, increasing the force to two hundred men, who continued their search until dark. The different roads and bridges were guarded during the night by Deputy Sheriff Thompson and Constable G. F. Plaisted with aids, but as yet the ruffian has not been secured.

Much credit is due Mr. Bragdon, one of our best young men, for his untiring efforts to secure the arrest of the culprit and the only regret is that he did not remain himself as one of the keepers, for had he done so, we venture to say, the villain would not now be at large."

MARK TWAIN having been elected an honorary member of a Poultry Society, recommends himself in the following style:—

"Even as a schoolboy, poultry-raising was a study with me, and I may say without egotism that as early as the age of seventeen I was acquainted with all the best and speediest methods of raising chickens, from raising them off a roost by burning lucifer matches under their noses, down to lifting them off a fence on a frosty night by insinuating the end of a warm board under their heels. The very chickens came to know my talent by and by. The youth of both sexes ceased to paw the earth for worms, and old roosters that came to crow remained to pray, when I passed by."

Correspondence of the Chronicle and Gazette.

RYE, June 13th.

Until to-day, for a week past, the wind has been east, and for the greater part of the time the fog has been thick enough to drive a nail into and hang your hat on. It has been very fine for grass, but has put the farmers back some days with their hoeing; and this week they will be busy enough, with weeds and blue grass, which have got a fine start during the past week of damp weather.

After a deal of persistent effort, the directors of the Eastern R. R. Company have directed that the trains leaving Boston at 3 P. M., and Portsmouth at 11.15 A. M., shall stop at Greenland, thereby accommodating very many persons in Rye, who heretofore had either to go to Portsmouth or North Hampton to avail themselves of either of those trains. By the present arrangement, two and a half miles of travel from the Centre is saved.

The Antiques and Horribles had a meeting in the vestry, Saturday night, to choose officers and make the necessary arrangements for the parade on the coming "Fourth." A large number were present. Capt. Joseph J. Rand, who has commanded the the corps the past two years, was re-chosen Captain, and Cornelius Philbrook, Lieutenant. The proposition to visit Portsmouth and take part in the exercises there, was voted down, and their route will only be through their own town.

It is rumored that efforts are being made to form a lodge of Good Templars here, but with what success remains to be seen. The road leading to the depot, between Capt. John H. Brown's and Reuel G. Shapley's, is being straightened and widened, and it will be a great improvement when finished. Also, on the road to Foss beach improvements are being made; and there is room in many other roads in town for a good deal of gravel, more especially those roads at the east part of the town, which are not much better than common cart paths in the pastures. And in one spot not far from the Sagamore House it is difficult, if not dangerous, for teams to pass each other.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Three Requisites of Health.

If all the sickly people in the world were to take to their beds, and demand medical treatment, their would not be doctors enough to attend them nor a sufficient number of the robust to nurse them. Three conditions are absolutely essential to health, viz; a good appetite, easy digestion, and the ability to sleep soundly. Seven-eights of the many thousands who suffer from indigestion, yet do not labor under serious disease, complain that they "can't eat," that their stomachs are "out of order," or that they "don't sleep well." For this class of ailments far persons think of calling in a physician. Nor it is necessary, inasmuch as a course of Hostetter's Bitters, will certainly relieve the derangements of the stomach, the liver, and the nervous system, from which want of appetite, indigestion and sleeplessness arise.

This excellent vegetable tonic and corrective is also a delightful anodyne. Insomnia (or inoapacity to sleep) which has resisted all the ordinary remedies, will yield readily to a dose of this pleasant sedative taken just before retiring to rest. In ordinary medical practice it is usual to give a stomachic, an aperient, an invigorant, a soporific or an antisepti, as the case for the time being may seem more particularly to require; but in this grand restorative all those medicinal properties, and many others are blended in due proportion. Thus, the digestion is stimulated, while the bowels are regulated, the liver toned, the strength recruited, the nerves calmed, the fluids purified and the circulation equalized.

It is believed that there is no other restorative and regulating medicine in the world which acts so beneficially and agreeably upon all the assimilating and secretive organs at the same time, and all who lack the three fundamental requisites of health and enjoyment, a vigorous appetite, sound digestion and refreshing sleep, it is confidently recommended as a specific.

CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosclusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively, in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung disease in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says: "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possess valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says; I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

Physicians do not recommend a medicine which has no merits, what they say about

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM,

Can be taken as a fact. Let all afflicted test it at once. Sold by all Medicine Dealers.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Diarrhoea, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which feed the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12

"Children's Lives Saved for 50 Cts."

THOUSANDS OF CHILDREN DIE ANNUALLY OF CROUP. Now, Mothers, if you would save 50 cents, and always have a bottle of DR. TOBIAS' VENETIAN LINIMENT in the house, you never need fear losing your little one when attacked with this complaint. It is now 22 years since I have put up my Liniment, and never heard of a child dying of Croup when my Liniment was used; but hundreds of cases have been reported to me, and many state if it was $10 per bottle they would not be without it. Remember, which, it is a certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throat, Swellings, Mumps, Colic, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Spasms, Old Sores and Pains in the Limbs, Back, Chest. No one who once tries it is ever without it. It is warranted perfectly safe to take internally. Full directions with every bottle. Sold by the Druggists and Storekeepers in the United States. A RADICAL REVOLUTION

Has been accomplished in hair dyes. The horrible compounds containing LEAD, SALT and SULPHUR are discarded. The leading chemists implore the public not to use them, and Professor Chilton, whose reputation is second to that of no analytic chemist in America, has recommended

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye,

a PERFECTLY INNOCUOUS ARTICLE, which may be used without fear. Remember, it is the only one that has been analyzed and found wholesome. Its effects are instantaneous, and the color it imparts natural.

CRISTADORO'S HAIR PRESERVATIVE, as a Dressing, acts like a charm on the Hair after Dyeing. TRY IT. je13ly12

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

New Advertisements to-day.

Variation—Boston Cheap Store.
Dates—Butler & Laighton.

☞ Sunday brought summer weather.

☞ The Street Sprinkler will be on duty this week.

☞ The summer visitors are beginning to arrive at the beaches.

☞ Ass't Naval Constructor Philip Hichborn reported for duty at the Navy Yard on Monday.

ACCIDENT.—On Sunday afternoon, Mr. A. Pearson of this city, while carrying an armful of grass into his stable to feed his horse, tripped over a stone and fell heavily, bending his right hand backward and badly dislocating the wrist. He was attended by Dr. Folsom, and it is hoped that no more serious consequences than a month or two of enforced rest will result.

FOURTH OF JULY.—In addition to the comicalities already arranged, is a wash-tub race on the South Mill Pond for a prize of $5. Entries made at the store of W. I. Trafton. Boats will be in attendance at the race to rescue the racers in case of accident.

A gentleman from abroad has consented to deliver an Oration in front of the store of John Stokell & Co. on Market Street.

PORTSMOUTH becomes more beautiful, year by year, and is now in one of its most presentable conditions. The shade trees grow more lofty and the principal streets afford splendid views. Among the finest are those on Islington, Middle, Austin, State and Pleasant Streets. Richards Avenue will soon become one of the coolest and most agreeable thoroughfares in the city. The trees planted there by the late Henry L. Richards already furnish considerable shade and the growth of a few years more will make the Avenue one of the finest drives and promenades in the city.

☞ Two distinguished performers accompany Stone & Murray's great circus. Mr. John Henry Cooke is justly celebrated on two continents for his remarkable feats in the ring and especially for his great bareback act upon four or six horses. Miss Emilie Henrietta Cooke is the equestrienne who created such a sensation in Paris last season, and of whom Dumas wrote:

She is the paragon of grace, and her superb equestrianism is a realization of the ecstacy of delight. What she accomplishes no mortal ever attempted; what she performs no one can imitate. To see her is to be enchanted; not to see her is to regret. Her riding is intensely thrilling to witness.

HEAD GUARDS.—Concerning the recent visit of the Head Guards to this city, the Manchester Union says, it "was successful in all respects, and greatly enjoyed by the members of the company. The target carried down by them was brought back badly riddled, though the distance was 95 yards.

At the close of the trial, Capt. Urch presented the prize for the best shot, $10 in gold, to Private Harrington, and Lieut. Judkins conferred the leather medal on Private Corson. Although in a secluded valley, the company were obliged to change their aim several times in consequence of the fears of farmers in the neighborhood. One man came about a mile and a quarter to announce his belief that a bullet had whistled by his ear."

HON. JOHN P. HALE'S RECEPTION at Dover will take place to-morrow (Wednesday) afternoon, at 3 o'clock. Col. Geo. H. Pierce has been chosen Chief Marshal on the occasion, and the military, fire companies, the benevolent societies, with the school children, will make up the escort. He will be welcomed by Mayor Stevens at the depot and escorted to his residence on Pleasant Street. The Dover Gazette says that all party feeling has been merged into a widespread desire to give Mr. Hale a spontaneous, hearty welcome—such an one as he eminently deserves on arriving once more at home—that home he loves so well, and its people, towards whom he never failed to show good feeling and in whom he always took an active interest.

☞ Lewiston, Maine, had a $70,000 incendiary fire on Sunday morning. We are sorry to see among other losses that the Insurance Agency of Mr. D. Horace Holman, formerly of this city, was burned, none of the books or furniture being saved. Hope you had a good dose of your own medicine, Horace, and were well insured!

☞ Hon. John P. Hale of New Hampshire was closeted with Collector Grinnell Saturday, urging the interests of New England applicants for office.

CONGRESS.—In the Senate, Saturday, the bill abolishing the franking privilege was laid aside, and the bill relieving the Central Pacific Railroad by a grant of something more than two million acres of land was taken up and passed.

In the House, objection was made to the introduction of a bill repealing the tenure-of-office act. The general appropriation bill was taken up, a substitute for the Senate amendment concerning department clerks adopted, the amendments appropriating money for government buildings in Washington and for raising salaries disagreed to, and the bill sent to a conference committee. The Conference committee's report on the army bill was adopted.

In the House, Monday, Mr. Ela of N. H. introduced a bill granting public lands to the State of New Hampshire for railroad purposes at the rate of forty sections to the mile.

Mr. Davis, of New York, introduced a bill to amend the naturalization laws and moved the previous question. The first section makes false swearing in applications perjury and punishable as such. The second and third sections punish personations and use or possession of forged records or certificates, &c. The fourth section gives United States Courts jurisdiction of all offences under the bill. The bill passed by a vote of 130 ayes to 40 nays.

BACK HAIR BUSINESS.—The Great Falls Journal says that a young lady of that place who had a beautiful head of hair, was obliged to have it cut off close to the head on account of the insects that had got into the hair from a switch that she had been wearing.

A recent issue of the Rochester Courier says a similar case of occurred at Milton a short time since, and every week we hear of bugs or insects destroying the natural hair. The switches are made from the bark of a tree and contain these little bugs that are so fatal to the hair. Nice for the ladies!

☞ Patrick Woods alias Dooley was produced at the bar of the U. S. House, on Saturday, charged with making a murderous assault on Congressman Chas. H. Porter at Richmond on May 30. Dooley is an Irishman of the laboring class, about thirty-five years old, and strongly built.

A motion of Mr. Allison of Iowa, that the matter be referred to the judiciary committee for examination, and to report what action the House should take in the premises, in the meantime the prisoner to be held in custody, was carried—119 to 39.

☞ The Sultan has been very active in extending relief to the sufferers by the Constantinople fire. Over one thousand houses of the Turks have been thrown open to the Christians turned out, and large sums of money have been subscribed for them by the people, irrespective of sect.

☞ The wife and infant child of Hon. Aaron H. Cragin narrowly escaped suffocation at Washington, Saturday morning. The St. James Hotel caught fire and they were rescued from the third story window by members of a hook and ladder company.

SENATOR CRAGIN was serenaded at his home in Lebanon Saturday evening.

—A country editor backs his rooster as the best crow-nometer in the neighborhood. He has never had to set it since it has been in his possession.

—A widower was recently rejected by a damsel who didn't want affections that had been "warmed over."

—OF THE—

CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILROAD CO.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad

Is completed and running from RICHMOND, Va., to the celebrated WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, in West Va., 227 miles. It is being rapidly extended to the Ohio River, 200 miles further, making in all 427 miles.

In its progress Westward, it penetrates and opens up to market the Wonderful Coal Deposits of the Kanawha Region in West Virginia. And thus brings the superior and abundant Coals of that section into communication with the Iron Ores of Virginia and Ohio, and the Western, South Western and Eastern markets.

When completed it will connect the superior harbor facilities of the Chesapeake Bay with reliable navigation on the Ohio River, and thus with the entire system of Railroad and Water transportations of the great West and South-West.

It will make a short, easy, cheap and favorable route from the West, to the sea, and will command a large share of the enormous freights seeking transportation to the cons

It will thus become one of the most important and profitable East and West Trunk Lines of Railroad in the country, and command a trade of immense value.

The completed portion of the Road is doing a profitable and increasing Business, and is fully equal in value to the whole amount of the mortgage upon the entire Line—($15,000,000.)

The loan of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company, being a First Mortgage upon the entire Line, property and equipments, worth when completed at least $30,000,000, is therefore one of the most substantial, conservative and reliable Railroad Loans ever offered in the market, and is peculiarly adapted to the wants of

INVESTORS and CAPITALISTS,

Who desire to make their investments with the most satisfactory assurance of positive and undoubted Security.

The Bonds are in denominations of

$1000, $500 and $100,

and may be had COUPON or REGISTERED.

Interest Six per cent. per annum, payable MAY 1st and NOVEMBER 1st.

PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

Price 90 and accrued interest in Currency, at which price they pay nearly Seven per cent. in gold on their cost.

All Government Bonds and other Securities dealt in at the Stock Exchange, received in exchange, at their full market value, and Bonds sent to all parts of the country, free of Express charges.

They can be obtained by ordering direct from us or through any responsible Bank or Banker in any part of the country.

Dan C. Wiggin, formerly of the New Hampshire House in Dover, and an old and successful hotel keeper, has leased the Granite House, at Hampton Beach, on Boar's Head.

In the month of June, the past year, Mr. G. H. Pike of Boston purchased of M. S. Pike of Hampton Falls, the then four-year-old colt, "Pike Fearnaught," for $1,500. The purchaser, the past week, removed the animal to Boston. High hopes are entertained of the future of this valuable young horse.

On the 8th, in Plaistow, as the five o'clock train from Boston was passing through, two intoxicated men were walking by the side of the track. Just as the engine neared them, one of them, a Frenchman named Peter German, staggered on to the track, despite the efforts of his companion to restrain him, was struck by the cow-catcher, and thrown down on the track so that the wheels passed over him, killing him instantly. The deceased was about fifty years old. No blame attaches to the engineer.

The soldier's monument of Peterborough is to be dedicated on the 17th with great ceremony.

Leonard W. Collins has been appointed Postmaster at Danville, in place of Oliver Sanborn.

Mr. French, proprietor of French's circus, bargained with two Keene men, in both senses of the word, to give them the net proceeds of his exhibition in K. on Wednesday afternoon and evening for the sum of fifteen hundred dollars. The result was a loss to Mr. French of about a thousand dollars, and a corresponding profit to the purchasers, who are now impatient for another show to come along.

Mr. David Russell of Amherst was relieved of a $50 greenback in Boston a few days since.

Mr. J. S. Merrill, formerly of Nashua, was found dead on Boston Common on the 7th. A coroner's jury returned a verdict that death was caused by congestion of the lungs and paralysis of the heart.

A fourteen pound turtle containing thirty-three eggs and a hundred in an immature state was caught at Hillsborough Bridge on the 5th and soon after became soup.

Martin M. Crooker, who was killed on the 8th by the accident on the Rutland and Burlington Railroad, was a native of Thornton's Ferry, where an aged mother, who is blind, still resides. He leaves a wife but no children, and was aged forty years.

MISTAKEN FOR A SCARECROW.—A correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial tells this scarcely credible story: To prevent depredations on the cornfield by the crow various devices are resorted to. On account of the many fatal accidents resulting of late from the careless handling of fire-arms, this wise bird generally manages not to be fooling around in the vicinity of the muzzle of guns when they go off. The hanging to a pole, planted in the cornfield, of a dead crow, is said to act frequently as a good warning to living thieves of that race. The principal objection to the plan is the difficulty of getting a specimen to hang up. A seedy gentleman of straw, arrayed in decayed garments, is often stationed on guard over the growing crop, and does well enough for a short time, but the crows are not long in forming his acquaintance and becoming on intimate terms with him. Once, however, I saw a crow badly fooled on the thing. One day, Professor Hobbs, who is generally adorned with rather mature raiment, was crossing a cornfield, and was suddenly attacked with one of these paralytic strokes of learning on the brain; as he stood, hat in hand, in the hot sun, hour after hour, pursuing a train of thought on some scientific subject, a crow, which had been watching him all the while, finally came to the conclusion that he was a genuine scarecrow, and picking up a dead mouse, which it accidentally came across, described a few majestic circles in the air, and alighted on the Professor's head to eat it (the mouse). Just then the Professor came to, and clapping his hat on with a jerk, started for home. Of course there was something of a flutter in the region of the learned man's ideas, and the crow becoming entangled in his wig, was soon on his dissecting table contributing to science.

—A six-years-old, in knickerbockers, seated in a barber's chair, and to him the hair-dresser says: "Well, my little gentleman, and how would you like your hair cut?" "Oh, like papa's, please—with a little round hole at the top."

GOVERNMENT OF SCHOOLS.—A gentleman of Walpole gives information that the school money, in several Districts of that town, was nearly thrown away last Winter, as there was such a lack of government, and the schools were so tumultuous that pupils could not be benefitted.

It is thus in many places. What are we coming to? Forty and fifty years ago there was too much government. We do not mean there was too much order and quietness. That was much better than now. But it was too compulsory. It was fear without filial regard and respect. It was the use of the rod, the ferule, cuffing ears, pulling them, pulling the hair, slitting pupils on the floor with their heels up on a bench, making them sit on nothing, and the like coarse and barbarous practices. A few now pull hair and ears, but we long since decided that our children should not go to such teachers.

Parents are less strict in discipline with their children than formerly. Some do not wish them corrected at school. That makes a part of the trouble. Some teachers are bound to please parents, if it is at the expense of the good order of pupils. Some like peace, so have a terrible war among scholars. Gen. Grant said in accepting the nomination to the Presidency, "Let us have peace," but he adhers too inflexibly to the principles of right, to have it at the sacrifice of all that is just.

Some took charge of schools while too young to control them; and some have no commanding authority in their natures and so cannot govern schools.

The subject demands attention. Parents should act. Superintending School Committees are required by law to oversee the matter, and see that teachers exercise proper discipline. And if teachers cannot enforce order and proper control, they should retire from the business, and have no part in helping the young in paths which may lead them to a life of vice, crime, disgrace and ruin. J. F.

THE EXETER AND SALISBURY R. R. At a special town meeting held in Kensington on the 6th it was voted to loan the credit of the town for 140 shares ($14,000) of the stock of the Exeter & Salisbury Railway, with the condition that the Kensington station shall be located at or near a certain point.

The aggregate amount of stock voted for by Newburyport, Exeter, Salisbury and Kensington, is $159,000, which is nearly the estimated cost of the road, exclusive of rolling stock. Not a doubt is entertained of the completion and success of the road, and operations are expected to commence very shortly.—Patriot.

—The following is a preventive of horses being teased by flies: Upon two or three small handfuls of walnut leaves pour two or three quarts of water; let it stand over night and then pour the whole into a kettle and let it boil fifteen minutes. When cold it is fit for use. Before the horse goes out of the stable moisten a sponge with the liquor and smear over those parts which are most irritable, viz: between and upon the ears, the neck, the flanks, limbs, &c.

—Mr. Jere Prescott, Superintendent of the Eastern Railroad, looks well after the comfort and convenience of the residents on the line of that road. There are now twenty-five daily trains from Boston to Lynn, eighteen to Salem, and eleven to Swampscott.

AYER'S
HAIR VIGOR,
For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.
A Dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for Preserving the Hair. Faded or gray Hair is soon restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use.
Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remains can be saved by usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor, can only benefit but not harm it.
If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

ARE YOU GOING TO PAINT?
IF SO, SELECT THE BEST, which is the
AVERILL CHEMICAL PAINT.
It has proved itself, West, North and South, to be the best Paint known. It will not peel, crack, nor chalk off, and will last twice as long as the best Lead Paints.
It is cheaper, handsomer and more elastic, than the best of other Paints. It is the most convenient Paint made, being mixed, ready for application; it dries rapidly, and retains its shade perfectly, with a beautiful surface and glossy finish, and for years retains its gloss and beauty. It is equally suitable, inside or out, for place of paper, making a smooth glossy finish, which can be cleaned with hot suds without injury.
One Gallon of Mixed Chemical Paint weighs 20 lbs. and costs $2.72, and will only cover 16 square yds, 2 coats: while one gallon of the Chemical Paint only weighs 10 lbs., and costs but $2.50, and will cover 20 square yds., 2 coats,—thus making a saving of 22 cts., per gallon, besides covering 4 yards more than Lead Paint, and will last twice as long and look far better.
The Chemical Paint is sold by the gallon in quantities to suit purchasers, in 40 different shades and pure white, and will be applied by experienced workmen and satisfaction given in every case; or in case of dissatisfaction in one year after put on, the whole cost of Paint will be refunded.
The sale of these unequalled Paints are daily increasing. Call and examine these ready mixed Paints, both in kegs, and applied to Buildings one year ago, before buying elsewhere, and save your money and money, and beautify your dwelling by using the

The Visiting Committee from the Council report:—

"At the last session of the Legislature it was understood that the net indebtedness of the State Prison was about $10,000, and an appropriation of that amount was made for its payment. On their appointment the committee advertised for the presentation of all claims against the prison outstanding April 30, 1869. The amount of those demands was found to be $14,356.36. The assets consisted of $76.02 on hand; $215.40 due for labor of convicts in the shoe-shop, and $519.14 due from the United States for board of government prisoners, making the total available assets $808.56, and the net indebtedness $13,547.80, which has been paid by the earnings of the prison and the State appropriation. April 30, 1870, the prison owes nothing, to our knowledge, and has $603.42 in available assets, consisting of $349.20 cash on hand, $159.20 due from the United States for board of prisoners, and $101.02 due from George T. Comins, the contractor."

The following statistics of the State Prison are copied from the report:—

Whole number of convicts in the prison, May 1, 1869	129
Whole number received on warrants from courts from May 1, 1868, to April 30, 1870	32

—The Maine Farmer says, when turnips, potatoes or grain of any kind is fed to sheep they should be shut away and out of sight of the feed troughs, and the provender distributed in their absence. They know not whence it comes, and will not bleat after you when passing near them with a basket, bucket or measure. Their bleating is sometimes very annoying, and can be wholly obviated by taking this precaution.

—A good crop of strap-leaf turnips may be obtained when the land is heavily manured, by scattering the seed between the rows of corn in July. If the corn has an early start it will be ripe before the turnips get much growth, and, when removed, the turnips will grow rapidly. No injury is done to the corn, and the turnip crop will cost but a trifle.

—A stranger in a printing office asked the youngest apprentice what his rule of punctuation was. "I set up as long as I can hold my breath, then I put in a comma; when I gape, I insert a semicolon; and when I want a chew of tobacco, I make a paragraph."

—In Pike county, Miss., lately, a lady living on Magee's Creek gave birth to six children and was doing well at last accounts.—Selma (Ala.) Press.

WHAT ARE
DR. J. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS.
They are not a vile fancy drink.
Made of poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Bitters," "Restorers," "Appetizers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER AND LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter, and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions and remain long unwell. $100 will be given for an incurable case, providing the bones are not destroyed by mineral poisons or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair. J. WALKER, Proprietor. R. H. McDONALD & CO., Druggists and Gen. Agents, San Francisco, Cal., and 32 and 34 Commerce St., N. Y. Sold by all Druggists and Dealers. 4wje13

THE OLD RELIABLE
NEW ENGLAND FAMILY MEDICINE.
TO BE FOUND IN EVERY VILLAGE AND TOWN IN NEW ENGLAND, IS
DODD'S NERVINE
AND INVIGORATOR.
A THOROUGH TONIC AND STOMACHIC.
DODD'S NERVINE is not a new medicine, but has been before the public for the last fifteen years. Is compounded from the best and purest drugs. Contains no OPIUM, STRYCHNINE or MERCURY in any form, and is expressly adapted to the relief and permanent cure of all forms of
NERVOUS DISEASES, &c., &c.,

Coughs,	Neuralgia,	Female Weaknesses,
Colds,	Headache,	Fainting Fits,
Fevers,	Convulsions,	Palpitation,
Agues,	Sleeplessness,	Restlessness,
Biliousness,	Dyspepsia,	Dizziness,

Constipation, Liver Complaint, Children's Troubles Diarrhœa, Consumption, &c., &c., &c.,
DODD'S NERVINE
Is a COMPLETE SPECIFIC for sleeplessness. It soothes the throbbing muscle into repose, and tranquilizes the mind. And everybody knows that good sleep is better than all medicines. And all folks that
CAN'T SLEEP NIGHTS,
Should use this truly wonderful medicine.
DODD'S NERVINE
Is one of the best remedies ever employed in the cure of the numerous and troublesome ailments known as FEMALE COMPLAINTS.
For Whooping Cough.
DODD'S NERVINE is administered with unexampled success. Mothers, remember this and save your little ones the agony of a most distressing complaint. It also works admirably in Measles, bringing out the rash well and leaving the bowels free and healthful. For the diseases which afflict CHILDREN WHEN TEETHING, nothing can furnish more instant or grateful relief. Remember, it contains no OPIUM in any form.
LOOK OUT FOR COLDS.
It is proverbial that people treat a cold (and the generally accompanying cough) as something that will cure itself; but neglect is serious and sometimes fatal. The fame of DODD'S NERVINE in the relief of colds is established. Use this standard remedy, and so far abstain from liquids of all kinds as to keep somewhat thirsty for a few days, and the worst cold will soon be gone.
DODD'S NERVINE
Is a PURE TONIC—harmonizes perfectly with the NERVE FIBRE—gives tone and vigor to the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, and other viscera—and supplies FRESH LIFE for the waste that is constantly taking place. It operates soothingly—is as pleasant to take as any wine, and with SLEEP AND GOOD DIGESTION, which it promotes, restores the afflicted to perfect health of body and quietness of mind. It contains no opium, mercury or strychnine, (so often used for nervous complaints,) and is wholly free from any deleterious drugs whatever. Tens of thousands are testifying to its curative power. my17ww

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 15, 1870.

Newsgrams.

The total loss of the British gun-boat Stanley, in the China sea, is reported. The commander, Wm. F. L. Elwyn, and 43 of the crew perished. The Stanley was a screw steamer of 300 tons burden, 80 horse power, and carried three guns.

Mrs. Sarah Cook of Wallingford, Conn., has had removed from her breast successively five cancers. Now one has turned inward and severed the œsophagus of the stomach. Up to Wednesday of last week she had lived 34 days without taking a morsel of food. Her pain is relieved by injecting morphine into the veins.

A letter from Havana to New York says the George B. Upton landed her cargo all right, and the captain-general's report of disaster was much exaggerated.

A Peruvian loan of $60,000,000 was lately placed in the Paris market at 82.

Governor Holden of North Carolina is organizing troops to suppress the Kuklux.

Five car-loads of Chinamen, on their way to Alabama, passed Cheyenne, Sunday.

THE NEW YORK MUSICAL FESTIVAL, in honor of the centennial anniversary of Beethoven's birth, commenced on Monday. The Festival is held in the Empire Skating Rink and about 6,000 people were present at the opening. Gilmore, Zerrahn, Parepa-Rosa and the Boston Handel & Haydn Society formed the nucleus, and without them the whole affair would have been a farce. The New Yorkers were utterly demoralized by Gilmore's band and the anvil and cannon performance in the Star Spangled Banner. They yelled and howled for an encore and got it. Madame Rosa's glorious voice rang out clearly high above the chorus. The instrumentation throughout the programme was good, while time and tune was lost in confusion in some pieces. The orchestra consisted of 300 and the chorus numbered 1500. The Festival was wholly inferior to the Boston Jubilee of last year.

THE NATIONAL CAMP MEETING is to be held in Hamilton, Mass., on the line of the Eastern Railroad, from June 21 to July 1. This meeting is national in its scope, and a cordial welcome will be extended to Christians of all denominations.

The meeting will be under the management of the National Camp-meeting Association, and will be ably conducted. Distinguished ministers and laymen from various parts of the country will be present, and it is expected that the preaching will be of the highest order by representative men, and altogether the preaching, singing, speaking, and social meetings will be such as can alone be found at these great religious gatherings.

The grove in which the meeting is to be held is 22 miles from Boston, and by the recent construction of a branch road, of a mile or more in length, passengers are landed without a change of cars, within three minutes' walk of the preachers' stand.

The grove is protected by a high picket fence, and no admission can be had except by the gates. These gates are to be closed every night at 10½ o'clock, and opened every morning, except Sunday, at 5 o'clock. All persons who wish to enjoy the Sabbath in the grove must be within the enclosure before 10 1-2 o'clock, Saturday night. No cars or public coaches will run to or from the ground on the Sabbath.

The amplest facilities will be provided so that board, of excellent quality at very reasonable rates, may be secured either by the week, day, or single meal. There will also be a restaurant where meals can be obtained on the European plan, and a store where bread, groceries, provisions, and wood for private cooking, etc., etc., can be obtained. Excellent police, post office, and medical facilities will be upon the ground.

Lodging can be obtained for 50 cents for a single night, or $3 00 for the meeting.

The fares on nearly all the railroads and principal lines of travel in New England, have been reduced, so that all may avail themselves of the privileges of the meeting.

☞ The Republican caucus for the nomination of candidates for Secretary of State, State Treasurer, State Printer, &c., will be held at Concord this evening. We shall receive the result by telegraph for to-morrow's paper.

NAVAL LINE AND STAFF DIFFICULTY.

Advocates of line pretensions in opposition to the claims of our staff officers to a defined position or rank in the naval service, frequently refer to the customs and practices of the British navy, as conclusive reasons for establishing points in the organization of our own, and too often misrepresent or misstate such customs in order to support their cause. A gentleman late of the British navy, writing to a friend, says:

"By perseverance you will eventually succeed. The United States navy is the British navy petrified. Strange to say, the old country in this instance has advanced beyond the new. On the other hand, the army of the new country is in advance of all others as respects medical arrangements, and the excellent results are telling on the counsels of the old countries. For instance: in the naval hospitals of England, the executive chief (the term executive is synonymous with line) has been removed, and the entire charge (executive as well as medical) has been given to the principal medical officer of the hospital. Respecting the first lieutenant (executive officer) requiring so much submission, the following is a remark sent to me in a note from an officer of rank in the British navy: 'I think that with us the first lieutenant holds quite a different position when the captain is on board, from what he does in the U. S. navy.'"

When the captain is on board, the British first lieutenant has the precedence of his lineal rank exclusively; but when the captain is not on board, then the first lieutenant becomes for the time the commanding officer, and receives the precedence which pertains to the office of commander of the ship. In other words, during the temporary absence of the captain the first lieutenant becomes his locum tenens, and exercises his authority.

Our plan of government for the states and the nation, our common schools and our total separation of Church and State, are American; but our navy is not. We have merely copied from the British navy; and not the British navy of to-day, either—we still hold on to the abuses that existed in the British service fifty years ago, besides adding a few of our own. We have no need to follow England in naval more than in other affairs; in fact, many of the triumphs of our navy have been won by departures from British precedent. The application of correct sights to heavy guns was not "according to British custom," but it gave us victories; and the monitors were not British—and whatever may be said of them now, they did their work during the rebellion.

If the British are so foolish (which is doubtful) as to put line officers in positions which they cannot fill, that is a poor reason indeed for our doing so. Our hospitals on shore are managed by medical men; our merchants carry on vast business transactions; our machine shops turn out good engines, and noble ships are launched from private yards; yet none of them are blessed with an "executive" line officer, to see that they do rightly what he knows nothing at all about. Line officers are as much out of place when set to interfere with the departments of surgery, construction and engineering in the navy, as they would be in the Massachusetts General Hospital or the Novelty Iron Works. If our staff officers know their business, let them do it; if they are proved incapable, get better men. But if our surgeons, paymasters and engineers are unfit for their positions, it is quite certain that the gentlemen of the line cannot instruct them. Americanizing the navy will benefit both the service and the country.

OLD TIMES CHRONICLE, No. 5.

BY UNCLE JOSEPH.

NOTTINGHAM SQUARE.—The Bartlett Family.—Hon. Thomas Bartlett was a prominent citizen of the place. We find him there about the commencement of the Revolutionary war, probably having been there some time before. His residence was not on the Square, but north, perhaps 75 rods, part way down the hill. No dwelling is there now.

Mr. Bartlett was son of Israel Bartlett of Newbury, Mass. A brother was Hon. Israel Bartlett of Haverhill, N. H.

His youngest sister, Mary, became the first wife of Gen. Henry Dearborn. The General was at first a physician, and practiced at Nottingham; but when the war commenced he went into the service.

Thomas Bartlett went into the service, was Lieut. Col. under Stark at the capture of Burgoyne, in Oct., 1777, and in 1780 commanded a regiment at West Point, where Arnold proved a traitor. During a part of the war he was a member of the N. H. Committee of Safety. After the war was over, he was Representative in the Legislature, and in 1789 and '90 was Speaker. He was Judge of the Court of Common Pleas from 1790 to 1805, and died June 30, 1807, aged 59.

The late Hon. Bradbury Bartlett was son of the above, and lived on the Square, kept store and tavern, and was one of the Selectmen a number of years; from a Capt. in the Militia, he went up through various grades to Brig. Gen.; was Senator in the Legislature in 1831 and '32, and Judge of the Court of Common Pleas 9 years, ending in 1851. He died September last, aged 86.

Josiah Bartlett of Lee, was brother of Bradbury, and a State Councillor in 1844 and '45.

Enoch Bartlett, son of Bradbury, studied law, practiced in Epping, and Lawrence, Mass., was the first Mayor of Lawrence, and died in Nottingham a few years since.

Greenleaf C. Bartlett, nephew of Bradbury, is a lawyer, practiced first in Salem, N. H., then in Derry, which town he has represented two years in the Legislature. He was born in Nottingham.

Thomas B. Bartlett, son of Judge Bartlett, has been Town Clerk of Nottingham. Harrison W. Bartlett, another son, has been Town Clerk, one of the Selectmen, and in 1866 and '67 was a Representative of the town.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Three Requisites of Health.

If all the sickly people in the world were to take to their beds, and demand medical treatment, their would not be doctors enough to attend them nor a sufficient number of the robust to nurse them. Three conditions are absolutely essential to health, viz; a good appetite, easy digestion, and the ability to sleep soundly. Seven-eights of the many thousands who suffer from indigestion, yet do not labor under serious disease, complain that they "can't eat," that their stomachs are "out of order," or that they "don't sleep well." For this class of ailments few persons think of calling in a physician. Nor it is necessary, inasmuch as a course of Hostetter's Bitters, will certainly relieve the derangements of the stomach, the liver, and the nervous system, from which want of appetite, indigestion and sleeplessness arise.

This excellent vegetable tonic and corrective is also a delightful anodyne. Insomnia (or incapacity to sleep) which has resisted all the ordinary remedies, will yield readily to a dose of this pleasant sedative taken just before retiring to rest. In ordinary medical practice it is usual to give a stomachic, an aperient, an invigorant, a soporific or an antiseptic, as the case for the time being may seem more particularly to require; but in this grand restorative all these medicinal properties, and many others are blended in due proportion. Thus, the digestion is stimulated, while the bowels are regulated, the liver toned, the strength recruited, the nerves calmed, the fluids purified and the circulation equalized.

It is believed that there is no other restorative and regulating medicine in the world which acts so beneficially and agreeably upon all the assimilating and secretive organs at the same time, and to all who lack the three fundamental requisites of health and enjoyment, a vigorous appetite, sound digestion and refreshing sleep, it is confidently recommended as a specific.

CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosciusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively, in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung disease in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says: "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says; I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

Physicians do not recommend a medicine which has no merits, what they say about

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM,

Can be taken as a nut. Let all afflicted test it at once. Sold by all Medicine Dealers.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which lead the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12

"Children's Lives Saved for 50 Cts."

THOUSANDS OF CHILDREN DIE ANNUALLY OF CROUP. Now, Mothers, if you would spend 50 cents, and always have a bottle of DR. TOBIAS' VENETIAN LINIMENT in the house, you never need fear losing your little one when attacked with this complaint. It is now 22 years since I have put up my Liniment, and never heard of a child dying of Croup when my Liniment was used; but hundreds of cures have been reported to me, and many state if it was $10 per bottle they would not be without it. Besides which, it is a certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throat, Swellings, Mumps, Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Spasms, Old Sores and Pains in the Limbs, Back, Chest. No one who once tries it is ever without it. It is warranted perfectly safe to take internally. Full directions with every bottle. Sold by the Druggists and Storekeepers in the United States. A RADICAL REVOLUTION

Has been accomplished in hair dyes. The horrible compounds containing LEAD, SALT and SULPHUR are discarded. The leading chemists implore the public not to use them, and Professor Chilton, whose reputation is second to that of no analytic chemist in America, has recommended

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye,

a PERFECTLY INNOCUOUS ARTICLE, which may be used without fear. Remember, it is the only one that has been analyzed and found wholesome. Its effects are instantaneous, and the color it imparts natural.
